320 Maintained schools to have delegated budgets

TEXT AND NOTES 8-11--School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 49(2), (3) now s 49(2), (2A) (substituted by Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 5 para 4). A new school must now have a delegated budget from a date determined in accordance with regulations: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 49(2). Such regulations may enable the date that would otherwise apply by virtue of the regulations to be varied in accordance with the regulations, on the application of the local education authority, by the authority's schools forum or by the Secretary of State, and may make provision about the respective powers of the schools forum and the Secretary of State in relation to any application to vary that date: s 49(2A). The power of the Secretary of State under these provisions is exercisable in relation to Wales by the National Assembly for Wales: see Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 180.

321. Effect of financial delegation.

Where a maintained school<sup>1</sup> has a delegated budget<sup>2</sup> in respect of the whole or part of a funding period<sup>3</sup> the local education authority<sup>4</sup> must secure that in respect of that period there is available to be spent by the governing body<sup>5</sup>:

- 696 (1) where the school has a delegated budget in respect of the whole of that period, a sum equal to the school's budget share<sup>6</sup> for the period<sup>7</sup>; or
- 697 (2) where the school has a delegated budget in respect of only part of that period, a sum equal to that portion of the school's budget share for the period which has not been spent<sup>8</sup>.

The times at which, and the manner in which, any amounts are made available by the authority to the governing body in respect of any such sum are such as may be provided by or under the financial scheme<sup>9</sup>. Subject to any provision made by or under the scheme, the governing body may spend any such amounts as it thinks fit for any purposes of the school<sup>10</sup> or (subject also to any prescribed conditions) for such purposes as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'maintained school' for these purposes see PARA 312 note 1 ante. For the meaning of 'maintained school' generally see PARA 94 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'school having a delegated budget' see PARA 320 ante.

The amendments made to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(1) by the Education Act 2005 Sch 18 para 8(a), (b) have effect as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 November 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 8) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until such a day is appointed in relation to Wales, the words 'funding period' are to be read as 'financial year', and the words 'that period' are to be read as 'that year'. For the meaning of 'financial year' see PARA 68 note 9 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under s 50 (as amended) may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 2 para (l). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 November 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 8) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until such a day is appointed in relation to Wales, the words 'that period' are to be read as 'that year'.

8 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(1)(b) (amended by the Education Act 2005 s 117, Sch 18 para 8(c)). The amendments made to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(1)(b) by the Education Act 2005 Sch 18 para 8(c) have effect as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 November 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 8) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. 10 Ibid s 50(3)(a). See note 5 supra. In s 50(3), 'purposes of the school' does not include purposes wholly referable to the provision of:

- 85 (1) facilities and services under the Education Act 2002 s 27 (power of governing body to provide community facilities etc: see PARA 232 ante);
- 86 (2) part-time education suitable to the requirements of persons of any age over compulsory school age; or
- 87 (3) full-time education suitable to the requirements of persons who have attained the age of 19, but any such purposes may be prescribed by regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(3)(b) (see the text to note 11 infra): s 50(4) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 40, Sch 3 para 3). As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante. 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations; and 'regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under s 50(4) (as amended).

The governing body may delegate to the head teacher, to such extent as may be permitted by or under the scheme, its powers under s 50(3)(a), (b) (see the text to note 11 infra) in relation to any amount such as is mentioned in s 50(3)(a), (b): s 50(6). The governors of a school will not incur any personal liability in respect of anything done in good faith in the exercise or purported exercise of their powers under s 50(3) or s 50(6): s 50(7). As to the meaning of 'head teacher' see PARA 93 note 13 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). See further note 11 infra. However, nothing in s 50(3) may be read as authorising the payment of allowances to governors otherwise than in accordance with regulations under the Education Act 2002 s 19 (see PARAS 203, 251 ante) or, in the case of temporary governors of a new school, regulations under s 34(5) (see PARAS 212, 263 ante): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(5) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215(1), Sch 21 para 101). For the meaning of 'new school' see PARA 312 note 2 ante. As to new schools generally see PARAS 202, 212, 263 ante.

11 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 50(3)(b). See notes 5, 10 supra. As to the purposes prescribed for the expenditure of the budget share of a maintained school in England by its governing body see the School Budget Shares (Prescribed Purposes) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/378, reg 3 (amended by SI 2004/444).

322. Suspension of financial delegation for mismanagement etc.

Where it appears to the local education authority<sup>1</sup> that the governing body<sup>2</sup> of a school which has a delegated budget<sup>3</sup>:

- 698 (1) has been guilty of a substantial or persistent failure to comply with any delegation requirement or restriction<sup>4</sup>;
- 699 (2) is not managing in a satisfactory manner the expenditure or appropriation of the sum equal to the school's budget share for the year or a sum equal to that portion of the school's budget share for the year which has not been spent<sup>5</sup>; or
- 700 (3) is not managing in a satisfactory manner any expenditure, or sums received, in the exercise of the power<sup>6</sup> to provide community facilities<sup>7</sup>, then the authority may suspend the governing body's right to a delegated budget<sup>8</sup> by giving the governing body not less than one month's notice of the suspension, unless by reason of any gross incompetence or mismanagement on the part of the governing body or other emergency it appears to the authority to be necessary to give the governing body a shorter period of notice, or to give the governing body a notice suspending its right to such a budget with immediate effect<sup>9</sup>.

The notice must specify the grounds for the suspension, giving particulars:

- 701 (a) of any alleged failure on the part of the governing body to comply with any delegation requirement or restriction<sup>10</sup>;
- 702 (b) of any alleged mismanagement on its part<sup>11</sup>; and
- 703 (c) if applicable, of the basis upon which a period of notice of less than one month was given<sup>12</sup>.

The notice must also inform the governing body of its right to appeal against the suspension<sup>13</sup> and of the time within which such an appeal may be brought<sup>14</sup>.

A copy of the notice must be given to the head teacher<sup>15</sup> of the school at the same time as the notice is given to the governing body<sup>16</sup>. The authority must send a copy of the notice to the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup>.

Any notice given under these provisions must be in writing<sup>18</sup>.

- 704 (1) must before the beginning of every funding period<sup>5</sup> review any suspension of financial delegation for mismanagement<sup>6</sup> which is for the time being in force, unless the suspension took effect less than two months before the beginning of that period<sup>7</sup>; and

324. Appeal against suspension or refusal to revoke it.

A governing body<sup>1</sup> may appeal to the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> against the imposition of any suspension<sup>3</sup> of its right to a delegated budget<sup>4</sup>, or any refusal of a local education authority<sup>5</sup> to revoke any such suspension on a review<sup>6</sup>. Such an appeal must be brought within the period of two months beginning with the date on which the governing body receives the authority's notice<sup>7</sup>. However, if the authority's notice failed to comply with the statutory requirements relating to such notices<sup>8</sup>, such an appeal may be brought at any time before the end of the period of two months beginning with the date on which the governing body is informed by the authority in writing of its right of appeal<sup>9</sup>.

On an appeal, the Secretary of State may allow or reject the appeal, and he must have regard, in making his determination, to the gravity of the default on the part of the governing body and the likelihood of its continuing or recurring<sup>10</sup>. Where the Secretary of State allows an appeal, the suspension of the governing body's right to a delegated budget is revoked from a date determined by the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup>.

325. Effect of suspension of right to delegated budget.

During any period when a governing body's<sup>1</sup> right to a delegated budget<sup>2</sup> is suspended<sup>3</sup> the local education authority's<sup>4</sup> duty to make available to be spent by the governing body a sum equal to the school's budget share for the year, or to that portion of the school's budget share for the year which has not been spent<sup>5</sup>, does not apply in relation to the school<sup>6</sup>, but the authority may permit the governing body to take such decisions as to the spending of sums to be met from the school's budget share<sup>7</sup> as the authority considers appropriate<sup>8</sup>. Where<sup>9</sup> the governing body has consequently decided that a particular sum should be spent, it must, in spending that sum, comply with such reasonable conditions as the authority thinks fit to impose<sup>10</sup>. The governing body may, to such extent as it may specify, delegate its powers in relation to that sum to the head teacher<sup>11</sup>.

- 709 (2) to prepare prescribed financial statements or reports<sup>5</sup>;
- 710 (3) to comply with prescribed conditions with respect to audit<sup>6</sup>; and

Such regulations may:

- 712 (a) impose on the governing body requirements relating to: (i) resources held by the governing body; and (ii) other resources whose application is controlled by the governing body<sup>8</sup>; and
- 713 (b) provide that for the purposes of the regulations any resources which, although not held by the governing body, appear to the local education authority to be available for the purposes of the school or for the purposes of the maintenance of any part of the school premises<sup>9</sup> are to be taken to fall within head (ii) above unless the governing body satisfies the local education authority that the governing body does not control the application of those resources<sup>10</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>11</sup> may require a local education authority to give him copies of accounts or other documents received by the authority from a governing body in accordance with such regulations<sup>12</sup>. The regulations may also prescribe the form or manner in which, the period by reference to which, and the time within which, anything required by the regulations must be done<sup>13</sup>. NOTE 1--SI 2003/373 further amended: SI 2006/437, SI 2007/599, SI 2008/46.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(vi) Financing of Maintained Schools/327. Financial statements of local education authorities.

327. Financial statements of local education authorities.

Before the beginning of each prescribed period<sup>1</sup> the local education authority<sup>2</sup> must prepare a financial statement containing such information relating to its planned expenditure in that period as may be prescribed<sup>3</sup>. After the end of each prescribed period<sup>4</sup> the local education authority must prepare a statement containing such information with respect to<sup>5</sup>:

- 717 (1) the planned expenditure in that period specified in the financial statement prepared by the authority<sup>6</sup>;
- 718 (2) expenditure actually incurred, or treated by the authority as having been incurred, by it in the period<sup>7</sup>;
- 719 (3) any other resources allocated by the authority in the period to schools maintained by it<sup>8</sup> during any part of the period<sup>9</sup>; and
- 720 (4) accountable resources<sup>10</sup> held, received or expended in the period by any person in relation to a school maintained by the authority<sup>11</sup>, as may be prescribed<sup>12</sup>.

Both such statements must be prepared in such form, and be published in such manner and at such times, as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>. The authority must furnish the governing body<sup>14</sup> and head teacher<sup>15</sup> of each school maintained by it with a copy of each financial statement prepared by the authority or, if regulations so provide, with a copy of such part or parts of it as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>. A governing body provided with such a copy must secure that a copy of it is available for inspection, at all reasonable times and free of charge, at the school<sup>17</sup>.

1 The periods prescribed for the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 52(1) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales): (1) must consist of one or more funding periods; and (2) may include funding periods in respect of which, by virtue of their inclusion in one or more earlier periods prescribed for the purposes of s 52(1) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales), information relating to planned expenditure has previously been required under s 52(1) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales): s 52(1A) (added by the Education Act 2005 s 117, Sch 18 para 10(1), (3)). For the meaning of 'funding period' see PARA 312 note 3 ante.

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 52(1A) (as added) is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2005 ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 November 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 8) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

330. Excluded pupils.

Where a pupil<sup>1</sup> is permanently excluded from any school<sup>2</sup> maintained by a local education authority<sup>3</sup> ('the old authority') and, in the funding period<sup>4</sup> in which the exclusion first takes effect, he is subsequently provided with education by another local education authority ('the new authority'), whether at a school maintained by that authority or otherwise than at school<sup>5</sup>, the old authority must pay to the new authority, in connection with the provision of education for that pupil in that funding period, such amount, if any, as is payable in accordance with regulations<sup>6</sup>.

Where a pupil is permanently excluded from any school maintained by a local education authority and, in the funding period in which the exclusion first takes effect, the following events subsequently occur<sup>7</sup>:

- 721 (1) he is first provided by another local education authority ('the intermediate authority') with education in a pupil referral unit<sup>8</sup> or otherwise than at school<sup>9</sup>; and
- 722 (2) at any time afterwards he is provided with education by a local education authority other than the intermediate authority ('the last authority'), whether at a school maintained by that authority or otherwise than at school<sup>10</sup>, then, in connection with the provision of the education mentioned in head (2) above, the intermediate authority must pay the last authority such amount, if any, as is payable in accordance with regulations<sup>11</sup>.

Any dispute as to whether any local education authority is entitled to be paid any amount<sup>12</sup> by any other such authority must be determined by the Secretary of State<sup>13</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante. As to exclusion from school see PARA 562 et seq post. Regulations may prescribe the time when the permanent exclusion of a pupil is to be regarded as taking effect for the purposes of this provision: Education Act 1996 s 494(5) (s 494 substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 57, 128). 'Regulations' means regulations made by the Secretary of State: Education Act 1996 s 579(1). The function of making regulations under s 494 (as substituted; as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales), so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, is transferred to the National Assembly for Wales: Education Act 2002 s 208(2). The function mentioned in s 208(2) is to be treated as having been transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by an Order in Council under the Government of Wales Act 1998 s 22 (transfer of ministerial functions: see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS); and, accordingly, the transfer may be revoked or varied by an Order in Council under s 22: Education Act 2002 s 208(3). See also PARA 53 note 21 ante. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante; and as to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. For the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante. As to the making of regulations under the Education Act 1996 generally see PARA 40 note 5 ante.

As to the time when the permanent exclusion of a pupil is to be regarded under regulations as taking effect for the purposes of s 494 (as substituted; as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) see the Education (Amount to Follow Permanently Excluded Pupil) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/495, reg 4 (amended, in relation to England, by SI 2004/402; and, in relation to Wales, by SI 2003/3227).

3 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

4 For these purposes, 'funding period' has the meaning given by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 45(1B) (added in relation to England; prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see PARA 312 note 4 ante): see the Education Act 1996 s 494(6) (added by the Education Act 2005 s 117, Sch 18 para 5(1), (3)).

The Education Act 1996 s 494(6) (as added) is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2005 ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 November 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 8) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

5 Education Act 1996 s 494(1) (as substituted (see note 2 supra); and amended by the Education Act 2005 Sch 18 para 5(1), (2)). The amendment made to the Education Act 1996 s 494(1) (as substituted) by the Education Act 2005 Sch 18 para 5(1), (2) has effect as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 November 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 8) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until such a day is appointed in relation to Wales, the words 'funding period' are to be read as 'financial year'. For the meaning of 'financial year' see PARA 68 note 9 ante.

6 Education Act 1996 s 494(2) (as substituted (see note 2 supra); and amended by the Education Act 2005 s 117, Sch 18 para 5(1), (2)). The amendment made to the Education Act 1996 s 494(2) (as substituted) by the Education Act 2005 Sch 18 para 5(1), (2) has effect as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). NOTE 2--Education Act 2002 s 208A (adjustment between local education authorities and the Young People's Learning Agency for England (see PARA 27A)) added: Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 Sch 6 para 55.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(vii) Recoupment/331. Adjustment between local education authorities.

331. Adjustment between local education authorities.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may provide, in relation to cases where any provision for education<sup>2</sup> is made by a local education authority<sup>3</sup> ('the providing authority') in respect of a person who belongs to the area of another local education authority, for requiring or authorising the other authority (the 'home authority') to pay to the providing authority such amount as the authorities may agree, or failing agreement, such amount as may be determined by or under the regulations<sup>4</sup>. The regulations may provide for the amounts payable by one authority to another:

- 723 (1) to reflect the whole or any part of the average costs incurred by local education authorities in the provision of education, whether in England and Wales as a whole or in any particular area or areas<sup>5</sup>; and
- 724 (2) to be based on figures for average costs determined by such body or bodies representing local education authorities, or on such other figures relating to costs so incurred, as the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the National Assembly for Wales considers appropriate<sup>6</sup>.

Regulations made for these purposes in relation to Wales by the Assembly may provide for the amounts so payable, in such cases as may be specified in or determined in accordance with the regulations, to be such amounts as may be determined<sup>7</sup>: (a) where the providing authority and the home authority are both in Wales, by the Assembly<sup>8</sup>; or (b) where the providing authority is in Wales and the home authority is in England, by the Assembly with the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>9</sup>. Any dispute between local education authorities in Wales as to whether one of them is entitled to be paid any amount by another under the regulations must be determined by the Assembly<sup>10</sup>. Any dispute between a providing authority in Wales and a home authority in England as to whether the providing authority is entitled to be paid any amount by the home authority under the regulations must be determined by the Assembly with the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup>.

For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante. As to the making of regulations under the Education Act 2002 generally see PARA 79 note 2 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under s 207.

Notwithstanding the coming into force of the repeal of the Education Act 1996 s 492 (ie on 1 April 2003 in relation to England (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 4 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/124, art 4) and on 9 January 2004 in relation to Wales (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 3) (Wales) Order 2003, SI 2003/2961, art 7, Schedule Pt IV)), during the period beginning on 9 January 2004 and ending immediately before the beginning of the day on which regulations made by the National Assembly for Wales under the Education Act 2002 s 207 come into force, the Education (Inter-authority Recoupment) Regulations 1994, SI 1994/3251, are to continue to have effect in relation to Wales as though they were made by the Assembly under the Education Act 2002 s 207 (subject to a transitional amendment regarding the Secretary of State and National Assembly for Wales): see the Education Act 2002 (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) (No 2) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2959, reg 9.

UPDATE

333-353 Staffing of Particular Categories of Schools in England

SI 2003/1963 replaced: School Staffing (England) Regulations 2009, SI 2009/2680. The 2009 Regulations make general provision for the delegation of authority by the governing body of a school (reg 4), the management and performance of the head teacher (regs 5, 6), and the conduct, discipline and capability of staff (regs 7, 8). At least one person involved in the interviewing of job applicants at a school must be trained in safer recruitment techniques: reg 9. Provision is made for the appointment of staff in community, voluntary controlled, community special, and maintained nursery schools (regs 12-18, Sch 2), including requirements as to identity checks and the obtaining of enhanced criminal record certificates in respect of appointees. Provision is also made for the suspension and dismissal of staff in such schools (regs 19, 20), the local education authority's entitlement to offer advice at all proceedings relating to the selection or dismissal of a teacher (reg 14), and the appointment of school meals staff (reg 21). Where a member of staff who was appointed before 12 May 2006 moves from a post which did not bring him regularly into contact with children or young persons to a post which does, the governing body must obtain an enhanced criminal record certificate in respect of the person before, or as soon as practicable after, the move: reg 22. Corresponding provision is made in relation to foundation, voluntary aided, and foundation special schools: regs 23-33, Sch 2. The appointment of head teachers for schools of Roman Catholic religious orders is dealt with in reg 34, collaboration between schools in regs 35-39, and the staffing of new schools in regs 40-44.

The matters within the SSSNB's remit relate to the remuneration of school support staff or conditions of employment relating to the duties or working time of school support staff: Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 228(1). A person is within the definition of 'school support staff' if he (1) is employed by a local education authority in England or the governing body of a school maintained by a local education authority in England, under a contract of employment providing for him to work wholly at a school or schools maintained by a local education authority in England; and (2) is not a school teacher, or a person of a prescribed description; 'school teacher' means a person who is a school teacher for the purposes of Education Act 2002 s 122 (see PARA 864): see Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 ss 240, 241, School Support Staff Negotiating Body (Excluded Persons) Regulations 2010, SI 2010/856. The Secretary of State may include or exclude matters by order: see Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 228(2). The Secretary of State may also refer matters within the SSSNB's remit for consideration by it: see Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 229. The SSSNB may also consider and reach agreement on other matters within its remit and submit any agreement it reaches to the Secretary of State: see Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 230. Where the SSSNB submits an agreement to the Secretary of State, he may either ratify the agreement or refer it back for reconsideration (see Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 ss 231-233), and in the absence of an SSSNB agreement on a matter the Secretary of State has specified powers (see Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 234). Provision is made for the effect of orders by the Secretary of State ratifying agreements submitted by the SSSNB: see Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 ss 235-237. 342. Staffing of schools on suspension of delegated budget.

If at any time a community school<sup>1</sup>, a voluntary controlled school<sup>2</sup>, a community special school<sup>3</sup> or a maintained nursery school<sup>4</sup> does not have a delegated budget<sup>5</sup>, the usual provisions relating to the staffing at such schools<sup>6</sup> do not apply and the following provisions apply instead<sup>7</sup>.

In such circumstances, the arrangements for the staffing of the school are to be determined by the local education authority<sup>8</sup>, and the authority may appoint, suspend and dismiss teachers and other staff at the school as it thinks fit<sup>9</sup>. The authority must, in connection with the exercise of these functions<sup>10</sup>, consult the governing body to such extent as it thinks fit<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to community schools see PARA 102 et seq ante. For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; definition applied by virtue of the Education Act 2002 s 212(2), (3).

2 As to voluntary controlled schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

3 As to community special schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

4 For the meaning of 'maintained nursery school' see PARA 98 note 3 ante.

5 I.e. by virtue of any suspension under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 17 (as amended) (see PARA 1269 post), or s 51, Sch 15 (as amended) (see PARAS 322-325 ante). In the Education Act 2002 Pt 3 Ch 1 (ss 19-40) (as amended): (1) references to a school having a delegated budget are references to the governing body of the school being entitled to manage the school's budget share; and (2) where a school has a delegated budget the governing body is accordingly said to have a right to a delegated budget: s 39(2). As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante. 'Budget share' has the same meaning as in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt II (ss 20-83) (as amended) (see PARA 312 ante); Education Act 2002 s 39(1).

6 I.e. the regulations made under ibid s 35(4) (currently in force in relation to England only) (see PARA 333 et seq ante).

7 Ibid s 35(1), (7).

Section 35 is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 April 2003 for the purposes of s 35(4), (5) (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 4 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/124, art 4) and 1 September 2003 for the purposes of the Education Act 2002 s 35(1)-(3), (6)-(8) (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/1667, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

8 Education Act 2002 Sch 2 para 1. As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. Schedule 2 Pt 1 is to be brought into force by order made under s 216(4) as from a day to be appointed. At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

Schedule 2 Pt 1 (not yet in force) applies also where a proposed school which will be a community, voluntary controlled, community special or maintained nursery school does not have a delegated budget (School Staffing (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1963, reg 36); and has effect for that purpose as if: (1) any reference to a 'governing body' were a reference to a temporary governing body; and (2) any reference to a 'governor' were a reference to a temporary governor (reg 33). As to temporary governing bodies and temporary governors see PARA 212 ante. As to proposed schools see PARA 131 et seq ante.

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 127(6)(q) (as added) is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 September 2003 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/1667, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

9 Education Act 2002 Sch 2 para 2. In relation to teachers at a voluntary controlled school who are reserved teachers within the meaning of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 58 (as amended) (appointment and dismissal of certain teachers at schools with a religious character: see PARA 388 post), the Education Act 2002 Sch 2 para 2 (not yet in force) has effect subject to the provisions of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 58 (as amended): Education Act 2002 Sch 2 para 4. The governing body<sup>1</sup> of a foundation school<sup>2</sup>, a voluntary aided school<sup>3</sup> or a foundation special school<sup>4</sup> must notify the authority<sup>5</sup> of any vacancy<sup>6</sup> for the head teacher<sup>7</sup>, and, where it identifies the post of deputy head teacher as one to be filled, that post<sup>8</sup>.

The governing body must advertise any such vacancy or post in such manner as it considers appropriate<sup>9</sup>; and must appoint a selection panel consisting of at least three of its members:

- 761 (1) to select for interview such applicants for the post as it thinks fit and, where the post is that of head teacher, notify the authority in writing of the names of the applicants so selected<sup>10</sup>;
- 762 (2) to interview such of those applicants as attend for the purpose<sup>11</sup>; and
- 763 (3) where it considers it appropriate, to recommend to the governing body for approval one of the applicants interviewed by it<sup>12</sup>.

If within a period of seven days beginning with the date when it receives notification under head (1) above, the authority makes written representations to the selection panel that any applicant is not a suitable person for the appointment, the selection panel must consider those representations, and where it decides to recommend for appointment any person about whom representations have been made, notify the authority in writing of its reasons<sup>13</sup>.

Subject to any person appointed meeting all relevant staff qualification requirements<sup>14</sup>, the governing body may appoint the person recommended by the selection panel to the vacancy or the post to be filled<sup>15</sup>. If the selection panel does not recommend a person to the governing body<sup>16</sup>, or if the governing body declines to approve the person recommended by the selection panel<sup>17</sup>, the selection panel may select another person for appointment<sup>18</sup>.

Subject to any person appointed meeting all relevant staff qualification requirements<sup>19</sup>, if the governing body has good reason not to advertise and conduct a selection process to fill the vacancy or post in accordance with the above provisions<sup>20</sup>, the governing body may appoint such other person it has identified to fill the vacancy or post to be filled<sup>21</sup>.

The authority is entitled to advise the governing body in relation to the exercise of any of the governing body's functions of appointment and engagement of any teacher, to the extent provided by, and subject to, any relevant agreement<sup>22</sup>. In the absence of a relevant agreement, it is for the Secretary of State<sup>23</sup> to determine the extent to which the authority is entitled to advise the governing body in relation to the exercise of any of those functions<sup>24</sup>. The governing body, or any other person to whom the functions in question have been delegated, must consider any advice given by the authority pursuant to an entitlement under these provisions<sup>25</sup>. ### 349. Suspension of staff.

Both the governing body<sup>1</sup> of a foundation school<sup>2</sup>, a voluntary aided school<sup>3</sup> or a foundation special school<sup>4</sup> and the head teacher<sup>5</sup> have power to suspend<sup>6</sup> any person employed or engaged otherwise than under a contract of employment to work at the school<sup>7</sup> where, in the opinion of the governing body or (as the case may be) the head teacher, his suspension is required<sup>8</sup>. In the case of support staff<sup>12</sup> at a foundation, voluntary aided or foundation special school employed, or engaged otherwise than under a contract of employment, by the authority<sup>13</sup>, the same procedure applies except that the governing body or head teacher must, when exercising the power to suspend, immediately inform the authority as well as the head teacher or (as the case may be) governing body; and the governing body must, on ending a suspension, immediately inform the authority as well as the head teacher<sup>14</sup>.

350. Dismissal of staff.

Where the governing body<sup>1</sup> of a foundation<sup>2</sup>, voluntary aided<sup>3</sup> or foundation special school<sup>4</sup> determines that any person employed or engaged by the authority<sup>5</sup> to work as support staff<sup>6</sup> at the school should cease to work there, it must notify the authority in writing of its determination and the reasons for it<sup>7</sup>. If the person concerned is employed or engaged to work solely at the school and does not resign, the authority must, before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which such notification is given, either:

- 772 (1) give him such notice terminating his contract with the authority as is required under that contract<sup>8</sup>; or
- 773 (2) terminate that contract without notice if the circumstances are such that it is entitled to do so by reason of his conduct<sup>9</sup>.

If the person concerned is not employed or engaged by the authority to work solely at the school, the authority must require him to cease to work at the school<sup>10</sup>.

The authority is entitled to advise the governing body in relation to the exercise of the governing body's function of dismissal of any teacher, to the extent provided by, and subject to, any relevant agreement<sup>11</sup>. In the absence of a relevant agreement, it is for the Secretary of State<sup>12</sup> to determine the extent to which the authority is entitled to advise the governing body in relation to the exercise of that function<sup>13</sup>. The governing body, or any other person to whom the function in question has been delegated, must consider any advice given by the authority pursuant to an entitlement under these provisions<sup>14</sup>. The Secretary of State may at any time withdraw a determination<sup>15</sup>.

Where two or more governing bodies decide to collaborate on any function relating to individual members of the school staff, the collaborating governing bodies may delegate the determination that a member of staff (other than the head teacher) should cease to work at a relevant school<sup>16</sup>, or the power to dismiss a member of staff (other than the head teacher) from a relevant school<sup>17</sup>. - 776 (c) to one or more head teachers acting with one or more governors from any of the collaborating schools<sup>20</sup>.

If at any time a foundation school<sup>1</sup>, a voluntary aided school<sup>2</sup> or a foundation special school<sup>3</sup> does not have a delegated budget<sup>4</sup> the usual provisions relating to the staffing at such schools<sup>5</sup> have effect subject to the following provisions<sup>6</sup>.

In such circumstances, the arrangements for the staffing of the school are determined by the local education authority<sup>7</sup>. Except with the consent of the authority, the governing body must not appoint any teacher to work at the school, or dismiss any teacher at the school<sup>8</sup>. The authority may give the governing body directions:

- 779 (1) as to the educational qualifications of the teachers to be appointed for giving secular education<sup>9</sup>; or
- 780 (2) requiring them to dismiss any teacher at the school<sup>10</sup>, but the authority must not give any directions under head (1) above except after consulting the governing body<sup>11</sup>. The authority may give directions to the governing body as to the number and conditions of service of persons employed at the school for the purposes of the care and maintenance of the school premises<sup>12</sup>.

Schedule 2 Pt 2 (not yet in force) applies also where a proposed school which will be a foundation, voluntary aided or foundation special school does not have a delegated budget (School Staffing (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1963, reg 37); and has effect for that purpose as if: (1) any reference to a 'governing body' were a reference to a temporary governing body; and (2) any reference to a 'governor' were a reference to a temporary governor (reg 33). As to temporary governing bodies and temporary governors see PARA 212 ante. As to proposed schools see PARA 131 et seq ante.

Where the trust deed relating to the school provides for a person other than the governing body to be entitled to control the occupation and use of the school premises to any extent, then, if and to the extent that (disregarding any transfer of control authorised by regulations under s 31: see PARA 237 ante) the use of those premises is or would be under the control of any such person, the reference in Sch 2 para 8 (not yet in force) to the governing body must be read as a reference to that person: Sch 2 para 9. #### 354. In general.

Provision is made by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>1</sup> in relation to the staffing of community, voluntary controlled and community special schools in Wales<sup>2</sup>.

In relation to the appointment of staff, provision is made in relation to head teachers and deputy head teachers<sup>3</sup>, the appointment of other teachers<sup>4</sup> and the appointment of non-teaching staff<sup>5</sup>. Further provision is made in relation to the power of the chief education officer of a local education authority to offer advice with respect to the appointment or engagement of any teacher at such a school<sup>6</sup>, and in relation to a voluntary controlled school, the power of the appropriate diocesan authority to offer such advice<sup>7</sup>. In relation to head teachers of such schools, where the local education authority has serious concerns about their performance, provision is made requiring the authority to make a written report of its concerns to the chairman of the governing body of the school<sup>11</sup>. Separate provision is made as to the appointment, discipline, suspension and dismissal of persons employed, or to be employed, at such a school in connection with the provision of meals<sup>12</sup>.

UPDATE

354-382 Staffing of Particular Categories of Schools in Wales

Repeal of these provisions now in force also in relation to Wales: SI 2006/879.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(viii) Staffing of Schools/B. STAFFING OF PARTICULAR CATEGORIES OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(A) Community, Voluntary Controlled and Community Special Schools/(a) Schools having a Delegated Budget/355. Appointment of head teacher and deputy head teacher.

355. Appointment of head teacher and deputy head teacher.

In relation to the filling of a vacancy in the post<sup>1</sup> of head teacher<sup>2</sup> or deputy head teacher of the school<sup>3</sup>, the governing body<sup>4</sup> must notify the local education authority<sup>5</sup> of the vacancy in writing before taking any of the steps mentioned below<sup>6</sup>.

Where the vacancy is in the post of head teacher and either the post has not been filled, or it appears to the governing body that the post will not be filled, by an appointment made in accordance with the statutory procedure described below<sup>7</sup> before the date on which it falls vacant, the governing body:

- 781 (1) must recommend a person for appointment as acting head teacher<sup>8</sup>; or
- 782 (2) instead of making such a recommendation, may for the purpose of filling the vacancy engage, or make arrangements for the engagement of, a person to provide his services as acting head teacher otherwise than under a contract of employment<sup>9</sup> with the local education authority<sup>10</sup>.

Where the vacancy is in the post of deputy head teacher and either the post has not been filled, or it appears to the governing body that the post will not be filled, by an appointment made in accordance with the statutory procedure described below<sup>11</sup> before the date on which it falls vacant, the governing body:

- 783 (a) may recommend a person for appointment as acting deputy head teacher<sup>12</sup>;
or
- 784 (b) instead of making such a recommendation, may for the purpose of filling the vacancy engage, or make arrangements for the engagement of, a person to provide his services as acting head teacher otherwise than under a contract of employment with the local education authority<sup>13</sup>.

If the governing body recommends a person for appointment as acting head teacher or acting deputy head teacher, the local education authority must appoint the person recommended unless he does not meet any staff qualification requirements<sup>14</sup> which are applicable in relation to his appointment<sup>15</sup>. If the authority declines to appoint a person recommended by the governing body for appointment as acting head teacher, the governing body must recommend another person for appointment<sup>16</sup>. No person must be engaged under head (2) or head (b) above unless he meets all the staff qualification requirements applicable in relation to the head teacher or, as the case may be, deputy head teacher at the school<sup>17</sup>.

The statutory procedure for the appointment of a head teacher or deputy head teacher requires that the governing body must advertise the vacancy in such publications circulating throughout Wales as it considers appropriate<sup>18</sup>. The governing body must appoint a selection panel consisting of at least three of its members<sup>19</sup>. The selection panel must:

- 785 (i) select for interview such applicants for the post as it thinks fit and, where the post is that of head teacher, notify the local education authority in writing of the names of the applicants so selected<sup>20</sup>;
- 786 (ii) interview such of those applicants as attend for the purpose<sup>21</sup>;
- 787 (iii) where it considers it appropriate to do so, recommend to the governing body for appointment one of the applicants interviewed by it<sup>22</sup>; and
- 788 (iv) if its recommendation is approved by the governing body, recommend the applicant in question to the local education authority for appointment<sup>23</sup>.

Any decision of the selection panel must be taken by a vote representing an absolute majority of all the members of the panel, whether or not taking part in the vote<sup>24</sup>. If, within the period of 14 days beginning with the date when it receives a notification under head (i) above, the authority makes written representations to the selection panel that any of the applicants selected by the panel is not a suitable person for the appointment, the panel must not recommend that person to the governing body for appointment unless the panel has considered those representations, and notified the authority in writing of its response to the representations; and when making such a recommendation the panel must supply the governing body with a copy of those representations and of the panel's response to them<sup>25</sup>. If the panel does not recommend a person to the governing body, or if the governing body does not approve its recommendation, the governing body may, if it thinks fit, re-advertise the vacancy in the required manner<sup>26</sup>, and whether or not it re-advertises the vacancy, may require the panel to repeat the steps mentioned in heads (i) to (iv) above<sup>27</sup>. In determining whether a person is suitable for appointment as head teacher the authority must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>28</sup>.

Where the governing body approves a recommendation of the selection panel, the local education authority must appoint the person recommended by the panel unless he does not meet any staff qualification requirements which are applicable in relation to his appointment<sup>29</sup>. If the authority declines to appoint the person recommended by the panel, the governing body may, if it thinks fit, re-advertise the vacancy in the manner required<sup>30</sup>, and whether or not it re-advertises the vacancy, may require the panel to repeat the steps mentioned in heads (i) to (iv) above<sup>31</sup>.

For the purpose of giving advice, the chief education officer of the local education authority<sup>32</sup> is entitled to attend all proceedings, including interviews, of the governing body, and of any selection panel<sup>33</sup>, relating to such appointments or engagements<sup>34</sup>.

354-382 Staffing of Particular Categories of Schools in Wales

Repeal of these provisions now in force also in relation to Wales: SI 2006/879.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(viii) Staffing of Schools/B. STAFFING OF PARTICULAR CATEGORIES OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(A) Community, Voluntary Controlled and Community Special Schools/(a) Schools having a Delegated Budget/356. Appointment of other teachers.

356. Appointment of other teachers.

The following provision is made<sup>1</sup> in relation to the filling of a vacancy in any teaching post<sup>2</sup>, whether full-time or part-time, at the school<sup>3</sup>, other than the post of head teacher<sup>4</sup> or deputy head teacher<sup>5</sup>. Before taking any of the steps mentioned below, the governing body<sup>6</sup> must determine a specification for the post in consultation with the head teacher, and send a copy of the specification to the local education authority<sup>7</sup>. The local education authority may nominate for consideration for appointment to the post any person who appears to it to be qualified to fill it and who at the time of his nomination either is one of its employees<sup>8</sup> or has been appointed to take up employment<sup>9</sup> with it at a future date, or is employed<sup>10</sup> by the governing body of a foundation, voluntary aided or foundation special<sup>11</sup> school maintained by it<sup>12</sup>. No person who is employed at any school maintained by the authority<sup>13</sup> may be so nominated by it without the consent of the governing body of the school<sup>14</sup>. The governing body may advertise the vacancy at any time after it has sent a copy of the specification for the post to the local education authority<sup>15</sup>, and must do so unless either it accepts for appointment to the post a person nominated by the local education authority<sup>16</sup>, or it decides to recommend to the authority for appointment to the post a person who is already employed to work at the school<sup>17</sup>. Where the governing body advertises the vacancy, it must do so in a manner likely in its opinion to bring it to the notice of persons, including employees of the authority, who are qualified to fill it<sup>18</sup>. Where the governing body advertises the vacancy, it must also:

- 789 (1) interview such applicants for the post and such of the persons, if any, nominated by the local education authority<sup>19</sup> as it thinks fit<sup>20</sup>; and
- 790 (2) where it considers it appropriate to do so, either recommend to the authority for appointment one of the applicants interviewed by it or notify the authority that it accepts for appointment any person so nominated by the authority<sup>21</sup>.

If the governing body is unable to agree on a person to recommend or accept for appointment, it may repeat the steps mentioned in heads (1) and (2) above, with or without first re-advertising the vacancy<sup>22</sup>. The local education authority must appoint the person recommended or accepted for appointment by the governing body unless he does not meet any staff qualification requirements<sup>23</sup> which are applicable in relation to his appointment<sup>24</sup>. If the authority declines to appoint a person recommended by the governing body, the governing body must repeat such of the steps mentioned in heads (1) and (2) above as it thinks fit, with or without first re-advertising the vacancy<sup>25</sup>.

The governing body may, in connection with any absence<sup>26</sup> of the person for the time being holding any teaching post, whether full-time or part-time, other than the post of head teacher or deputy head teacher<sup>27</sup>, engage or make arrangements for the engagement of a person to provide his services as a teacher at the school otherwise than under a contract of employment with the local education authority<sup>28</sup>. No person may be so engaged unless he meets all the staff qualification requirements applicable in relation to a teacher in the post in which he would be acting as a temporary teacher<sup>29</sup>.

The governing body may, in relation to a particular vacancy or absence, or a vacancy or absence of a kind specified by it, delegate any of its functions<sup>30</sup> under the provisions described above<sup>31</sup> to one or more governors, to the head teacher, or to one or more governors and the head teacher acting together<sup>32</sup>.

For the purpose of giving advice, the chief education officer of the local education authority<sup>33</sup> is entitled to attend all proceedings, including interviews, of the governing body, and of any persons to whom any functions of the governing body under the provisions described above<sup>34</sup> are delegated, relating to appointments or engagements to which any of those provisions apply<sup>35</sup>.

Where the governing body<sup>1</sup> desires the appointment of a person to work in a non-teaching post at the school<sup>2</sup>, it may recommend a person to the local education authority<sup>3</sup> for appointment to the post<sup>4</sup>. Such a recommendation must be in writing and must specify:

STAFFING OF PARTICULAR CATEGORIES OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(A) Community, Voluntary Controlled and Community Special Schools/(a) Schools having a Delegated Budget/360. Conduct and discipline.

360. Conduct and discipline.

The regulation of conduct and discipline in relation to the staff of the school<sup>1</sup>, and any procedures for giving members of the staff opportunities for seeking redress of any grievances relating to their employment<sup>2</sup>, is under the control of the governing body<sup>3</sup>. The governing body must establish:

- 794 (1) disciplinary rules and procedures, including such rules and procedures for dealing with lack of capability on the part of members of the staff<sup>4</sup>; and
- 795 (2) procedures for giving members of the staff opportunities for seeking redress of any grievances relating to their employment<sup>5</sup>, and must take such steps as appear to the governing body to be appropriate for making them known to members of the staff<sup>6</sup>.

In determining the capability of members of the staff the governing body must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>7</sup>. If the Assembly determines that any prescribed<sup>8</sup> rules and procedures are to apply to the school or to any class or description of school to which the school belongs: (a) the governing body must act in accordance with those rules and procedures in determining the capability of members of the staff<sup>9</sup>; and (b) in the event of any inconsistency, those rules and procedures must prevail over any rules and procedures established by the governing body under head (1) above<sup>10</sup>. Where the implementation of any determination made by the governing body in the exercise of its control over the conduct and discipline of the staff requires any action which is not within the functions<sup>11</sup> exercisable by the governing body by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998, but is within the power of the local education authority<sup>12</sup>, the authority must take that action at the request of the governing body<sup>13</sup>.

363. Dismissal of staff.

Where the governing body<sup>1</sup> determines that any person employed<sup>2</sup> by the local education authority<sup>3</sup> to work at the school<sup>4</sup> should cease to work there, it must notify the authority in writing of its determination and the reasons for it<sup>5</sup>. If the person concerned is employed to work solely at the school<sup>6</sup>, and he does not resign, the authority must, before the end of the period of 14 days, beginning with the date on which the notification is given, either give him such notice terminating his contract of employment<sup>7</sup> with the authority as is required under that contract, or terminate that contract without notice if the circumstances are such that it is entitled to do so by reason of his conduct<sup>8</sup>. If the person concerned is not employed to work solely at the school, the authority must require him to cease to work at the school<sup>9</sup>. In these circumstances<sup>10</sup>, no part of the costs incurred by the local education authority in respect of the emoluments of the person concerned, so far as they relate to any period falling after the expiration of his contractual notice period<sup>11</sup>, must be met from the school's budget share<sup>12</sup>.

The governing body must make arrangements for giving any person in respect of whom it proposes to make a determination<sup>13</sup> an opportunity of making representations as to the action it proposes to take (including, if he so wishes, oral representations to such person or persons as the governing body may appoint for the purpose), and have regard to any representations made by him<sup>14</sup>. The governing body must also make arrangements for giving any person in respect of whom it has made such a determination an opportunity of appealing against it before it notifies the local education authority of the determination<sup>15</sup>. For the purpose of giving advice, the head teacher<sup>16</sup> (except where he is the person concerned) and the chief education officer of the local education authority<sup>17</sup> are entitled to attend all proceedings of the governing body relating to a determination<sup>18</sup> concerning the dismissal of a person employed by the local education authority to work at the school<sup>19</sup>. Further provision is made in relation to the power of the chief education officer of a local education authority to offer advice with respect to the appointment or engagement of any teacher at such a school<sup>7</sup>, and the power of the appropriate diocesan authority to offer such advice in relation to voluntary aided or foundation schools which are Church of England, Church in Wales or Roman Catholic Church schools<sup>8</sup>. The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 further provides for the regulation of conduct and discipline<sup>9</sup>, the suspension<sup>10</sup> and the dismissal<sup>11</sup> of such staff. In relation to head teachers of such schools, where the local education authority has serious concerns about their performance, provision is made requiring the authority to make a written report of its concerns to the chairman of the governing body of the school<sup>12</sup>.

354-382 Staffing of Particular Categories of Schools in Wales

Repeal of these provisions now in force also in relation to Wales: SI 2006/879.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(viii) Staffing of Schools/B. STAFFING OF PARTICULAR CATEGORIES OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(B) Foundation, Voluntary Aided and Foundation Special Schools/(a) Schools having a Delegated Budget/369. Appointment of head teacher and deputy head teacher.

369. Appointment of head teacher and deputy head teacher.

In relation to the filling of a vacancy in the post<sup>1</sup> of head teacher<sup>2</sup> or deputy head teacher of the school<sup>3</sup>, the governing body<sup>4</sup> must notify the local education authority<sup>5</sup> of the vacancy in writing before taking any of the steps mentioned below<sup>6</sup>. Where the vacancy is in the post of head teacher and either the post has not been filled, or it appears to the governing body that the post will not be filled, by an appointment made in accordance with the statutory procedure described below<sup>7</sup> before the date on which it falls vacant, the governing body:

- 796 (1) must appoint a person as acting head teacher<sup>8</sup>; or
- 797 (2) instead of making such an appointment, may for the purpose of filling the vacancy engage or make arrangements for the engagement of a person to provide his services as acting head teacher otherwise than under a contract of employment<sup>9</sup>.

Where the vacancy is in the post of deputy head teacher and either the post has not been filled, or it appears to the governing body that the post will not be filled, by an appointment made in accordance with the statutory procedure described below<sup>10</sup> before the date on which it falls vacant, the governing body:

- 798 (a) may appoint a person as acting deputy head teacher<sup>11</sup>; or
- 799 (b) instead of making such an appointment, may for the purpose of filling the vacancy engage or make arrangements for the engagement of a person to provide his services as acting deputy head teacher otherwise than under a contract of employment<sup>12</sup>.

A person may not be appointed under head (1) or head (a) above unless he meets all the staff qualification requirements<sup>13</sup> which are applicable in relation to his appointment<sup>14</sup>. No person may be engaged under head (2) or head (b) above unless he meets all the staff qualification requirements applicable in relation to the head teacher or, as the case may be, deputy head teacher at the school<sup>15</sup>.

The statutory procedure for the appointment of a head teacher or deputy head teacher requires that the governing body must advertise the vacancy in such publications circulating throughout Wales as it considers appropriate<sup>16</sup>. The governing body must appoint a selection panel consisting of at least three of its members<sup>17</sup>. The selection panel must:

- 800 (i) select for interview such applicants for the post as it thinks fit and, where the post is that of head teacher, notify the local education authority in writing of the names of the applicants so selected<sup>18</sup>;
- 801 (ii) interview such of those applicants as attend for the purpose<sup>19</sup>; and
- 802 (iii) where it considers it appropriate to do so, recommend to the governing body for appointment one of the applicants interviewed by it<sup>20</sup>.

Any decision of the selection panel must be taken by a vote representing an absolute majority of all the members of the panel, whether or not taking part in the vote<sup>21</sup>. If, within the period of 14 days beginning with the date when it receives a notification under head (i) above, the authority makes written representations to the selection panel that any of the applicants selected by the panel is not a suitable person for the appointment, the panel must not recommend that person to the governing body for appointment unless the panel has considered those representations, and notified the authority in writing of its response to the representations; and when making such a recommendation the panel must supply the governing body with a copy of those representations and of the panel's response to them<sup>22</sup>. If the panel does not recommend a person to the governing body, or the governing body does not approve its recommendation, the governing body may, if it thinks fit, re-advertise the vacancy in the required manner<sup>23</sup>, and whether or not it re-advertises the vacancy, may require the panel to repeat the steps mentioned in heads (i) to (iii) above<sup>24</sup>.

The chief education officer<sup>25</sup> is entitled to attend, for the purpose of giving advice, all proceedings, including interviews, of the governing body, and of any selection panel<sup>26</sup>, relating to such appointments or engagements<sup>27</sup>. Where the chief education officer has no advisory rights<sup>28</sup> with respect to the appointment of head teachers and deputy head teachers, the selection panel's notification under head (i) above must be accompanied by such information relating to each of the persons selected for interview as will enable the authority to determine his suitability for the appointment<sup>29</sup>. In determining whether a person is suitable for appointment as head teacher the authority must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>30</sup>. Where the governing body approves a recommendation of the selection panel, the governing body must appoint the person recommended by the panel unless he does not meet any staff qualification requirements which are applicable in relation to his appointment<sup>31</sup>.

354-382 Staffing of Particular Categories of Schools in Wales

Repeal of these provisions now in force also in relation to Wales: SI 2006/879.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(viii) Staffing of Schools/B. STAFFING OF PARTICULAR CATEGORIES OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(B) Foundation, Voluntary Aided and Foundation Special Schools/(a) Schools having a Delegated Budget/370. Appointment of other teachers.

370. Appointment of other teachers.

The following provision is made<sup>1</sup> in relation to the filling of a vacancy<sup>2</sup> in any teaching post, whether full-time or part-time, at the school<sup>3</sup>, other than the post of head teacher<sup>4</sup> or deputy head teacher<sup>5</sup>. Before taking any of the steps mentioned below, the governing body<sup>6</sup> must determine a specification for the post in consultation with the head teacher, and must send a copy of the specification to the local education authority<sup>7</sup>. The local education authority may nominate for consideration for appointment to the post any person who appears to the authority to be qualified to fill it and who at the time of his nomination either is its employee<sup>8</sup> or has been appointed to take up employment<sup>9</sup> with it at a future date, or is employed<sup>10</sup> by the governing body of a foundation, voluntary aided or foundation special school<sup>11</sup> maintained by it<sup>12</sup>. No person who is employed at any school maintained by the authority<sup>13</sup> may be so nominated by it without the consent of the governing body of the school<sup>14</sup>. The governing body may advertise the vacancy at any time after it has sent a copy of the specification for the post to the local education authority<sup>15</sup>, and must do so unless it appoints to the post either a person nominated by the local education authority<sup>16</sup>, or a person who is already employed to work at the school<sup>17</sup>. Where the governing body advertises the vacancy, it must do so in a manner likely in its opinion to bring it to the notice of persons, including employees of the authority, who are qualified to fill it<sup>18</sup>. Where the governing body advertises the vacancy, it must also:

and the person so appointed must be employed by the governing body under a contract of employment<sup>22</sup>. If the governing body is unable to agree on a person to appoint to the post, it may repeat the steps mentioned in head (1) and head (2) above, with or without first re-advertising the vacancy<sup>23</sup>. A person must not be so appointed unless he meets all the staff qualification requirements which are applicable in relation to his appointment<sup>24</sup>.

The governing body may, in connection with any absence<sup>25</sup> of the person for the time being holding any teaching post, whether full-time or part-time, other than the post of head teacher or deputy head teacher<sup>26</sup> engage, or make arrangements for the engagement of, a person to provide his services as a teacher at the school otherwise than under a contract of employment<sup>27</sup>. No person may be so engaged unless he meets all the staff qualification requirements applicable in relation to a teacher in the post in which he would be acting as a temporary teacher<sup>28</sup>.

The governing body may, in relation to a particular vacancy or absence or a vacancy or absence of a kind specified by it, delegate any of its functions<sup>29</sup> under the provisions described above<sup>30</sup> to one or more governors, to the head teacher, or to one or more governors and the head teacher acting together<sup>31</sup>. The chief education officer<sup>32</sup> is entitled to attend, for the purpose of giving advice, all proceedings, including interviews, of the governing body, and of any persons to whom any functions of the governing body under the provisions described above<sup>33</sup> are delegated, relating to appointments or engagements to which any of those provisions apply<sup>34</sup>.

STAFFING OF PARTICULAR CATEGORIES OF SCHOOLS IN WALES/(B) Foundation, Voluntary Aided and Foundation Special Schools/(a) Schools having a Delegated Budget/377. Dismissal of staff.

377. Dismissal of staff.

Before making a decision that a person employed<sup>1</sup> to work at the school<sup>2</sup> should have his contract of employment<sup>3</sup> with the governing body<sup>4</sup> terminated or should not have that contract renewed, the governing body must: (1) make arrangements for giving that person an opportunity of making representations as to the action it proposes to take, including, if he so wishes, oral representations to such person or persons as the governing body may appoint for the purpose<sup>5</sup>; and (2) have regard to any representations made by him<sup>6</sup>. The governing body must also make arrangements for giving any person in respect of whom it has made such a decision an opportunity of appealing against the decision before it gives effect to it<sup>7</sup>. Where its decision is that a person should have his contract of employment terminated, then, subject to any such appeal, the governing body must give effect to that decision by: (a) giving the person in question such notice terminating his contract of employment as is required under that contract<sup>8</sup>; or (b) terminating that contract without notice if the circumstances are such that it is entitled to do so by reason of his conduct<sup>9</sup>.

The head teacher<sup>10</sup> (except where he is the person concerned) and the chief education officer of the local education authority<sup>11</sup> are entitled to attend, for the purpose of giving advice, all proceedings of the governing body relating to such a decision<sup>12</sup>. The governing body must consider any advice given by a person who is entitled to attend such proceedings before making any such decision<sup>13</sup>.

The provisions of Sch 16 paras 25-29 (as amended; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARA 363 ante) apply in relation to the dismissal or withdrawal from the school of any member of the staff who is employed by the authority as they apply in relation to the dismissal or withdrawal from a school to which Sch 16 (as amended; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARAS 355-365 ante) applies of a person who is employed to work at the school: Sch 17 para 27(2). Any regulations in force under Sch 16 para 30 (prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (school meals staff: see PARA 364 ante) apply to any person who is, or is to be, employed by the authority to work at the school solely in connection with the provision of meals as if it were a school to which Sch 16 (as amended; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARAS 355-365 ante) applies: Sch 17 para 27(3). The authority may give the governing body directions requiring it to dismiss any teacher at the school<sup>10</sup>. The authority may give directions to the governing body as to the number and conditions of service of persons employed at the school for the purposes of the care and maintenance of the school premises<sup>11</sup>.

383. Application of employment law during financial delegation.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by order<sup>2</sup> make such modifications<sup>3</sup> in any enactment relating to employment<sup>4</sup>, and in particular in any enactment conferring powers or imposing duties on employers<sup>5</sup>, conferring rights on employees<sup>6</sup>, or otherwise regulating the relations between employers and employees, as he considers necessary or expedient<sup>7</sup>. Before making any such order the Secretary of State must consult such associations of local authorities<sup>8</sup>, such bodies representing the interests of governors of foundation or voluntary schools<sup>9</sup>, and such organisations representing staff in maintained schools<sup>10</sup>, as appear to him to be concerned<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 As to the making of orders under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. As to the orders made under s 81 see, in relation to England, the Education (Modification of Enactments Relating to Employment) (England) Order 2003, SI 2003/1964 (amended by SI 2004/2325); and, in relation to Wales, the Education (Modification of Enactments Relating to Employment) Order 1999, SI 1999/2256 (revoked, in relation to England, by SI 2003/1964). As to the general modifications of employment enactments which have been made see the Education (Modification of Enactments Relating to Employment) Order 1999, SI 1999/2256, art 3, Schedule (revoked, in relation to England, by SI 2003/1964); and the Education (Modification of Enactments Relating to Employment) (England) Order 2003, SI 2003/1964, art 3, Schedule (Schedule amended by SI 2004/2325). ### 384. Payments in respect of dismissal etc under the Education Act 2002.

It is for the governing body of a maintained school<sup>1</sup> to determine: (1) whether any payment should be made by the local education authority<sup>2</sup> in respect of the dismissal<sup>3</sup>, or for the purpose of securing the resignation, of any member of the staff of the school<sup>4</sup>; and (2) the amount of any such payment<sup>5</sup>. The local education authority: (a) must take such steps as may be required for giving effect to any determination of the governing body<sup>6</sup>; and (b) must not make, or agree to make, a payment<sup>7</sup> except in accordance with such a determination<sup>8</sup>.

Costs incurred by the local education authority in respect of any premature retirement of a member of the staff of a maintained school must be met from the school's budget share<sup>9</sup> for one or more funding periods except in so far as the authority agrees with the governing body in writing, whether before or after the retirement occurs, that they will not be so met<sup>10</sup>. Costs incurred by the local education authority in respect of the dismissal, or for the purpose of securing the resignation, of any member of the staff of a maintained school must not be met from the school's budget share for any financial year except in so far as the authority has good reason for deducting those costs, or any part of those costs, from that share<sup>11</sup>. Where a local education authority incurs costs: (i) in respect of any premature retirement of any member of the staff of a maintained school who is employed for community purposes<sup>12</sup>; or (ii) in respect of the dismissal, or for the purpose of securing the resignation, of any member of the staff of a maintained school who is employed for those purposes<sup>13</sup>, it must recover those costs from the governing body except in so far as the authority agrees with the governing body in writing, whether before or after the retirement, dismissal or resignation occurs, that they will not be so recoverable<sup>14</sup>. Where a person is employed partly for community purposes and partly for other purposes, any payment or costs in respect of that person is to be apportioned between the two purposes; and the provisions<sup>15</sup> apply separately to each part of the payment or costs<sup>16</sup>.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(viii) Staffing of Schools/D. APPOINTMENT AND DISMISSAL OF TEACHERS OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION/388. Appointment and dismissal of certain teachers at schools with a religious character.

D. APPOINTMENT AND DISMISSAL OF TEACHERS OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

388. Appointment and dismissal of certain teachers at schools with a religious character.

In relation to a foundation or voluntary controlled school which has a religious character<sup>1</sup>, where the number of teachers is more than two, the teachers must include persons<sup>2</sup>: (1) who are selected for their fitness and competence to give religious education as is required by arrangements<sup>3</sup> for religious education in accordance with the school's trust deed<sup>4</sup> or with the tenets of the school's specified religion or religious denomination<sup>5</sup>; and (2) who are specifically appointed to do so<sup>6</sup>. The number of reserved teachers<sup>7</sup> in such a school must not exceed one-fifth of the total number of teachers, including the head teacher<sup>8</sup>. The head teacher of such a school must not, while he remains head teacher of the school, be a reserved teacher<sup>9</sup>. Where the appropriate body<sup>10</sup> proposes to appoint a person to be a reserved teacher in such a school, that body must consult the foundation governors<sup>11</sup>, and must not so appoint that person unless the foundation governors are satisfied as to his fitness and competence to give such religious education as is mentioned in head (1) above<sup>12</sup>. If the foundation governors of such a school consider that a reserved teacher has failed to give such religious education efficiently and suitably, they may<sup>13</sup>: (a) in the case of a teacher who is an employee<sup>14</sup>, require the appropriate body to dismiss him from employment<sup>15</sup> as a reserved teacher at the school<sup>16</sup>; and (b) in the case of a teacher who is engaged otherwise than under a contract of employment<sup>17</sup>, require the governing body to terminate his engagement<sup>18</sup>.

In relation to a voluntary aided school<sup>19</sup>, if a teacher appointed to give religious education fails to give such education efficiently and suitably, he may be dismissed on that ground by the governing body without the consent of the local education authority<sup>20</sup>. However, this does not apply: (i) where the school has a delegated budget<sup>21</sup>; or (ii) to religious education in accordance with an agreed syllabus<sup>22</sup>.

1 The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 58(2)-(6) (see the text and notes 2-18 infra) applies to a foundation or voluntary controlled school which has a religious character: s 58(1)(a). References in Pt II Ch V (ss 54-63) (as amended) (see PARA 354 et seq ante) to a school which has, or does not have, a religious character are to be construed in accordance with s 69(3) (see PARA 951 note 9 post): s 58(1). As to foundation and voluntary controlled schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

2 Ibid s 58(2) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 40, Sch 3 para 6(1), (2)). The amendment made by Sch 3 para 6(1), (2) is brought into force by order made under s 216(4) as from a day to be appointed. In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 September 2003 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/1667, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until a day to be appointed in relation to Wales, the references to 'teachers' should be read as references to 'teaching staff'. 8 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 58(3) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 3 para 6(1), (3)). For this purpose, where the total number of teachers is not a multiple of five, it must be treated as if it were the next higher multiple of five: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 58(3) (as so amended). As to the meaning of 'head teacher' see PARA 93 note 13 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

Until a day to be appointed in relation to Wales, the references to 'the total number of teachers', where they occur, should be read as references to 'the number of the teaching staff'.

9 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 58(4) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 3 para 6(1), (4)). The amendment made by the Education Act 2002 Sch 3 para 6(1), (4) is brought into force by order made under s 216(4) as from a day to be appointed. In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 September 2003 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/1667, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until a day to be appointed in relation to Wales, the reference to 'while he remains head teacher' should be read as a reference to 'while holding the post of head teacher'.

16 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 58(6)(a) (s 58(6)(a), (b) added by the Education Act 2002 Sch 3 para 6(1), (5)). The amendment made by the Education Act 2002 Sch 3 para 6(1), (5) is brought into force by order made under s 216(4) as from a day to be appointed. In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 September 2003 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/1667, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until a day to be appointed in relation to Wales, in place of heads (a) and (b) in the text, the requirement is simply that the appropriate body should dismiss the teacher from employment as a reserved teacher in the school.

Amendments made by Education Act 2002 Sch 3 now in force in relation to Wales: SI 2006/879.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. ### 390. Staff at foundation or voluntary school with religious character.

Provision is made<sup>1</sup> in relation to staff at foundation and voluntary schools<sup>2</sup> which have religious characters<sup>3</sup>.

If the school is a foundation or voluntary controlled school, no person may be disqualified by reason of his religious opinions, or of his attending or omitting to attend religious worship, from being a teacher at the school, or from being employed or engaged for the purposes of the school otherwise than as a teacher<sup>4</sup>. No teacher at the school may be required to give religious education<sup>5</sup>. No teacher at the school is to receive any less remuneration or be deprived of or disqualified for, any promotion or other advantage by reason of the fact that he does or does not give religious education, or by reason of his religious opinions or of his attending or omitting to attend religious worship<sup>6</sup>. These provisions<sup>7</sup> do not apply to a reserved teacher<sup>8</sup> at such a school, and instead head (1) and head (2) below apply in relation to such a teacher as they apply in relation to a teacher at a voluntary aided school<sup>9</sup>. In connection with the appointment of a person to be head teacher<sup>10</sup> of the school, whether foundation or voluntary controlled, regard may be had to that person's ability and fitness to preserve and develop the religious character of the school<sup>11</sup>.

If the school is a voluntary aided school:

807 (1) preference may be given, in connection with the appointment, remuneration or promotion of teachers at the school, to persons<sup>12</sup>:

57. (b) who attend religious worship in accordance with those tenets<sup>15</sup>; or

58. (c) who give, or are willing to give, religious education at the school in accordance with those tenets<sup>16</sup>; and

If the school is a voluntary aided school, no person may be disqualified by reason of his religious opinions, or of his attending or omitting to attend religious worship, from being employed or engaged for the purposes of the school otherwise than as a teacher<sup>19</sup>.

F. TRANSFER OF STAFF ON 1 SEPTEMBER 1999

391. Transfer of staff on appointed day.

A reallocation of schools to the categories of community, foundation and voluntary schools<sup>1</sup> was introduced on 1 September 1999<sup>2</sup> by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 and provision was made in relation to the transfer of staff on the date of reallocation<sup>3</sup>. The staff transfer provisions provided that the contract of employment<sup>4</sup> between a person to whom the provisions<sup>5</sup> apply and his former employer<sup>6</sup> had effect from 1 September 1999 as if originally made between him and his new employer<sup>7</sup>; and without prejudice to this principle:

- 809 (1) all the former employer's rights, powers, duties and liabilities<sup>8</sup> under or in connection with the contract of employment were thereby transferred to the new employer on 1 September 1999<sup>9</sup>; and
- 810 (2) anything done before that date by or in relation to the former employer in respect of that contract or the employee was deemed from that day to have been done by or in relation to the new employer<sup>10</sup>.

The staff transfer provisions<sup>11</sup> applied where on 1 September 1999:

- 811 (a) a special agreement school<sup>12</sup> became a voluntary aided school<sup>13</sup>;
- 812 (b) a grant-maintained school<sup>14</sup> became a community or voluntary controlled school<sup>15</sup>; or
- 813 (c) a grant-maintained special school<sup>16</sup> became a community special school<sup>17</sup>.

The staff transfer provisions applied in the circumstances mentioned in heads (a) to (c) above to any person who immediately before 1 September 1999:

- 814 (i) was employed<sup>18</sup> by the local education authority to work solely<sup>19</sup> at an existing school within head (a) above<sup>20</sup>;
- 815 (ii) was employed by the local education authority to work at such an existing school and was designated for these purposes by an order made by the Secretary of State<sup>21</sup>; or
- 816 (iii) was employed by the governing body of an existing school within head (b) or head (c) above<sup>22</sup>.

The staff transfer provisions did not apply:

- 817 (A) to any person employed as mentioned in heads (i) to (iii) above whose contract of employment terminated on 31 August 1999<sup>23</sup>; or

392. Time for admission.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> is required to secure that sufficient schools<sup>2</sup> for providing primary education<sup>3</sup> and secondary education<sup>4</sup> are available for its area<sup>5</sup>. However, this must not be construed as imposing any obligation on the proprietor<sup>6</sup> of a school to admit children<sup>7</sup> as pupils<sup>8</sup> otherwise than at the beginning of a school term<sup>9</sup>. Where, however, a child was prevented from entering a school at the beginning of a term:

- 819 (1) by his being ill or by other circumstances beyond his parent's<sup>10</sup> control<sup>11</sup>; or
- 820 (2) by his parent's having been then resident at a place from which the school was not accessible with reasonable facility<sup>12</sup>, the school's proprietor is not entitled<sup>13</sup> to refuse to admit the child as a pupil during the currency of the term<sup>14</sup>. In cases where heads (1) and (2) above do not apply, the governing body of a school maintained by a local education authority<sup>15</sup> must comply with any general directions given by the authority as to the time of admission of children as pupils<sup>16</sup>.

Despite the duty of the parent of a child of compulsory school age<sup>17</sup> to cause him to receive full-time education<sup>18</sup>, a parent is not under a duty to cause a child to receive full-time education during any period during which, having regard to the provisions described above<sup>19</sup>, it is not practicable for the parent to arrange for the child to be admitted as a pupil at a school<sup>20</sup>.

B. ADVICE

393. Code of practice on admission arrangements.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> must issue, and may from time to time revise, a code of practice containing such practical guidance as he thinks appropriate in respect of the discharge by:

- 821 (1) local education authorities<sup>2</sup>;
- 822 (2) the governing bodies of maintained schools<sup>3</sup>;
- 823 (3) appeal panels<sup>4</sup>; and
- 824 (4) adjudicators<sup>5</sup>,

of their respective functions in relation to admission arrangements<sup>6</sup>. The code may include guidelines setting out aims, objectives and other matters in relation to the discharge of functions in relation to admission arrangements<sup>7</sup> by local education authorities and governing bodies of maintained schools<sup>8</sup>. The Secretary of State must publish the code as for the time being in force<sup>9</sup>.

It is the duty of each of the bodies and persons mentioned in heads (1) to (4) above when exercising such functions<sup>10</sup>, and any other person when exercising any function for the purposes of the discharge by a local education authority or the governing body of a maintained school of such functions<sup>11</sup>, to have regard to any relevant provisions of the code<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

3 Ibid s 84(1)(b). For the purposes of Pt III Ch I (ss 84-98) (as amended), 'maintained school' means a community, foundation or voluntary school: s 84(6). As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante. As to community, foundation and voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

4 Ibid s 84(1)(c). For the purposes of Pt III Ch I (as amended), 'appeal panel' means a panel constituted in accordance with regulations under s 94(5) (see PARA 415 post) or s 95(3) (see PARA 423 post) for the purpose of hearing an appeal under Pt III Ch I (as amended): s 84(6) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 51, Sch 4 para 2). As to transitional provisions, in relation to England, where a notice of appeal against a decision concerning the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than 2004-2005 has been given by a parent, but has not, before 20 January 2003, been determined by an appeal panel see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 3 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2952, arts 2-3, Schedule para 3; and, in relation to Wales, where a parent has given a notice of appeal in accordance with the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 94, Sch 24 para 9 (repealed), or a governing body has given notice of appeal in accordance with s 95, Sch 25 para 5 (repealed) before 31 May 2005, see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional Provisions) (Wales) Order 2005, SI 2005/1395, arts 4, 5(3)-(4), Schedule. The Secretary of State may under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 84(1) (see heads (1)-(4) in the text): (1) make separate provision (by means of separate codes of practice) in relation to different functions under Pt III Ch I (as amended) of the bodies and persons mentioned in s 84(1); and (2) make different provision for England and for Wales (whether or not by means of separate codes of practice): s 84(5). For these purposes, references to 'the code' or to functions under Pt III Ch I (as amended) have effect, in relation to any such separate code of practice, as references to that code or to functions under Pt III Ch I (as amended) to which it relates (as the case may be): s 84(5).

394. Making and approval of code of practice.

Where the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> proposes to issue or revise a code of practice on admission arrangements<sup>2</sup>, he must prepare a draft of the code or revised code<sup>3</sup>. He must consult such persons about the draft as he thinks fit and must consider any representations made by them<sup>4</sup>. Where he determines to proceed with the draft, either in its original form or with such modifications<sup>5</sup> as he thinks fit, he must lay a copy of the draft before each House of Parliament<sup>6</sup>.

5 As to the meaning of 'modifications' see PARA 43 note 7 ante; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 142(8).

6 Ibid s 85(3). If, within the 40-day period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve the draft, the Secretary of State must not take further steps in relation to the proposed code (s 85(4)), but this does not prevent a new draft of a proposed code from being laid before Parliament (s 85(6)). If no such resolution is made within the 40-day period, the Secretary of State may issue the code (or revised code) in the form of the draft, and it will come into force on such date as the Secretary of State may by order appoint: s 85(5). For these purposes, '40-day period', in relation to the draft of a proposed code, means: (1) if the draft is laid before one House on a day later than the day on which it is laid before the other House, the period of 40 days beginning with the later of the two days; and (2) in any other case, the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before each House: s 85(7). In either case, no account is taken of any period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days (see PARLIAMENT vol 78 (2010) PARA 1021 et seq): s 85(7). For these purposes, references to a proposed code include a proposed revised code: s 85(8). An order made under s 85(5) is not subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: see s 138(4) (as amended); and PARA 82 note 15 ante.

In exercise of the powers conferred by s 85(5) the following orders have been made: the Education (Code of Practice on LEA-School Relations) (Appointed Day) (Wales) Order 1999, SI 1999/2022 (Code of Practice on LEA-School Relations (June 1999) issued pursuant to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 127 (as amended): see PARA 99 ante); the Education (School Admission Appeals: The National Assembly for Wales Code of Practice) (Appointed Day) Order 1999, SI 1999/2893 (School Admission Appeals: The National Assembly for Wales Code of Practice issued pursuant to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 84 (as amended): see PARA 393 ante); and the Local Education Authority--School Relations Code of Practice Order 2001, SI 2001/435 (Code of Practice on LEA-School Relations (February 2001) (Ref: DfEE 0027/2001)) issued pursuant to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 127 (as amended): see PARA 99 ante).

395. Admission forums.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> must in accordance with regulations<sup>2</sup> establish for its area a body, to be known as an 'admission forum', for the purpose of: (1) advising the authority on such matters connected with the exercise of the authority's functions<sup>3</sup> as may be prescribed<sup>4</sup>; and (2) advising the admission authorities for maintained schools<sup>5</sup> in the area for which the forum is established on: (a) such matters connected with the determination of admission arrangements<sup>6</sup>; and (b) such other matters connected with the admission of pupils<sup>7</sup>, as may be prescribed<sup>8</sup>. The authority may establish sub-committees of the forum<sup>9</sup>. Regulations may make provision:

- 826 (ii) as to the manner in which advice is to be given by a forum<sup>11</sup>; and

UPDATE

395 Admission forums

TEXT AND NOTES--Regulations may make provision with respect to the expenses of an admission forum for the area of a local education authority in England: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 85A(5A) (s 85A(5A), (5B) added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 41(6)). Except as provided by such regulations, the expenses of an admission forum for the area of a local education authority in England are to be defrayed by the local education authority by which the forum was established: s 85A(5B) (as so added).

TEXT AND NOTES 5-8--Also head (c) in the case of an admission forum for the area of a local education authority in England, exercising any other functions that may be imposed on the forum by or under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt III Ch I (ss 84-98): s 85A(1)(c) (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 41(2)).

An admission forum for the area of a local education authority in England may prepare and publish reports on such matters connected with the admission of pupils to maintained schools in that area as may be prescribed: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 85A(1A) (s 85A(1A)-(1C) added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 41(3)). Such matters are prescribed by the School Admissions (Local Authority Reports and Admission Forums) (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/3091, reg 18. A forum report produced pursuant to s 85A(1A) must be sent to the adjudicator: SI 2008/3091 reg 20. For the purposes of the preparation of a report under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 85A(1A), an admission forum may request any of the following bodies to provide the forum with any information held by it which falls within a prescribed description and is specified by the forum in its request: (i) the local education authority which established the forum; (ii) any local education authority in England for an area which adjoins the area of such an authority; (iii) the governing body of any maintained school in the area for which the forum is established: s 85A(1B). As to the information prescribed see SI 2008/3091 reg 19. A body mentioned in any of heads (i)-(iii) above must comply with a request made by an admission forum in pursuance of s 85A(1B): s 85A(1C).

Also head (iv) as to the preparation and publication of reports under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 85A(1A): s 85A(3)(ba) (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 41(4)). Regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 85A(3)(c) may, in relation to England, modify any provision of Pt III Ch I in its application to a joint admission forum: s 85A(3A) (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 41(5)).

C. PARENTAL PREFERENCES

396. Parental preferences.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> is entitled to apply its admissions policy (provided that it is lawful and not unreasonable) in determining priority for admissions, for example in respect of over-subscribed schools<sup>2</sup>. However, a local authority must make arrangements for enabling the parent<sup>3</sup> of a child<sup>4</sup> in the area of the authority<sup>5</sup>: (1) to express a preference as to the school at which he wishes education to be provided for his child in the exercise of the authority's functions<sup>6</sup>; and (2) to give reasons for his preference<sup>7</sup>.

A local education authority and the governing body of a maintained school<sup>8</sup> must, subject to the restrictions described below<sup>9</sup> and those relating to children excluded from two or more schools<sup>10</sup>, comply with any preference expressed in accordance with such arrangements<sup>11</sup>. However, this duty does not apply:

- 828 (a) if compliance with the preference would prejudice<sup>12</sup> the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources<sup>13</sup>; or
- 829 (b) if the arrangements for admission to the preferred school are wholly based on selection by reference to ability or aptitude<sup>14</sup> and are so based with a view to admitting only pupils with high ability or with aptitude, and compliance with the preference would be incompatible with selection under those arrangements<sup>15</sup>;
- 830 (c) in relation to a preference expressed by a parent as to the school at which he wishes secondary education<sup>16</sup> suitable to the requirements of pupils who are over compulsory school age<sup>17</sup> to be provided for his child, if the relevant selection arrangements<sup>18</sup> are wholly based on selection by reference to ability or aptitude and compliance with the preference would be incompatible with selection under those arrangements<sup>19</sup>.

Where the admission arrangements for two or more maintained schools in Wales provide for co-ordinated admissions on the part of those schools<sup>20</sup> and they are approved by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>21</sup>, they have effect in relation to each of those schools<sup>22</sup>.

4 For the meaning of 'child' see PARA 16 note 2 ante; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 142(8).

5 For the meaning of 'area of the local education authority' see PARA 20 note 3 ante; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 142(8). Arrangements made under s 86(1) may allow the parent of a child to express preferences for more than one school; but nothing in s 86 (as amended) requires the admission authority for a maintained school for which a child's parent has expressed a preference to offer the child admission to the school if, in accordance with a scheme adopted or made by virtue of s 89B (as added) (see PARA 399 post), the child is offered admission to a different school for which the parent has also expressed a preference: s 86(2A) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 51, Sch 4 para 3(1), (3)). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 393 note 3 ante. As to admission arrangements see PARAS 398-404 post. In relation to England, s 86(2A) (as added) was brought into force on 1 October 2002 except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 4 (amended by SI 2003/2992). In relation to Wales, the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(2A) (as added) was brought into force on 31 May 2005 except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2007-2008 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional Provisions) (Wales) Order 2005, SI 2005/1395, arts 4, 5(1), Schedule. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86 (as amended; prospectively further amended in relation to Wales) may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 2 para (v).

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86 (as amended; prospectively further amended in relation to Wales) does not apply in relation to pupil referral units: Education (Pupil Referral Units) (Application of Enactments) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2039, regs 1, 4, Sch 2 para 1. For the meaning of 'pupil referral unit' see PARA 457 post.

6 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(1)(a). As to the meaning of 'functions' see PARA 14 note 5 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

A local education authority has to give consideration to the religious convictions of parents when formulating its admissions policy: R (on the application of K) v Newham London Borough Council [2002] EWHC 405 (Admin), (2002) Times, 28 February.

7 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(1)(b). See R v Rotherham Metropolitan Borough Council, ex p Clark (1997) 96 LGR 214, [1998] 1 FCR 509, [1998] ELR 152, CA; R v Sheffield City Council, ex p H [1999] ELR 511, CA (both decided under previous legislation).

As to the application of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86 (as amended) to new schools see the New School (Admissions) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1041, reg 9, Schedule paras 1(b), (c), 2-5.

8 Where the arrangements for the admission of pupils to a maintained school provide for applications for admission to be made to (or to a person acting on behalf of) the governing body of the school, a parent who makes such an application is regarded for the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86 (as amended) as having expressed a preference for that school in accordance with arrangements made under s 86(1) (see the text and notes 1-7 supra): s 86(7). For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante.

9 le subject to ibid s 86(3) (as amended) (see heads (a) and (b) in the text) and s 86(3A) (as added) (see head (c) in the text): s 86(2) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 3(2)). In relation to England, the amendment made by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 3(2), which applies the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(3A) (as added) to s 86(2) (as amended), was brought into force on 1 October 2002 except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 4 (amended by SI 2003/2992). In relation to Wales, the amendment to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(2) (as amended) was brought into force on 31 May 2005 except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2007-2008 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional Provisions) (Wales) Order 2005, SI 2005/1395, arts 4, 5(1), Schedule.

10 le subject to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 87 (as amended) (see PARA 397 post).

11 Ibid s 86(2) (as amended: see note 9 supra). The duty imposed by s 86(2) (as amended) in relation to a preference expressed in accordance with arrangements made under s 86(1) (see the text and notes 1-7 supra) also applies in relation to: (1) any application for the admission to a maintained school of a child who is not in the area of the authority maintaining the school; and (2) any application made by a parent as mentioned in the Education Act 1996 s 438(4) (as amended) (choice of school: see PARA 515 post) or s 440(2) (as amended) (application for a particular school to be named in a school attendance order: see PARA 517 post): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(8). References in s 86(3) (as amended) (see heads (a) and (b) in the text) and s 86(3A) (as added) (see head (c) in the text) to a preference and a preferred school are to be construed accordingly: s 86(8) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 3(1), (7)). In relation to England, the amendment made by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 3(1), (7), which applies the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(8) (as amended) to s 86(3A) (as added), was brought into force on 1 October 2002 except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 4 (amended by SI 2003/2992). In relation to Wales, the amendment was brought into force on 31 May 2005 except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2007-2008 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional Provisions) (Wales) Order 2005, SI 2005/1395, arts 4, 5(1), Schedule.

The duty imposed by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(2) (as amended) is a mandatory duty for the purposes of the Race Relations Act 1976 s 41 (as amended) (see DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 486): R v Cleveland County Council, ex p Commission for Racial Equality [1993] 1 FCR 597, 91 LGR 139, [1994] ELR 44, CA. See also R v Richmond upon Thames London Borough Council, ex p JC [2001] ELR 21, CA (where a failure to uphold a parent's preference did not constitute a breach of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Rome, 4 November 1950; TS 71 (1953); Cmd 8969) arts 6, 8 (see PARA 3 ante)).

The effect of head (1) supra is that children who live outside the area of the local education authority must not, for the purposes of the duty in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(2) (as amended), be discriminated against merely by reason of that fact: R v Greenwich London Borough Council, ex p Governors of John Ball Primary School [1990] Fam Law 469, sub nom R v Shadow Education Committee of Greenwich London Borough Council, ex p Governors of John Ball Primary School (1989) 88 LGR 589, CA; R v Kingston-upon-Thames Royal London Borough Council, ex p Kingwell [1992] 1 FLR 182, [1992] Fam Law 193; R v Bromley London Borough Council, ex p C [1992] 1 FLR 174, 156 LG Rev 282; R v Essex County Council, ex p Jacobs [1997] ELR 190; R v Wiltshire County Council, ex p Razazan [1997] ELR 370, CA; R v Rotherham Metropolitan Borough Council, ex p LT [2000] ELR 76, CA.

The offer of a school place relied upon by a parent and causing a detriment can give rise to a legitimate expectation, which would be a factor to be taken into account in determining whether it would be unreasonable, under the test set out in *Associated Provincial Picture Houses Ltd v Wednesbury Corp*n [1948] 1 KB 223, [1947] 2 All ER 680, CA (see JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARAS 617, 623), to withdraw the place: see R v Beatrix Potter School, ex p K [1997] ELR 468 (school place offered in error later withdrawn). See also R v Birmingham City Council, ex p L [2001] ELR 543.

12 For these purposes, prejudice of the kind referred to in the text may arise by reason of measures required to be taken in order to ensure compliance with the duty imposed by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 1(6) (duty of local education authority and governing body to comply with limit on infant class sizes) (see PARA 405 post): s 86(4).

In relation to Wales, no prejudice will, however, be taken to arise from the admission to a maintained school in a school year of a number of pupils in a relevant age group which does not exceed the relevant standard number or the admission number fixed in accordance with s 93 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARA 408 post), whichever is the greater: s 86(5). 'Relevant age group', in relation to a school, means an age group in which pupils are normally admitted (or, as the case may be, will normally be admitted) to the school: s 142(1). For the purposes of Pt III Ch I (ss 84-98) (as amended; prospectively amended in relation to Wales), 'the relevant standard number', in relation to a maintained school, a relevant age group and a school year, means the standard number applying under s 93, Sch 23 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARAS 408-414 post) to the school in relation to that age group and year: s 84(6). For the meaning of 'school year' see PARA 15 note 9 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). Section 84(6) (in relation to the definition of 'the relevant standard number') and s 86(5) are repealed by the Education Act 2002 ss 47(1), 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3 as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002, except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 paras 4, 5(1)(a) (Schedule Pt 2 para 4 amended by SI 2003/2992)) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. As to the suspension of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(5) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) in relation to the fixing of admission numbers see PARA 408 note 4 post. See also note 11 supra.

In relation to England, no prejudice will be taken to arise for the purposes of s 86(3)(a) (as amended) from the admission to a maintained school in a school year of a number of pupils in a relevant age group which does not exceed the number determined under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 398 post) as the number of pupils in that age group that it is intended to admit to the school in that year; but this provision does not apply if the conditions set out in s 86(5A) (as added) are met in relation to the school and the school year: s 86(5) (substituted by the Education Act 2002 s 47(1)). The conditions referred to in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(5) (as substituted) are: (1) that the school is one at which boarding accommodation is provided for pupils; and (2) that the determination under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) by the admission authority of the admission arrangements which are to apply for that year includes the determinations mentioned in s 89A(2)(a) (as added) and s 89A(2)(b) (as added) (see PARA 398 post): s 86(5A) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 47(1)). Where the conditions set out in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(5A) (as added) are met in relation to a maintained school and a school year, no prejudice will be taken to arise for the purposes of s 86(3)(a) (as amended) from either of the following: (a) the admission to the school in that year as boarders of a number of pupils in a relevant age group which does not exceed the number determined under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) as the number of pupils in that age group that it is intended to admit to the school in that year as boarders; (b) the admission to the school in that year otherwise than as boarders of a number of pupils in a relevant age group which does not exceed the number determined under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) as the number of pupils in that age group that it is intended to admit to the school in that year otherwise than as boarders: s 86(5B) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 47(1)). For the meaning of 'boarder' see PARA 26 note 16 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). Section 86(5) is substituted, and s 86(5A)-(5B) is added, by the Education Act 2002 s 47(1) as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002, except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 4 (amended by SI 2003/2992)) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

13 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(3)(a) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 3(4)(a)). In relation to England, the amendment made by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 3(4)(a), which also repealed the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(3)(b), was brought into force on 1 October 2002 except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 4 (amended by SI 2003/2992). In relation to Wales, the amendment was brought into force on 31 May 2005 except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2007-2008 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional Provisions) (Wales) Order 2005, SI 2005/1395, arts 4, 5(1), Schedule Pt I.

14 Where admission arrangements for a school, or arrangements such as are mentioned in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(3B) (as added) (see note 18 infra), provide for all pupils selected under the arrangements to be selected by reference to ability or aptitude, those arrangements are taken for the purposes of s 86 (as amended) to be wholly based on selection by reference to ability or aptitude, whether or not they also provide for the use of additional criteria in circumstances where the number of children in a relevant age group who are assessed to be of the requisite ability or aptitude is greater than the number of pupils which it is intended to admit to the school in that age group: s 86(9) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 3(1), (8)). As to the selection of pupils see PARAS 433-442 post. In relation to England, the amendment made by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 3(1), (8) was brought into force on 1 October 2002 except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school in any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 4 (amended by SI 2003/2992). 396A. Preferences relating to sixth-form education: local education authority arrangements.

A local education authority must make arrangements for enabling (1) a child in the authority's area to express a preference as to the school at which he wishes sixth form education to be provided for him in the exercise of the authority's functions, (2) a parent of such a child to express a preference as to the school at which he wishes sixth form education to be so provided for his child, (3) a relevant child to express a preference as to the school at which he wishes education other than sixth form education to be provided for him in the exercise of the authority's functions, and (4) a parent of such a child to express a preference as to the school at which he wishes such education to be so provided for his child, and, in each case, for enabling the person expressing the preference to give reasons for his preference: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86A(1) (ss 86A, 86B added by Education and Skills Act 2008 s 150). For the meaning of sixth form education see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 98A(1) (added by Education and Skills Act 2008 s 153(1)). In the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86A(1), 'relevant child', in relation to a local education authority and any education, means a child in the authority's area who (a) has ceased to be of compulsory school age, or (b) will have ceased to be of compulsory school age before the education in question is provided for him: s 86A(2). Arrangements made under s 86A(1) must allow (i) a person who is to be able to express a preference under any of heads (1)-(4) to express preferences for more than one school; (ii) preferences to be expressed, in relation to a child, by both the child and a parent of his: s 86A(3). Where (A) the arrangements for the admission of pupils to a maintained school provide for applications for admission to be made to (or to a person acting on behalf of) the governing body of the school, and (B) a child (whether or not in the area of the authority maintaining the school) or his parent makes such an application, that person will be regarded for the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt 3 Ch 1 as having expressed a preference for that school in accordance with arrangements made under s 86A(1): s 86A(4).

See further School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86B (duty in relation to preferences expressed under s 86A: admission authorities of maintained schools).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(ix) Admission/C. PARENTAL PREFERENCES/397. Children permanently excluded from two or more schools.

397. Children permanently excluded from two or more schools.

The duty of the local education authority<sup>1</sup> and the governing body of a maintained school<sup>2</sup> to comply with the preference of a parent<sup>3</sup> as to the school at which he wishes education to be provided for his child does not apply in the case of a child<sup>4</sup> who has been permanently excluded<sup>5</sup> from two or more schools<sup>6</sup> during the period of two years beginning with the date on which the latest of those exclusions took effect<sup>7</sup>. This applies to a child whatever the length of the period or periods elapsing between those exclusions and regardless of whether it has applied to him on a previous occasion<sup>8</sup>.

However, a child who has been permanently excluded from a school will not be treated for these purposes<sup>9</sup> as having been so excluded: (1) if he was reinstated as a pupil<sup>10</sup> at the school following the giving of a direction to that effect by the relevant authority<sup>11</sup>; (2) if, on a review of his exclusion carried out in accordance with regulations<sup>12</sup> or an appeal made pursuant to regulations<sup>13</sup>, the relevant authority decided: (a) that it would not be practical to give a direction requiring his reinstatement as a pupil at the school<sup>14</sup>; but (b) that it would otherwise have been appropriate to give such a direction<sup>15</sup>; or (3) he was so excluded at a time when he had not attained compulsory school age<sup>16</sup>.

<sup>3</sup> I.e. the duty under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(2) (as amended): see PARA 396 ante. As to the meaning of 'parent' see PARA 510 note 1 post; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

<sup>4</sup> Ibid s 87(1). For the meaning of 'child' see PARA 16 note 2 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under s 87 (as amended) may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 2 para (w). For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante.

As to the application of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 87 (as amended) to new schools see the New School (Admissions) (England) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1041, reg 9, Schedule paras 1(b), (c), 2-5.

<sup>5</sup> For these purposes, the permanent exclusion of a child from a school is regarded as having taken effect on the school day as from which the head teacher decided that the child should be permanently excluded: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 87(6). For the meaning of 'school day' see PARA 533 note 2 post; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). As to the meaning of 'head teacher' see PARA 93 note 13 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

<sup>6</sup> For these purposes, 'school' means: (1) in relation to any time before or after 1 September 1999 (ie the appointed day: see PARA 102 note 3 ante), a school maintained by a local education authority; or (2) in relation to any time before 1 September 1999, a grant-maintained or grant-maintained special school within the meaning of the Education Act 1996: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 87(5). For the meaning of 'school maintained by a local education authority' see PARA 94 ante. As to grant-maintained schools and grant-maintained special schools see PARA 102 ante.

<sup>7</sup> Ibid s 87(2). Nothing in s 87 (as amended) applies to a child unless at least one of the two or more exclusions mentioned in s 87(2) took effect on or after 1 September 1997: s 87(7).

Because, as a consequence and part of regulating the right to educational access, s 87 (as amended) only removes the obligation to comply with parental preference and the child would still be educated, that provision is not incompatible with the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Rome, 4 November 1950; TS 71 (1953); Cmd 8969), First Protocol (Paris, 20 March 1952; TS 46 (1954); Cmd 9221) art 2 (see PARA 3 ante): R (on the application of B) v Head Teacher of Alperton Community School, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of C) v Governing Body of Cardinal Newman High School [2001] EWHC Admin 229, [2001] ELR 359; affd without comment on this point sub nom R (on the application of S) v Brent London Borough Council, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of P) v Oxfordshire County Council Exclusion Appeals Panel [2002] EWCA Civ 693, [2002] ELR 556.

397 Children permanently excluded from two or more schools

TEXT AND NOTE 4--School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 87(1) amended:
Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 para 55.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(ix) Admission/D. ADMISSION ARRANGEMENTS/398. Procedure for determining admission arrangements in England and Wales.

D. ADMISSION ARRANGEMENTS

398. Procedure for determining admission arrangements in England and Wales.

The admission authority for a maintained school<sup>1</sup> must, before the beginning of each school year<sup>2</sup>, determine the admission arrangements which are to apply for that year<sup>3</sup>.

Before determining the admission arrangements which are to apply for a particular school year in Wales, the admission authority<sup>4</sup> must consult: (1) the local education authority, where the governing body is the admission authority<sup>5</sup>; (2) the admission authorities for all other maintained schools in the relevant area<sup>6</sup> or for such class of such schools as may be prescribed<sup>7</sup>; and (3) the admission authorities for maintained schools of any description prescribed<sup>8</sup>. Before determining the admission arrangements which are to apply for a particular school year in England, the admission authority must consult: (a) whichever of the governing body and the local education authority is not the admission authority<sup>9</sup>; (b) the admission authorities for all other maintained schools in the relevant area<sup>10</sup> or for such class of such schools as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>; (c) the governing bodies for all community and voluntary controlled schools in the relevant area, so far as not falling within head (a) or head (b) above<sup>12</sup>; and (d) the admission authorities for maintained schools of any prescribed description<sup>13</sup>.

Once the admission authority has carried out any such consultation, the authority must determine that its proposed arrangements<sup>14</sup> are to be the admission arrangements for the school year in question<sup>15</sup> and must notify<sup>16</sup> the appropriate bodies<sup>17</sup> of the admission arrangements<sup>18</sup>.

Where an admission authority<sup>19</sup> has determined the admission arrangements for a particular school year<sup>20</sup>, but at any time before the end of that year considers that the arrangements should be varied in view of a major change in circumstances occurring since they were determined<sup>21</sup>, the authority must refer<sup>22</sup> the proposed variations to the adjudicator<sup>23</sup> and must in every case notify the appropriate bodies of the proposed variations<sup>24</sup>. The adjudicator<sup>25</sup> must then consider whether the arrangements should have effect with those variations until the end of that year<sup>26</sup>. If he determines that the arrangements should have effect or that they should have effect subject to such modification of those variations as he may determine, the arrangements have effect accordingly as from the date of the determination<sup>27</sup>, and the admission authority must notify<sup>28</sup> the appropriate bodies of the variations subject to which the arrangements are to have effect<sup>29</sup>.

A determination<sup>30</sup> by the admission authority for a maintained school in England of the admission arrangements which are to apply for a school year must include a determination of the number<sup>31</sup> of pupils in each relevant age group<sup>32</sup> that it is intended to admit to the school in that year<sup>33</sup>. Such a determination of the admission arrangements<sup>34</sup> may also, if the school is one at which boarding accommodation is provided for pupils, include: (i) a determination of the number of pupils in each relevant age group that it is intended to admit to the school in that year as boarders<sup>35</sup>; and (ii) a determination of the number of pupils in each relevant age group that it is intended to admit to the school in that year otherwise than as boarders<sup>36</sup>. Regulations may make provision about the making of any determination of the number of pupils in each relevant age group to be admitted in any school year<sup>37</sup>, and may in particular require the admission authority for a maintained school to have regard, in making any such determination, to any prescribed method of calculation and any other prescribed matter<sup>38</sup>.

Where a school is a new school<sup>39</sup>, provisions have been made governing the initial admission arrangements<sup>40</sup>.

1 For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt III Ch I (ss 84-98) (as amended), 'the admission authority': (1) in relation to a community or voluntary controlled school, means the local education authority, or where with the governing body's agreement the authority has delegated to it responsibility for determining the admission arrangements for the school, the governing body; and (2) in relation to a foundation or voluntary aided school, means the governing body: s 88(1). For the purposes of Pt III Ch I (as amended), 'admission arrangements', in relation to a maintained school, means the arrangements for the admission of pupils to the school, including the school's admission policy: s 88(2). For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante. For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 393 note 3 ante. As to community, foundation and voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante. As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to admission arrangements see PARAS 399-404 post.

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under s 88 (as amended) may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 2 para (x). For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'school year' see PARA 15 note 9 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

3 Ibid s 89(1). Regulations may require the admission authorities for maintained schools to include in their admission arrangements such provision relating to the admission of children who are looked after by a local authority (within the meaning of the Children Act 1989 s 22 (as amended): see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(4) (2008 Reissue) PARA 867) as may be prescribed, which may in particular include provision for securing that, subject to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 86(3) (as amended), s 86(3A) (as added) (see PARA 396 ante) and s 87 (as amended) (cases where duty to comply with parental preference does not apply: see PARA 397 ante), such children are to be offered admission in preference to other children: s 89(1A) (added by the Education Act 2005 s 106). For the meaning of 'child' see PARA 16 note 2 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). 'Regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under s 89(1A) (as added).

Section 89(1A) (as added) is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2005 ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). In relation to England, the appointed day is 3 October 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 6) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

4 Where the local education authority is the admission authority for a community or voluntary controlled school it must, when preparing its proposed arrangements for any school year for consultation under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89(2) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) (see the text and notes 5-13 infra), consult the governing body about the admission arrangements which the authority may propose for the school: s 89(9)(a).

Section 89(9) is substituted by the Education Act 2002 s 51, Sch 4 para 5(1), (6) as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4) so that the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89(9)(a) is effectively repealed and only s 89(9)(b) (see the text and note 19 infra) has effect. In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002, except in relation to the determination of a maintained school's admission arrangements for any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 5(2)) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. As to the provisions relating to England see the text and notes 9-13 infra.

5 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89(2)(a).

Section 89(2) is substituted as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002, except in relation to the determination of a maintained school's admission arrangements for any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 5(2)) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. As to the provisions relating to England see the text and notes 9-13 infra.

6 For these purposes, 'the relevant area' means: (1) the area of the local education authority; or (2) if regulations so provide, such other area (whether more or less extensive than the area of the local education authority) as may be determined by or in accordance with the regulations: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89(3). As to the areas of local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

Regulations under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) may make provision: (a) specifying matters to which any consultation required by s 89(2) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) is, or is not, to relate; (b) as to the manner in which, and the time by which, any such consultation is to be carried out; (c) as to the manner in which, and the time by which, any notification required by s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) is to be given; (d) specifying matters which are, or are not, to constitute major changes in circumstances for the purposes of s 89(5)(b) (see the text to note 21 infra); (e) authorising an admission authority, where it has in accordance with s 89(4) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) (see the text and notes 14-18 infra) determined the admission arrangements which are to apply for a particular school year, to vary those arrangements to such extent or in such circumstances as may be prescribed; (f) for the application of any of the requirements of s 89(5) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) (see the text and notes 19-24 infra) and s 89(6) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) (see the text and notes 25-29 infra) to variations proposed to be made by virtue of head (e) supra, or to any prescribed description of such variations, as if they were variations proposed to be made under s 89(5) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales); and (g) as to such other matters connected with the procedure for determining or varying admission arrangements under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) as the Secretary of State considers appropriate: s 89(8)(a)-(g). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. Such regulations may also make provision requiring an admission authority which has made a determination of a prescribed description under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) to publish such information relating to the determination (including information as to the authority's reasons for making the determination) as may be prescribed: s 89(8)(fa) (added by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 5(1), (4)). The power under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89(8)(fa) (as added) to require an admission authority to publish information includes power to require the admission authority to publish information: (i) by giving a notice containing the information to prescribed persons; or (ii) in any other prescribed manner: s 89(8A) (added by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 5(1), (5)). 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(1). As to the regulations that have been made under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) see the Education (Determining School Admission Arrangements for the Initial Year) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/3165; the Education (Relevant Areas for Consultation on Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/124; the Education (Determination of Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/126 (amended in relation to England by SI 2002/2896); and the Education (Variation of Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2898 (amended by SI 2005/873).

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89(2) is substituted, and s 89(2A) added, as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4). ## UPDATE

398 Procedure for determining admission arrangements in England and Wales

TEXT AND NOTES--School Standards and Framework Act 1998 ss 89, 89A (amended by Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 paras 57, 58, Sch 2) now apply to Wales only. See also School Standards and Framework Act 1998 ss 90ZA, 138A (added by Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 paras 63, 71) (regulations by Welsh Ministers under School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89).

No admission arrangements for a maintained school in Wales may require or authorise any interview with an applicant for admission to the school or his parents, where the interview is to be taken into account (to any extent) in determining whether the applicant is to be admitted to the school: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88R(1) (s 88R added by Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 para 56). If the maintained school is one at which boarding accommodation is provided for pupils, the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88R(1) does not apply in relation to any interview intended to assess the suitability of an applicant for a boarding place: s 88R(2). Where the admission arrangements for a maintained school in Wales make provision for a permitted form of selection by aptitude, s 88R(1) does not prevent the arrangements from requiring or authorising any audition or other oral or practical test to be carried out in relation to an applicant solely for the purpose of ascertaining the applicant's aptitude in accordance with the arrangements: s 88R(3). In s 88R 'permitted form of selection by aptitude' is to be read in accordance with s 99(4) (see PARA 433): s 88R(4).

Regulations may require the admission authorities for maintained schools in England to include in their admission arrangements such provision relating to the admission of children who are looked after by a local authority in England as may be prescribed: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88B(1) (ss 88B-88Q added by Education and Skills Act 2008 s 151(4)). Regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88B(1) may in particular include provision for securing that, subject to ss 86(3), 86B(2) and (4) and 87, such children are to be offered admission in preference to other children: s 88B(2). The admission authority for a maintained school in England must, before the beginning of each school year, determine the admission arrangements which are to apply for that year; and, before determining the admission arrangements that are to apply for a year, carry out such consultation about the proposed arrangements as may be prescribed: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88C; School Admissions (Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/3089, regs 12-17 (consultation), 18-20 (notification and publication of determined admission arrangements). A determination under s 88C by the admission authority for a maintained school in England of the admission arrangements which are to apply for a school year must include a determination of the number of pupils in each relevant age group that it is intended to admit to the school in that year: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88D; SI 2008/3089 reg 4. Where an admission authority (1) have in accordance with s 88C determined the admission arrangements which are to apply for a particular school year, but (2) at any time before the end of that year consider that the arrangements should be varied in view of a major change in circumstances occurring since they were so determined, the authority must refer their proposed variations to the adjudicator, and notify the appropriate bodies of the proposed variations: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88E; SI 2008/3089 regs 21, 22. Supplementary provision with respect to ss 88C-88E is made: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88F. Provision is made with respect to the power to restrict the alteration of admission arrangements following establishment or expansion: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88G; SI 2008/3089 reg 23. Provision is also made as to the reference of objections to the adjudicator (see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88H; SI 2008/3089 regs 24-28), other functions of the adjudicator relating to admission arrangements (see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88I), changes to be made to admission arrangements by the adjudicator (see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88J) and supplementary provision with respect to ss 88H-88J (see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88K; SI 2008/3089 regs 29-31 (reg 31 amended, reg 31A added: SI 2009/1099)). Restrictions are made on the alteration of admission arrangements following a decision by the adjudicator: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88L; SI 2008/3089 regs 32, 33. Regulations may require a local education authority in England (a) to formulate, for any academic year in relation to which prescribed conditions are satisfied, a qualifying scheme for co-ordinating the arrangements for the admission of pupils to maintained schools in their area, and (b) to take prescribed action with a view to securing the adoption of the scheme by themselves and each governing body who are the admission authority for a maintained school in their area; and, subject to specified provision, the Secretary of State may make, in relation to the area of a local education authority in England and an academic year, a scheme for co-ordinating the arrangements, or assisting in the co-ordination of the arrangements, for the admission of pupils to maintained schools in that area: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88M; School Admissions (Co-ordination of Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/3090, regs 4, 5, 7-9, Sch 1. Further provision is made about schemes adopted or made by virtue of s 88M: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88N; SI 2008/3090 reg 10. The Secretary of State may by regulations require local education authorities in England to provide other local education authorities with such information as may be required by them in connection with the exercise of any of their functions under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt 3 Ch 1: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88O; SI 2008/3090 reg 6. A local education authority in England must make such reports to the adjudicator about such matters connected with relevant school admissions as may be prescribed: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88P. Such matters are prescribed by the School Admissions (Local Authority Reports and Admission Forums) (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/3091, reg 4. As to the form, content and timing of reports see SI 2008/3091 regs 5, 7. A relevant person must, on request, provide a local education authority in England with such information as the authority may reasonably require for the purpose of enabling the authority to fulfil their duties under s 88P: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88Q. A clerk to an appeal panel constituted under the 1998 Act s 94 (see PARA 415) is a relevant person: SI 2008/3091 reg 6.

NOTES 1-3--No admission arrangements for a maintained school may require or authorise any interview with an applicant for admission to the school or his parents, where the interview is to be taken into account, to any extent, in determining whether the applicant is to be admitted to the school: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88A(1) (s 88A added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 44). If the maintained school is one at which boarding accommodation is provided for pupils, the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88A(1) does not apply in relation to any interview intended to assess the suitability of an applicant for a boarding place: s 88A(2). Where the admission arrangements for a maintained school make provision for a permitted form of selection by aptitude, s 88A(1) does not prevent the arrangements from requiring or authorising any audition or other oral or practical test to be carried out in relation to an applicant solely for the purpose of ascertaining the applicant's aptitude in accordance with the arrangements: s 88A(3), (4).

NOTE 1--Where the admission authority for a community or voluntary controlled school is the local education authority, it is the duty of the governing body to implement any decision relating to the admission of pupils to the school which is taken by or on behalf of the admission authority: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88(1A) (s 88(1A), (1B) added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 43(1)). The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 88(1A) does not affect (1) any right of appeal which the governing body may have by virtue of arrangements made in pursuance of s 95(2) (see PARA 423); (2) any right to refer the matter to the adjudicator which the governing body may have by virtue of s 95A(3) (see PARA 423); or (3) the application of s 101(2A) (see PARA 435) or s 109(2) (see PARA 442): s 88(1B).

NOTES 3-5--Day now appointed in relation to Wales: SI 2006/1338. As to action to be taken and the circumstances in which an admission authority for a maintained school must give priority to relevant looked after children in its admission arrangements, see the School Admissions (Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/3089, regs 7-11. 'Relevant looked after child' means a child who is looked after by a local authority in accordance with the Children Act 1989 s 22 at the time an application for his admission to a school is made, and who the local authority has confirmed will still be looked after at the time when he is admitted to the school: SI 2008/3089 reg 7(2).

NOTES 3, 6--Definitions of 'regulations' and 'prescribed' in School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(1) amended: Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 para 72.

NOTE 3--School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89(1A) repealed: Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 para 57(3), Sch 2. The National Assembly for Wales may by regulations make provision about the admission of children looked after by local authorities in Wales to maintained schools in Wales: see School Standards and Framework Act 1998 ss 84(7), 97D (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 ss 50(2), 52(1)). In exercise of the power so conferred, the Welsh Ministers have made the Education (Admission of Looked After Children) (Wales) Regulations 2009, SI 2009/821.

NOTES 4, 6, 31--In relation to Wales, the appointed day is 1 February 2006, except in relation to the determination of a maintained school's admission arrangements for any school year earlier than the 2008-09 school year: SI 2006/172.

NOTE 6--SI 1998/3165 revoked: SI 2007/3009. SI 1999/126 replaced in relation to Wales by Education (Determination of Admission Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/174, and revoked in relation to England by School Admissions (Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/3089 (amended by SI 2009/1099). SI 2002/2898 replaced: see now SI 2008/3089. See also Education (Variation of Admission Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/177.

TEXT AND NOTE 13--Also, head (e) in the case of a foundation or voluntary school which has a religious character for the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt 2 (ss 20-83) (see PARA 951), such body or person representing the religion or religious denomination in question as may be prescribed: s 89(2)(e) (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 45).

NOTE 17--'The appropriate bodies', in relation to an admission authority, means the bodies or persons which it was required to consult under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89(2), or would but for s 89(2A) have been required to consult: s 89(10) (substituted by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 41(7); amended by Education and Skills At 2008 Sch 1 para 57(8), Sch 2).

NOTE 38--SI 1999/126 regs 3, 9, 10 replaced in relation to Wales by (Education (Determination of Admission Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/174, regs 4, 11, 12, and revoked in relation to England by School Admissions (Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/3089 (amended by SI 2009/1099).

399. Co-ordination of admission arrangements in England.

- 831 (1) to formulate, for any academic year<sup>3</sup> in relation to which prescribed<sup>4</sup> conditions are satisfied, a qualifying scheme<sup>5</sup> for co-ordinating the arrangements for the admission of pupils<sup>6</sup> to maintained schools<sup>7</sup> in its area<sup>8</sup>; and
- 832 (2) to take prescribed action with a view to securing the adoption of the scheme by it and each governing body which is the admission authority<sup>9</sup> for a maintained school in its area<sup>10</sup>.

Before proposing such a scheme for adoption<sup>11</sup>, a local education authority must comply with such requirements as to consultation as may be prescribed<sup>12</sup>.

The Secretary of State may make, in relation to the area of a local education authority and an academic year, a scheme for co-ordinating the arrangements, or assisting in the co-ordination of the arrangements, for the admission of pupils to maintained schools in that area<sup>13</sup>. Before making such a scheme<sup>14</sup> in relation to the area of any local education authority, the Secretary of State must consult the local education authority, and any governing body who is the admission authority for a school which appears to the Secretary of State to be a school to which the scheme will apply<sup>15</sup>. Such a scheme may not be made<sup>16</sup> in relation to a local education authority and an academic year if, before the prescribed date in the year preceding the year in which that academic year commences: (a) a scheme formulated by the local education authority<sup>17</sup> is adopted in the prescribed manner by the persons mentioned in head (2) above<sup>18</sup>; and (b) the authority provides the Secretary of State with a copy of the scheme and informs him that the scheme has been so adopted<sup>19</sup>. Such a scheme may be varied or revoked by the Secretary of State<sup>20</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by regulations require a local education authority to provide another local education authority with such information as may be required by it in connection with the exercise of any of its functions<sup>21</sup>.

Regulations may provide: (i) that each local education authority must secure that, subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed, no decision made by any admission authority for a maintained school in its area to offer or refuse a child<sup>22</sup> admission to the school will be communicated to the parent<sup>23</sup> of the child except on a single day, designated by the local education authority, in each year<sup>24</sup>; or (ii) that, subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed, a decision made by the admission authority for a maintained school to offer or refuse a child admission to the school will not be communicated to the parent of the child except on a prescribed day<sup>25</sup>.

Regulations may also provide that where any decision as to whether a child is to be granted or refused admission to a maintained school falls to be made in prescribed circumstances, the decision must, if a scheme adopted or made<sup>26</sup> so provides, be made by the local education authority regardless of whether it is the admission authority for the school<sup>27</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'regulations' means regulations made by the Secretary of State under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. As to the regulations made under s 89B (as added) see the Education (Co-ordination of Admission Arrangements) (Primary Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2903 (amended by SI 2003/2751; SI 2004/1515; SI 2005/2); and the Education (Co-ordination of Admission Arrangements) (Secondary Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2904 (amended by SI 2004/1516).

2 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, the provisions of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 ss 89B, 89C (both as added) were not yet in force in Wales (see notes 3, 8 infra). For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under s 89B (as added) may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 2 para (xa) (added by SI 2003/2704).

TEXT AND NOTE 27--Where any decision as to whether a child is to be granted or refused admission to a maintained school is, by virtue of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89C(3), made by the local education authority although it is not the admission authority, the governing body of the school must implement the decision: s 89(3A) (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 43(3)(b)).

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(ix) Admission/D. ADMISSION ARRANGEMENTS/400. Reference of objections about admission arrangements in England and Wales.

400. Reference of objections about admission arrangements in England and Wales.

Where admission arrangements<sup>1</sup> have been determined by an admission authority<sup>2</sup>, but a body<sup>3</sup> wishes to make an objection about those arrangements<sup>4</sup> and the objection does not fall within any description of objections prescribed<sup>5</sup> for these purposes<sup>6</sup>, that body may refer the objection to the adjudicator in relation to England or to the National Assembly for Wales in relation to Wales<sup>7</sup>. Where admission arrangements have been determined by an admission authority<sup>8</sup>, but any parent<sup>9</sup> of a prescribed description wishes to make an objection about those arrangements<sup>10</sup> and the objection falls within any description of objections prescribed for these purposes<sup>11</sup>, that person may refer the objection to the adjudicator in relation to England or the National Assembly for Wales in relation to Wales<sup>12</sup>.

In relation to England, the adjudicator must either decide whether, and to what extent, the objection should be upheld<sup>13</sup>, or in such cases as may be prescribed, refer the objection to the Secretary of State for that question to be decided by him<sup>14</sup>. In relation to a maintained school<sup>15</sup> in Wales where any objection is referred to the National Assembly for Wales, it must decide whether, and to what extent, the objection should be upheld<sup>16</sup>.

Where it is decided that an objection that has been referred should be upheld to any extent, the decision on the objection may specify the modifications<sup>17</sup> that are to be made to the admission arrangements in question<sup>18</sup>. The decision on any objection that has been referred, and the reasons for it, must be published<sup>19</sup>. The decision on the objection is, in relation to the admission arrangements in question, binding on the admission authority and on all persons by whom an objection about those arrangements may be made<sup>20</sup>. If that decision is to uphold the objection to any extent, those arrangements are forthwith to be revised by the admission authority in such a way as to give effect to the decision<sup>21</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'admission arrangements' see PARA 398 note 1 ante.

2 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 90(1)(a). The reference in the text to a determination by an admission authority is a reference to a determination by an admission authority under s 89(4) (as amended in relation to England): see PARA 398 ante. For the meaning of 'admission authority' see PARA 398 note 1 ante.

3 I.e. a body which was, or would but for ibid s 89(2A) (added in relation to England; prospectively added in relation to Wales) (see PARA 398 ante) have been, required to be consulted by the admission authority under s 89(2) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) (see PARA 398 ante): s 90(1)(b) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 51, Sch 4 para 6).

The amendment made by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 6 is brought into force by order made under s 216(4) as from a day to be appointed. In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002, except in relation to a maintained school's admission arrangements for any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 6) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until a day to be appointed in relation to Wales, the reference should be read as a reference to a body consulted by the admission authority under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 89(2) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) (see PARA 398 ante). For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

4 Ibid s 90(1)(b) (as amended: see note 3 supra).

5 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations; and 'regulations' means regulations made by the Secretary of State under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. As to the prescribed descriptions of objections see the Education (Objections to Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/125 (amended, in relation to England, by SI 2002/2901).

6 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 90(1)(c). Regulations under s 90 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) may make provision: (1) as to any conditions which must be satisfied before: (a) an objection can be referred to the adjudicator in relation to England or the National Assembly for Wales in relation to Wales under s 90(1) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) or s 90(2) (see the text and notes 8-12 infra); or (b) the adjudicator or the Assembly is required to determine an objection referred under s 90(2); (2) prescribing the steps which may be taken by an admission authority where an objection has been referred to the adjudicator or the Assembly under s 90(1) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) or s 90(2) but has not yet been determined; (3) as to the manner in which any matters required to be published under s 90(7) (see the text to note 19 infra) are to be published; (4) requiring such matters to be notified to such persons, and in such manner, as may be prescribed; (5) prohibiting or restricting the reference under s 90(1) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) or s 90(2), within such period following a decision by the adjudicator or the Assembly under s 90 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) as may be prescribed, of any objection raising the same (or substantially the same) issues in relation to the admission arrangements of the school in question; (6) prescribing circumstances in which an admission authority may revise the admission arrangements for its school in the light of any decision by the adjudicator or the Assembly relating to the admission arrangements for another school, and the procedure to be followed in such a case: see s 90(9); and see PARA 53 ante. For the meaning of 'adjudicator' see PARA 124 ante.

7 Ibid s 90(1), (5)(a). As to the cases where an objection may not be referred see the Education (Objections to Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/125, reg 2 (substituted, in relation to England, by SI 2002/2901). As to the time within which an objection must be referred see the Education (Objections to Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/125, reg 3. See notes 5, 6 supra.

The adjudicator exercises an original jurisdiction as to the appropriateness of the admission arrangements; he is not reviewing the local education authority's decision: R v Chief Schools Adjudicator, ex p Wirral Metropolitan Borough Council [2000] ELR 620. Accordingly, the court's power in relation to an adjudicator's determination is limited to a review on conventional public law grounds: R (on the application of Wirral Metropolitan Borough Council) v Chief Schools Adjudicator [2001] ELR 574. Applications for judicial review were allowed in R (on the application of Wandsworth London Borough Council) v Schools Adjudicator [2003] EWHC 2969 (Admin), [2004] ELR 274, [2003] All ER (D) 125 (Dec) (remedy chosen was not rationally capable of correcting the unfairness found by the adjudicator); and Governing Body of the London Oratory School v Official Schools Adjudicator [2004] EWHC 3014 (Admin), [2005] ELR 162 (application allowed on grounds of irrationality and the adjudicator's failure to take into account highly material considerations). As to the need for the adjudicator to have regard to the code of practice published under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 84 (as amended) see PARA 393 ante.

8 Ibid s 90(2)(a). The reference in the text to a determination by an admission authority is a reference to a determination by an admission authority under s 89(4) (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) (see PARA 398 ante).

9 As to the meaning of 'parent' see PARA 510 note 1 post; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 142(8).

10 Ibid s 90(2)(b).

11 Ibid s 90(2)(c).

12 Ibid s 90(2), (5)(a). As to the parents who are eligible to refer an objection see the Education (Objections to Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/125, reg 4 (substituted, in relation to England, by SI 2002/2901). As to the objections that may be referred by parents see the Education (Objections to Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/125, reg 5 (amended, in relation to England, by SI 2002/2901). As to the condition to be met before the objections of parents can be determined see the Education (Objections to Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/125, reg 6. See notes 5, 6 supra.

13 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 90(3)(a), (5)(b). The overall purpose of s 90(3), and the Education (Objections to Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/125, reg 9(1) (limitation on subsequent objections: see note 20 infra), is that objectors should, if it is practicable, obtain an adjudicator's decision on their objection on its merits: see Governing Body of the London Oratory School v Schools Adjudicator [2005] EWHC 1842 (Admin), [2005] ELR 484, [2005] All ER (D) 61 (Aug). See notes 5, 6 supra.

14 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 90(3)(b), (5)(b). Where the objection is referred to the Secretary of State under s 90(3)(b), the adjudicator must, if the Secretary of State so requests, give his advice on the question referred to in s 90(3)(b): s 90(4), (5)(b). Regulations must make provision for the cases to be referred to the Secretary of State under s 90(3)(b) to include cases where the objection is concerned with admissions criteria relating to a person's religion or religious denomination: s 90(10). As to the cases prescribed see the Education (Objections to Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/125, reg 7. See notes 5, 6, 13 supra. 20 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 90(8). As to the limitation on later objections see the Education (Objections to Admission Arrangements) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/125, reg 9; and as to whether reg 9(1) prevents a second objection being determined in the wake of an earlier objection being decided at a previous judicial review hearing see Governing Body of the London Oratory School v Schools Adjudicator [2005] EWHC 1842 (Admin), [2005] ELR 484, [2005] All ER (D) 61 (Aug). #### 401. Publication of information about admissions in England.

Regulations made in relation to England<sup>1</sup> may:

- 833 (1) require the publication by a local education authority<sup>2</sup> of such information relating to admissions as may be prescribed<sup>3</sup>;
- 834 (2) require the publication by the governing body<sup>4</sup> of a foundation or voluntary aided school<sup>5</sup> of such information relating to admissions as may be prescribed<sup>6</sup>;
- 835 (3) require or allow the publication by the governing body of any school maintained by a local education authority, or by the local education authority on behalf of the governing body, of such information relating to the school as may be prescribed<sup>7</sup>; and

404. Discrimination in relation to admissions in England and Wales.

It is unlawful to discriminate<sup>1</sup> against a person in the terms on which he is offered admission to a school<sup>2</sup> or by refusing or deliberately omitting to accept an application for his admission as a pupil<sup>3</sup>. However, this prohibition does not apply to the admission of pupils to any single-sex establishment<sup>4</sup> or to schools which are not single-sex establishments but which have some pupils as boarders and others as non-boarders, and which admit as boarders pupils of one sex only<sup>5</sup>. Where at any time the admissions arrangements of such an establishment or school are altered so that the establishment ceases to be a single-sex establishment, or the school ceases to admit single-sex boarders, the responsible body may apply for an order authorising discriminatory admissions during the transitional period specified in the order<sup>6</sup>.

It is unlawful to discriminate on the grounds of race<sup>7</sup> against a person in the terms on which it offers to admit him to the establishment as a pupil<sup>8</sup> or by refusing or deliberately omitting to accept an application for his admission to the establishment as a pupil<sup>9</sup>. It is unlawful also for any responsible body<sup>10</sup> to subject to harassment<sup>11</sup> a person who applies for admission to the establishment as a pupil<sup>12</sup>.

405. Duty to set limit on infant class sizes in England and Wales.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> must be made<sup>2</sup> imposing a limit on class<sup>3</sup> sizes for infant classes<sup>4</sup> at maintained schools<sup>5</sup>, and must specify the school years in relation to which any such limit is to have effect<sup>6</sup>. Any limit so imposed must specify the maximum number of pupils that a class to which the limit applies may contain while an ordinary teaching session is conducted by a single school teacher<sup>7</sup>. Such regulations must be so framed that the maximum number specified is 30<sup>8</sup>. Regulations may provide for any limit imposed to take effect either at the same time in the case of each of the age groups into which the pupils in infant classes fall<sup>9</sup>, or at different times<sup>10</sup> in the case of different such age groups<sup>11</sup>. Such regulations may also provide that, in any circumstances specified in the regulations, any such limit either is not to apply or is to operate in such manner as is so specified<sup>12</sup>.

Where any limit imposed applies to an infant class at a maintained school, the local education authority<sup>13</sup> and the governing body<sup>14</sup> must exercise their functions with a view to securing that that limit is complied with in relation to that class<sup>15</sup>.

1 'Regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. See note 2 infra.

For the purposes of Pt I Ch I (as amended), 'ordinary teaching session' does not include a school assembly or other school activity usually conducted with large groups of pupils: s 4. For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(1).

4 For the purposes of ibid Pt I Ch I (as amended), 'infant class' means a class containing pupils the majority of whom will attain the age of five, six or seven during the course of the school year: s 4. ## E. ADMISSION NUMBERS IN WALES

(A) LIMIT ON INFANT CLASS SIZES

406. Plans by local education authority for reducing infant class sizes.

Every local education authority in Wales<sup>1</sup> must prepare a statement setting out the arrangements which the authority proposes to make for the purpose of securing that any limit on infant class sizes<sup>2</sup> imposed<sup>3</sup> is complied with at schools maintained by the authority<sup>4</sup>. The statement must contain such information as to the proposed arrangements and take such form as may be prescribed<sup>5</sup>. In preparing the statement the authority must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>6</sup>. In the course of preparing the statement the authority must carry out such consultation as may be prescribed<sup>7</sup>.

A prescribed body or person, or a body or person falling within any prescribed category, must provide the authority with such documents<sup>8</sup> or information, or with such other assistance, as the authority may reasonably request from that body or person for the purpose of enabling it to prepare the statement<sup>9</sup>.

The authority must submit the statement to the Assembly for its approval by such date as may be prescribed<sup>10</sup>, or by such later date as it may allow, where it is satisfied that it is reasonable to do so in view of any particular circumstances relating to the authority<sup>11</sup>. If the Assembly decides not to approve the authority's proposed arrangements it must notify the authority of its decision and of its reasons for it<sup>12</sup>, and the authority must prepare a revised statement in respect of its proposed arrangements<sup>13</sup>.

407. Payment of grant in connection with reductions in infant class sizes.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> must make provision for the payment by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>2</sup> of grants to local education authorities<sup>3</sup> in respect of expenditure incurred or to be incurred by them for the purpose of securing that any limit on infant class size imposed<sup>4</sup> is complied with in relation to infant classes<sup>5</sup> at schools maintained by them<sup>6</sup>. Such regulations must provide for the Assembly<sup>7</sup>: (1) to withhold grants from a local education authority where no proposed arrangements by that authority have been approved by it<sup>8</sup>; and (2) when determining whether any grant (and, if so, what amount) should be paid by it under the regulations to a local education authority, to have regard to its proposed arrangements as approved<sup>9</sup>. Regulations may provide: (a) for the payment of grant to be dependent on the fulfilment of such conditions as may be determined by or in accordance with the regulations<sup>10</sup>; and (b) for requiring local education authorities to whom payments have been made under the regulations to comply with such requirements as may be so determined<sup>11</sup>.

(B) FIXING ADMISSION NUMBERS

408. Fixing admission numbers.

The admission authority<sup>1</sup> for a maintained school<sup>2</sup> must not fix as the admission number<sup>3</sup> for any relevant age group and any school year a number which is less than the relevant standard number<sup>4</sup>. The admission authority may, subject to the duty of local education authorities<sup>5</sup> and governing bodies<sup>6</sup> to comply with the limit on infant class sizes<sup>7</sup>, fix as the admission number for any relevant age group and any school year a number which exceeds the relevant standard number<sup>8</sup>.

A proposal<sup>9</sup> may be made to the admission authority, by whichever of the governing body and the local education authority is not the admission authority, for fixing as the admission number for any relevant age group and any school year a number which exceeds both the relevant standard number<sup>10</sup>, and any admission number fixed, or proposed to be fixed, for that age group and year by the admission authority<sup>11</sup>. If the admission authority does not give the body making the proposal notice in writing rejecting the proposal within the period of two months beginning with the day after that on which the proposal was received by the admission authority, the admission authority must give effect to the proposal<sup>12</sup>. Where the admission authority gives such notice within that period, the body making the proposal may, within 28 days of receiving the notice, make an application<sup>13</sup> for a decision increasing the relevant standard number<sup>14</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'admission authority' see PARA 398 note 1 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 393 note 3 ante.

3 For these purposes, references, in relation to a school, to the 'admission number' for any relevant age group and any school year are references to the number of pupils in that age group it is intended to admit to the school in that school year: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 93(10). For the meaning of 'relevant age group' see PARA 396 note 12 ante. For the meaning of 'school year' see PARA 15 note 9 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). Section 93 is repealed by the Education Act 2002 Sch 22 Pt 3 as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 5(1)(b)) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

Following the coming into force of regulations under s 1 (as amended) (duty to set limit on infant class sizes: see PARA 405 ante) by virtue of which any limit on class sizes is to apply, or be varied, in relation to any infant class, regulations may provide for the operation of s 93(1) and s 86(5) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) (parental preferences: see PARA 396 ante) to be suspended to such extent as is considered appropriate for the purpose of enabling: (1) admission authorities to review under Sch 23 para 11 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARA 414 post) any standard number applicable to admissions to an infant class at any maintained school; and (2) any application to reduce any such number under Sch 23 para 4(4) (repealed) or Sch 23 para 8(4) (see PARA 411 post) (as the case may be) to be decided in accordance with Sch 23 (as amended) (see PARAS 409-414 post): s

93(8). For the meaning of 'infant class' see PARA 405 note 4 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 93(9). Regulations under s 93(8) may provide for any suspension to apply in relation to such age groups, for such period and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the regulations: s 93(9). See note 3 supra. 'Regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. - 846 (4) decide not to vary the standard number<sup>7</sup>.

Before making any decision in accordance with head (2) or head (3) above, the Assembly must consult the local education authority<sup>8</sup> and the governing body<sup>9</sup> of the school<sup>10</sup>. When making a decision<sup>11</sup>, the Assembly must have regard to: (a) the school organisation plan for the area in which the school is situated<sup>12</sup>; and (b) where the application is for the reduction of a standard number at a primary school<sup>13</sup>, any limit on infant class sizes imposed<sup>14</sup> which applies to that school and to any other school which is likely to be affected if any reduction of that number were to be made<sup>15</sup>.

The Assembly must not make a decision reducing a standard number unless it is satisfied that the reduction is necessary, having regard to the school's capacity to accommodate pupils<sup>16</sup>. However, where an application is for a reduction of any standard number applicable to admissions to an infant class<sup>17</sup>, and where the Assembly is satisfied that the admission to the school in any school year<sup>18</sup> of a number of children in any relevant age group<sup>19</sup> equal to the relevant standard number<sup>20</sup> would prejudice the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources by reason of the duty to comply with the limit on infant class sizes<sup>21</sup>, the Assembly may decide<sup>22</sup> to reduce the standard number by the smallest number which it considers sufficient to avoid such prejudice arising<sup>23</sup>.

(E) REVIEW OF STANDARD NUMBERS

414. Review of standard numbers.

The admission authority<sup>1</sup> for a maintained school<sup>2</sup> must keep under review<sup>3</sup> any standard numbers applying to the school<sup>4</sup>, having regard to: (1) the school's capacity to accommodate pupils<sup>5</sup>; and (2) in the case of any standard number applicable to admissions to an infant class, the need to secure that the admission to the school in any school year<sup>6</sup> of a number of children in any relevant age group<sup>7</sup> equal to the relevant standard number<sup>8</sup> would not prejudice the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources<sup>9</sup> by reason of the duty to comply with the limit on infant class sizes<sup>10</sup>. Where, as a result of such a review, the authority considers that any standard number at the school should be varied in order to enable the objective referred to in head (2) above to be achieved, it must make an application for a decision<sup>11</sup> varying the standard number<sup>12</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'admission authority' see PARA 398 note 1 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 393 note 3 ante.

3 The admission authority for a maintained school containing any infant class must in particular carry out a review under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 93(3), Sch 23 para 11(1) as soon as reasonably practicable following the coming into force of regulations under s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 396 ante) by virtue of which any limit on class sizes is to apply, or be varied, in relation to any such class at the school: Sch 23 para 11(2). For the meaning of 'infant class' see PARA 405 note 4 ante; definition applied by virtue of Sch 23 para 11(2).

Section 93 and Sch 23 para 11 are repealed by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3 as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002 (except in relation to any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, arts 3-4, Schedule Pt 2 para 5(1)(b)) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. ## F. ADMISSION APPEALS

(A) APPEAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR PARENTS

415. Appeal arrangements.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> must make arrangements for:

- 847 (1) enabling the parent<sup>2</sup> of a child<sup>3</sup> to appeal against any decision made by or on behalf of the authority as to the school<sup>4</sup> at which education is to be provided for the child in the exercise of the authority's functions<sup>5</sup>, other than a decision leading to or embodied in a direction for admission<sup>6</sup>;
- 848 (2) in the case of a community or voluntary controlled school<sup>7</sup> maintained by the authority<sup>8</sup>, enabling the parent of a child to appeal against any decision made by or on behalf of the governing body<sup>9</sup> refusing the child admission to the school<sup>10</sup>; and
- 849 (3) enabling the parent of a child who has been admitted to a community or voluntary controlled school maintained by the authority to appeal against any decision made by or on behalf of the governing body refusing permission for the child to enter the school's sixth form<sup>11</sup>.

The governing body of a foundation<sup>12</sup> or voluntary aided school must make arrangements for:

- 850 (a) enabling the parent of a child to appeal against any decision made by or on behalf of the governing body refusing the child admission to the school<sup>13</sup>; and
- 851 (b) enabling the parent of a child who has been admitted to the school to appeal against any decision made by or on behalf of the governing body refusing permission for the child to enter the school's sixth form<sup>14</sup>.

Joint arrangements may be made under head (a) or head (b) above<sup>15</sup> by the governing bodies of two or more foundation or voluntary aided schools maintained by the same local education authority<sup>16</sup>.

An appeal pursuant to any arrangements made under heads (1) to (3) above or head (a) or head (b) above is made to an appeal panel constituted in accordance with regulations<sup>17</sup>. Regulations may make provision about the making of appeals pursuant to such arrangements, including provision: (i) as to the procedure on such appeals<sup>18</sup>; (ii) for the payment by the local education authority of allowances to members of an appeal panel<sup>19</sup>; and (iii) as to the grounds on which an appeal panel may, in the case of any appeal against a decision made on the ground that prejudice in the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources<sup>20</sup> would arise by reason of the duty to comply with the limit on infant class sizes<sup>21</sup>, determine that a place is to be offered to the child concerned<sup>22</sup>.

The decision of an appeal panel on an appeal pursuant to any arrangements made under heads (1) to (3) or head (a) or head (b) above is binding on<sup>23</sup>: (A) the local education authority or the governing body by whom or on whose behalf the decision under appeal was made<sup>24</sup>; and (B) in the case of a decision made by or on behalf of a local education authority, the governing body of a community or voluntary controlled school at which the appeal panel determines that a place should be offered to the child in question<sup>25</sup>.

417. Appeal arrangements made by local education authorities.

An appeal pursuant to arrangements made by a local education authority<sup>1</sup> is made to an appeal panel which consists<sup>2</sup> of three or five members appointed by the authority from: (1) persons who are eligible to be lay members<sup>3</sup>; (2) persons who have experience in education or who are acquainted with educational conditions in the area of the authority<sup>4</sup>; or (3) persons who are parents<sup>5</sup> of registered<sup>6</sup> pupils<sup>7</sup> at a school<sup>8</sup>. Of the members of an appeal panel: (a) at least one must be a person who is eligible to be a lay member and is appointed as such<sup>9</sup>; and (b) at least one must be a person falling within head (2) or head (3) above<sup>10</sup>. In relation to an appeals panel sitting in Wales<sup>11</sup>, the local education authority must appoint one member of the panel to act as chair<sup>12</sup>. Sufficient persons may be appointed by the authority to enable two or more appeal panels to sit at the same time<sup>13</sup>.

The following persons are disqualified for membership of an appeal panel<sup>14</sup>:

- 855 (i) any member of the authority or of the governing body<sup>15</sup> of the school in question<sup>16</sup>;
- 856 (ii) any person employed by the authority or the governing body, other than a person employed as a teacher<sup>17</sup>;
- 857 (iii) any person who has, or at any time has had, any connection with the authority or the school, or with any person within head (ii) above, of a kind which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about his ability to act impartially in relation to the authority or the school<sup>18</sup>.

A person must not be a member of an appeal panel for the consideration of an appeal against a decision if he was among those who made the decision or took part in discussions as to whether the decision should be made<sup>19</sup>. A person who is a teacher at a school must not be a member of an appeal panel for the consideration of an appeal involving a question whether a child<sup>20</sup> is to be admitted to that school<sup>21</sup>.

Where, at any time after an appeal panel consisting of five members has begun to consider an appeal, any of the members: (A) dies<sup>22</sup>; or (B) becomes unable through illness to continue as a member<sup>23</sup>; or (C) in relation to an appeals panel sitting in Wales, becomes unable to continue as a member because doubts may reasonably be raised about his ability to act impartially<sup>24</sup>, the panel may continue with its consideration and determination of the appeal so long as the number of the remaining members is not less than three and the requirements of heads (A) and (B) above (and also, in relation to Wales, head (C) above) are satisfied<sup>25</sup>.

Where an appeal is made pursuant to joint arrangements made by a local education authority and the governing body or bodies of one or more foundation or voluntary aided<sup>26</sup> schools maintained by the authority<sup>27</sup>, these provisions<sup>28</sup> apply with modifications<sup>29</sup>.

<sup>2</sup> In accordance with the Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 3(a), (d), Sch 1 paras 1, 4 (see PARA 417 ante) or the Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 3(a), (d), Sch 1 paras 1, 4 (see PARA 417 ante). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

<sup>3</sup> Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 7(1); Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 7(1). The reference in the text to appeal arrangements made by governing bodies is a reference to appeal arrangements made in accordance with the Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 3(b)-(d), Sch 1 paras 2-4 or the Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 3(b)-(d), Sch 1 paras 2-4 (see PARAS 417-418 ante). For these purposes, the reference to an approved duty in the Local Government Act 1972 s 173(4) (as amended) is to be read as a reference to attendance at a meeting of an appeal panel: Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 7(1); Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 7(1). As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante. For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 393 note 3 ante. As to appeal panels for admission appeals see PARAS 417-418 ante.

Such an appeal panel is included in the bodies to which the Local Government Act 1972 s 174(1) (as amended) (travelling and subsistence allowances :see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 174) applies: Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 7(2); Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 7(2).

In the Local Government Act 1972 s 174(1) (as amended) (see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 174), in its application to a panel constituted in accordance with the Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 3(a)-(d), Sch 1 paras 1-4 (see PARAS 417-418 ante) or the Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 3(a)-(d), Sch 1 paras 1-4 (see PARAS 417-418 ante), the reference to payments at rates determined by the body in question is to be read as a reference to payments at rates determined: (1) by the authority, if the panel is constituted under arrangements referred to in the Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 3(a), (d) (see PARAS 417-418 ante) or the Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 3(a), (d) (see PARAS 417-418 ante); and (2) otherwise, by the governing body or bodies of the school or schools in question: Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 7(2); Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 7(2).

421. Indemnity.

Any local education authority<sup>1</sup> or governing body<sup>2</sup> required to make admission appeal arrangements<sup>3</sup> must indemnify the members of any appeal panel constituted for the purposes of those arrangements<sup>4</sup> against any reasonable legal costs and expenses reasonably incurred by those members in connection with any decision or action taken by them in good faith in pursuance of their functions as members of that panel<sup>5</sup>.

Where any such appeal panel is constituted by: (1) the governing bodies of two or more foundation or voluntary aided schools maintained by the same local education authority; or (2) a local education authority and the governing body or bodies of one or more foundation or voluntary aided schools maintained by the authority, any liability arising under the Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 8(1) or the Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 8(1) is a joint and several liability of the bodies by whom the joint arrangements are made unless otherwise previously agreed in writing between those bodies: Education (Admissions Appeals Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2899, reg 8(2); Education (Admission Appeals Arrangements) (Wales) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1398, reg 8(2). As to foundation and voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante. For the meaning of 'school maintained by a local education authority' see PARA 94 ante. For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(ix) Admission/F. ADMISSION APPEALS/(A) Appeal Arrangements for Parents/422. Procedure for admission appeals.

422. Procedure for admission appeals.

An admission appeal<sup>1</sup> must be by notice in writing setting out the grounds on which it is made<sup>2</sup>. An appeal panel<sup>3</sup> must give the appellant an opportunity of appearing and making oral representations, and may allow him to be accompanied by a friend or to be represented<sup>4</sup>.

The matters to be taken into account by an appeal panel in considering an appeal include any preference as to the choice of school<sup>5</sup> expressed by the appellant in respect of the child<sup>6</sup> and the arrangements for the admission of pupils<sup>7</sup> published<sup>8</sup> by the local education authority<sup>9</sup> or the governing body<sup>10</sup>. Where the decision under appeal was made on the ground that prejudice in the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources would arise by reason of the duty to comply with the limit on infant class sizes<sup>11</sup>, an appeal panel must determine that a place is to be offered to the child only if it is satisfied: (1) that the decision was not one which a reasonable admission authority<sup>12</sup> would make in the circumstances of the case<sup>13</sup>; or (2) that the child would have been offered a place if the admission arrangements<sup>14</sup> had been properly implemented<sup>15</sup>.

Appeals are heard in private except when the body or bodies by whom the appeal arrangements<sup>16</sup> are made direct otherwise<sup>17</sup>, but: (a) if the panel so directs, one member of the local education authority may attend, as an observer, any hearing of an appeal by an appeal panel constituted<sup>18</sup> by the local education authority<sup>19</sup>; (b) if the panel so directs, one member of the governing body of the school in question may attend, as an observer, any hearing of an appeal by an appeal panel constituted<sup>20</sup> by the local education authority and the governing body or bodies<sup>21</sup>; and (c) one member of the Council on Tribunals<sup>22</sup> may attend, as an observer, any meeting of any appeal panel at which an appeal is considered<sup>23</sup>.

In the event of a disagreement between the members of an appeal panel, the appeal under consideration must be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast and, in the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the panel has a second or casting vote<sup>24</sup>.

The decision of an appeal panel and the grounds on which it is made<sup>25</sup> must be communicated by the panel in writing to the appellant and the local education authority<sup>26</sup>, and, in the case of an appeal to an appeal panel constituted by governing bodies<sup>27</sup>, to the governing body by whom or on whose behalf the decision appealed against was made<sup>28</sup>.

All matters relating to the procedure on appeals, including the time within which they are to be brought, are determined subject to the provisions described above<sup>29</sup> by the body or bodies by whom the arrangements<sup>30</sup> for admission appeals are made<sup>31</sup>.

Should the panel have to adjourn and re-convene before all appeals are heard and the decisions reached, it should have the same members as heard the earlier appeals<sup>32</sup>. Where there are multiple appeals in relation to a school, the panel should normally hear all of them before deciding<sup>33</sup>.

In such cases, the panel determines an appeal under a two stage process: (1) a factual stage, whereby the panel must decide as a matter of fact whether prejudice to efficient education or efficient use of resources would arise if the child in question were admitted; and (2) a balancing stage, where the panel must exercise its discretion in weighing parental factors against the degree of prejudice in admitting the child: see R v South Glamorgan Appeals Committee, ex p Evans (10 May 1984) Lexis; R v Comr for Local Administration, ex p Croydon London Borough Council [1989] 1 All ER 1033, 87 LGR 221; W (A Minor) v Education Appeal Committee of Lancashire County Council [1994] 3 FCR 1, [1994] ELR 530, CA. ## (B) APPEAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR GOVERNING BODIES IN RELATION TO DECISIONS TO ADMIT EXCLUDED CHILDREN

The provisions relating to arrangements for admission appeals<sup>1</sup> do not require any arrangements to be made for enabling the parent<sup>2</sup> of a child<sup>3</sup> to appeal against a decision made by or on behalf of the admission authority<sup>4</sup> for a maintained school<sup>5</sup> and refusing the child admission to the school<sup>6</sup>, in a case where, at the time when the decision was made, the child was excluded from two or more schools<sup>7</sup>. Where a local education authority<sup>8</sup> is the admission authority for a community or voluntary controlled school<sup>9</sup>, the authority must make arrangements for enabling the governing body<sup>10</sup> of the school to appeal against any decision made by or on behalf of the authority to admit to the school such a child<sup>11</sup>.

An appeal by the governing body pursuant to any such arrangements is made to an appeal panel constituted in accordance with regulations<sup>12</sup>. Regulations may make provision about the making of appeals pursuant to such arrangements, including provision: (1) requiring prescribed<sup>13</sup> information to be given to governing bodies in prescribed circumstances<sup>14</sup>; (2) as to the procedure on such appeals<sup>15</sup>; (3) for the payment by the local education authority of allowances to members of an appeal panel<sup>16</sup>; and (4) as to the matters to which an appeal panel is to have regard in considering an appeal<sup>17</sup>.

The decision of an appeal panel is binding on the local education authority and the governing body<sup>18</sup>.

423 Appeal arrangements in relation to excluded children

TEXT AND NOTES 5-7--School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 95(1) amended, s 95(1A) added: Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 para 67.

NOTE 11--The 1998 Act s 95(2) does not apply in relation to a decision made by or on behalf of a local education authority in England to admit to a school a child who is looked after by a local authority in England (provision for references to the adjudicator in relation to such a decision being made by s 95A): s 95(2A) (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 48(1)). Where (1) a local education authority in England is the admission authority for a community or voluntary controlled school, and (2) a decision is made by or on behalf of the authority to admit to the school a child who, at the time when the decision is made, is looked after by a local authority in England and to whom (at that time) the 1998 Act s 87(2) applies, then the local education authority must give notice of the decision to the governing body of the school, and the governing body of the school may, within the period of seven days beginning with the day on which it is notified of the decision, refer the matter to the adjudicator: s 95A(1)-(3) (s 95A added by the 2006 Act s 48(2)). Such a reference to the adjudicator may only be made on the ground that the admission of the child to the school would seriously prejudice the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources: 1998 Act s 95A(4). If the adjudicator determines that the admission of the child to the school would seriously prejudice the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources, (a) the decision to admit the child to the school ceases to have effect, but (b) the adjudicator may determine that another maintained school in England is to be required to admit the child: s 95A(5). Such a determination that another maintained school in England is to be required to admit the child may only be made with the agreement of the local authority who look after the child, and such a determination may not be made if the child is permanently excluded from the other school or the admission of the child to the other school would seriously prejudice the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources: s 95A(6), (7). If the adjudicator determines under s 95A(5)(b) that another school is to be required to admit the child, the admission authority for the school must admit the child to the school and, if the admission authority is not the governing body of the school, the admission authority must give notice in writing to the governing body and head teacher of the school of the adjudicator's decision: s 95A(8). Regulations may make provision (i) requiring the adjudicator to consult prescribed persons or persons of a prescribed description before making any determination in connection with a reference under s 95A; (ii) requiring an admission authority for a maintained school to provide information which falls within a prescribed description and is requested by the adjudicator for the purposes of any such determination: s 95A(9). See the School Admissions (Adjudicator Determinations Relating to Looked After and Certain Other Children) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/105.

425. Appeal panels in relation to excluded children.

An appeal by a governing body<sup>1</sup> against a decision<sup>2</sup> by or on behalf of a local education authority<sup>3</sup> to admit a child<sup>4</sup> excluded from two or more schools<sup>5</sup> is made to an appeal panel which consists<sup>6</sup> of three or five members appointed by the authority from: (1) persons who are eligible to be lay members<sup>7</sup>; (2) persons who have experience in education or who are acquainted with educational conditions in the area of the authority<sup>8</sup>; or (3) persons who are parents<sup>9</sup> of registered<sup>10</sup> pupils<sup>11</sup> at a school<sup>12</sup>. Of the members of an appeal panel: (a) at least one must be a person who is eligible to be a lay member and is appointed as such<sup>13</sup>; and (b) at least one must be a person falling within head (2) or head (3) above<sup>14</sup>. In relation to an appeals panel sitting in Wales<sup>15</sup>, the local education authority must appoint one member of the panel to act as chair<sup>16</sup>. Sufficient persons may be appointed by the authority to enable two or more appeal panels to sit at the same time<sup>17</sup>.

The following persons are disqualified for membership of an appeal panel<sup>18</sup>:

- 864 (i) any member of the authority or of the governing body of the school in question<sup>19</sup>;
- 865 (ii) any person employed by the authority or the governing body, other than a person employed as a teacher<sup>20</sup>;
- 866 (iii) any person who has, or at any time has had, any connection with the authority or the school, or with any person within head (ii) above, of a kind which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about his ability to act impartially in relation to the authority or the school<sup>21</sup>.

A person must not be a member of an appeal panel for the consideration of an appeal against a decision to admit a child excluded from two or more schools<sup>22</sup> if he has to any extent been involved in any previous consideration of the question whether the child in question should or should not be reinstated at any school from which he has at any time been permanently excluded, or in any previous such appeal relating to the child<sup>23</sup>. A person who is a teacher at a school must not be a member of an appeal panel for the consideration of an appeal involving a question whether a child is to be admitted to that school<sup>24</sup>.

Where, at any time after an appeal panel consisting of five members has begun to consider an appeal, any of the members: (A) dies<sup>25</sup>; or (B) becomes unable through illness to continue as a member<sup>26</sup>; or (C) in relation to an appeals panel sitting in Wales, becomes unable to continue as a member because doubts may reasonably be raised about his ability to act impartially<sup>27</sup>, the panel may continue with its consideration and determination of the appeal so long as the number of the remaining members is not less than three and the requirements of heads (A) and (B) above (and also, in relation to Wales, head (C) above) are satisfied<sup>28</sup>.

ADMISSION APPEALS/(B) Appeal Arrangements for Governing Bodies in relation to Decisions to admit Excluded Children/429. Procedure for appeals by governing bodies in relation to excluded children.

429. Procedure for appeals by governing bodies in relation to excluded children.

An appeal<sup>1</sup> by a governing body<sup>2</sup> against a decision by or on behalf of a local education authority<sup>3</sup> to admit a child<sup>4</sup> excluded from two or more schools<sup>5</sup> must be by notice in writing setting out the grounds on which it is made<sup>6</sup>. The appeal panel must meet to consider an appeal on such date as the local education authority may determine<sup>7</sup>. On an appeal the panel must allow the local education authority and the governing body to make written representations<sup>8</sup>, and must allow an officer of the authority nominated by the authority, and a governor<sup>9</sup> nominated by the governing body, to appear and make oral representations<sup>10</sup>, and it must also allow the governing body to be represented<sup>11</sup>.

In considering such an appeal, the appeal panel must have regard to the reasons for the local education authority's decision that the child in question should be admitted<sup>12</sup> and any reasons put forward by the governing body as to why the child's admission would be inappropriate<sup>13</sup>.

Appeals must be heard in private except when the local education authority directs otherwise<sup>14</sup>, but: (1) if the panel so directs, one member of the local education authority may attend, as an observer, any hearing of an appeal by an appeal panel<sup>15</sup>; and (2) one member of the Council on Tribunals<sup>16</sup> may attend, as an observer, any meeting of an appeal panel at which an appeal is considered<sup>17</sup>. Two or more appeals may be combined and dealt with in the same proceedings if the appeal panel considers that it is expedient to do so because the issues raised by the appeals are the same or connected<sup>18</sup>.

In the event of a disagreement between the members of an appeal panel, the appeal under consideration must be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast and, in the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the panel has a second or casting vote<sup>19</sup>. The decision of an appeal panel and the grounds on which it is made must be communicated by the panel in writing to the local education authority and the governing body<sup>20</sup>.

All matters relating to the procedure on appeals are determined subject to the provisions described above<sup>21</sup> by the local education authority<sup>22</sup>.

G. POWER TO DIRECT ADMISSION OF CHILD TO SCHOOL

430. Direction to admit child to specified school.

The local education authority<sup>1</sup> may give a direction<sup>2</sup> to the governing body<sup>3</sup> of a school<sup>4</sup> for which it is not the admission authority<sup>5</sup>, if, in the case of any child<sup>6</sup> in its area, either (or both) of the following conditions are satisfied in relation to each school which is a reasonable distance from his home and provides suitable education<sup>7</sup>. The conditions are: (1) he has been refused admission<sup>8</sup> to the school<sup>9</sup>; or (2) he is permanently excluded<sup>10</sup> from the school<sup>11</sup>. Such a direction must specify a school which is a reasonable distance from the child's home<sup>12</sup> and from which the child is not permanently excluded<sup>13</sup>. A direction must, unless it is given on the determination of the Secretary of State<sup>14</sup>, specify a school in the area<sup>15</sup> of the local education authority<sup>16</sup>. A direction to admit a child must not specify a school if his admission would result in prejudice to the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources<sup>17</sup> by reason of the duty<sup>18</sup> to comply with the limit on infant class sizes<sup>19</sup>. Where a school is specified in a direction, the governing body must admit the child to the school<sup>20</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities and their areas see PARA 20 ante.

2 I.e. a direction under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 96 (as amended) to admit a child to a specified school. As to the procedure for giving directions to admit a child to a specified school see PARA 431 post.

7 Ibid s 96(1) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 51, Sch 4 para 10). For these purposes, 'suitable education', in relation to a child, means efficient full-time education suitable to his age, ability and aptitude and to any special educational needs he may have: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 96(7). For the meaning of 'special educational needs' see PARA 984 post; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). Discretion only arises under s 96(1) (as amended) if the local education authority is satisfied that the conditions are satisfied in relation to 'each' school, meaning 'every' school rather than 'a' school: R (on the application of B) v Hertfordshire County Council [2004] EWHC 2324 (Admin), [2005] ELR 17.

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 96 (as amended) may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 2 para (z). ### 430 Direction to admit child to specified school

TEXT AND NOTES--A local education authority in England may, in relation to a child looked after by the authority, direct an admission authority for any school in England to admit the child to the school, but such a direction must not specify a school from which the child is permanently excluded: see the 1998 Act ss 84(7), 97A (ss 84(7), 97A, 97B added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 50(1), (2)). As to the procedure to be followed for giving such a direction, and the local education authority's obligation to consult the admission authority before giving a direction, see the 1998 Act s 97B. See further s 97C; and PARA 431. The National Assembly for Wales may by regulations make provision about the admission of children looked after by local authorities in Wales to maintained schools in Wales: see ss 84(7), 97D (added by the 2006 Act ss 50(2), 52(1)). In exercise of the power so conferred, the Welsh Ministers have made the Education (Admission of Looked After Children) (Wales) Regulations 2009, SI 2009/821.

NOTE 16--A direction under the 1998 Act s 96 must not specify a school which has in place admission arrangements that provide for selection by ability falling within the 1998 Act s 99(2)(c) (see PARA 433) unless the child satisfies the selection criteria: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 96(3A) (added by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 43(3)).

431. Procedure for giving direction to admit child to specified school.

Before deciding to give a direction to admit a child<sup>1</sup> to a specified school<sup>2</sup>, the local education authority<sup>3</sup> must consult the parent<sup>4</sup> of the child<sup>5</sup> and the governing body<sup>6</sup> of the school it proposes to specify in the direction<sup>7</sup>. Where the local education authority decides to give such a direction specifying any school: (1) it must, before doing so, serve a notice in writing of its decision on the governing body and head teacher<sup>8</sup> of the school<sup>9</sup>; and (2) it must not give the direction until the period for referring the matter to the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup> has expired and, if it is so referred, the Secretary of State has made his determination<sup>11</sup>.

The governing body may, within the period of 15 days beginning with the day on which the notice was served, refer the matter to the Secretary of State and, if it does so, must inform the local education authority<sup>12</sup>. On such a reference, the Secretary of State may determine which school is to be required to admit the child, and if he does so: (a) where the local education authority<sup>13</sup> is the admission authority<sup>14</sup> for that school, it must admit the child to the school and give notice in writing to the governing body and head teacher of the school of the Secretary of State's determination<sup>15</sup>; and (b) in any other case, that school will be specified in the direction<sup>16</sup>. The Secretary of State must not make such a determination in relation to a school if the child's admission to the school would result in prejudice to the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources<sup>17</sup> by reason of the duty<sup>18</sup> to comply with the limit on infant class sizes<sup>19</sup>.

A direction to admit a child to a specified school must be given by notice in writing and a copy of the notice must be given by the local education authority to the head teacher of the school<sup>20</sup>.

H. NURSERY AND SPECIAL SCHOOLS

432. Special arrangements for the admission of pupils.

The provisions of Chapter I of Part III of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998<sup>1</sup> govern arrangements for the admission<sup>2</sup> of pupils<sup>3</sup> to maintained schools<sup>4</sup>. However, special provision is made in relation to admissions for nursery education or to nursery<sup>5</sup> or special schools<sup>6</sup> and in relation to children<sup>7</sup> under the compulsory school age<sup>8</sup> or children with statements of special educational needs<sup>9</sup>.

Children admitted to a school for nursery education and subsequently transferred to a reception class<sup>10</sup> at the school are regarded for the purposes of the legislation as admitted to the school, otherwise than for nursery education, on being so transferred<sup>11</sup>.

Nothing in the statutory provisions governing admission<sup>12</sup> applies in relation to nursery schools or to children who will be under compulsory school age at the time of their proposed admission<sup>13</sup>. However, where the arrangements for the admission of pupils to a maintained school provide for the admission to the school of children who will be under compulsory school age at the time of their proposed admission, Chapter I of Part III of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 applies in relation to the admission of such pupils to the school otherwise than for nursery education<sup>14</sup>.

The person responsible for admitting, or refusing to admit, children to a maintained school for nursery education is the person who<sup>15</sup> is the admission authority for the school<sup>16</sup>.

Nothing in the statutory provisions governing admission<sup>17</sup> applies in relation to special schools<sup>18</sup> or to children for whom statements of special educational needs are maintained<sup>19</sup>.

Regulations may make provision in connection with the arrangements for the admission of pupils to community or foundation special schools<sup>20</sup>, and for the allocation between the local education authority<sup>21</sup> and the governing body<sup>22</sup> of such a school of functions in connection with such arrangements<sup>23</sup>.

10 'Reception class' means a class in which education is provided which is suitable to the requirements of pupils aged five and any pupils under or over that age whom it is expedient to educate with pupils of that age: ibid s 142(1).

11 Ibid s 98(1). For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally, children are regarded as admitted to a school for nursery education if they are or are to be placed on admission in a nursery class: s 142(5). The admission of children to a school in Wales for nursery education is to be disregarded for the purpose of: (1) applying in relation to a primary school any provision of s 93 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) or s 93(3), Sch 23 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (fixing of admission numbers: see PARAS 408-414 ante) which refers to the number of pupils admitted or intended to be admitted to a school in any school year; or (2) determining for the purposes of any provision of s 93 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) or Sch 23 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) what is a relevant age group in relation to a primary school: s 98(2). The admission of children to a school in England for nursery education is to be disregarded: (a) for the purposes of any determination under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) (procedure for determining admission arrangements: see PARA 398 ante) of the number of pupils in any relevant age group that it is intended to admit to a primary school in a school year; and (b) in determining for the purposes of s 89A (added in relation to England; prospectively added in relation to Wales) (determination of admission numbers: see PARA 398 ante) what is a relevant age group in relation to a primary school: s 98(2) (substituted by the Education Act 2002 s 51, Sch 4 para 12(1), (2)). The substitution of s 98(2) is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 20 January 2003 (except in relation to the admission of a child to a maintained school for nursery education for any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 3 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2952, arts 2-3, Schedule para 2(a)) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. 'Regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under s 98(4B) (as added).

The reference in the text to statements of special educational needs is a reference to statements of special educational needs maintained under the Education Act 1996 s 324 (as amended) (see PARA 996 post). However, any provision made by, or (as the case may be) by virtue of: (1) the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 84 (as amended) (code of practice: see PARA 393 ante); or (2) (in relation to Wales) s 92(3)-(6) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) (see PARA 402 ante); or (3) (in relation to England) s 92(c), (d) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) (see PARA 402 ante); or (4) s 98 (as amended; as further amended in relation to England; prospectively further amended in relation to Wales), apart from s 98(4A), (4B) (as added) (see the text and notes 15-16 supra), applies, or (as the case may be) may be made so as to apply, in relation to children for whom statements of special educational needs are maintained: s 98(8) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 12(1), (5); and, in relation to England, by the Education Act 2002 (Modification of Provisions) (No 2) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2953, reg 4). For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 98(8) (as amended), the reference to any provision made by s 98 (as amended) includes a reference to s 98(4) (see the text to note 14 supra) only so far as it has effect for the purposes mentioned in s 98(9) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales): s 98(10). In relation to Wales, children for whom statements of special educational needs are maintained must, in addition, be taken into account for the purposes of: (a) the reference in s 86(5) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) or s 86(9) (as amended) (parental preferences: see PARA 396 ante) to a number of pupils; and (b) the fixing of admission numbers under s 93 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARA 408 ante) and the determination, variation and review of standard numbers under Sch 23 (repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARAS 408-414 ante): s 98(9). In relation to England, children for whom statements of special educational needs are maintained must, in addition, be taken into account for the purposes of: (i) the references in s 86(5) (as substituted in relation to England; prospectively substituted in relation to Wales), s 86(5B) (added in relation to England; prospectively added in relation to Wales) and s 86(9) (as amended) (see PARA 396 ante) to a number of pupils; and (ii) any determination under s 89 (as amended in relation to England; prospectively amended in relation to Wales) (procedure for determining admission arrangements: see PARA 398 ante) of the number of pupils in a relevant age group that it is intended to admit, or to admit either as boarders or otherwise than as boarders, to a school in a school year: s 98(9) (substituted by the Education Act 2002 Sch 4 para 12(1), (6)). As to the meaning of 'boarder' see PARA 26 note 16 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8).

The substitution of s 98(9) is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 20 January 2003 (except in relation to the admission to a maintained school of a child for whom a statement of special educational needs is maintained under the Education Act 1996 s 324 (as amended) for any school year earlier than the 2004-2005 school year: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 3 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2952, arts 2-3, Schedule para 2(c)) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

No admission arrangements<sup>1</sup> for a maintained school<sup>2</sup> may make provision for selection by ability<sup>3</sup> unless they make provision for a permitted form of such selection<sup>4</sup> or unless the school is a grammar school<sup>5</sup>. The following are permitted forms of selection by ability: (1) any selection by ability authorised<sup>6</sup> in relation to pre-existing arrangements<sup>7</sup>; (2) any selection by ability authorised<sup>8</sup> in relation to pupil<sup>9</sup> banding<sup>10</sup>; and (3) any selection by ability conducted in connection with the admission of pupils to the school for secondary education<sup>11</sup> suitable to the requirements of pupils who are over compulsory school age<sup>12</sup>.

'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations; and 'regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). The admission arrangements<sup>1</sup> for a maintained school<sup>2</sup> may make provision for selection by ability<sup>3</sup> to the extent that the arrangements are designed to secure: (1) that in any year the pupils<sup>4</sup> admitted to the school in any relevant age group<sup>5</sup> are representative of all levels of ability among applicants for admission to the school in that age group<sup>6</sup>; and (2) that no level of ability is substantially over-represented or substantially under-represented<sup>7</sup>. However, where an applicant for admission has been allocated to a particular range of ability by means of some process of selection by reference to ability, some further such process is required or authorised to be carried out in relation to him for the purpose of determining whether or not he is to be admitted to the school<sup>8</sup>.

Where the admission arrangements for a school provide for selection by ability as mentioned in heads (1) and (2) above and provide for selection by aptitude<sup>9</sup> for particular subjects<sup>10</sup>, nothing in the provisions described above is taken to prevent those arrangements: (a) from authorising or requiring a process of selection to be carried out at any stage for the purpose of establishing that an applicant for admission has a relevant aptitude<sup>11</sup>; or (b) from having the effect of giving priority to such an applicant with a relevant aptitude irrespective of his level of ability<sup>12</sup>.

The admission arrangements<sup>1</sup> for a maintained school<sup>2</sup> may make provision for the selection of pupils for admission to the school by reference to their aptitude for one or more prescribed<sup>3</sup> subjects where: (1) the admission authority<sup>4</sup> for the school is satisfied that the school has a specialism in the subject or subjects in question<sup>5</sup>; and (2) the proportion of selective admissions<sup>6</sup> in any relevant age group does not exceed 10 per cent<sup>7</sup>. However, this does not apply if the admission arrangements make provision for any test<sup>8</sup> to be carried out in relation to an applicant for admission which is either a test of ability or one designed to elicit any aptitude of his other than for the subject or subjects in question<sup>9</sup>.

(B) GRAMMAR SCHOOLS

438. Designation of grammar schools.

Where the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> is satisfied that a maintained school<sup>2</sup> had selective admission arrangements at the beginning of the 1997-1998 school year, he may by order<sup>3</sup> designate the school as a grammar school<sup>4</sup> for the purposes of the statutory provisions relating to the selection of pupils<sup>5</sup>. A school has 'selective admission arrangements' if its admission arrangements make provision for all, or substantially all, of its pupils to be selected by reference to general ability<sup>6</sup>, with a view to admitting only pupils with high ability<sup>7</sup>.

Regulations may make provision: (1) for enabling the Secretary of State to make an order designating as a grammar school<sup>8</sup> a maintained school established in substitution for one or more discontinued schools each of which either has been or could have been so designated<sup>9</sup>; and (2) for any of the provisions relating to the selection of pupils, or any regulations made under them, to have effect in relation to any such school with such modifications<sup>10</sup> as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'maintained school' includes, in relation to any time before 1 September 1999 (ie the appointed day: see PARA 102 note 3 ante): (1) a county or voluntary school within the meaning of the Education Act 1996; or (2) a grant-maintained school, within the meaning of the Education Act 1996: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 104(6). In the application of s 104(1) to a maintained school on or after 1 September 1999, the reference to the school is to be read, in connection with determining the nature of its admission arrangements at the beginning of the 1997-1998 school year, as a reference to it as a school within head (1) or head (2) supra: s 104(6). For the meaning of 'maintained school' see also PARA 433 note 2 ante. For the meaning of 'school year' see PARA 15 note 9 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). As to admission arrangements see PARAS 398-404 ante. As to county, voluntary and grant-maintained schools see PARA 102 ante.

3 An order made under ibid s 104 is not subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: see s 138(4) (as amended); and PARA 82 note 15 ante. As to the orders made under s 104(1) see the Education (Grammar School Designation) Order 1998, SI 1998/2219 (amended by SI 1999/2456).

4 For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt III Ch II (ss 99-109) (as amended), 'grammar school' means a school for the time being designated under s 104: s 104(7). Where a maintained school is a grammar school, ss 105-109 (see PARAS 439-442 post) have effect for prescribing procedures for altering the school's admission arrangements so that it no longer has selective admission arrangements, and its admission arrangements must not be so altered except in accordance with ss 105-109: s 104(4). 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations; and 'regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. Regulations made under s 104(4) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

Procedure for deciding whether grammar schools should retain selective admission arrangements.

439. Procedure for deciding whether grammar schools should retain selective admission arrangements.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations<sup>2</sup> make provision for ballots of parents<sup>3</sup> to be held, at their request, for determining whether the grammar schools<sup>4</sup> to which such ballots relate should retain selective admission arrangements<sup>5</sup>. Ballot regulations<sup>6</sup> may provide for a ballot to relate: (1) to all grammar schools within the area of a prescribed local education authority<sup>7</sup> or within such other area as may be prescribed<sup>8</sup>; (2) to a prescribed group of grammar schools<sup>9</sup>; or (3) to any grammar school not falling within head (1) or head (2) above<sup>10</sup>. Ballot regulations may make provision:

- 870 (a) requiring a request for a ballot to be made by means of a petition signed by parents eligible to request the ballot<sup>11</sup>;
- 871 (b) prescribing the form of any such petition and other requirements (whether as to the procedure to be followed or otherwise) which are to be complied with in relation to any such petition<sup>12</sup>;
- 872 (c) prescribing the body ('the designated body') to which any such petition is to be sent and which, under arrangements made by the Secretary of State, is to make the arrangements for the holding of ballots, and is to discharge such other functions with respect to such petitions and the holding of such ballots as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>;
- 873 (d) requiring prescribed bodies or persons, or bodies or persons falling within any prescribed category: (i) to provide the designated body or any other person with any prescribed information requested by that body or person<sup>14</sup>; or (ii) to publish prescribed information in such manner as may be prescribed<sup>15</sup>;
- 874 (e) authorising any such bodies or persons to charge a fee<sup>16</sup> for documents supplied by it in pursuance of regulations made by virtue of head (d)(i) above<sup>17</sup>;
- 875 (f) prescribing the terms of the question on which a ballot is to be held and the manner in which such a ballot is to be conducted<sup>18</sup>;
- 876 (g) enabling the Secretary of State, in any prescribed circumstances, to declare a previous ballot void and require the holding of a fresh ballot<sup>19</sup>;
- 877 (h) requiring anything falling to be done under the regulations to be done within such period as may be specified in or determined in accordance with the regulations<sup>20</sup>.

Ballot regulations may provide for parents of any prescribed description to register with the designated body, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, in order to be eligible to request or vote in a ballot<sup>21</sup>.

Where a ballot has been held<sup>22</sup> and the result of the ballot was to the effect that the schools or school in question should retain selective admission arrangements<sup>23</sup>, no further ballot relating to the schools or school may be held within such period as is specified in ballot regulations<sup>24</sup>.

Ballot regulations may provide for a parent's eligibility for the purposes of making a request for a ballot<sup>25</sup> or voting in a ballot<sup>26</sup> to be determined by reference to such different times as may be determined in accordance with the regulations<sup>27</sup>.

The statutory instrument containing the first regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 105 was not subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament but a draft instrument containing the regulations had to be laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament: see s 138(5)(b)(iii). If a draft of the statutory instrument containing any such regulations under s 105 would otherwise be treated for the purposes of the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament as a hybrid instrument, it must proceed in that House as if it were not such an instrument: s 138(6).

6 Ballot regulations may provide for a request for a ballot under ibid s 105 to be made, in any prescribed circumstances, by means of two or more petitions: s 105(5). Ballot regulations may provide for the Education Act 1996 s 496 (as amended) (general power of the Secretary of State to prevent the unreasonable exercise of functions by a local education authority or governing body: see PARA 57 ante) and s 497 (as amended) (general power of the Secretary of State to declare a local education authority or governing body in default of its duty: see PARA 58 ante) to apply to proprietors of independent schools in relation to a duty imposed by or under the regulations: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 105(7). In relation to a ballot under s 105(2)(a), ballot regulations must provide that, subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed, the parents eligible to request or vote in the ballot are: (1) registered parents of registered pupils at the following schools, namely: (a) where the ballot relates to all grammar schools within the area of a prescribed local education authority, all schools maintained by that authority; or (b) where the ballot relates to all grammar schools within a prescribed area, all schools maintained by a local education authority which are situated in such area as may be prescribed, together with (if the regulations so provide) all schools maintained by such local education authority as may be prescribed; (2) registered parents of registered pupils at independent schools where such parents are resident and the schools are situated within the area of the prescribed local education authority or (as the case may be) the prescribed area; and (3) parents of children of a prescribed description where such parents are resident within the area of the prescribed local education authority or (as the case may be) the prescribed area, and have registered with the designated body in accordance with s 105(4)(a) (see the text and note 21 infra): s 106(1). Ballot regulations must provide, in relation to a ballot under s 105(2)(a), that a request for such a ballot must be made by a number of eligible parents equal to at least 20% of all parents falling within head (1) or head (2) supra: s 106(3)(a). Ballot regulations must provide for a parent's eligibility for the purposes of determining the number of parents required to make a request by virtue of s 106(3) to be determined by reference to such different times as may be determined in accordance with the regulations: s 106(4)(c). Ballot regulations may make provision for determining whether parents are resident in an area for the purposes of head (2) or head (3) supra: s 106(5). For these purposes, in relation to any time falling before 1 September 1999 (ie the appointed day: see PARA 102 note 3 ante), a grant-maintained school or a grant-maintained special school within the meaning of the Education Act 1996 is taken: (i) to be a school maintained by a local education authority; and (ii) to be maintained by the authority in whose area it is situated: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 105(10). Ballot regulations must provide, in relation to a ballot under s 105(2)(b), that a request for such a ballot must be made by at least 20% of all parents falling within s 106(2): s 106(3)(b). #### 440. Restriction on publication of material relating to ballots.

Expenditure<sup>1</sup> must not be incurred by any local education authority or by the governing body of any school maintained by a local education authority for the purpose of<sup>2</sup>:

- 878 (1) publishing any material which, in whole or in part, appears designed to influence eligible parents<sup>3</sup> in deciding whether or not to request a ballot<sup>4</sup>, or to influence the outcome of a ballot<sup>5</sup>; or
- 879 (2) assisting any person to publish any such material<sup>6</sup>; or
- 880 (3) influencing, or assisting any person to influence, by any other means, eligible parents in deciding whether or not to request a ballot, or to influence the outcome of a ballot<sup>7</sup>.

However, this must not be taken to prevent a local education authority or body from incurring expenditure on publishing or otherwise providing to any person<sup>8</sup>: (a) any factual information so far as it is presented fairly<sup>9</sup>; or (b) a fair and reasonable assessment<sup>10</sup> by the authority or body of the likely consequences of the result of a ballot<sup>11</sup> being in favour of the school or schools in question ceasing to have selective admission arrangements<sup>12</sup>; or (c) an accurate statement by the authority or body of its intentions or proposals in the event of such a result<sup>13</sup>.

For these purposes, in relation to any time falling before 1 October 1998, a grant-maintained school or a grant-maintained special school within the meaning of the Education Act 1996 is taken: (a) to be a school maintained by a local education authority; and (b) to be maintained by the authority in whose area it is situated: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 105(10). The provisions described below have effect for enabling the admission arrangements<sup>1</sup> of a grammar school<sup>2</sup> to be revised<sup>3</sup> so that the school no longer has selective admission arrangements<sup>4</sup> and its admission arrangements instead either: (1) make no provision for selection by ability<sup>5</sup>; or (2) make provision for one or more of the following: (a) any selection by ability<sup>6</sup>; (b) any selection by aptitude<sup>7</sup>; and (c) any selection by ability conducted in connection with the admission of pupils<sup>8</sup> to the school for secondary education<sup>9</sup> suitable to the requirements of pupils who are over compulsory school age<sup>10</sup>. ## (x) Charges in connection with Education at Maintained Schools

443. Prohibition of charges for admission.

No charge may be made in respect of admission to a maintained school<sup>1</sup>. However, this does not apply to the admission of any person to any maintained school for the purpose of: (1) part-time education suitable to the requirements of persons of any age over compulsory school age<sup>2</sup>; (2) full-time education suitable to the requirements of persons who have attained the age of 19<sup>3</sup>; or (3) training for members of the school workforce<sup>4</sup>.

1 Education Act 1996 s 450(1). For the purposes of Pt VI Ch III (ss 449-462) (as amended), 'maintained school' means any school maintained by a local education authority: s 449 (substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 57, 119). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante. For the meaning of 'school maintained by a local education authority' in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 see PARA 94 ante. As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to admission arrangements generally see PARAS 398-404 ante.

2 Education Act 1996 s 450(2)(a). As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

3 Ibid s 450(2)(b).

4 Ibid s 450(2)(c) (substituted by the Education Act 2005 s 98, Sch 14 para 17(1), (2)). For this purpose, the reference to training for members of the school workforce is to be read in accordance with the Education Act 2005 s 75(5) and s 96(1) (see PARA 793 notes 4, 7 post): Education Act 1996 s 450(3) (added by the Education Act 2005 Sch 14 para 17(1), (3)).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(x) Charges in connection with Education at Maintained Schools/444. Prohibition of charges for provision of education.

444. Prohibition of charges for provision of education.

In relation to education provided at any maintained school<sup>1</sup> for a registered pupil<sup>2</sup> at the school, no charge may be made in respect of education provided for the pupil<sup>3</sup> during school hours<sup>4</sup>. However, this does not apply in relation to tuition in playing a musical instrument where the tuition is provided either individually or to a group of not more than four pupils, unless the tuition is<sup>5</sup>: (1) required as part of a syllabus for a prescribed public examination<sup>6</sup> which is a syllabus for which the pupil is being prepared at the school<sup>7</sup>; or (2) provided in pursuance of duties imposed in relation to the implementation of the National Curriculum for England<sup>8</sup> or the National Curriculum for Wales<sup>9</sup>, or in relation to securing due provision of religious education<sup>10</sup>. Where the education is provided for the pupil outside school hours no charge must be made in respect of it if it is: (a) required as part of a syllabus for a prescribed public examination which is a syllabus for which the pupil is being prepared at the school; or (b) provided in pursuance of duties imposed in relation to the implementation of the National Curriculum for England<sup>11</sup> or the National Curriculum for Wales<sup>12</sup>, or in relation to securing due provision of religious education<sup>13</sup>. Nothing in the provisions described above is to be read as prohibiting the making of a charge in respect of board and lodging provided for a registered pupil at a maintained school on a residential trip<sup>14</sup>.

Where a period allowed for any educational activity at a maintained school falls partly during school hours and partly outside school hours, then:

- 881 (i) if 50 per cent or more of the time occupied by that period together with any connected school travelling time<sup>15</sup> falls during school hours, so much of the education provided during that period as is provided outside school hours must be treated for the purposes of the statutory provisions prohibiting charges for the provision of education<sup>16</sup> as provided during school hours<sup>17</sup>; and
- 882 (ii) in any other case, so much of the education provided during that period as is provided during school hours is to be treated for those purposes as provided outside school hours<sup>18</sup>.

Where any education provided at a maintained school is provided on a residential trip, then: (A) if the number of school sessions taken up by the trip is equal to or greater than 50 per cent of the number of half days<sup>19</sup> spent on the trip, any education provided on the trip which is provided outside school hours is to be treated as provided during school hours<sup>20</sup>; (B) and in any other case, any education provided on the trip which is provided during school hours is to be treated as provided outside school hours<sup>21</sup>.

450. Charges for board and lodging at boarding schools.

Where a registered pupil<sup>1</sup> at a maintained school<sup>2</sup> is provided at the school with board and lodging, charges are payable to the local education authority<sup>3</sup>, in respect of the board and lodging, by the parent<sup>4</sup> of the pupil<sup>5</sup> concerned; and such charges must not exceed the cost to the authority of providing the board and lodging<sup>6</sup>.

Where the local education authority for that pupil's area is of the opinion that education suitable to his age, ability and aptitude and to any special educational needs<sup>7</sup> he may have cannot otherwise be provided for him, then, where the school is maintained by the local education authority for his area, that authority must remit the whole of the charges so payable and, in any other case, that authority must pay the whole of the charges so payable to the authority which maintains the school<sup>8</sup>.

Where the local education authority for the pupil's area<sup>9</sup> is satisfied that payment of the full charges so payable would involve financial hardship to the parent of the pupil concerned, the authority: (1) in the case of charges payable to the authority, must remit so much of those charges as falls<sup>10</sup> to be so remitted<sup>11</sup>; and (2) in the case of charges payable to another local education authority in respect of board and lodging, must pay so much of those charges as falls<sup>12</sup> to be so paid<sup>13</sup>.

10 The amount that falls to be remitted or paid by a local education authority by virtue of the Education Act 1996 s 458(4)(a), (b) (as amended) is such part of the charges in question as the authority considers ought not to be paid by the pupil's parent in order to avoid financial hardship to the parent of the pupil concerned, or the whole of those charges if, in its opinion, such hardship cannot otherwise be avoided: s 458(5).

451. Provision of information.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may require, in relation to every maintained school<sup>2</sup>, the local education authority<sup>3</sup>, the governing body<sup>4</sup> or the head teacher<sup>5</sup> to make available either generally or to prescribed<sup>6</sup> persons, in such form and manner and at such times as may be prescribed, such relevant information<sup>7</sup> as to the school hours at the school, and such information as to the policies<sup>8</sup> which apply in relation to the school, as may be prescribed<sup>9</sup>.

452. Unaffected contributions and charges.

Nothing in the provisions relating to charges in connection with maintained schools<sup>1</sup> is to be read as prohibiting or in any way restricting or regulating any request or invitation by or on behalf of the governing body of a maintained school<sup>2</sup> or a local education authority<sup>3</sup> for voluntary contributions for the benefit of the school or any school activities<sup>4</sup>. Any request or invitation made by or on behalf of such a body or authority for contributions for the benefit of a school or school activities is not to be regarded as a request or invitation for voluntary contributions unless it is clear from the terms in which it is made that there is no obligation to make any contribution, and that registered pupils<sup>5</sup> at the school will not be treated differently according to whether or not their parents<sup>6</sup> have made any contribution in response to the request or invitation<sup>7</sup>.

Further, nothing in those provisions<sup>8</sup> relating to charges in respect of a registered pupil at a maintained school is to be read as relating to charges made by persons other than the governing body or the local education authority, or charges to be paid by persons other than the parent of the pupil or the pupil himself<sup>9</sup>.

(xi) Education Action Zones

453. Education action zones and education action forums.

Education action zones<sup>1</sup> were introduced by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 in order to raise educational standards, particularly in the most deprived areas, whether urban or rural<sup>2</sup>. The aim is for a group of schools to work in partnership with the local community, including parents and local businesses, to propose innovative strategies and to set targets for improvement. Education action zones receive extra funding from both the private and the public sectors. Each education action zone is managed by an education action forum<sup>3</sup>.

1 As to the establishment of education action zones see PARA 454 post.

2 See the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt I Ch III (ss 10-12) (as amended); and PARAS 454-456 post.

3 As to the establishment of education action forums see PARA 455 post; and as to the functions of education action forums see PARA 456 post.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(3) MAINTAINED SCHOOLS/(xi) Education Action Zones/454. Education action zones.

454. Education action zones.

If the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> considers that it is expedient to do so with a view to improving standards in the provision of education at any particular eligible schools<sup>2</sup>, he may by order provide for those schools to constitute collectively an education action zone<sup>3</sup>. An education action zone must be established in the first instance for three years, but the Secretary of State may, by an order made before the end of that period, provide for the zone to continue in existence for a further two years<sup>4</sup>. No order relating to the establishment<sup>5</sup> or continuation<sup>6</sup> of education action zones may be made by the Secretary of State except on an application made for the purpose with the consent of the governing body<sup>7</sup> of every school which it is proposed should be a participating school<sup>8</sup>.

An education action forum<sup>9</sup> established for an education action zone may add any eligible school<sup>10</sup>, or any new school which has a temporary governing body, to the zone<sup>11</sup>. However, a school may be so added only if it is added in accordance with any procedural requirements specified for these purposes in regulations<sup>12</sup>, and with the consent of the governing body of the school and of the Secretary of State<sup>13</sup>.

An education action forum established for an education action zone may remove a participating school from the zone<sup>14</sup>. However, a school may be so removed only if it is removed in accordance with any procedural requirements specified for these purposes in regulations<sup>15</sup>, and with the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>16</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. Unless the Secretary of State by order otherwise provides, nothing in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt I Ch III (ss 10-13) (as amended) applies in relation to Wales: s 10(8). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such order had been made. As to the making of orders under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 see PARA 82 note 15 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'eligible school' means: (1) a maintained school; (2) a nursery school; (3) a pupil referral unit; or (4) an independent school: ibid s 10(1A) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 187, Sch 15 paras 1, 2(2)). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). In Pt I Ch III (as amended), 'pupil referral unit' has the same meaning as in the Education Act 1996 s 19 (as amended) (see PARA 457 post): School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 10(6) (c) (added by the Education Act 2002 Sch 15 paras 1, 2(5)). For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante; for the meaning of 'nursery school' see PARA 81 ante; and for the meaning of 'independent school' see PARA 465 post.

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 10(1A) (as added) is brought into force by order made under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4) as from a day to be appointed. In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 October 2002 (except in relation to head (2) supra: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 2 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2439, art 3) or 1 September 2003 (for the purposes of head (2) supra: see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 6 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/1667, art 4). However, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until a day to be appointed in relation to Wales, a reference to 'eligible school' should be read simply as a reference to 'maintained school'. For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante; and for the meaning of 'Wales' see PARA 52 note 13 ante.

3 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 10(1) (amended by the Education Act 2002 Sch 15 paras 1, 2(1)). Orders constituting education action zones are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

4 School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 10(2). Any school which ceases to be a participating school by virtue of s 10(2) may nevertheless be included in a further order under s 10(1) (as amended) (see the text and notes 1-3 supra): s 10(5). For the purposes of Pt I Ch III (as amended), 'participating school', in relation to an education action zone, means one of the schools that: (1) for the time being is included in the order under s 10(1) (as amended) by which the zone is established; or (2) has been added to the zone by virtue of s 11B (as added) (see the text and notes 11-13 infra), other than a school that has been removed from the zone in accordance with s 11C (as added) (see the text and notes 14-16 infra): s 10(6)(b) (substituted by the Education Act 2002 Sch 15 paras 1, 2(5)).

5 le under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 10(1) (as amended): see the text and notes 1-3 supra.

6 le under ibid s 10(2): see the text and note 4 supra.

7 For the purposes of ibid Pt I Ch III (as amended), references to a governing body: (1) in relation to an independent school (other than an academy, city technology college or city college for the technology of the arts), are references to the proprietor of the school; and (2) in relation to a new school, include the temporary governing body of the school: s 10(6)(a) (substituted by the Education Act 2002 Sch 15 paras 1, 2(5)). In the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt I Ch III (as amended), 'new school' has the meaning given in s 72(3) (see PARA 202 ante): s 10(6)(d) (added by the Education Act 2002 Sch 15 paras 1, 2(5)). For the meaning of 'proprietor' see PARA 60 note 7 ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante. As to the meaning of 'academy' see PARA 496 note 29 post; definition applied by virtue of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 142(8). As to the meaning of 'city college for the technology of the arts' see PARA 496 note 32 post; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). As to temporary governing bodies see PARAS 212, 263 ante.

For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 11B (as added), references to a school being added to an education action zone are references to it becoming one of the schools which constitute collectively the zone: s 11B(3) (as so added).

12 Ibid s 11B(2)(a) (as added: see note 11 supra). The text refers to regulations made under Sch 1 (see PARA 455 post). 'Regulations' means regulations made under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under s 11B (as added).

454 Education action zones

NOTE 2--Day now appointed in relation to Wales: SI 2007/3611.

455. Education action forums.

An order establishing an education action zone<sup>1</sup> must provide for the establishment of an education action forum for the zone<sup>2</sup>. An education action forum is a body corporate<sup>3</sup> and a charity which is an exempt charity for the purposes of the Charities Act 1993<sup>4</sup>.

The members of an education action forum must include one person appointed by the governing body<sup>5</sup> of each of the participating schools<sup>6</sup>, unless the governing body of any such school chooses not to make such an appointment<sup>7</sup>, and one or two persons appointed by the Secretary of State, unless he chooses not to make such appointments<sup>8</sup>. Subject to that, an education action forum must initially be constituted in accordance with the order by which the forum is established<sup>9</sup>, and may subsequently alter its membership<sup>10</sup> as set out in that order or as previously altered<sup>11</sup>, any such alteration being duly made only if it is made both in accordance with any procedural requirements specified for the purposes<sup>12</sup> and with the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>13</sup>.

The validity of the proceedings of an education action forum is not affected by a vacancy among the members or any defect in the appointment of a member<sup>14</sup>. The members of an education action forum must elect one of its number to be its chairman, who holds office for such period as is specified in the order by which the education action forum is established<sup>15</sup>. An education action forum may establish a committee for any purpose<sup>16</sup>, and authorise any such committee to exercise such of its functions as it may determine<sup>17</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by regulations<sup>18</sup> make provision as to the meetings and proceedings of an education action forum<sup>19</sup>, but otherwise an education action forum may regulate its own procedure and that of any of its committees<sup>20</sup>. The application of the seal of an education action forum must be authenticated by the signature of: (1) the chairman or some other person authorised either generally or specially by the education action forum to act for that purpose<sup>21</sup>; and (2) one other member<sup>22</sup>. Every document purporting to be an instrument made or issued by or on behalf of an education action forum and to be duly executed under its seal, or to be signed or executed by a person authorised by the education action forum to act in that behalf, is to be received in evidence and to be treated, without further proof, as being so made or issued unless the contrary is shown<sup>23</sup>.

It is the duty of an education action forum:

- 890 (a) to keep proper accounts and proper records in relation to the accounts<sup>24</sup>;
- 891 (b) to prepare in respect of each financial year<sup>25</sup> of the education action forum a statement of accounts<sup>26</sup>; and
- 892 (c) to send copies of the statement to the Secretary of State and to the Comptroller and Auditor General<sup>27</sup> before the end of the month of August next following the financial year to which the statement relates<sup>28</sup>.

The statement of accounts must comply with any directions given by the Secretary of State as to the information to be contained in it<sup>29</sup>, the manner in which the information contained in it is to be presented<sup>30</sup>, or the methods and principles according to which the statement is to be prepared<sup>31</sup>. The Comptroller and Auditor General must examine, certify and report on each statement received by him in pursuance of these provisions<sup>32</sup>, and he must lay copies of each statement and of his report before each House of Parliament<sup>33</sup>.

An education action forum established for an education action zone must provide the Secretary of State with details of any alteration made to its constitution<sup>34</sup>, any addition of a school to the education action zone<sup>35</sup>, and any removal of a school from the zone<sup>36</sup>. The education action forum must also, on a request being made by any person<sup>37</sup>, provide him with: (i) the name of each member of the education action forum and of the person or body that appointed him<sup>38</sup>; (ii) the name of any other person or body entitled to appoint a member<sup>39</sup>; and (iii) the name of each participating school in relation to the education action zone<sup>40</sup>.

The education action forum established for an education action zone must be dissolved by order of the Secretary of State with effect from the time when the zone ceases<sup>41</sup> to exist<sup>42</sup>.

456. Functions of an education action forum.

An education action forum<sup>1</sup> has as its main object the improvement of standards in the provision of education at each of the participating schools<sup>2</sup>. However, with the consent of the Secretary of State, an education action forum may also carry on any other activities which it considers will promote the provision of, or access to, education whether in a participating school or otherwise<sup>3</sup>.

An education action forum may, under arrangements made by the governing body<sup>4</sup> of a participating school in respect of any prescribed<sup>5</sup> function of that body relating to the conduct of the school, either:

- 893 (1) discharge that function on behalf of the governing body until such time as it may specify in a request to the education action forum to cease discharging the function on its behalf<sup>6</sup>; or
- 894 (2) assume full responsibility for the discharge of that function during the whole of the period for which the education action forum remains in existence<sup>7</sup>.

Regulations<sup>8</sup> may make provision:

- 895 (a) as to the circumstances in which the governing body of a participating school may make such arrangements<sup>9</sup>;
- 896 (b) for the procedure to be followed by such a governing body in connection with the making of any such arrangements<sup>10</sup>;
- 897 (c) for the procedure to be followed by an education action forum when discharging<sup>11</sup> any function by virtue of heads (1) and (2) above<sup>12</sup>;
- 898 (d) for statutory provisions relating to governing bodies of maintained schools<sup>13</sup> to apply, with any prescribed modifications, to an education action forum when discharging<sup>14</sup> any function by virtue of head (2) above<sup>15</sup>.

An education action forum does not have power to borrow money<sup>16</sup>, but otherwise may do anything which is calculated to facilitate, or is incidental or conducive to, the carrying out of any of its functions<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to the establishment of an education action forum see PARA 455 ante. Unless the Secretary of State by order otherwise provides, nothing in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 Pt I Ch III (ss 10-13) (as amended) applies in relation to Wales: s 10(8). Before giving a direction under s 12(5) the Secretary of State must consult the local education authority: s 12(6). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

Each local education authority<sup>1</sup> is under a duty to make arrangements for the provision of suitable education<sup>2</sup> at school<sup>3</sup> or otherwise than at school for those children of compulsory school age<sup>4</sup> who, by reason of illness, exclusion from school or otherwise, may not for any period receive suitable education unless such arrangements are made for them<sup>5</sup>. Any school established<sup>6</sup> and maintained by a local education authority which is specially organised to provide education for such children, and is not a community school<sup>7</sup> or a special school<sup>8</sup>, is known as a 'pupil referral unit'<sup>9</sup>. A local education authority may secure the provision of boarding accommodation at any pupil referral unit<sup>10</sup>.

A local education authority has power to make arrangements for the provision of suitable education otherwise than at school for those young persons who, by reason of illness, exclusion from school or otherwise, may not for any period receive suitable education unless such arrangements are made for them<sup>11</sup>.

In determining what arrangements to make<sup>12</sup> in the case of any child or young person, a local education authority must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>13</sup>.

Any child for whom education is provided otherwise than at school in pursuance of these provisions, and any young person for whom full-time education is so provided, is to be treated for the purposes of the Education Act 1996 as a pupil<sup>14</sup>.

462. Information.

Each local education authority<sup>1</sup> must, on such occasions and in such form and manner as may be prescribed<sup>2</sup>, make available to registered<sup>3</sup> parents<sup>4</sup> of registered pupils<sup>5</sup> at any pupil referral unit<sup>6</sup> such information about the unit as may be prescribed<sup>7</sup>.

463. School attendance orders.

Where a pupil referral unit<sup>1</sup> is named in a school attendance order<sup>2</sup>:

- 899 (1) the local education authority<sup>3</sup> must inform the teacher in charge of the unit<sup>4</sup>; and
- 900 (2) if another local education authority is responsible for determining the arrangements for the admission of pupils<sup>5</sup> to the unit, that authority must admit the child<sup>6</sup> to the unit<sup>7</sup>.

However, head (2) above does not affect any power to exclude from a unit a pupil who is already a registered pupil<sup>8</sup> there<sup>9</sup>. A local education authority must, before deciding to specify a particular pupil referral unit in a notice<sup>10</sup> where another local education authority is responsible for determining the arrangements for the admission of pupils to the unit, consult that authority<sup>11</sup>; and if it decides to specify the unit in the notice, must serve notice in writing of its decision on that authority<sup>12</sup>. The parent of a child in respect of whom a school attendance order is in force may not request<sup>13</sup> the local education authority to amend the order by substituting a pupil referral unit for the school<sup>14</sup> named in the order<sup>15</sup>.

As from a day to be appointed, a local education authority will have power to give financial assistance to pupils educated at non-maintained schools, in addition to the power to make arrangements for the education of pupils at such schools: see s 18 (prospectively substituted); and PARA 31 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under s 18 (prospectively substituted) may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 1 para (a). The general power of the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> to make regulations<sup>2</sup> requiring the provision of information in relation to schools<sup>3</sup> includes power to require such information from the proprietors of independent schools<sup>4</sup>. Regulations may also require the proprietor<sup>5</sup> of a registered independent school<sup>6</sup> to provide the registration authority<sup>7</sup> with such particulars relating to the school as may be prescribed<sup>8</sup>, and provide that such a school may be removed from the register of independent schools if the proprietor fails to comply with such regulations<sup>9</sup>.

The general powers of the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> to prevent the unreasonable exercise of functions by certain bodies<sup>2</sup>, and to take steps where such a body has failed to discharge any duty<sup>3</sup>, may be extended by ballot regulations<sup>4</sup> to apply to the proprietors of independent schools<sup>5</sup> in respect of duties imposed by such regulations<sup>6</sup>. The Secretary of State may arrange for the payment of expenses incurred in complying with specified obligations imposed by ballot regulations<sup>7</sup>.

470. Welfare of children accommodated in independent schools.

The proprietor of an independent school which provides accommodation for any child is under a duty to safeguard and promote the child's welfare<sup>1</sup>. A local authority in whose area an independent school provides accommodation for a child must take such steps as are reasonably practicable to enable it to determine whether the child's welfare is adequately safeguarded and promoted while he is accommodated by the school<sup>2</sup>.

Provision is made for the inspection of premises, children and records as prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State for these purposes<sup>3</sup>.

1 See the Children Act 1989 s 87(1) (as substituted); and CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(4) (2008 Reissue) PARA 1197.

471. Special educational needs in independent schools.

The general duty to educate children with special educational needs<sup>1</sup> in mainstream schools<sup>2</sup> does not prevent a child from being educated in an independent school<sup>3</sup> which is not a mainstream school if the cost is met otherwise than by a local education authority<sup>4</sup>. However, no person may exercise functions<sup>5</sup> in relation to a child with special educational needs so that the child is educated in an independent school unless the school is for the time being approved by the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> as suitable for the admission of children for whom statements of special educational needs are maintained<sup>7</sup>, or the Secretary of State is satisfied that there is a place available for the child at the school and consents to the child being educated there<sup>8</sup>.

In certain circumstances, a local education authority may fund special educational provision<sup>9</sup> in a school which is not a maintained school<sup>10</sup>.

The Secretary of State may approve, as special schools<sup>11</sup>, schools which are not community or foundation special schools<sup>12</sup>.

A local education authority is under a duty to make arrangements for the avoidance of disagreements between the parents of a child with special educational needs and the proprietor of an independent school named in the child's statement, about the special educational provision made for that child<sup>13</sup>.

The proprietor or head teacher of an independent school may request the local education authority to make an assessment of the educational needs<sup>14</sup> of a child registered at that school<sup>15</sup>.

2 I.e. under the Education Act 1996 s 316 (as substituted and amended): see PARA 1008 post. For the meaning of 'mainstream school' see PARA 1008 note 4 post. The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup>, in relation to England<sup>2</sup>, or the Secretary of State and the National Assembly for Wales<sup>3</sup> concurrently, in relation to Wales<sup>4</sup>, may direct that a person may not carry out work which involves providing education at an independent school<sup>5</sup> or taking part in the management of an independent school, or that a person may carry out such work only in specified circumstances or subject to specified conditions<sup>6</sup>. Such a direction may be given in respect of a person on any of the following grounds, namely, on the grounds that the person is included, otherwise than provisionally, in the list of individuals considered unsuitable to work with children<sup>7</sup>, or on the grounds that the person is unsuitable to work with children, or on grounds relating to the person's misconduct or his health, or on grounds relating to the person's professional incompetence<sup>8</sup>.

As an employer, a proprietor may be vicariously liable for unintentional assaults on pupils by staff and may also be liable for engaging unsuitable staff<sup>9</sup>.

The requirements as to qualifications of teachers employed in schools do not generally apply to independent schools<sup>10</sup>.

Preference may be given, in connection with the appointment, promotion or remuneration of teachers<sup>1</sup> at an independent school<sup>2</sup> which has a religious character<sup>3</sup>, to persons: (1) whose religious opinions are in accordance with the tenets of the religion or the religious denomination specified<sup>4</sup> in relation to the school<sup>5</sup>; or (2) who attend religious worship in accordance with those tenets<sup>6</sup>; or (3) who give, or are willing to give, religious education at the school in accordance with those tenets<sup>7</sup>.

Regard may be had, in connection with the termination of the employment or engagement of any teacher at the school, to any conduct on his part which is incompatible with the precepts, or with the upholding of the tenets, of the religion or religious denomination so specified<sup>8</sup>.

C. FEES

474. Contract between parent and proprietor.

In independent schools<sup>1</sup> the relations between the parent and the proprietor of the school are governed by the terms (express or implied) of the contract for the education of the child<sup>2</sup>.

Where the contract between the parent and the school proprietor provides that a term's notice must be given of the child's removal from the school, the proprietor can recover a term's fees if the child is removed without due notice<sup>3</sup>, and it is no defence to a claim for fees in lieu of notice that the school is closing down<sup>4</sup>. If the pupil is absent for a term owing to illness the parent is not liable for the term's fees in the absence of an express provision in the contract<sup>5</sup>. Where fees are payable in advance and the pupil is absent for a term the proprietor can recover the full fees for the term without making any deduction in respect of board<sup>6</sup>. Where the pupil is excluded from the school as a result of the parent's breach of the contract, the proprietor is entitled to the whole term's fees<sup>7</sup>.

Unless the right is expressly or impliedly reserved in the contract, the proprietor may not be able to increase the fees<sup>8</sup>. Notice by the proprietor of an increase in fees may operate as a notice to determine the contract and allow of the parent removing his child without due notice<sup>9</sup>.

If, on obtaining a divorce, a mother is granted custody of a child and the father gives an undertaking to maintain and educate him, this undertaking is not sufficient of itself to entitle the mother to incur school fees for the child independently of the father's wishes<sup>10</sup>.

The proprietor cannot recover from the parent sums spent on the pupil's behalf without the sanction, express or implied, of the parent<sup>11</sup>.

An announcement that a scholarship examination is to be held does not constitute an offer which will result in a contract with the competitor who obtains the highest marks<sup>12</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'independent school' see PARA 465 ante.

475. Transitional arrangements relating to the assisted places scheme.

With effect from the school year 1997-1998, the statutory duty of the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> to operate the assisted places scheme<sup>2</sup> was repealed<sup>3</sup>, and any participation agreement<sup>4</sup> in force immediately before 1 September 1997<sup>5</sup> also ceased to have effect<sup>6</sup>. However, the scheme continues to operate in relation to pupils who were already assisted before the 1997-1998 school year.

A former participating school<sup>7</sup> may provide assisted places<sup>8</sup> at the school<sup>9</sup>, but may only do so for existing assisted pupils<sup>10</sup> at the school<sup>11</sup>. If a pupil is provided with an assisted place at a time when he is receiving primary education, he ceases to hold that place: (1) at the end of the school year in which he completes his primary education; or (2) if the Secretary of State, where he is satisfied that it is reasonable to do so in view of any particular circumstances relating to that pupil, determines that he should continue to hold that place for a further period during which he receives secondary education, at the end of that period<sup>12</sup>. Where a school providing assisted places remits fees<sup>13</sup> that otherwise would be chargeable in respect of pupils holding such places at the school, and does so in accordance with regulations<sup>14</sup>, the Secretary of State must reimburse the school for the fees so remitted<sup>15</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by regulations make such provision as appears to him to be expedient in connection with the provisions described above<sup>16</sup>. Such regulations may, in particular:

- 911 (a) prescribe the conditions subject to which, the extent to which, and the arrangements in accordance with which, fees are to be remitted by schools providing assisted places<sup>17</sup>;
- 912 (b) prescribe arrangements enabling the Secretary of State to determine from time to time the maximum levels of fees which may be charged by such schools in respect of pupils holding such places, and conditions to be complied with by such schools with respect to such fees<sup>18</sup>;
- 913 (c) prescribe the time and manner in which such schools are to claim and receive reimbursements from the Secretary of State<sup>19</sup>;
- 914 (d) provide for the Secretary of State to discharge by means of lump sum payments to such schools any future liabilities of his to make such reimbursements<sup>20</sup>;
- 915 (e) prescribe conditions to be complied with by such schools with respect to the keeping and auditing of accounts and the provision of information to the Secretary of State<sup>21</sup>;
- 916 (f) provide for the Secretary of State, in a case where a former participating school merges with another school, closes (whether wholly or in part), or notifies the Secretary of State that it no longer wishes to provide assisted places, to authorise the new school or (as the case may be) any other former participating school to provide any assisted places which the first-mentioned school was authorised to provide<sup>22</sup>;
- 917 (g) provide for the Secretary of State, in a case where he is satisfied that it is reasonable to do so in view of any particular circumstances relating to a pupil who holds (or has at any time held) an assisted place provided by a school, to authorise another school which is either (i) a former participating school; or (ii) a new school authorised to provide assisted places by virtue of head (f) above, to provide for the pupil the assisted place which the first-mentioned school was authorised to provide<sup>23</sup>.

Regulations may also require or enable schools providing assisted places to make grants in respect of incidental expenses<sup>24</sup>, and to remit such incidental charges as may be specified in the regulations<sup>25</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 'The assisted places scheme' means the scheme operated by the Secretary of State under the Education Act 1996 s 479 (repealed): Education (Schools) Act 1997 s 4(1). The scheme was established under the Education Act 1980 s 17 (repealed), and continued in force under the Education Act 1996 s 479 (repealed). The scheme enables pupils who might not otherwise be able to do so to benefit from education at independent schools. Participating schools remit fees that would otherwise be chargeable in respect of pupils selected for assisted places under the scheme and the Secretary of State reimburses the schools for the fees that are remitted. The scheme applied initially only to secondary education, but was extended by the Education Act 1997 s 1 (repealed) to schools providing solely primary education. It has been held that the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Rome, 4 November 1950; TS 71 (1953); Cmd 8969), First Protocol (Paris, 20 March 1952; TS 46 (1954); Cmd 9221) art 2 did not guarantee the right to an assisted place at an independent school, when public education was available: R v Secretary of State for Education and Employment, ex p Begbie [2000] 1 WLR 1115, [2000] ELR 445, CA.

3 See the Education (Schools) Act 1997 s 1(1), repealing the Education Act 1996 ss 479-481, Sch 35. This repeal did not affect the operation of any participation agreement (see note 4 infra), the assisted places scheme, or any regulations made under s 480 (repealed) or s 481 (repealed), in relation to the 1996-1997 school year or any previous year: Education (Schools) Act 1997 s 1(3).

4 'Participation agreement' means an agreement made by the Secretary of State with a school for the purposes of the assisted places scheme (including such an agreement as subsequently varied by the parties to it): ibid s 4(1).

5 Ie the date on which ibid s 1 came into force.

6 Ibid s 1(2).

7 'Former participating school' means a school in relation to which a participation agreement was in force immediately before 1 September 1997 (including such an agreement under which the school had not yet begun to provide any assisted places): ibid s 4(1). Except where the context otherwise requires, references in s 2 (as amended) and s 3 to a school include the proprietors of schools and persons acting with their authority: s 4(2).

8 'Assisted place', in relation to the 1997-1998 school year or any subsequent school year, means an assisted place provided under ibid s 2(1): s 4(1).

9 Ie for the 1997-1998 school year or a subsequent year: ibid s 2(1). Nothing in s 2(1) may be taken as prejudicing the operation of any regulations under s 3 (see the text and notes 16-25 infra) by virtue of which assisted places authorised to be provided under s 2(1) by a former participating school may instead be so provided by another such school or a new school created on the merger of such a school with another school: s 2(7) (added by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 para 224).

10 For this purpose, a pupil at a former participating school is an existing assisted pupil if he was selected (or provisionally selected) for an assisted place at the school at any time prior to the beginning of the 1997-1998 school year and either: (1) he continued as, or became, a registered pupil at the school at the beginning of the first term of that year; or (2) he became a registered pupil at the school after the beginning of that term but before the end of that year and the Secretary of State, where he was satisfied that it was reasonable to do so in view of any particular circumstances relating to the pupil, determined that the requirements of head (1) supra should not apply to him: Education (Schools) Act 1997 s 2(5). For these purposes, 'assisted place' means an assisted place provided for the purposes of the assisted places scheme; and the reference to a pupil who was provisionally selected for such a place does not include a pupil who was so selected but from whom the place was subsequently withdrawn by the school: s 2(6).

11 Ibid s 2(1)(a); and see note 9 supra. The power to provide assisted places is subject also to regulations under s 3: s 2(1)(b). As to such regulations see the text and notes 16-25 infra.

12 Ibid s 2(1)(b), (2); and see note 9 supra. In R v Secretary of State for Education and Employment, ex p Begbie [2000] 1 WLR 1115, [2000] ELR 445, CA, the court refused to hold the Secretary of State bound by statements made concerning the exercise of his discretion under the Education (Schools) Act 1997 s 2(2) to provide assistance under the scheme where a child continued his education into the secondary stage of education in an 'all through' school.

13 The fees in relation to which this applies are: (1) tuition and other fees the payment of which is a condition of attendance at the school, but excluding boarding fees and such other fees as may be excluded by or in accordance with regulations; and (2) entrance fees for public examinations paid by the school in respect of candidates from the school: Education (Schools) Act 1997 s 2(4). As to the regulations see the text and notes 16-25 infra.

15 Ibid s 2(3).

16 Ibid s 3(1). Regulations under s 3 may authorise the Secretary of State to make provision for any purpose specified in the regulations: s 3(5). Regulations under s 3 are made by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 3(8). Any such regulations may make different provision for different cases, circumstances or areas and may contain such incidental, supplemental, saving or transitional provisions as the Secretary of State thinks fit: s 3(9). Before making regulations under s 3(1) or (2) (see the text and notes 17-23 infra), the Secretary of State must consult such bodies as appear to him to be appropriate and representative of schools that will be or are providing assisted places: s 3(7)(a).

As to the regulations made under s 3(1), (2) (as amended) see the Education (Assisted Places) Regulations 1997, SI 1997/1968 (amended by SI 1998/1726; SI 1998/1966; SI 1999/1504; SI 2000/1938; SI 2000/2111; SI 2001/2680; SI 2001/2744; SI 2003/1705; SI 2003/1854; SI 2004/1812; SI 2004/1965; SI 2005/2030; SI 2005/2838).

17 Education (Schools) Act 1997 s 3(2)(a); and see note 16 supra. Regulations made under s 3(2)(a) or (b) must be reviewed by the Secretary of State not later than two years after the date on which the first such regulations are made, and thereafter at intervals of not more than two years: s 3(6). When conducting any such review, the Secretary of State must consult such bodies as appear to him to be appropriate and representative of schools that will be or are providing assisted places: s 3(7)(b).

19 Ibid s 3(2)(c); and see note 16 supra.

20 Ibid s 3(2)(d); and see note 16 supra.

21 Ibid s 3(2)(e); and see note 16 supra.

22 Ibid s 3(2)(f); and see note 16 supra.

23 Ibid s 3(2)(g) (added by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 130(1)); and see note 16 supra.

24 For this purpose, expenses or charges are 'incidental' if they are in respect of matters incidental to or arising out of the attendance at the schools of pupils holding assisted places provided under the Education (Schools) Act 1997 s 2(1) (see the text and notes 7-12 supra): s 3(3).

25 Ibid s 3(3); and see note 16 supra. Any regulations made under s 3(3) must require any amounts granted or remitted by a school in accordance with the regulations to be reimbursed to the school by the Secretary of State; and any such regulations may make, in connection with the making of any such grants or remissions, provision such as is authorised to be made in connection with the remission of fees by heads (a), (c) and (d) in the text: s 3(4). As to the regulations made under s 3(3) see the Education (Assisted Places) (Incidental Expenses) Regulations 1997, SI 1997/1969 (amended by SI 1998/1585; SI 1999/1505; SI 2001/2794; SI 2003/1707; SI 2003/1779; SI 2004/1807; SI 2004/1970; SI 2005/2037; SI 2005/2837).

The framework for the registration and regulation of independent schools in Wales continues to be set out in the Education Act 2002 Pt 10 Ch 1 (ss 157-171). The Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 (ss 92-141) makes provision for the registration, inspection and regulation of independent schools in England. See further PARA 487B.

486. Failure to meet standards.

Where the registration authority<sup>1</sup>, taking into account a report published pursuant to the inspection of a registered<sup>2</sup> school<sup>3</sup> or any other evidence in respect of a registered school<sup>4</sup>, is satisfied that any one or more of the independent school standards<sup>5</sup> is or are not being met in relation to the school, the following provisions apply<sup>6</sup>.

If the registration authority considers that there is a risk of serious harm to the welfare of pupils<sup>7</sup> at the school, the authority may determine that the school is to be removed from the register<sup>8</sup> on such date after the appeal period<sup>9</sup> as the authority may determine<sup>10</sup>.

However, where the registration authority does not make a determination, it must serve a notice on the proprietor of the school: (1) identifying the standard or standards in question<sup>11</sup>; and (2) requiring the proprietor to submit an action plan<sup>12</sup> to the authority before the date specified in the notice, or such later date as the authority may specify after service of the notice<sup>13</sup>. Where an action plan is so submitted, the registration authority may reject it, or approve it, with or without modifications<sup>14</sup>. Where an action plan is required under, but is not submitted in accordance with, head (2) above, or where it is so submitted but rejected, the registration authority may determine that the school is to be removed from the register on such date after the appeal period as the authority may determine<sup>15</sup>, or make an order<sup>16</sup>. Where an action plan has been approved, but any step specified in the plan is not taken by the date specified in the plan, whether as originally approved or as varied under head (a) below, the registration authority may: (a) substitute a later date for the taking of that step<sup>17</sup>; (b) make an order<sup>18</sup>; or (c) determine that the school is to be removed from the register on such date after the appeal period as the authority may determine<sup>19</sup>.

Where the registration authority has made a determination under the above provisions to remove a school from the register on a particular date and no appeal is made against the determination<sup>20</sup>, the authority must remove the school from the register on that date<sup>21</sup>.

The amendment made by the Education Act 2005 Sch 8 para 4 is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (2)(c). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 September 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 4) and the reference to a report mentioned in the text is to a report under the Education Act 2002 s 162A (as added) (see PARA 483 ante). However, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until a day to be appointed in relation to Wales, the reference to a report is to be read as a reference to a report under s 163 (prospectively substituted in relation to Wales) (see PARAS 484-485 ante). If the proprietor of a school fails to comply with an order under s 165(8): (a) he is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a term of imprisonment not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or to both; and (b) the registration authority may determine that the school is to be removed from the register on such date after the appeal period as the authority may determine: s 165(9). As to the meaning of 'premises' see PARA 1352 note 3 post; definition applied by virtue of s 212(2), (3). As to the standard scale see PARA 481 note 4 ante. Where an offence committed by a body corporate or an unincorporated body is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of an officer, member or partner<sup>3</sup>, as well as the body corporate, body or partnership, he is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>4</sup>. #### UPDATE

478-487 Regulation of Independent Schools

The framework for the registration and regulation of independent schools in Wales continues to be set out in the Education Act 2002 Pt 10 Ch 1 (ss 157-171). The Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 (ss 92-141) makes provision for the registration, inspection and regulation of independent schools in England. See further PARA 487B.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(5) INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS/(ii) Regulation and Complaints/A. REGULATION OF INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS/487B. Independent educational institutions in England.

487B. Independent educational institutions in England.

The following provisions are partly in force: SI 2009/1513, SI 2009/1606. For transitional provision see Education and Skills Act 2008 ss 139-141 and SI 2009/1513, SI 2009/1606.

1. Independent educational institutions

For the purposes of the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 (ss 92-141), 'an independent educational institution' means (1) an independent school, or (2) an institution other than an independent school which provides part-time education for one or more persons of compulsory school age ('part-time students') whether or not it also provides full-time education for any person, and would be an independent school but for the fact that the education provided for the part-time student or students is part-time rather than full-time: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 92(1). References in Pt 4 Ch 1 to an independent educational institution are to an independent educational institution in England: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 93(1). For provision regulating independent schools in Wales, see the Education Act 2002 Pt 10 Ch 1 (ss 157-171) (PARAS 478-487): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 93(2). For the purposes of s 92, an institution provides 'part-time' education for a person if it provides education for the person (a) for at least 12.5 hours a week, for at least 28 weeks, during an academic year at the end of which the person is under the age of 12, or (b) for at least 15 hours a week, for at least 28 weeks, during an academic year at the end of which the person is aged 12 or over, which does not amount to full-time education: s 92(2). In s 92 'an academic year' means a period of 12 months ending with 31 August: s 92(4). Regulations may (i) provide that a specified institution or an institution of a specified description is not an independent educational institution by virtue of head (2); (ii) provide that time spent on a specified activity or on an activity of a specified description is or is not to be treated as time during which education is being provided for the purposes of s 92; (iii) amend head (a) or (b) so as to substitute a different number of weeks for the number of weeks for the time being mentioned there: s 92(3). In s 92 'specified' means specified in regulations under s 92: s 92(4).

2. Independent educational institution standards

The Secretary of State must by regulations prescribe standards for the purposes of the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 (ss 92-141) about the following matters (1) the quality of education provided at independent educational institutions (see PARA 487B.1); (2) the spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of students at independent educational institutions; (3) the welfare, health and safety of students at independent educational institutions; (4) the suitability of proprietors of and staff at independent educational institutions; (5) the premises of and accommodation at independent educational institutions; (6) the provision of information by independent educational institutions; (7) the manner in which independent educational institutions handle complaints; (8) the quality of the leadership in and management of independent educational institutions: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 94(1). 'Proprietor', in relation to an institution, means the person or body of persons responsible for the management of the institution: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 138(1). A standard may be prescribed in relation to (a) all independent educational institutions, (b) specified independent educational institutions, or (c) independent educational institutions of a specified description: s 94(2). In s 94(2) 'specified' means specified in regulations made under s 94: s 94(3). The standards do not apply to early years provision for children who have not attained the age of three (separate requirements as to such provision being imposed by or under the Childcare Act 2006 Pt 3): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 94(4). 'Early years provision' has the meaning given by the Childcare Act 2006 s 96(2): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 138(1).

In the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 'independent educational institution standards' means (i) the standards for the time being prescribed under s 94, and (ii) in relation to early years provision for children who have attained the age of three, the Early Years Foundation Stage (see Childcare Act 2006 s 39): Education and Skills Act 2008 s 94(5).

3. Requirements of registration and registration procedure

The Secretary of State must keep a register of independent educational institutions (see PARA 487B.1): see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 95. A person must not conduct an independent educational institution unless it is registered; and a person who conducts an independent educational institution in contravention of s 96 is guilty of an offence: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 96. Where the Chief Inspector has reasonable cause to believe that an offence under s 96 is being committed on any premises, the Chief Inspector may at any reasonable time (1) enter and inspect the premises, and (2) inspect and take copies of any records or other documents which the Chief Inspector has reasonable cause to believe may be required for the purposes of proceedings in relation to such an offence: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 97.

The proprietor (see PARA 487B.2) of an independent educational institution may apply to the Secretary of State for the institution to be entered on the register; and an application to enter an institution in the register must (a) contain the prescribed information, and (b) be made in the prescribed manner: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 98. See further Education and Skills Act 2008 s 138(2). Provision is made with respect to the determination of applications for registration: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 99. If the Secretary of State has reasonable cause to believe that a registered institution has ceased to be an independent educational institution, and does not have reasonable cause to believe that the institution will become an independent educational institution again within the following 12 months, the Secretary of State may remove the institution from the register: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 100.

4. Approval of material changes to registered details

Where the proprietor (see PARA 487B.2) of a registered independent educational institution (see PARA 487B.1) is aware that a material change is to be made in relation to the institution, the proprietor must make an application to the Secretary of State for approval of the change: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 102. For the meaning of 'material change' see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 101. Where an application for approval of a material change is made under s 102, the Secretary of State may direct the Chief Inspector to inspect the institution: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 103. Where an application for approval of a material change is made under s 102, the Secretary of State must (1) approve the change, if satisfied that the independent educational institution standards are likely to continue to be met in relation to the institution if the change is made; (2) in any other case refuse to approve it: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 104. The Secretary of State may remove an independent educational institution from the register (see PARA 487B.3) if (a) there has been a material change in relation to the institution, (b) the change has not been approved under the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 (ss 92-141), and (c) either (i) no application has been made under s 102 for approval of the change, or (ii) such an application has been made but has been refused: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 105.

5. Independent inspectorates

The Secretary of State may approve inspectorates to undertake certain inspections of independent educational institutions (see PARA 487B.1) and may also withdraw approval from such a body: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 106. The Chief Inspector must, at intervals of no more than a year, prepare and send to the Secretary of State a report about independent inspectorates; and in preparing such a report the Chief Inspector must have regard to such matters as the Secretary of State may direct: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 107.

6. Inspections and reports

The Chief Inspector is required to inspect independent educational institutions (see PARA 487B.1) at regular intervals, to be prescribed in regulations: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 108. The Secretary of State may at any time direct the Chief Inspector to inspect a registered independent educational institution specified in the direction: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 109. The Chief Inspector has at all reasonable times (1) a right of entry to the premises of the institution for the purposes of the inspection, and (2) a right to inspect and take copies of any records kept by the institution and any other documents containing information relating to the institution that are required for the purposes of the inspection: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 110. Regulations may require the proprietor (see PARA 487B.2) of an institution to pay to the Chief Inspector a fee in respect of an inspection of the institution carried out by the Chief Inspector under the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 (ss 92-141): see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 111. Where the proprietor of an institution fails to pay a fee in accordance with regulations under s 111, the Secretary of State may remove the institution from the register (see PARA 487B.3): see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 112. The Chief Inspector must comply with a direction given by the Secretary of State to publish the report of any inspection carried out by the Chief Inspector under the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 113.

7. Failure to meet standards

The Education and Skills Act 2008 s 114 applies to a registered independent educational institution (see PARA 487B.1) if the Secretary of State is satisfied, taking into account relevant evidence, that one or more of the independent educational institution standards (see PARA 487B.2) is or are not being met in relation to the institution: s 114(1). In s 114(1) 'relevant evidence' means (1) the report of an inspection carried out by the Chief Inspector or an independent inspectorate (see PARA 487B.5), or (2) any other evidence in respect of the institution: s 114(2). The Secretary of State may require the proprietor (see PARA 487B.2) of a registered independent educational institution to which s 114 applies to submit an action plan to the Secretary of State for approval: s 114(3). In the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 (ss 92-141) 'an action plan' means a plan specifying (a) the steps that will be taken to meet a standard or standards, and (b) the time by which each step will be taken: s 114(4). Any requirement imposed under s 114 to submit an action plan must be imposed by serving a notice on the proprietor of the institution in question (i) identifying the standard or standards that the Secretary of State is satisfied is or are not being met in relation to the institution, and (ii) specifying a date by which the action plan must be submitted: s 114(5). Where an action plan is submitted in pursuance of a requirement imposed under s 114 (whether or not by the date specified in the notice), the Secretary of State may approve it, with or without modifications, or reject it: s 114(6). Where the Secretary of State rejects an action plan, the Secretary of State may impose a further requirement under s 114 to submit an action plan: s 114(7). An action plan that has been approved may be varied at any time by the proprietor of the institution in question with the agreement of the Secretary of State: s 114(8).

Conditions are set out for taking action against an institution where the Secretary of State concludes on the basis of relevant evidence that the institution is failing to meet the relevant standards: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 115. The enforcement action available to the Secretary of State is set out (see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 116); the Secretary of State may remove the institution from the register (see PARA 487B.3) or impose a relevant restriction (see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 117). Supplementary provision with respect to relevant restrictions imposed by the Secretary of State is made: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 118.

8. Unsuitable persons and emergencies

Unsuitable persons are prevented from working with children and action may be taken against those institutions that allow this to happen: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 119; and the Education (Independent Educational Provision in England) (Unsuitable Persons) Regulations 2009, SI 2009/1633.

The Secretary of State may apply to a justice of the peace for an emergency order imposing an immediate restriction on, or deregistering, an independent educational institution (see PARA 487B.1), where a student at the institution is suffering or is at risk of suffering significant harm: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 120. Supplementary provision is made (see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 121); and provision is made as to notification (see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 122).

9. Provision of information by proprietors

Regulations may make provision for requiring the proprietor (see PARA 487B.2) of a registered independent educational institution (see PARA 487B.1) to provide the Secretary of State, on request, with such particulars relating to the institution as may be prescribed: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 123.

10. Appeals

The circumstances and timescales in which the proprietor (see PARA 487B.2) of an independent education institution (see PARA 487B.1) may appeal to the First-tier tribunal against decisions made by the Secretary of State to deregister an independent educational institution are set out: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 124. A proprietor may also appeal against other decisions of the Secretary of State: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 125. The proprietor may appeal to the First-tier tribunal against an emergency order made by a justice of the peace and the powers available to the Tribunal in determining such appeals are set out: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 126. Supplementary provision is made: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 127.

11. Prohibition on participation in management of independent educational institutions

The appropriate authority (ie the Secretary of State or such other public authority as may be prescribed) may direct that a person (1) may not take part in the management of an independent educational institution (see PARA 487B.1); (2) may take part in the management of such an institution only in circumstances specified in the direction; (3) may take part in the management of such an institution only if conditions specified in the direction are satisfied: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 128. Further provision is made with respect to directions under s 128: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 129 (appeals), Education and Skills Act 2008 s 130 (information) and Education and Skills Act 2008 s 131 (notification).

12. Providers of independent education or training for 16 to 18 year olds

Regulations may provide for any provision of the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 (ss 92-141) to apply in relation to an independent post-16 college as it applies in relation to an independent educational institution (see PARA 487B.1), subject to such modifications as may be prescribed: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 132. Supplementary provision is made: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 133.

13. Supplementary

No proceedings for an offence under the Education and Skills Act 2008 Pt 4 Ch 1 (ss 92-141) may be instituted except by or with the consent of the Secretary of State: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 134. Certain individuals may be prosecuted in limited circumstances where offences are committed by bodies corporate: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 135. Where an offence has been committed by an unincorporated body, proceedings for offences are to be brought in the name of the body and not its members: see Education and Skills Act 2008 s 136. For the purposes of Pt 4 Ch 1, any notice, order or other document required to be given to or served on the proprietor (see PARA 487B.2) of a registered independent educational institution (see PARA 487B.1) may be given to or served on the proprietor by delivering it to the registered address of the institution: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 137.

487C. Prohibition on participation in management of independent schools.

The registration authority may direct that a person (1) may not take part in the management of an independent school; (2) may take part in the management of an independent school only in circumstances specified in the direction; or (3) may take part in the management of an independent school only if conditions specified in the direction are satisfied: Education Act 2002 s 167A(1), (6) (s 167A(6) prospectively amended with effect from a day to be appointed by Education and Skills Act 2008 s 169, Sch 1 paras 13, 22(a), (b), Sch 2). Education Act 2002 ss 167A-167D are prospectively added by Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 169, which is in force in relation to Wales (see SI 2009/2545) and comes into force in relation to England on a day to be appointed (see Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 188(3)). ## B. APPEALS

488. Appeals to the Care Standards Tribunal.

The proprietor<sup>1</sup> of a registered<sup>2</sup> school<sup>3</sup> may appeal to the Care Standards Tribunal ('the tribunal')<sup>4</sup> against:

- 930 (1) a refusal<sup>5</sup> to approve a material change<sup>6</sup> in relation to the school<sup>7</sup>;
- 931 (2) a determination<sup>8</sup> to remove the school from the register<sup>9</sup>;
- 932 (3) an order<sup>10</sup> requiring the taking of one or more of the actions as may be specified in the order<sup>11</sup>; or
- 933 (4) a refusal<sup>12</sup> to vary or revoke such an order<sup>13</sup>.

Such an appeal must be made within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which notice of the refusal, determination or order is served on the proprietor<sup>14</sup>. Provision is made for the procedure that applies before the tribunal in the case of an appeal against a refusal, determination or order of the registration authority under the Education Act 2002<sup>15</sup>.

Where an appeal is made under head (2) above: (a) if the appeal is withdrawn or otherwise disposed of before it is determined by the tribunal<sup>16</sup>, the registration authority<sup>17</sup> may remove the school from the register on such date after the appeal period<sup>18</sup> as it may determine<sup>19</sup>; and (b) in any other case the registration authority may only remove the school pursuant to the determination to remove the school from the register<sup>20</sup>.

Where an appeal is made under head (3) above, the order does not have effect in relation to any time before the appeal is determined by the tribunal<sup>21</sup> or withdrawn or otherwise disposed of<sup>22</sup>.

In the case of an appeal against a determination to remove the school from the register on the ground of a risk of serious harm to the welfare of pupils<sup>23</sup> at the school<sup>24</sup>, if at any time the tribunal considers that there is a risk of serious harm occurring to the welfare of pupils before the determination of the appeal, it may by order provide that the school is to be regarded as not registered<sup>25</sup> until the tribunal determines the appeal<sup>26</sup>, or revokes the order before so determining the appeal<sup>27</sup>.

The functions of the former Care Standards Tribunal have been transferred to the First-tier Tribunal: see the First-tier Tribunal and Upper Tribunal (Chambers) Order 2008, SI 2008/2684. ### 488 Appeals to the Care Standards Tribunal

TEXT AND NOTES--Education Act 2002 s 166(1) amended: SI 2008/2833.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(5) INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS/(ii) Regulation and Complaints/B. APPEALS/489. Procedure.

489. Procedure.

Provision is made<sup>1</sup> for the procedure to be applied in the case of an appeal<sup>2</sup> to the Care Standards Tribunal ('the tribunal')<sup>3</sup> against: (1) a refusal to approve a material change<sup>4</sup> in relation to a registered school<sup>5</sup>; (2) a determination to remove the school from the register of independent schools<sup>6</sup>; (3) an order requiring the taking of one or more of the actions as may be specified in the order<sup>7</sup>; or (4) a refusal to vary or revoke such an order<sup>8</sup>.

A person who wishes to appeal<sup>9</sup> to the tribunal against a refusal, determination or order made by the registration authority<sup>10</sup> must do so by application in writing to the Secretary<sup>11</sup>. Such an application may be made on the application form available from the Secretary<sup>12</sup>, but such an application must:

- 934 (a) give the applicant's name and full postal address; if the applicant is an individual, his date of birth; and, if the applicant is a company, the address of its registered office<sup>13</sup>;
- 935 (b) give the name, address and profession of the person, if any, representing the applicant<sup>14</sup>;
- 936 (c) give the address within the United Kingdom<sup>15</sup> to which the Secretary should send documents concerning the appeal<sup>16</sup>;
- 937 (d) give, where these are available, the applicant's telephone number, fax number and e-mail address and those of the applicant's representative<sup>17</sup>;
- 938 (e) give particulars of whether the appeal is made under head (1), head (2), head (3) or head (4) above<sup>18</sup>.
- 939 (f) give a short statement of the grounds of the appeal<sup>19</sup>; and
- 940 (g) be signed and dated by the applicant<sup>20</sup>.

On receiving an application made within the period for bringing an appeal<sup>21</sup>, the Secretary must immediately send an acknowledgement of its receipt to the applicant<sup>22</sup>, and enter particulars of the appeal and the date of its receipt in the records<sup>23</sup> and send a copy of it, together with any documents<sup>24</sup> supplied by the applicant in support of it, to the respondent<sup>25</sup>. If, in the Secretary's opinion, there is an obvious error in the application: (i) he may correct it<sup>26</sup>; (ii) he must notify the applicant in writing that he has done so<sup>27</sup>; and (iii) unless within five working days<sup>28</sup> of receipt of notification under head (ii) above the applicant notifies him in writing that he objects to the correction, the application must be amended accordingly<sup>29</sup>.

The Secretary must send the information provided by the applicant under heads (a) to (g) above to the respondent together with a request that he respond to the application within 20 working days of receiving it<sup>30</sup>. The response must acknowledge that the respondent has received a copy of the application<sup>31</sup>, indicate whether or not the respondent opposes it (and if he does, give the reasons why he opposes the application)<sup>32</sup>, and provide the name, address and profession of the person, if any, representing the respondent (and whether the Secretary should send documents concerning the appeal to the representative rather than to the respondent)<sup>33</sup>, and a copy of the notice of the refusal, determination or order which is the subject of the appeal and the reasons for it<sup>34</sup>. The Secretary must without delay send the applicant a copy of the response and the information and documents provided with it<sup>35</sup>. If the respondent fails to respond as directed, he is not entitled to take any further part in the proceedings<sup>36</sup>.

As soon as the respondent has provided the information required, the Secretary must write to each party requesting that he sends the Secretary, within 15 working days after the date on which he receives the Secretary's letter, the following information<sup>37</sup>:

- 941 (A) the name of any witness whose evidence the party wishes the tribunal to consider (and whether the party may wish the tribunal to consider additional witness evidence from a witness whose name is not yet known) and the nature of that evidence<sup>38</sup>;
- 942 (B) whether the party wishes the President<sup>39</sup> or the nominated chairman<sup>40</sup> to give any directions or exercise any of his case management powers<sup>41</sup>;
- 943 (C) whether the party wishes there to be a preliminary hearing with regard to directions<sup>42</sup>;
- 944 (D) a provisional estimate of the time the party considers will be required to present his case<sup>43</sup>;
- 945 (E) the earliest date by which the party considers he would be able to prepare his case for the hearing<sup>44</sup>; and
- 946 (F) in the case of the applicant, whether he wishes his appeal to be determined without a hearing<sup>45</sup>.

Once the Secretary has received the information referred to in heads (A) to (F) above from both parties, he must without delay send a copy of the information supplied by the applicant to the respondent and that supplied by the respondent to the applicant<sup>46</sup>. Either party, within five working days of receiving the further information in respect of the other party from the Secretary, may ask the Secretary in writing to amend or add to any of the information given in heads (A) to (F) above<sup>47</sup>. If the Secretary receives any such further information from either party he must, without delay, send a copy of it to the other party<sup>48</sup>.

The functions of the former Care Standards Tribunal have been transferred to the First-tier Tribunal: see the First-tier Tribunal and Upper Tribunal (Chambers) Order 2008, SI 2008/2684. An appeal from the First-tier Tribunal lies to the Upper Tribunal (see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 13A). SI 2002/816 revoked: SI 2008/2683.

NOTE 10--SI 2002/816 reg 1(2) definition amended: SI 2007/1684, SI 2007/3224.

NOTE 28--SI 2002/816 reg 1(2) amended: SI 2006/1930.

Procedure for making an order where there is a risk of serious harm occurring to the welfare of pupils.

490. Procedure for making an order where there is a risk of serious harm occurring to the welfare of pupils.

Where the respondent to an appeal against a refusal, determination or order made in relation to an independent school<sup>1</sup> wishes the Care Standards Tribunal ('the tribunal')<sup>2</sup> to make an order<sup>3</sup> providing that the school<sup>4</sup> is to be regarded as not registered<sup>5</sup> pending the determination of the appeal, he must make an application in writing to the Secretary<sup>6</sup> and, at the same time, send a copy of that application to the applicant in the appeal<sup>7</sup>. The respondent may make an application for such an order at any time from the date he receives the copy of the application which initiates an appeal<sup>8</sup> until 20 working days<sup>9</sup> following that date<sup>10</sup>. An application for such an order must:

- 947 (1) set out the grounds for the application<sup>11</sup>;
- 948 (2) give the names of any witnesses that the respondent will be calling to support his application and provide a statement as to the nature of the evidence to be given by those witnesses<sup>12</sup>;
- 949 (3) specify any working days within the 28 working days following the making of the application when the respondent or any such witnesses will not be available to attend a hearing before the tribunal, and the reasons why the respondent or they (as the case may be), will not be so available<sup>13</sup>; and
- 950 (4) be signed and dated by or on behalf of the respondent<sup>14</sup>.

The respondent must, so far as it is practicable to do so, ensure that the application includes a copy of any documentary<sup>15</sup> evidence (including any statements from witnesses) that the respondent intends to rely upon in relation to the application<sup>16</sup>.

On receiving such an application, the Secretary must immediately send a copy of it together with any documents supplied by the respondent in support of the application, to the applicant<sup>17</sup>. The applicant must, within 10 working days of receipt of the application from the Secretary, send to the Secretary and the respondent a written response to the application which must<sup>18</sup>:

- 951 (a) acknowledge that he has received a copy of the application and any documentary evidence enclosed with it<sup>19</sup>;
- 952 (b) state whether he wishes the tribunal to determine the application without an oral hearing<sup>20</sup>, and if that is not the case, give the names of any witnesses that he will be calling or is likely to call to support his case and provide a statement as to the nature of the evidence to be given by those witnesses<sup>21</sup>;
- 953 (c) unless he wishes the tribunal to determine the application without an oral hearing, specify any working days within the 28 working days following the date of the application when he or any such witnesses will not be available to attend a hearing in respect of the application and the reasons why he or they (as the case may be) will not be so available<sup>22</sup>.

The applicant must, so far as it is practicable to do so, ensure that the response includes a copy of any documentary evidence, including any statements from witnesses, that he intends to rely upon in opposing the application<sup>23</sup>. If the applicant fails to respond as required<sup>24</sup>, he is not entitled to take any further part in the proceedings<sup>25</sup>.

The date fixed for a hearing must be the earliest practicable date having regard to any directions which have been made by the President<sup>26</sup> or the nominated chairman<sup>27</sup> with regard to the preparation of evidence but must not be later than 10 working days after:

- 954 (i) the date on which the Secretary receives the written response from the applicant<sup>28</sup>; or
- 955 (ii) if the applicant fails to respond within 10 working days of receipt of the application from the Secretary<sup>29</sup>, the date of the expiry of that time limit<sup>30</sup>.

The Secretary must then inform the parties of the date of the hearing by no later than five working days before the date fixed for the hearing, or, where the President or the nominated chairman considers it necessary or expedient, by such later date as the President or the nominated chairman may direct<sup>31</sup>.

Where the respondent has not made an application under the above provisions<sup>32</sup>, but the tribunal is considering whether to make an order<sup>33</sup> providing that the school is to be regarded as not registered pending the determination of the appeal<sup>34</sup>, the President or the nominated chairman may give directions as to the dates by which any document, witness statement or any other material which the parties wish the tribunal to take into account must be sent to the Secretary<sup>35</sup>, and give any other direction in exercise of his case management powers<sup>36</sup>. In such a case, the President or the nominated chairman may not make an order<sup>37</sup> unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of appearing before the tribunal and being heard on the question of whether such an order should be made, in which case the date for the hearing must be the earliest practicable date having regard to any direction made<sup>38</sup>.

491. Determination of appeals.

In the case of an appeal against a refusal<sup>5</sup> to approve a material change<sup>6</sup> in relation to the school, the tribunal may uphold the refusal to approve<sup>7</sup> or itself approve the change<sup>8</sup>.

In the case of an appeal against a determination<sup>9</sup> to remove the school from the register<sup>10</sup>, the tribunal may: (1) uphold the determination<sup>11</sup>; or (2) revoke the determination<sup>12</sup>. Where, under head (1) above, the tribunal upholds a determination, the registration authority<sup>13</sup> must remove the school from the register on such date as the tribunal may specify or, if it does not specify a date, on such date as the registration authority may determine<sup>14</sup>. Where, under head (2) above, the tribunal revokes a determination, it may order the proprietor<sup>15</sup> of the school to do one or more of the following by such time as may be specified in the order:

In the case of an appeal against an order<sup>21</sup> requiring the taking of one or more of the actions as may be specified in the order, the tribunal may uphold the order, vary the order, or strike down the order<sup>22</sup>. In the case of an appeal against a refusal<sup>23</sup> to vary or revoke such an order, the tribunal may uphold the refusal<sup>24</sup>, or, if in any case it is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so because of any change of circumstance after the making of the order, vary the order in such manner as it thinks fit, or revoke the order<sup>25</sup>.

(iii) Discipline

493. No right to give corporal punishment.

As in schools generally, the staff in independent schools have no right to administer corporal punishment<sup>1</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> See the Education Act 1996 s 548 (as substituted), which does not distinguish between independent and maintained schools; and PARA 577 post, noting also the case law there which deals with the issue of corporal punishment in schools in the context of a parent's philosophical or religious convictions.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(5) INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS/(iii) Discipline/494. Detention.

494. Detention.

A pupil who has not attained the age of 18 and is attending a city technology college<sup>1</sup>, a city college for the technology of the arts<sup>2</sup> or an academy<sup>3</sup> may be required on disciplinary grounds to spend a period of time in detention at his school after the end of any school session, notwithstanding the absence of parental consent, on the same conditions as apply in relation to maintained schools<sup>4</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'city technology college' see PARA 496 note 31 post.

2 As to the meaning of 'city college for the technology of the arts' see PARA 496 note 32 post.

3 As to the meaning of 'academy' see PARA 496 note 29 post.

4 See the Education Act 1996 s 550B (as added and amended); and PARA 578 post.

495. Exclusion.

A decision to exclude a pupil from an independent school<sup>1</sup> is not amenable to judicial review<sup>2</sup>; instead a complaint must be founded on contract by reference to the contract existing between the pupil's parents and the school<sup>4</sup>. In general, the courts will be reluctant in exclusion cases founded on contract to grant the remedy of specific performance to force one body of persons into daily contact with another against the will of the parties<sup>5</sup>.

<sup>2</sup> As to judicial review see JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARA 601 et seq. Judicial review may apply to an exclusion consequential to the termination of an assisted place: R v Cobham Hall School, ex p S [1998] ELR 389, [1998] Ed CR 79. However, the significance of this exception will decline as the assisted places scheme has been repealed and continues to operate only in relation to pupils who were already assisted before the 1997-1998 school year: see PARA 475 ante.

<sup>4</sup> R v Fernhill Manor School, ex p A [1993] 1 FLR 620, [1994] ELR 67. See also, in relation to non-maintained schools, R v Muntham House School, ex p R [2000] ELR 287. It is possible that the pupil has his own right in contract against an independent school under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999: see CONTRACT.

496. Establishment and maintenance of academies.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may enter into an agreement with any person<sup>2</sup> under which that person undertakes to establish and maintain, and to carry on or provide for the carrying on of, an independent school<sup>3</sup> in England<sup>4</sup> with the characteristics mentioned in heads (1) and (2) below, and such other characteristics as are specified in the agreement<sup>5</sup>, and the Secretary of State agrees to make payments to that person in consideration of those undertakings<sup>6</sup>.

The characteristics mentioned above are that the school:

- 959 (1) has a curriculum satisfying the general requirements regarding the curriculum in England<sup>7</sup>, but with an emphasis on a particular subject area, or particular subject areas, specified in the agreement<sup>8</sup>; and
- 960 (2) provides education for pupils<sup>9</sup> of different abilities who are wholly or mainly drawn from the area in which the school is situated<sup>10</sup>.

Before entering into such an agreement, the Secretary of State must consult the specified local education authorities<sup>11</sup> about the establishment of the school<sup>12</sup>.

The agreement must make any payments by the Secretary of State dependent on the fulfilment of certain conditions and requirements<sup>13</sup>, namely conditions and requirements imposed for the purpose of securing that no charge is made in respect of admission to (or attendance at) the school or, subject to such exceptions as may be specified in the agreement, in respect of education provided at the school<sup>14</sup>, and such other conditions and requirements in relation to the school as are specified in the agreement<sup>15</sup>. Payments under such an agreement may be in respect of capital or current expenditure<sup>16</sup>. In so far as such payments relate to current expenditure, the agreement must provide for their continuance<sup>17</sup> for a period of not less than seven years<sup>18</sup>, or for an indefinite period terminable by the Secretary of State by not less than seven years' written notice<sup>19</sup>. Where such payments relate to capital expenditure, the agreement may provide for the repayment to the Secretary of State, in the event of the school at any time discontinuing or ceasing to have the specified characteristics<sup>20</sup>, of sums determined by reference to<sup>21</sup>: (a) the value at that time of the school premises<sup>22</sup> and other assets held for the purposes of the school<sup>23</sup>; and (b) the extent to which expenditure incurred in providing those assets was met by payments under the agreement<sup>24</sup>.

Where a school was known immediately before 26 July 2002<sup>25</sup> as a city academy<sup>26</sup>, the agreement made in relation to that school<sup>27</sup>, as it had effect at the time the agreement was made, is regarded for all purposes as having been made under the above provisions<sup>28</sup> and, accordingly, the school is known as an 'academy'<sup>29</sup>. Where a school was known immediately before 26 July 2002<sup>30</sup> as a city technology college<sup>31</sup> or a city college for the technology of the arts<sup>32</sup>, then, if the proprietor<sup>33</sup> of the school and the Secretary of State so agree, the agreement made in relation to the school<sup>34</sup>, as it had effect at the time the agreement was made, is regarded as having been made under the above provisions<sup>35</sup>, and, accordingly, the school becomes known as an 'academy'<sup>36</sup>.

497. Proposals for additional academies.

Regulations<sup>18</sup> must make provision for the submission of a proposal<sup>19</sup> for decision by the Secretary of State after being considered and commented on by the school organisation committee<sup>20</sup>. Such regulations may in particular make provision:

- 961 (a) for the making of objections or comments to a local education authority in relation to proposals published by it<sup>21</sup>;
- 962 (b) for the submission of proposals to the school organisation committee<sup>22</sup>;
- 963 (c) for consultation by the school organisation committee<sup>23</sup>;
- 964 (d) for consideration of proposals by the school organisation committee, which may include provision for the committee to have regard to guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>24</sup>;
- 965 (e) for the submission of proposals to the Secretary of State<sup>25</sup>;
- 966 (f) for the withdrawal of proposals<sup>26</sup>;
- 967 (g) requiring any of the following to provide such information to such persons at such times as the regulations may prescribe<sup>27</sup>: (i) the promoters<sup>28</sup> or, if the proposal was made by a local education authority, that authority<sup>29</sup>; and (ii) the school organisation committee<sup>30</sup>.

Where the Secretary of State receives in this way a proposal to establish an academy, he must notify the interested parties<sup>31</sup> and the local education authority which published the proposal if he decides to commence negotiations with a view to entering an agreement<sup>32</sup> for the establishment of the academy<sup>33</sup>.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions have effect<sup>1</sup>.

499. Consideration, approval and implementation of proposals.

Such proposals must be considered in the first instance by the school organisation committee<sup>12</sup>. The committee may<sup>13</sup> reject all the proposals<sup>14</sup>, approve any of the proposals without modification<sup>15</sup>, approve any of the proposals with such modifications as the committee thinks desirable after consulting such persons as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>, or, if the committee think it appropriate to do so, and subject to regulations, refer to the adjudicator all the proposals with any comments on them made by the committee<sup>17</sup>. However, this does not prevent the promoters<sup>18</sup> or local education authority by whom any proposals have been made from withdrawing those proposals by notice<sup>19</sup> in writing to the school organisation committee (except in a case where the proposals have been referred to the adjudicator, when withdrawal is made by notice in writing to the adjudicator), at any time before the proposals are determined<sup>20</sup>. Any approval so given may be expressed to take effect only if an event specified in the approval occurs by a date so specified; and regulations may prescribe the events that may be so specified<sup>21</sup>. When deciding whether or not to give approval, the committee must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>22</sup>. Approval<sup>23</sup> by the school organisation committee or the adjudicator of proposals to establish an academy does not oblige the Secretary of State to enter into, or seek to enter into, an agreement<sup>24</sup> to establish an academy<sup>25</sup>.

Regulations may make provision requiring the school organisation committee in prescribed cases to refer to the adjudicator all the proposals with any comments made on them by the committee<sup>26</sup>. The Secretary of State may at any time give a direction to a school organisation committee requiring it to refer to the adjudicator<sup>27</sup>: (a) any proposals which have been submitted to the committee<sup>28</sup> but which, at the time when the direction is given, have not been determined by the committee<sup>29</sup>; and (b) all subsequent proposals submitted to the committee<sup>30</sup> until the direction is revoked<sup>31</sup>, with any comments made on any of the proposals by the committee<sup>32</sup>. Regulations may also, in relation to any proposals<sup>33</sup>, require any of the following, namely: (i) the authority or promoters who published the proposals; (ii) the school organisation committee; and (iii) the adjudicator, to provide such information relating to the proposals to such persons, and at such times, as may be prescribed<sup>34</sup>.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(5) INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS/(iv) City Colleges and Academies/C. MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS AS TO THE PROVISION OF EDUCATION/509. Public schools.

509. Public schools.

The term 'public school' has no statutory, or generally accepted, definition<sup>1</sup>. The Public Schools Act 1868 applies only to seven ancient schools, namely Eton, Winchester, Westminster, Charterhouse, Harrow, Rugby and Shrewsbury<sup>2</sup>. The provisions outlined here refer only to those schools.

The headmaster of each school to which the Public Schools Act 1868 applies is appointed by and holds his office at the pleasure of the governing body<sup>3</sup>. All other teachers are appointed by and hold their office at the pleasure of the headmaster<sup>4</sup>. No candidate for mastership is entitled to a preference by reason of his having been educated at the school<sup>5</sup>.

The chapel of each school to which the Public Schools Act 1868 applies is free from jurisdiction or control of the incumbent of the parish in which the chapel is situated, and is deemed to be a chapel dedicated and allowed by the ecclesiastical law of the realm for the performance of public worship and the administration of the sacraments according to the liturgy of the Church of England<sup>6</sup>.

The income of the schools to which the Public Schools Acts apply arises from endowments and from fees paid by pupils, although at each school there are boys on the foundation<sup>7</sup> entitled to education which is wholly or partly gratuitous. The schools are subject to the general law of corporations in respect of their landed property<sup>8</sup>. Eton and Winchester have statutory powers as to land and advowsons<sup>9</sup>, and, so far as they are charities, are exempt charities for the purpose of the Charities Act 1993<sup>10</sup>. Winchester has statutory power to make a scheme for the aggregation and administration of trusts<sup>11</sup>.

Various special provisions as to property, government and other matters are made by the Public Schools Acts in relation to each school to which those Acts apply<sup>12</sup>.

1 In their first report in 1968 the Public Schools Commission (chaired by Sir John Newsom) said: 'Everyone uses the term 'public school' and yet there is no generally accepted definition of these schools. Everybody would probably include the nine schools considered by the Clarendon Commission in their Report of 1864 -- Eton, Winchester, Westminster, Charterhouse, St. Paul's, Merchant Taylors', Harrow, Rugby and Shrewsbury. Most people would also include those famous schools which became prominent in the 19th century such as Marlborough, Wellington, Cheltenham, Clifton, Oundle, Uppingham and many other notable schools. Some use the term to mean any independent secondary school -- a school not receiving grant from public funds. Our terms of reference specifically drew our attention to those independent schools which were (or whose heads were) members of the Headmasters' Conference ('HMC'), the Association of Governing Bodies of Public Schools ('GBA') or the Association of Governing Bodies of Girls' Public Schools ('GBGSA'). There were 288 such schools when we were appointed, including 11 in Scotland'.

2 Eton (The College of the Blessed Mary of Eton) was founded by Henry VI in 1440; Winchester (The Saint Mary College of Winchester) by William of Wykeham in 1382; Westminster (St Peter's College) was founded before 1339 and re-founded by Queen Elizabeth I in 1561; Charterhouse was founded by Thomas Sutton in 1611; Harrow by John Lyon in 1571; Rugby by Lawrence Sheriff in 1567; and Shrewsbury by Edward VI in 1552.

3 Public Schools Act 1868 s 13. For the meaning of 'governing body' see s 3. The governing body is a body corporate: see s 4A(1) (added by the Statute Law (Repeals) Act 1998 s 1(2), Sch 2 para 4). If a governing body, in dismissing a head, acts fairly and honestly, the High Court will not interfere: Hayman v Governors of Rugby School (1874) LR 18 Eq 28, 43 LJ Ch 834.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(6) REGISTRATION AND SCHOOL ATTENDANCE/(i) Duty of Parent to Secure Child's Education/510. Duty of parents to secure education of children of compulsory school age.

(6) REGISTRATION AND SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

(i) Duty of Parent to Secure Child's Education

510. Duty of parents to secure education of children of compulsory school age.

The parent<sup>1</sup> of every child<sup>2</sup> of compulsory school age<sup>3</sup> must cause him to receive efficient full-time education<sup>4</sup> suitable to his age, ability and aptitude<sup>5</sup>, and to any special educational needs<sup>6</sup> he may have<sup>7</sup>, either by regular attendance<sup>8</sup> at school<sup>9</sup> or otherwise<sup>10</sup>. This duty may be enforced against the parents of a child who has failed to attend regularly at school<sup>11</sup> but, since the duty is to ensure that the child receives efficient full-time education and not that the child attends school, parents may comply with it by providing education at home<sup>12</sup>.

A parent is not under a duty to cause a child to receive full-time education during any time during which<sup>13</sup> it is not practicable for the parent to arrange for him to be admitted as a pupil at a school<sup>14</sup>.

1 Unless the context otherwise requires, 'parent', in relation to a child or young person, includes any person who is not a parent of his but who has parental responsibility for him, or who has care of him, except that in the Education Act 1996 s 499(8) (as added) (see PARA 50 ante) it only includes such a person if he is an individual: s 576(1). For these purposes, 'parental responsibility' has the same meaning as in the Children Act 1989 (see s 3; and CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 134): Education Act 1996 s 576(3). In determining for the purposes of s 576(1) whether an individual has care of a child or young person, any absence of the child or young person at a hospital or boarding school and any other temporary absence is to be disregarded: s 576(4).

2 For the meaning of 'child' see PARA 16 note 2 ante.

3 As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

4 'Efficient' and 'full-time' are not defined for these purposes. In Baker v Earl [1960] Crim LR 363, QBD, a lack of structured lessons or prescribed course of study had failed to satisfy the requirements for efficient full-time education. In Bevan v Shears [1911] 2 KB 936 at 939, 75 JP 478 at 479 per Lord Alverstone CJ it was held (in the context of previous legislation) that 'in the absence of anything in the bylaws providing that a child of a given age shall receive instruction in given subjects, in my view it cannot be said that as to a particular child there is a standard of education by which the child must be taught . . . Therefore, the justices have to decide whether in their opinion the child is being taught efficiently so far as that particular child is concerned'. Justices have jurisdiction to decide that the education which a child was receiving was efficient, without deciding that it was as efficient as he would have received at a public elementary school: see Bevan v Shears supra. See also R v Walton Justices, ex p Dutton (1911) 75 JP 558, 9 LGR 1231 (admissibility of evidence as to the state of a child's education); R v West Riding of Yorkshire Justices, ex p Broadbent [1910] 2 KB 192, sub nom R v Morris, ex p Broadbent (1910) 74 JP 271, 8 LGR 777 (decided under previous legislation; efficiency of alternative education). The question of what constitutes efficient education is for the local education authority to decide and is a matter of opinion and degree: R v East Sussex County Council, ex p Tandy [1998] AC 714, [1998] 2 All ER 769, HL (decided under previous legislation).

5 Education Act 1996 s 7(a).

6 For the meaning of 'special educational needs' see PARA 984 post.

7 Education Act 1996 s 7(b).

8 'Regular' attendance is not defined for these purposes. See Hinchley v Rankin [1961] 1 All ER 692, [1961] 1 WLR 421 (decided under previous legislation; absence at the time when the attendance register closed was a failure in regular attendance); Spiers v Warrington Corpn [1954] 1 QB 61, [1953] 2 All ER 1052, DC (decided under previous legislation; a parent failed in his duty to secure the regular attendance at school of his daughter because she was wearing trousers and the parent knew that the head teacher would not admit her). As to the offence of failing to secure the regular attendance at school of a registered pupil see PARA 521 post.

9 For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante.

10 Education Act 1996 s 7. As to the provisions with regard to the duration of the school day and school year and the granting of leave of absence from school see PARA 533 post. A local education authority may be entitled to inspect the home of a child who receives education otherwise than by regular attendance at school: R v Surrey Quarter Sessions Appeals Committee, ex p Tweedie (1963) 61 LGR 464, [1963] Crim LR 639 (decided under previous legislation).

<sup>11</sup> See eg (in England) the Education Act 1996 s 444 (as amended) (failure to secure regular attendance at school of registered pupil); and PARA 521 post. See also the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003 s 19 (as amended) (parenting contracts where a child has failed to attend regularly at school); and PARA 521 post.

12 The powers of local education authorities in relation to school attendance orders apply where a local education authority determines that a child of compulsory school age is not receiving suitable education either by regular attendance at school or otherwise, and therefore these powers apply in relation to children receiving home education: see the Education Act 1996 s 437 (as amended); and PARA 514 et seq post. In Osborne v Martin (1927) 25 LGR 532, (1927) 91 JP 197, DC, Salter J (at 535, 198) held that a parent is not obliged to avail himself of the free education provided by the state but that if he does so while preferring to provide privately for his child's education, he must take it as a whole. Parents educating children at home are under no obligation to provide local education authorities with information about the child's teaching, even where the local education authorities have asked for it: Phillips v Brown (20 June 1980) Lexis. There are, however, instances when local education authorities may inspect education being provided at home (R v Surrey Quarter Sessions Appeals Committee, ex p Tweedie (1963) 61 LGR 464, [1963] Crim LR 639), and interview and test the child (R v Gwent County Council, ex p Perry (1985) 129 Sol Jo 737, [1985] LS Gaz R 3356, CA). It has been held by the European Court of Human Rights that parents may be required to co-operate in the assessment of the child: see H v United Kingdom 38 DR 105 (1984), EComHR. See also R v East Sussex County Council, ex p Tandy [1998] AC 714, [1998] 2 All ER 769, HL.

13 Ie having regard to it not having been reasonably practicable for the parent to arrange for him to be admitted as a pupil at the beginning of the school term by reason of him being ill or by other reason beyond his parents control, or by his parents having been resident at a place from which the school was not accessible with reasonable facility: see the Education Act 1996 s 433(1), (2); and PARA 392 ante.

No power or duty conferred or imposed by the Education Act 1996 on parents<sup>1</sup> is to be construed as relating to any person who is employed by or under the Crown in any service or capacity with respect to which the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> certifies that, by reason of the arrangements made for the education of children<sup>3</sup> and young persons<sup>4</sup> so employed, the exercise and performance of those powers and duties with respect to such children and young persons is unnecessary<sup>5</sup>.

No power or duty conferred or imposed by or under the Education Act 1996 on parents is to be construed as relating to any person who is detained in pursuance of an order made by a court or of an order of recall made by the Secretary of State, but a local education authority<sup>6</sup> may make arrangements for a person who is detained in pursuance of such an order to receive the benefit of educational facilities provided by the authority<sup>7</sup>.

(ii) Registration of Pupils

512. Registration of pupils.

The proprietor<sup>1</sup> of a school<sup>2</sup> must cause to be kept, in accordance with regulations<sup>3</sup>, a register containing the prescribed<sup>4</sup> particulars in respect of all persons who are pupils<sup>5</sup> at the school<sup>6</sup>. The prescribed particulars must include details of the name and address of every person known to the proprietor to be a parent<sup>7</sup> of a pupil at the school<sup>8</sup>. 'Registered pupil', in relation to a school, means a person registered as a pupil at the school in such a register, and 'registered', in relation to the parents of pupils at a school or in relation to the names or addresses of such parents or pupils, means shown in that register<sup>9</sup>.

The regulations must prescribe the grounds on which names are to be deleted from such a register<sup>10</sup>, and the name of a person entered in such a register as a pupil at a school must, when any of the prescribed grounds is applicable, be deleted from the register on that ground<sup>11</sup>, and must not be deleted from the register otherwise than on any such ground<sup>12</sup>. The regulations may make provision for:

- 968 (1) enabling such registers to be inspected<sup>13</sup>;
- 969 (2) enabling extracts from such registers to be taken, for the purposes of the Education Act 1996, by persons authorised to do so under the regulations<sup>14</sup>; and
- 970 (3) requiring the person by whom any such register is required to be kept to make to the Secretary of State and local education authorities<sup>15</sup> such periodical or other returns as to the contents of the register as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>.

A person who contravenes or fails to comply with any requirement imposed on him by such regulations is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a penalty<sup>17</sup>.

513. Withdrawal of pupils from a primary school for secondary education.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may make arrangements in respect of a primary school<sup>2</sup> maintained by it, other than one that is for the time being organised for the provision of both primary<sup>3</sup> and secondary education<sup>4</sup>, under which any registered pupils<sup>5</sup> who are under the age of 12 but have attained the age of 10 years and 6 months may be required to be withdrawn from the school for the purpose of receiving secondary education<sup>6</sup>.

Any function of a local education authority in England which is conferred by or under s 435 may be exercised by, or by employees of, such person as may be authorised in that behalf by the local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 1 para (dd). ### (iii) School Attendance

514. School attendance orders.

If it appears to a local education authority<sup>1</sup> that a child<sup>2</sup> of compulsory school age<sup>3</sup> in its area is not receiving suitable education<sup>4</sup>, either by regular attendance at school<sup>5</sup> or otherwise, it must serve a notice in writing on the parent<sup>6</sup> requiring him to satisfy it within the period specified in the notice that the child is receiving such education<sup>7</sup>. That period must not be less than 15 days beginning with the day on which the notice is served<sup>8</sup>. If:

971 (1) a parent on whom such a notice has been served fails to satisfy the local education authority, within the period specified in the notice, that the child is receiving suitable education<sup>9</sup>; and the authority must serve on the parent an order (called a 'school attendance order') in such form as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>, requiring him to cause the child to become a registered pupil<sup>12</sup> at a school named in the order<sup>13</sup>. A school attendance order, subject to any amendment made by the local education authority, continues in force for so long as the child is of compulsory school age, unless it is revoked by the authority<sup>14</sup>, or a direction<sup>15</sup> is made in respect of it<sup>16</sup>. Where a maintained school<sup>17</sup> is named in a school attendance order, the local education authority must inform the governing body<sup>18</sup> and the head teacher<sup>19</sup>. Where a maintained school is named in a school attendance order, the governing body and the local education authority must admit the child to the school<sup>20</sup>, but this does not affect any power to exclude from a school a pupil<sup>21</sup> who is already a registered pupil there<sup>22</sup>.

972 (2) in the opinion of the authority it is expedient that the child should attend school<sup>10</sup>,

514 School attendance orders

TEXT AND NOTES--A local education authority must make arrangements to enable it to establish, so far as it is possible to do so, the identities of children in its area who are of compulsory school age but are not registered pupils at a school, and are not receiving suitable education otherwise than at a school: Education Act 1996 s 436A(1) (s 436A added by Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 4(1)). In exercising its functions under the Education Act 1996 s 436A a local education authority must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales: s 436A(2); Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 180.

NOTE 4--'Suitable education' is now defined, in the same terms, in the Education Act 1996 s 436A(3): s 437(8) (amended by Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 18 Pt 6).

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(6) REGISTRATION AND SCHOOL ATTENDANCE/(iii) School Attendance/515. Choice of school for child without a statement of special educational needs.

515. Choice of school for child without a statement of special educational needs.

Where a local education authority<sup>1</sup> is required<sup>2</sup> to serve a school attendance order<sup>3</sup> in respect of a child<sup>4</sup> (other than a child for whom it maintains a statement<sup>5</sup> of special educational needs<sup>6</sup>), before serving the order the authority must serve on the parent<sup>7</sup> a notice in writing informing him of its intention to serve the order<sup>8</sup>, specifying the school<sup>9</sup> which the authority intends to name in the order and, if it thinks fit, one or more other schools which it regards as suitable alternatives<sup>10</sup>, and stating the effect of the provisions<sup>11</sup> described below<sup>12</sup>.

If the notice specifies one or more alternative schools and the parent selects one of them within the period of 15 days beginning with the day on which the notice is served, the school selected by him must be named in the order<sup>13</sup>. If within that period the parent applies for the child to be admitted to a school maintained by a local education authority<sup>14</sup> and, where that authority is not the authority by whom the notice was served, notifies the latter authority of the application<sup>15</sup>, and the child is offered a place at the school as a result of the application<sup>16</sup>, that school must be named in the order<sup>17</sup>. If:

- 973 (1) within that period, the parent applies to the local education authority by whom the notice was served for education to be provided at a school which is not a school maintained by a local education authority<sup>18</sup>; and
- 974 (2) the child is offered a place at the school under arrangements made by the authority under which the fees payable in respect of the education provided at the school are to be paid<sup>19</sup> by it<sup>20</sup>, that school must be named in the order<sup>21</sup>. If, within that period:

- 975 (a) the parent applies for the child to be admitted to a school which is not maintained by a local education authority, and in respect of which no application is made under head (1) or head (2) above<sup>22</sup>, and notifies the local education authority by whom the notice was served of the application<sup>23</sup>;
- 976 (b) the child is offered a place at the school as a result of the application<sup>24</sup>; and
- 977 (c) the school is suitable<sup>25</sup> to his age, ability and aptitude and to any special educational needs he may have<sup>26</sup>, that school must be named in the order<sup>27</sup>.

516. Specification of schools in school attendance notices.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> must not, if it appears to it in relation to any school<sup>2</sup> that<sup>3</sup> if the child<sup>4</sup> concerned were admitted to the school in accordance with a school attendance order<sup>5</sup> resulting from a school attendance notice<sup>6</sup>, the number of pupils<sup>7</sup> at the school in the child's age group would exceed the number determined<sup>8</sup> as the number of pupils in that age group which it is intended to admit to the school in the school year<sup>9</sup> in which he would be admitted<sup>10</sup>, specify the school in such a notice unless it is responsible for determining the arrangements for the admission of pupils to the school<sup>11</sup>. This does not prevent a local education authority specifying in such a notice any maintained school<sup>12</sup> if<sup>13</sup>:

- 978 (1) there is no maintained school in its area which the authority is not<sup>14</sup> so prevented from specifying, and which is, in the opinion of the authority, a reasonable distance from the home of the child concerned<sup>15</sup>; and
- 979 (2) in the opinion of the authority, the school in question is a reasonable distance from the home of the child concerned<sup>16</sup>.

In addition, a local education authority must not specify in a such a notice a school from which the child concerned is permanently excluded<sup>17</sup>. Nor may the local education authority specify a school in such a notice if the admission of the child concerned would prejudice<sup>18</sup> the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources by reason of measures required to be taken<sup>19</sup> in order to ensure compliance with the duty of local education authorities and governing bodies to comply with the limit on infant class sizes<sup>20</sup>.

Before deciding to specify a particular maintained school in a school attendance notice<sup>21</sup> a local education authority must consult<sup>22</sup> the governing body<sup>23</sup>, and if another local education authority is responsible for determining the arrangements for the admission of pupils to the school, that authority<sup>24</sup>. Where a local education authority decides to specify a particular maintained school in such a notice it must, before serving the notice, serve notice in writing of its decision on<sup>25</sup> the governing body and head teacher<sup>26</sup> of the school<sup>27</sup>, and if another local education authority is responsible for determining the arrangements for the admission of pupils to the school, that authority<sup>28</sup>. A governing body or local education authority on whom such notice is served may, within the period of 15 days beginning with the day on which the notice was received, apply to the Secretary of State<sup>29</sup> for a direction and, if it does so, must inform the local education authority which served the notice<sup>30</sup>. Where the Secretary of State gives such a direction, the school or schools to be specified in the notice must be determined in accordance with the direction<sup>31</sup>.

520. Offence of failing to comply with school attendance order.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(6) REGISTRATION AND SCHOOL ATTENDANCE/(iii) School Attendance/521. Offence of parent failing to secure regular attendance at school of registered pupil.

521. Offence of parent failing to secure regular attendance at school of registered pupil.

If a child<sup>1</sup> of compulsory school age<sup>2</sup> who is a registered pupil<sup>3</sup> at a school<sup>4</sup> fails to attend regularly at the school, his parent<sup>5</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>6</sup>. A person guilty of such an offence<sup>7</sup> is liable on summary conviction to a penalty<sup>8</sup>. If, in such circumstances, the parent knows that his child is failing to attend regularly at school and fails without reasonable justification to cause him to do so, he is guilty of a separate offence<sup>9</sup>. A person guilty of the latter offence<sup>10</sup> is liable on summary conviction to a penalty<sup>11</sup>. A child who is not a boarder<sup>12</sup> at the school at which he is a registered pupil<sup>13</sup> must not be taken to have failed to attend regularly at the school by reason of his absence from the school with leave<sup>14</sup>, at any time when he was prevented from attending by reason of sickness or any unavoidable cause<sup>15</sup>, or on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs<sup>16</sup>. In addition, a child who is not a boarder at the school at which he is a registered pupil must not be taken to have failed to attend regularly at the school if his parent proves:

- 989 (1) that the school at which the child is a registered pupil is not within walking distance<sup>17</sup> of the child's home<sup>18</sup>; and
- 990 (2) that no suitable arrangements have been made by the local education authority<sup>19</sup> for<sup>20</sup>: (a) his transport to and from the school<sup>21</sup>; (b) boarding accommodation for him at or near the school<sup>22</sup>; or (c) enabling him to become a registered pupil at a school nearer to his home<sup>23</sup>.

If it is proved that the child has no fixed abode, head (1) and head (2) above do not apply, but the parent must be acquitted if he proves:

- 991 (i) that he is engaged in a trade or business of such a nature as to require him to travel from place to place<sup>24</sup>;
- 992 (ii) that the child has attended at a school as a registered pupil as regularly as the nature of that trade or business permits<sup>25</sup>; and
- 993 (iii) if the child has attained the age of six, that he has made at least 200 attendances during the period of 12 months ending with the date on which the proceedings were instituted<sup>26</sup>.

The reasons described above are the only lawful excuses for non-attendance at school<sup>27</sup>.

In proceedings for such offences in respect of a child who is a boarder at the school at which he is a registered pupil, the child must be taken to have failed to attend regularly at the school if he is absent from it without leave during any part of the school term at a time when he was not prevented from being present by reason of sickness or any unavoidable cause<sup>28</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'child' see PARA 16 note 2 ante.

2 As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'registered pupil' see PARA 512 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante.

5 As to the meaning of 'parent' see PARA 510 note 1 ante.

6 Education Act 1996 s 444(1). This is an absolute offence and it is unnecessary that the parents have knowledge of the child's absence or are neglectful in ensuring that the child attends regularly: Crump v Gilmore (1969) 68 LGR 56, 113 Sol Jo 998, DC (decided under previous legislation). The strict liability offence imposed by the Education Act 1996 s 444(1) is not in breach of the right to a fair trial guaranteed by the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Rome, 4 November 1950; TS 71 (1953); Cmd 8969) art 6 (see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 134-148), which does not restrict the power of Parliament to create strict liability offences: Barnfather v Islington London Borough Council [2003] EWHC 418 (Admin), [2003] 1 WLR 2318, [2003] ELR 263, DC.

As to penalty notices for parents in respect of a failure to secure the regular attendance of a registered pupil at school see the Education Act 1996 s 444A (as added); and PARA 523 post. See also the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003 s 19 (as amended) (parenting contracts where a child has failed to attend regularly at school); and PARA 522 post.

7 Is an offence under the Education Act 1996 s 444(1): see the text to notes 1-6 supra.

8 Ibid s 444(8) (amended by the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 s 72(1), (2)(b)). The penalty is a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Education Act 1996 s 444(8). As to the standard scale see PARA 481 note 4 ante.

9 Ibid s 444(1A) (added by the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 s 72(1)(a), (2)). It is not necessarily an abuse of process for an education authority to prosecute a parent under the Education Act 1996 s 444(1A) (as added) after it has obtained an education supervision order under the Children Act 1989 s 36(10), Sch 3 (Sch 3 as amended) (see PARA 527 post). However, in such circumstances, a parent would be entitled to say that the duty under the Education Act 1996 s 444 (as amended) no longer applied and that the process under the Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 18 (persistent failure of parent to comply with a direction given under the order: see PARA 529 post) should have been used instead: R (on the application of Graves) v London Borough of Islington [2003] EWHC 2817 (Admin), [2004] ELR 1, [2003] All ER (D) 119 (Nov).

10 Is an offence under the Education Act 1996 s 444(1A) (as added): see the text to note 9 supra.

11 Ibid s 444(8A)(a) (s 444(8A), (8B) added by the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 s 72(1)(c), (2)). The penalty is a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale (Education Act 1996 s 444(8A)(a) (as so added)), or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months (Education Act 1996 s 444(8A)(b) (as so added)), or both (s 444(8A) (as so added)). As to the standard scale see PARA 481 note 4 ante. See note 9 supra. If, on the trial of an offence under the Education Act 1996 s 444(1A) (as added) (see the text to note 9 supra), the court finds the defendant not guilty of that offence but is satisfied that he is guilty of an offence under s 444(1) (see the text to notes 1-6 supra), the court may find him guilty of that offence: s 444(8B) (as so added). In Sutton London Borough Council v S (2004) Times, 1 November, DC, a local education authority's appeal against an acquittal under the Education Act 1996 s 444(1A) (as added) was dismissed with emphasis being given to the fact that the authority had discretion to appeal and that it should have taken into account the likely distress caused to the particular parents in this instance.

As from a day to be appointed, s 444(8A)(b) (as added) is amended so as to refer to 51 weeks instead of three months: see s 444(8A)(b) (prospectively amended by the Criminal Justice Act 2003 s 280(2), (3), Sch 26 para 49(1), (2)). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

12 As to the meaning of 'boarder' see PARA 26 note 16 ante.

13 Education Act 1996 s 444(2). Where a child is a registered pupil at both a pupil referral unit and at a school other than a unit, the references in s 444 (as amended) to the school at which he is a registered pupil are to be read as references to the unit: Sch 1 para 14(6).

14 Ibid s 444(3)(a). For these purposes, 'leave', in relation to a school, means leave granted by any person authorised to do so by the governing body or proprietor of the school: s 444(9). For the meaning of 'proprietor' see PARA 60 note 7 ante. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante. Separate provision is made by regulations with regard to the granting of leave of absence from school: see the Education (Pupil Registration) Regulations 1995, SI 1995/2089, reg 8 (as amended); and PARA 533 post.

15 Education Act 1996 s 444(3)(b). The unavoidable cause must affect the child, not the parent: Jenkins v Howells [1949] 2 KB 218, [1949] 1 All ER 942, DC (decided under previous legislation; family responsibilities do not constitute an excuse for a child not attending school); Bath and North East Somerset District Council v Warman [1999] ELR 81 (a 15-year-old child leaving the family home and failing to inform her mother of her whereabouts did not give rise to an unavoidable cause for the child's absence from school for the purposes of the Education Act 1996 s 444(3)(b)).

16 Education Act 1996 s 444(3)(c). 'Exclusively' does not mean that during the whole of the 24 hours, or even during the whole of the school hours, there must be some religious observance going on which is inconsistent with the child being at school: Marshall v Graham, Bell v Graham [1907] 2 KB 112, 71 JP 270, DC (decided under previous legislation; Ascension Day is a day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the Church of England).

17 For these purposes, 'walking distance' in relation to a child who is under the age of eight means 3.218688 kilometres (two miles), and in relation to a child who has attained the age of eight means 4.828032 kilometres (three miles), in each case measured by the nearest available route: Education Act 1996 s 444(5). For a route to be available it must be one along which a child accompanied as necessary can walk, and walk with reasonable safety, to school: Essex County Council v Rogers [1987] AC 66, sub nom Rogers v Essex County Council [1986] 3 All ER 321, HL (decided under previous legislation). The parent should, if reasonably practicable, accompany the child along the route where it would be unsafe for the child to go unaccompanied: Devon County Council v George [1989] AC 573, sub nom George v Devon County Council [1988] 3 All ER 1002, HL (decided under previous legislation).

19 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

20 Education Act 1996 s 444(4)(b) (amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), (3), Sch 30 para 117, Sch 31).

21 Education Act 1996 s 444(4)(b)(i). Although there is no absolute duty on the local education authority to provide transport, the local education authority has a duty to make such provision as it considers necessary: see s 509 (as amended) (see PARA 534 post); and Surrey County Council v Ministry of Education [1953] 1 All ER 705, [1953] 1 WLR 516 (decided under previous legislation). See also R v Carmarthenshire County Council, ex p White [2001] ELR 172. The discretion granted to the local education authority by the Education Act 1996 s 509 (as amended) (see PARA 534 post) must be exercised consistently with s 444(4) (as amended) as the absence of transport may be a defence to a charge of failing to attend school: see Devon County Council v George [1989] AC 573, sub nom George v Devon County Council [1988] 3 All ER 1002, HL (decided under previous legislation); R v East Sussex County Council, ex p D [1991] COD 374 (decided under previous legislation); R v Rochdale Metropolitan Borough Council, ex p Schemet [1994] ELR 89, [1993] 1 FCR 306 (decided under previous legislation); R v Essex County Council, ex p C [1994] 1 FCR 773, sub nom Re C (A Minor) [1994] ELR 273, CA (decided under previous legislation); R v Dyfed County Council, ex p S [1995] 1 FCR 113, sub nom Re S (Minors) [1995] ELR 98, CA (decided under previous legislation); R v Kent County Council, ex p C [1998] ELR 108 (decided under previous legislation); R (on the application of Jones) v Ceredigion County Council [2004] EWHC 1376 (Admin), [2004] LGR 881 (where parents have a possible defence under the Education Act 1996 s 444(4), the authority might feel bound to provide transport under s 509 (as amended)). 22 Education Act 1996 s 444(4)(b)(ii).

23 Ibid s 444(4)(b)(iii). It is not possible, on a proper construction of the Education Act 1996 s 444(4)(b)(iii), for a local education authority to have made suitable arrangements for a child to become a registered pupil at a school if that school would not be educationally suitable for the child concerned: R (on the application of Jones) v Ceredigion County Council [2004] EWHC 1376 (Admin), [2004] LGR 881 (alternative school clearly unsuitable as it was not a Welsh medium school).

28 Education Act 1996 s 444(7). In this provision, 'unavoidable cause' is capable of including want of transport: R v Havering London Borough Council, ex p K [1998] ELR 402, [1998] 1 FCR 641 (mother's inability to provide transport was not an unavoidable cause as it affected the child only secondarily).

521 Offence of parent failing to secure regular attendance at school of registered pupil

NOTES--Certain functions under provisions mentioned in this paragraph are 'relevant functions' for the purposes of the Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 4, Sch 3, see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 733.

TEXT AND NOTE 9--Omit words 'without reasonable justification': 1996 Act s 444(1A) (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 109(1), Sch 18 Pt 1). It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under the 1996 Act s 109(1A) to prove that he had a reasonable justification for his failure to cause the child to attend regularly at the school: s 444(1B) (added by the 2006 Act s 109(2)).

NOTE 9--The 1996 Act s 444(1A) gives rise to an evidential, rather than a legal, burden of proof on a defendant: R (on the application of P) v Liverpool City Magistrates [2006] EWHC 887 (Admin), [2006] ELR 386.

TEXT AND NOTES 12-16--In addition, a child who is not a boarder at the school at which he is a registered pupil must not be taken to have failed to attend regularly at the school by reason of his absence from the school at any time if the parent proves that at that time the child was prevented from attending by reason of sickness or any unavoidable cause: 1996 Act s 444(2A) (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 109(4)).

NOTE 14--See Bromley LBC v C [2006] ELR 358, DC.

TEXT AND NOTE 15--Words 'at any time ... any unavoidable cause' omitted: 1996 Act s 444(3) (s 444(3)(b) repealed by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 109(5), Sch 18 Pt 1).

TEXT AND NOTES 17-23--1996 Act s 444(4) applies where the child's home is in Wales: s 444(3F) (s 444(3A)-(3F) added by Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 82(2); 1996 Act s 444(5) amended by Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 82(3), Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 20(3), Sch 2. A child is not to be taken to have failed to attend regularly at the school if the parent proves that the local authority has failed to discharge (1) a duty to make transport arrangements in relation to the child under Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 3; or (2) a duty to make travel arrangements in relation to the child under Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 4: 1996 Act s 444(4) (substituted by Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 20(2)).

Where the child's home is in England, he is not to be taken to have failed to attend regularly at the school if the parent proves that the local education authority has a duty to make travel arrangements in relation to him under the 1996 Act s 508B(1) (see PARA 534A.2), or by virtue of s 508E(2)(c) (see PARA 534A.3), for the purpose of facilitating his attendance at the school and has failed to discharge that duty: see s 444(3A)-(3C). Where the child's home is in England and the school is an independent school which is not a qualifying school, the child is not to be taken to have failed to attend regularly at the school if the parent proves that the school is not within walking distance of the child's home, that no suitable arrangements have been made by the local education authority for boarding accommodation for him at or near the school, and that no suitable arrangements have been made by the local education authority for enabling him to become a registered pupil at a qualifying school nearer to his home: see s 444(3A), (3D), (3E), (5).

TEXT AND NOTES 24-26--1996 Act s 444(6) also applies to s 444(3B), (3D): s 444(6) (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 82(4)).

TEXT AND NOTE 24--For 'the parent must be acquitted if he proves' read 'it is a defence for the parent to prove': 1996 Act s 444(6) (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 109(6)).

TEXT AND NOTE 28--For 'at a time when he was not' read 'unless the parent proves that at that time the child was': 1996 Act s 444(7) (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 109(7)).

Where a child of compulsory school age has been excluded for a fixed period on disciplinary grounds from a school in England which is (1) maintained school, a pupil referral unit, an academy, a city technology college, or a city college for the technology of the arts; (2) remains for the time being a registered pupil at the school; (3) the appropriate authority makes arrangements for the provision of full-time education for him at the school during the period of exclusion; and (4) notice in writing of the arrangements has been given to the child's parent, the exclusion does not affect the application of the 1996 Act s 444(1)-(7) to the child's attendance at the school on any day to which the arrangements relate: s 444(7A) (s 444(7A), (7B) added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 109(8)). As to the meanings of 'academy', 'city technology college' and 'city college for the technology of the arts' see PARA 496. 'The appropriate authority' means, in relation to a maintained school, the governing body of the school, in relation to a pupil referral unit, the local education authority, and in relation to an academy, a city technology college, or a city college for the technology of the arts, the proprietor of the school 1996 Act s 109(7B).

Offence of parent failing to secure regular attendance in relation to alternative educational provision.

Where, in the case of a child<sup>1</sup> of compulsory school age<sup>2</sup> who is not a registered pupil<sup>3</sup> at any school<sup>4</sup> in England<sup>5</sup>, a local education authority<sup>6</sup> has made arrangements<sup>7</sup> for the provision of education for him otherwise than at a school or at his home<sup>8</sup>, and notice in writing of the arrangements has been given to the child's parent<sup>9</sup>, the provisions governing the offence of a parent failing to secure the regular attendance of a registered pupil at school<sup>10</sup> have effect as if the place at which the education is provided were a school and the child were a registered pupil at that school<sup>11</sup>. In proceedings for an offence under these provisions<sup>12</sup>, the parent is to be acquitted if he proves that the child is receiving suitable education otherwise than by regular attendance at a school or at the place<sup>13</sup> at which the education is provided<sup>14</sup>.

Where: (1) a child of compulsory school age has been excluded<sup>15</sup> from a relevant school<sup>16</sup>; (2) he remains for the time being a registered pupil at the school<sup>17</sup>; (3) he is required<sup>18</sup> by the appropriate authority for the school to attend at a place outside the school premises<sup>19</sup> for the purpose of receiving any instruction or training<sup>20</sup>; and (4) notice in writing of the requirement has been given to the child's parent<sup>21</sup>, the provisions governing the offence of a parent failing to secure the regular attendance of a registered pupil at school<sup>22</sup> have effect as if the place at which the child is required to attend were a school and the child were a registered pupil at that school, and not at the school mentioned in head (2) above<sup>23</sup>.

The Education Act 1996 s 444ZA (as added) is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2005 ss 125(4), 126(1), (4) (b). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 September 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

9 Education Act 1996 s 444ZA(1)(b) (as added: see note 8 supra). Section 572, which provides for the methods by which notices may be served under the Education Act 1996 (see PARA 463 ante), does not preclude the notice mentioned in s 444ZA(1)(b) (as added) from being given to a child's parent by any other effective method: s 444ZA(5) (as so added). A child is not to be taken to have failed to attend regularly, in a case falling within s 444ZA(1) (as added), at the place at which education is provided for him, unless he has failed to attend regularly since the giving of the notice mentioned in s 444ZA(1)(b) (as added): s 444ZA(4)(a) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'parent' see PARA 510 note 1 ante.

In s 444 (as amended), 'leave', in relation to a place at which education is provided as mentioned in s 444ZA(1) (as added), means leave granted by any person authorised to do so by the local education authority: s 444ZA(7)(a) (as added: see note 8 supra).

15 In relation to a maintained school or a pupil referral unit, the reference in ibid s 444ZA(2)(a) (as added) to exclusion is a reference to exclusion under the Education Act 2002 s 52 (see PARA 562 post): Education Act 1996 s 444ZA(3)(a) (as added: see note 8 supra). For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 514 note 17 ante; and for the meaning of 'pupil referral unit' see PARA 457 ante.

16 Ibid s 444ZA(2)(a) (as added: see note 8 supra). In s 444ZA (as added), 'relevant school' means: (1) a maintained school; (2) a pupil referral unit; (3) an academy; (4) a city technology college; or (5) a city college for the technology of the arts: s 444ZA(8)(a) (as so added). As to the meanings of 'academy', 'city technology college' and 'city college for the technology of the arts' see PARA 496 ante.

17 Ibid s 444ZA(2)(b) (as added: see note 8 supra).

18 In relation to a maintained school or a pupil referral unit, the requirement referred to in ibid s 444ZA(2)(c) (as added) is a requirement imposed under the Education Act 2002 s 29(3) (as amended) (see PARA 228 ante): Education Act 1996 s 444ZA(3)(b) (as added: see note 8 supra). In s 444 (as amended), 'leave', in relation to a place at which education is provided as mentioned in s 444ZA(2)(c) (as added), means leave granted by any person authorised to do so by the appropriate authority for the school: s 444ZA(7)(b) (as so added). In s 444ZA (as added), 'appropriate authority' means: (1) in relation to a maintained school, the governing body; (2) in relation to a pupil referral unit, the local education authority; and (3) in relation to a school falling within s 444ZA(8)(a)(iii)-(v) (as added) (see note 16 heads (3)-(5) supra), the proprietor of the school: s 444ZA(8)(b) (as so added). ### 522 Offence of parent failing to secure regular attendance in relation to alternative educational provision

TEXT AND NOTES--As from a day to be appointed the Education Act 1996 s 444ZA is further amended so as to extend the circumstances in which a parent or carer can be prosecuted for failing to ensure that a child for whom he or she is responsible regularly attends the alternative provision that has been made for the child: Education and Skills Act 2008 s 155.

NOTE 8--Day now appointed in relation to Wales: SI 2006/1338.

TEXT AND NOTE 13--For 'the parent is to be acquitted if he proves' read 'it is a defence for the parent to prove': 1996 Act s 444ZA(6) (amended by Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 109(9)).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(6) REGISTRATION AND SCHOOL ATTENDANCE/(iii) School Attendance/523. Penalty notice in respect of failure to secure regular attendance.

523. Penalty notice in respect of failure to secure regular attendance.

Where an authorised officer<sup>1</sup> has reason to believe: (1) that a person has committed an offence<sup>2</sup> of failure to secure regular attendance at school of a registered pupil<sup>3</sup>; and (2) that the offence relates to a relevant school in England<sup>4</sup>, or<sup>5</sup> to a place at which education is provided by a local education authority in England<sup>6</sup>, or<sup>7</sup> to a place at which a child is required to attend by the appropriate authority<sup>8</sup> for a relevant school in England<sup>9</sup>, he may give the person a penalty notice in respect of the offence<sup>10</sup>. A 'penalty notice' is a notice offering a person the opportunity of discharging any liability to conviction for the offence<sup>11</sup> to which the notice relates by payment of a penalty<sup>12</sup> in accordance with the notice<sup>13</sup>. Where a person is given a penalty notice, proceedings for the offence to which the notice relates (or an offence<sup>14</sup> arising out of the same circumstances) may not be instituted before the end of such period as may be prescribed<sup>15</sup>. Where a person is given a penalty notice, he cannot be convicted of the offence to which the notice relates (or an offence<sup>16</sup> arising out of the same circumstances) if he pays a penalty in accordance with the notice<sup>17</sup>. Penalties are payable to local education authorities in England<sup>18</sup>. Sums received by a local education authority in this way may be used by the authority for the purposes of any of its functions which may be specified in regulations<sup>19</sup>.

- 994 (a) provision as to the form and content of penalty notices<sup>21</sup>;
- 995 (b) provision as to the monetary amount of any penalty and the time by which it is to be paid<sup>22</sup>;
- 996 (c) provision for determining the local education authority to which a penalty is payable<sup>23</sup>;
- 997 (d) provision as to the methods by which penalties may be paid<sup>24</sup>;
- 998 (e) provision as to the records which are to be kept in relation to penalty notices<sup>25</sup>;
- 999 (f) provision as to the persons who may be authorised by a local education authority or a head teacher to give penalty notices<sup>26</sup>;
- 1000 (g) provision limiting the circumstances in which authorised officers of a prescribed description may give penalty notices<sup>27</sup>;
- 1001 (h) provision for or in connection with the withdrawal, in prescribed circumstances, of a penalty notice, including repayment of any amount paid by way of penalty under a penalty notice which is withdrawn, and prohibition of the institution or continuation of proceedings for the offence to which the withdrawn notice relates (and any offence<sup>28</sup> arising out of the same circumstances)<sup>29</sup>;
- 1002 (i) provision for a certificate purporting to be signed by or on behalf of a prescribed person, and stating that payment of any amount paid by way of penalty was or, as the case may be, was not received on or before a date specified in the certificate, to be received in evidence of the matters so stated<sup>30</sup>;
- 1003 (j) provision as to the action to be taken if a penalty is not paid in accordance with a penalty notice<sup>31</sup>;
- 1004 (k) provision for or in connection with the preparation of codes of conduct in relation to the giving of penalty notices<sup>32</sup>;
- 1005 (l) such other provision in relation to penalties or penalty notices as the Secretary of State thinks necessary or expedient<sup>33</sup>.

Local education authorities, head teachers and authorised officers must, in carrying out their functions in relation to penalty notices, have regard to any guidance which is published by the Secretary of State from time to time in relation to penalty notices<sup>34</sup>.

1 For the purposes of the Education Act 1996 ss 444A-444B (as added and amended), 'authorised officer' means: (1) a constable; (2) an officer of a local education authority in England who is authorised by the authority to give penalty notices; or (3) an authorised staff member: s 444B(4) (s 444B added by the Anti-social Behaviour Act 2003 s 23(1)). For the purposes of the Education Act 1996 ss 444A-444B (as added and amended), 'penalty notice' has the meaning given by s 444A(2) (as added) (see the text and notes 11-13 infra); and 'authorised staff member' means a head teacher of a relevant school in England, or a member of the staff of a relevant school in England who is authorised by the head teacher of the school to give penalty notices: s 444B(4) (as so added). #### (iv) Education Supervision Orders

526. Education supervision orders.

Before instituting proceedings for an offence of failing to comply with a school attendance order<sup>1</sup> or for an offence of failing to secure the regular attendance at school<sup>2</sup> of a registered pupil<sup>3</sup>, a local education authority<sup>4</sup> must consider whether it would be appropriate (instead of or as well as instituting the proceedings) to apply for an education supervision order<sup>5</sup> with respect to the child<sup>6</sup>. The court:

- 1006 (1) by which a person is convicted of an offence<sup>7</sup> of failing to comply with a school attendance order<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1007 (2) before which a person is charged with an offence<sup>9</sup> of failing to secure regular attendance at school of a registered pupil<sup>10</sup>, may direct the local education authority instituting the proceedings to apply for an education supervision order with respect to the child unless the authority, having consulted the appropriate local authority<sup>11</sup>, decides that the child's welfare will be satisfactorily safeguarded even though no education supervision order is made<sup>12</sup>. Where, following such a direction, a local education authority decides not to apply for an education supervision order, it must inform the court of the reasons for its decision<sup>13</sup>. Unless the court has directed otherwise, the information so required must be given to the court before the end of the period of eight weeks beginning with the date on which the direction was given<sup>14</sup>. Where a local education authority applies for an education supervision order with respect to a child who is the subject of a school attendance order<sup>15</sup>, and the court decides that the limitation upon its power to make such an order<sup>16</sup> prevents it from making the order<sup>17</sup>, the court may direct that the school attendance order is to cease to be in force<sup>18</sup>.

527. Duration and effect of education supervision orders.

On the application of any local education authority<sup>1</sup> the court may make an education supervision order, that is to say an order putting the child<sup>2</sup> with respect to whom the application is made under the supervision of a designated<sup>3</sup> local education authority<sup>4</sup>. A court may only make an education supervision order if it is satisfied that the child concerned is of compulsory school age<sup>5</sup> and is not being properly educated<sup>6</sup>. For these purposes, a child is being properly educated only if he is receiving efficient full-time education suitable to his age, ability and aptitude and any special educational needs<sup>7</sup> he may have<sup>8</sup>.

Where a local education authority proposes to make an application for an education supervision order the local education authority must, before making the application, consult the appropriate local authority<sup>9</sup>.

An education supervision order may not be made with respect to a child who is in the care of a local authority<sup>10</sup>.

An education supervision order has effect for a period of one year beginning with the date on which it is made<sup>11</sup>. It may be discharged on the application of the child concerned, his parent<sup>12</sup> or the local education authority concerned<sup>13</sup>. An education supervision order will not expire if, before it would otherwise have expired, the court, on the application of the authority in whose favour the order was made, has extended the period during which it is in force<sup>14</sup>. In any event, an order ceases to have effect on the child's ceasing to be of compulsory school age, or on the making of a care order with respect to the child<sup>15</sup>.

Where an education supervision order is in force with respect to a child, it supersedes or precludes the operation of certain statutory provisions regarding that child<sup>16</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'child' means a person under the age of 18: see the Children Act 1989 s 105(1); and CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 3.

3 The local education authority designated in an education supervision order must be: (1) the authority within whose area the child concerned is living or will live; or (2) where the child is a registered pupil at a school, and the authority mentioned in head (1) supra and the authority within whose area the school is situated agree, the latter authority: ibid s 36(7). For the meaning of 'registered pupil' see PARA 512 ante; definition applied by s 105(1) (amended by the Education Act 1996 s 582(1), Sch 37 para 91). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante; definition applied by the Children Act 1989 s 105(1).

4 Ibid ss 36(1), (2), 105(1). See further CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 296. An application for an education supervision order is usually the appropriate procedure to secure a child's attendance at school, but in a proper case application for a care order may be founded on playing truant: Re O (A Minor) (Care Proceedings: Education) [1992] 4 All ER 905, [1992] 1 WLR 912. Such an application is not within the definition of 'specified proceedings' in the Children Act 1989 s 41(6) (as amended) (see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 311), and there is no power for a children's guardian to be appointed in a family proceedings court on such an application: Essex County Council v B [1993] 1 FCR 145, [1993] 1 FLR 866. The general power of a magistrates' court under the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 s 63(2) (see MAGISTRATES vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 827) to suspend or rescind orders does not apply in relation to orders under the Children Act 1989: s 92(5). As to children's guardians (formerly known as guardians ad litem see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARAS 230, 319-321.

The provisions of the Children Act 1989 s 36 (as amended) replace the Children and Young Persons Act 1969 s 1(2)(e) (repealed), under which the court had power to make a care order if satisfied that a child of compulsory school age was not receiving efficient full-time education; the Children Act 1989 contains no provision empowering the court to make a care order on educational grounds as such.

The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision modifying, or displacing, the provisions of any enactment about education in relation to any child with respect to whom an education supervision order is in force to such extent as appears to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient in consequence of the provision made by the Children Act 1989 with respect to such orders: s 36(10), Sch 3 para 20. At the date at which this volume states the law, no such regulations had been made. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

As to supervision orders generally see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 281 et seq.

5 As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

6 Children Act 1989 s 36(3).

7 For the meaning of 'special educational needs' see PARA 984 post; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 105(1) (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 91).

8 Children Act 1989 s 36(4). Where a child: (1) is the subject of a school attendance order which is in force under the Education Act 1996 s 437 (as amended) (see PARA 514 ante) and which has not been complied with; or (2) he is not attending regularly within the meaning of s 444 (as amended) (see PARA 521 ante): (a) a school at which he is a registered pupil; or (b) any place at which education is provided for him in the circumstances mentioned in s 444ZA(1) (as added) (see PARA 522 ante); or (c) any place which he is required to attend in the circumstances mentioned in s 444ZA(2) (as added) (see PARA 522 ante), then, unless it is proved that he is being properly educated, it is assumed that he is not: Children Act 1989 s 36(5) (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 85; and the Education Act 2005 s 117, Sch 18 para 1). The amendment made by the Education Act 2005 Sch 18 para 1 is brought into force as from a day to be appointed under ss 125(4), 126(1), (4)(b). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 September 2005 (see the Education Act 2005 (Commencement No 1 and Savings and Transitional Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/2034, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales. Until a day has been appointed in relation to Wales, heads (2)(a)-(2)(c) supra should be read as a reference to a registered pupil at a school which he is not attending regularly within the meaning of the Education Act 1996 s 444 (as amended) (see PARA 521 ante).

9 Children Act 1989 s 36(8) (amended by the Education Act 1993 s 307(1), (3), Sch 19 para 149, Sch 21 Pt II). As to the procedure for such consultation see the Family Proceedings Rules 1991, SI 1991/1247, r 4.27 (amended by SI 1997/1893); and the Family Proceedings Courts (Children Act 1989) Rules 1991, SI 1991/1395, r 31 (amended by SI 1997/1895). The appropriate local authority in the case of a child who is being provided with accommodation by, or on behalf of, a local authority, is that authority; and in any other case is the local authority within whose area the child concerned lives, or will live: Children Act 1989 s 36(9).

10 Ibid s 36(6). Note that a child who is not being properly educated may be suffering or be likely to suffer 'significant harm' for the purposes of s 31 (as amended) (see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 274) such as might justify the making of a care order under the Children Act 1989: Re O (A Minor) (Care Proceedings: Education) [1992] 4 All ER 905, [1992] 1 WLR 912.

13 Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 17(1). On discharging an education supervision order the court may direct the local authority within whose area the child lives, or will live, to investigate the child's circumstances: Sch 3 para 17(2).

14 Ibid Sch 3 para 15(2). The period may be extended on more than one occasion, but no one extension may be for more than three years: Sch 3 para 15(4), (5). An application for extension may not be made earlier than three months before the date on which the order would otherwise expire: Sch 3 para 15(3).

15 See ibid Sch 3 para 15(6). As to care orders see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 270 et seq.

16 See ibid Sch 3 para 13 (as amended). Where an education supervision order is in force with respect to a child, the duties of the child's parents under the Education Act 1996 s 7 (see PARA 510 ante), s 444 (as amended) (duties to secure education of children and to secure regular attendance of registered pupils: see PARA 521 ante) are superseded by their duty to comply with any directions in force under the education supervision order: Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 13(1) (amended by the Education Act 1996 s 582(1), Sch 37 para 93(1), (2)(a)). Where an education supervision order is made with respect to a child:

- 29 (1) any school attendance order made under the Education Act 1996 s 437 (as amended) (see PARA 514 ante) with respect to the child, and in force immediately before the making of the education supervision order, ceases to have effect (Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 13(2)(a) (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 93(1), (2)(b))); and
- 30 (2) while the education supervision order remains in force, the following provisions do not apply with respect to the child: (a) the Education Act 1996 s 437 (as amended) (school attendance orders: see PARA 514 ante); (b) s 9 (as amended) (pupils to be educated in accordance with wishes of their parents: see PARA 13 ante); (c) ss 411, 423 (both repealed) (parental preference and appeals against admission decisions) (Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 13(2)(b) (amended by the Education Act 1996 s 582(1), Sch 37 para 93(1), (2)(b)));
- 31 (3) a supervision order made with respect to the child in criminal proceedings, while the education supervision order is in force, may not include an education requirement of the kind which could otherwise be included under the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 s 63 (as amended), Sch 6 para 7 (see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(4) (2008 Reissue) PARA 1351) (Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 13(2)(c) (amended by Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 s 165(1), Sch 9 para 131(1), (2)));
- 32 (4) any education requirement of a kind mentioned in head (3) supra, which was in force with respect to the child immediately before the making of the education supervision order, ceases to have effect (Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 13(2)(d)).

527 Duration and effect of education supervision orders

NOTE 8--Children Act 1989 s 36(5) further amended: Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 para 43 (not yet in force).

NOTE 16--Head (3). Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 13(2)(c) substituted: Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 Sch 4 para 37(2).

528. Duties of the supervisor.

It is the duty of a supervisor<sup>1</sup> to advise, assist and befriend, and give directions to, the supervised child and his parents<sup>2</sup> in such a way as will, in the opinion of the supervisor, secure that he is properly educated<sup>3</sup>. It is also the supervisor's duty, where any such directions given to the supervised child or a parent have not been complied with, to consider what further steps to take in the exercise of the supervisor's powers under the Children Act 1989<sup>4</sup>. Before giving any such directions the supervisor, so far as is reasonably practicable, must ascertain the wishes and feelings of the child and his parents, including in particular their wishes as to the place at which the child should be educated<sup>5</sup>. When settling the terms of any such directions, the supervisor must give due consideration, having regard to the child's age and understanding, to such wishes and feelings of his as the supervisor has been able to ascertain, and to such wishes and feelings of the child's parents as he has been able to ascertain<sup>6</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'supervised child' and 'supervisor', in relation to a supervision order or an education supervision order, mean respectively the child who is, or is to be, under supervision and the person under whose supervision he is, or is to be, by virtue of the order: Children Act 1989 s 105(1). A 'supervision order' is an order, on the application of any local authority or authorised person, putting a child under the supervision of a designated local authority: s 31(1)(b), (11) (s 31(1)(b) amended by the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 ss 74, 75, Sch 7 paras 87, 90, Sch 8). 'Authorised person' means the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and any of its officers, and any person authorised by order of the Secretary of State to bring proceedings under the Children Act 1989 s 31 (as amended) (see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 271 et seq) and any officer of a body which is so authorised: s 31(9). As to supervision orders generally see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 281 et seq. As to education supervision orders see further PARA 526 ante.

2 As to the meaning of 'parent' see PARA 510 note 1 ante; definition applied by virtue of ibid s 36(10), Sch 3 para 21 (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 93(1), (3)).

3 Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 12(1)(a). Directions may be given under Sch 3 para 12 at any time while the education supervision order is in force: Sch 3 para 12(4).

4 Ibid Sch 3 para 12(1)(b). An education supervision order may require the child to keep the supervisor informed of any change in his address, and to allow the supervisor to visit him at the place where he is living: Sch 3 para 16(1). Moreover, a person who is the parent of a child with respect to whom an education supervision order has been made must, if asked by the supervisor, inform him of the child's address (if it is known to him); and, if he is living with the child, he must allow the supervisor reasonable contact with the child: Sch 3 para 16(2).

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(6) REGISTRATION AND SCHOOL ATTENDANCE/(iv) Education Supervision Orders/529. Failure to comply with direction under an education supervision order.

529. Failure to comply with direction under an education supervision order.

If a parent<sup>1</sup> of a child<sup>2</sup> with respect to whom an education supervision order<sup>3</sup> is in force persistently fails to comply with a direction given under the order, he is guilty of an offence<sup>4</sup>. It is a defence for any person charged with such an offence to prove: (1) that he took all reasonable steps to ensure that the direction was complied with<sup>5</sup>; (2) that the direction was unreasonable<sup>6</sup>; or (3) that he had complied with a requirement included in a supervision order<sup>7</sup> made with respect to the child, or with directions given under such a requirement, and it was not reasonably practicable to comply both with the direction under the education supervision order and with the requirement or directions under the supervision order<sup>8</sup>.

Where a child with respect to whom an education supervision order is in force persistently fails to comply with any direction given under the order, the local education authority<sup>9</sup> concerned must notify the appropriate local authority<sup>10</sup>, which must investigate the circumstances of the child<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'parent' see PARA 510 note 1 ante; definition applied by the Children Act 1989 s 36(10), Sch 3 para 21 (amended by the Education Act 1996 Sch 37 para 93(1), (3)).

4 Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 18(1). The offence is punishable on summary conviction by a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Sch 3 para 18(3). As to the standard scale see PARA 481 note 4 ante.

529 Failure to comply with direction under an education supervision order

NOTE 8--Children Act 1989 Sch 3 para 14 further amended and Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 Sch 9 para 131 repealed: Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 Sch 4 para 37(3), Sch 28 Pt 1.

Where a local authority<sup>1</sup> designates premises in a police area<sup>2</sup> as premises to which children<sup>3</sup> and young persons<sup>4</sup> of compulsory school age<sup>5</sup> may be removed<sup>6</sup>, and notifies the chief officer of police<sup>7</sup> for that area of the designation<sup>8</sup>, a police officer of or above the rank of superintendent may direct that the powers conferred on a constable<sup>9</sup> to remove a child to designated premises or to the school<sup>10</sup> from which he is absent<sup>11</sup> are exercisable as respects any area falling within the police area and specified in the direction<sup>12</sup>, and are so exercisable during a period so specified<sup>13</sup>. If a constable has reasonable cause to believe that a child or young person found by him in a public place<sup>14</sup> in a specified area<sup>15</sup> during a specified period is of compulsory school age<sup>16</sup>, and that he is absent from a school without lawful authority<sup>17</sup>, the constable may remove the child or young person to designated premises, or to the school from which he is so absent<sup>18</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'local authority' means: (1) in relation to England, a county council, a district council whose district does not form part of an area that has a county council, a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London; and (2) in relation to Wales, a county council or a county borough council: Crime and Disorder Act 1998 s 16(5). As to areas and authorities in England and Wales see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 22 et seq. As to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 51-55.

3 For these purposes, 'child' means a person under the age of 14: ibid s 117(1). For the purposes of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998, the age of a person is deemed to be that which it appears to the court to be after considering any available evidence: s 117(3).

4 For these purposes, 'young person' means a person who has attained the age of 14 and is under the age of 18: ibid s 117(1).

12 Ibid s 16(2)(a). Section 16(2) has effect in relation to the British Transport Police Force; and for that purpose the reference to any area falling within the police area must be treated as a reference to any area in a place specified in the Railways and Transport Safety Act 2003 s 31(1)(a)-(f): Crime and Disorder Act 1998 s 16(3A) (added by the Police Reform Act 2002 s 75(1); and substituted by the British Transport Police (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Order 2004, SI 2004/1573, art 12(5)(c)). For these purposes, 'British Transport Police' means the force of constables appointed under the British Transport Commission Act 1949 s

53 (now repealed) (see RAILWAYS, INLAND WATERWAYS AND CROSS-COUNTRY PIPELINES vol 39(1A) (Reissue) PARA 281 et seq): Crime and Disorder Act 1998 s 16(5) (definition added by the Police Reform Act 2002 s 75(2)(a)).

13 Crime and Disorder Act 1998 s 16(2)(b).

14 For these purposes, 'public place' has the same meaning as in the Public Order Act 1986 Pt II (ss 11-16) (as amended) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 578): Crime and Disorder Act 1998 ss 14(8), 16(5).

530 Removal of truants [and excluded pupils] to designated premises or school

NOTES 11, 15--After 's 16(3)' read 'and s 16(3A)': 1988 Act s 16(2) (amended by Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 108(2) (in force in England: SI 2007/1801)).

TEXT AND NOTES 14-18--If a constable has reasonable cause to believe that a child or young person found by him in a public place in a specified area during a specified period and during school hours is of compulsory school age, has been excluded on disciplinary grounds from a relevant school for a fixed period or permanently, remains excluded from that school, has not subsequently been admitted as a pupil to any other school, and has no reasonable justification for being in the public place, the constable may remove the child or young person to designated premises: 1988 Act s 16(3ZA) (added by Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 108(3) (in force in England: SI 2007/1801)). In the 1988 Act s 16(3ZA), 'school hours' means any time during a school session of that school or during a break between sessions of that school on the same day: s 16(3B) (added by the 2006 Act s 108(4) (in force in England: SI 2007/1801)). 'Relevant school' has the meaning given by the 2006 Act s 111 (see PARA 566A): 1998 Act s 16(5) (amended by the 2006 Act s 108(5) (in force in England: SI 2007/1801)).

NOTE 17--Now, a child's or young person's absence from a school is taken to be without lawful authority unless the child or young person is prevented from attending by sickness or other unavoidable cause or the absence falls within the Education Act 1996 s 444(3) (leave or day set apart for religious observance): 1988 Act s 16(4) (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 109(10)).

531. School attendance targets.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may make provision for and in connection with requiring, or enabling the Secretary of State to require, governing bodies<sup>2</sup> of maintained schools<sup>3</sup> to secure that annual targets are set for reducing the level of absences on the part of relevant day pupils<sup>4</sup> at their schools<sup>5</sup>. Such regulations may, in particular, make provision:

- 1008 (1) for the Secretary of State to impose such a requirement on the governing body of a maintained school where the specified condition<sup>6</sup> is for the time being satisfied in relation to the school<sup>7</sup>, and he considers it appropriate to impose the requirement<sup>8</sup>;
- 1009 (2) for such a requirement to be imposed by the Secretary of State in such manner, and for such period, as may be specified in or determined in accordance with the regulations<sup>9</sup>;
- 1010 (3) for the Secretary of State, where he considers it appropriate to do so, to exempt the governing body of a maintained school, in relation to any school year, from a requirement so imposed<sup>10</sup>.

1 'Regulations' means regulations made by the Secretary of State under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998: s 142(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. As to the making of regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 generally see PARA 82 note 15 ante. As to the regulations made under s 63 (as amended) see the Education (School Performance and Unauthorised Absence Targets) (Wales) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/1811 (amended by SI 2004/2914; SI 2005/1396); and the Education (School Attendance Targets) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/58. See also note 5 infra.

2 As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante.

3 For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante.

4 For these purposes, 'relevant day pupil' means a pupil registered at a maintained school who is of compulsory school age and is not a boarder: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 63(4). For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). For the meaning of 'registered pupil' see PARA 512 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8). As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante. As to the meaning of 'boarder' see PARA 26 note 16 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 142(8).

5 Ibid s 63(1) (amended by the Education Act 2002 ss 53(1), (2), 215, Sch 22 Pt 3). Provision made by regulations under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 63 (as amended) may relate to absences which are authorised pursuant to regulations under the Education Act 1996 s 434 (as amended) (see PARA 512 ante), or absences which are not so authorised, or both: School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 63(3A) (added by the Education Act 2002 s 53(1), (3)).

As to the setting of annual targets mentioned in the text see the Education (School Attendance Targets) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/58, regs 3-4; and the Education (School Performance and Unauthorised Absence Targets) (Wales) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/1811, regs 7-9 (reg 9 amended by SI 2004/2914; SI 2005/1396).

6 For the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 63(2)(a)(i) (see the text to note 7 infra), the specified condition is for the time being satisfied in relation to a maintained school if in the previous school year the level of absences on the part of relevant day pupils at the school (as determined in accordance with the regulations) exceeded such level as may for that year be specified in or determined in accordance with the regulations: s 63(3) (amended by the Education Act 2002 ss 53(1), (4), Sch 22 Pt 3). ## (vi) Transport Arrangements to Facilitate Attendance

534. Provision of transport etc.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> must make such arrangements for the provision of transport and otherwise as it considers necessary<sup>2</sup>, or as the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> may direct, for the purpose of facilitating the attendance of persons not of sixth form age<sup>4</sup>:

- 1014 (1) receiving education at schools<sup>5</sup>;
- 1015 (2) receiving education at any institution maintained or assisted<sup>6</sup> by the authority which provides further education<sup>7</sup> or higher education<sup>8</sup>, or both<sup>9</sup>;
- 1016 (3) receiving education at any institution within the further education sector<sup>10</sup>;
- 1017 (4) receiving education or training at an institution outside both the further education and higher education sectors<sup>11</sup>.

Such arrangements made by a local education authority must<sup>12</sup>:

- 1018 (a) make provision for persons receiving full-time education at any institution within the further education sector which is no less favourable than the provision made in pursuance of the arrangements for pupils<sup>13</sup> of the same age at schools maintained by a local education authority<sup>14</sup>; and
- 1019 (b) make provision for persons receiving full-time education or training at institutions mentioned in head (4) above which is no less favourable than the provision made in pursuance of the arrangements for persons of the same age with learning difficulties<sup>15</sup> for whom the authority secures the provision of education at any other institution<sup>16</sup>.

Any transport provided in pursuance of such arrangements must be provided free of charge<sup>17</sup>.

A local education authority may pay the whole or any part, as it thinks fit, of the reasonable travelling expenses of any person not of sixth form age receiving education or training at a school, or at any such institution as is mentioned in heads (1) to (4) above, for whose transport no arrangements are made<sup>18</sup>. In considering whether or not it is required to make such arrangements in relation to a particular person, a local education authority must have regard, amongst other things<sup>19</sup> to: (i) the age of the person and the nature of the route, or alternative routes, which he could reasonably be expected to take<sup>20</sup>; and (ii) any wish of his parent<sup>21</sup> for him to be provided with education or training at a school or institution in which the religious education provided is that of the religion or denomination to which his parent adheres<sup>22</sup>.

534A. Provision of transport etc in England.

1. Duty of local education authorities to promote sustainable modes of travel

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> in England must (1) prepare for each academic year<sup>2</sup> a document containing its strategy to promote the use of sustainable modes of travel<sup>3</sup> to meet the school travel needs<sup>4</sup> of its area ('a sustainable modes of travel strategy')<sup>5</sup>; (2) publish the strategy in such manner and by such time as may be prescribed<sup>6</sup>; and (3) promote the use of sustainable modes of travel to meet the school travel needs of its area<sup>7</sup>. Before preparing a sustainable modes of travel strategy, an authority must in particular assess the school travel needs of its area<sup>8</sup>, and assess the facilities and services for sustainable modes of travel to, from and within its area<sup>9</sup>.

The Secretary of State must issue, and may from time to time revise, guidance in relation to the discharge by a local education authority of its duties<sup>10</sup>, and in discharging these duties, an authority must consult such persons as it considers appropriate, and have regard to any such guidance in discharging these duties<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20.

2 For the meaning of 'academic year' see PARA 535; definition applied by virtue of the Education Act 1996 s 508A(11) (s 508A added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 76).

3 'Sustainable modes of travel' are modes of travel which the authority consider may improve either or both of the following: (1) the physical well-being of those who use them; (2) the environmental well-being of the whole or a part of its area: 1996 Act s 508A(3).

4 The 'school travel needs' of an authority's area are: (1) the needs of children and persons of sixth form age in the authority's area as regards their needs as regards travel to and from schools or further education institutions at which they receive or are to receive education or training, or any other places where they receive or are to receive education by virtue of arrangements made in pursuance of ibid s 19(1) (see PARA 457); and (2) the needs of other children and persons of sixth form age as regards their needs as regards travel to and from schools or further education institutions at which they receive or are to receive education or training, or any other places where they receive or are to receive education by virtue of arrangements made in pursuance of s 19(1), in so far as that travel relates to travel within the authority's area: s 508A(4)-(6). 11 Ibid s 508A(9).

2. Travel arrangements for children

In specified circumstances, a local education authority in England must make, in the case of an eligible child<sup>4</sup> in the authority's area, such travel arrangements as it considers necessary in order to secure that suitable home to school travel arrangements<sup>5</sup>, for the purpose of facilitating the child's attendance at the relevant educational establishment<sup>6</sup> in relation to him, are made and provided free of charge in relation to the child<sup>7</sup>. The specified circumstances are that either no travel arrangements relating to travel in either direction between eligible child's home and the relevant educational establishment, or in both directions, are provided free of charge in relation to him by any person who is not the authority<sup>8</sup>, or that such travel arrangements are so provided free of charge<sup>9</sup> but those arrangements, taken together with any other such travel arrangements which are so provided, do not provide suitable home to school travel arrangements for the purpose of facilitating his attendance at the relevant educational establishment<sup>10</sup>.

In relation to a child who is not an eligible child<sup>11</sup>, a local education authority in England may make such school travel arrangements<sup>12</sup> as it considers necessary, in relation to any child in its area, for the purpose of facilitating the child's attendance at any relevant educational establishment<sup>13</sup> in relation to the child<sup>14</sup>. A local education authority in England may pay, in the case of a child in the authority's area who is not an eligible child and in relation to whom no such arrangements are made by the authority, the whole or any part, as it think fit, of a person's reasonable travelling expenses in relation to that child's travel in either direction between his home and any relevant educational establishment in relation to the child, or in both directions<sup>15</sup>.

The Secretary of State must issue, and may from time to time revise, guidance in relation to the discharge by a local education authority of its functions<sup>16</sup>, and an authority must have regard to any such guidance in discharging these functions<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to travel schemes see PARA 534A.3.

2 As to local education authorities see PARA 20.

3 See the Education Act 1996 s 508E(3) (s 508E added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 78(1)), which provides that the authority by which the scheme is made does not have any functions under the 1996 Act s 508B or 508C in relation to children in its area.

4 'Eligible child' means a child who falls within any of the provisions of ibid Sch 35B paras 2-7 or 9-13: Sch 35B para 1 (Sch 35B added by the 2006 Act s 77(2), Sch 8; and prospectively amended by Education and Skills Act 2008 Sch 1 para 52). Those provisions concern situations either where the local education authority has not made suitable arrangements to enable a child to become a pupil at a school nearer his home, or where the child is receiving education at a place other than a school by virtue of arrangements made in pursuance of the 1996 Act s 19(1) (see PARA 457), and where the child (1) is of compulsory school age and lives within walking distance of his school or other place of education, but cannot reasonably be expected to walk to that school or place having regard to his special educational needs, disability or mobility problems (see Sch 35B paras 2, 3 and A v North Somerset Council [2009] EWHC 3060 (Admin), [2010] ELR 139, [2009] All ER (D) 323 (Nov)); (2) is of compulsory school age and lives within walking distance of his school or other place of education, but cannot reasonably be expected to walk to that school or place having regard to the nature of the routes which he could reasonably be expected to take (see Education Act 1996 Sch 35B paras 4, 5); (3) is of compulsory school age and does not live within walking distance of his school or other place of education (see Sch 35B paras 6-8); (4) either qualifies for free school lunches and milk or has a parent (with whom he is ordinarily resident) who is awarded working tax credit at the maximum rate, and where the child either (a) has attained the age of 8 but not the age of 11, and does not live within two miles of his school or other place of education (see Sch 35B paras 9, 10, 14), (b) has attained the age of 11, and lives between two and six miles of his school or other place of education (see Sch 35B paras 11, 13, 14), or (c) has attained the age of 11, lives between two and fifteen miles of his school or other place of education, and has a parent who has expressed a wish, based on the parent's religion or belief, for him to be provided with education at that school (see Sch 35B paras 12, 14).

5 'Home to school travel arrangements', in relation to an eligible child, are travel arrangements relating to travel in both directions between the child's home and the relevant educational establishment in question: ibid s 508B(3) (ss 508B-508D added by the 2006 Act s 77(1)). 'Travel arrangements', in relation to an eligible child, are travel arrangements of any description and include (1) arrangements for the provision of transport; and (2) any of the following arrangements only if they are made with the consent of a parent of the child: (a) arrangements for the provision of one or more persons to escort the child (whether alone or together with other children) when travelling to or from the relevant educational establishment in relation to the child; (b) arrangements for the payment of the whole or any part of a person's reasonable travelling expenses; (c) arrangements for the payment of allowances in respect of the use of particular modes of travel: 1996 Act s 508B(4). In relation to an eligible child, 'travel arrangements' include travel arrangements of any description made by any parent of the child only if those arrangements are made by the parent voluntarily; and do not comprise or include travel arrangements which give rise to additional costs and do not include appropriate protection against those costs: see s 508B(5)-(7).

6 As to the meaning of 'relevant educational establishment' in relation to an eligible child, see ibid s 508B(10).

8 Ibid s 508B(2)(a).

9 Travel arrangements are provided free of charge if there is no charge for anything provided in pursuance of the arrangements: ibid s 508B(8).

10 Ibid s 508B(2)(b). Regulations may modify s 508B(1) and (2) to provide for their application in cases where there is more than one relevant educational establishment in relation to a child: s 508B(11). As to such regulations, see the School Travel (Pupils with Dual Registration) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/1367.

11 1996 Act s 508C(2).

12 'School travel arrangements', in relation to such a child, are travel arrangements relating to travel in either direction between his home and any relevant educational establishment in relation to the child, or in both directions: ibid s 508C(3). 'Travel arrangements', in relation to such a child, are travel arrangements of any description and include (1) arrangements for the provision of transport; and (2) any of the following arrangements only if they are made with the consent of a parent of the child: (a) arrangements for the provision of one or more persons to escort the child (whether alone or together with other children) when travelling to or from any relevant educational establishment in relation to the child; (b) arrangements for the payment of the whole or any part of a person's reasonable travelling expenses; (c) arrangements for the payment of allowances in respect of the use of particular modes of travel: s 508C(4).

13 As to the meaning of 'relevant educational establishment' in relation to a child who is not an eligible child, see ibid s 508C(6).

15 Ibid s 508C(5).

16 Ibid s 508D(1), referring to the authority's functions under s 508B and 508C. Before issuing or revising such guidance, the Secretary of State must consult such persons as he considers appropriate: s 508D(2). Regulations may require a local education authority to publish, at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed, such information as may be prescribed with respect to the authority's policy and arrangements relating to the discharge of its functions under s 508B or 508C: s 508D(4).

17 Ibid s 508D(3).

3. School travel schemes

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> in England may make a school travel scheme for its area<sup>2</sup>, and the authority making a school travel scheme ('the scheme authority') may amend or revoke the scheme<sup>3</sup>. Where a school travel scheme is in force the scheme authority must give effect to it<sup>4</sup>, and that authority does not have any functions concerning travel arrangements in relation to children in its area<sup>5</sup>. A school travel scheme must set out, in general terms, what arrangements the local education making the scheme ('the scheme authority') considers it appropriate to be made in relation to travel to and from schools, further education institutions or other places of education<sup>6</sup>. A school travel scheme must secure suitable travel arrangements for eligible children<sup>7</sup>, and must set out a charging policy, which must include provision to the effect that anything provided in pursuance of the scheme for a protected child is provided free of charge<sup>8</sup>.

The scheme authority must make such reports and returns to the Secretary of State and compile and give to him such information as he may require for the purposes of monitoring the operation or effect of a school travel scheme or preparing or publishing an evaluation<sup>9</sup>.

The Secretary of State must issue, and may from time to time revise, guidance in relation to the discharge by a local education authority any of its duties or functions<sup>10</sup>, and an authority must have regard to any such guidance in discharging these duties or exercising these functions<sup>11</sup>. Before issuing or revising such guidance, the Secretary of State must consult such persons as he considers appropriate<sup>12</sup>.

The school travel scheme provisions<sup>13</sup> are to be piloted in accordance with regulations<sup>14</sup> made by the Secretary of State<sup>15</sup>. The Secretary of State must prepare and publish an evaluation of the operation and effect of school travel schemes<sup>16</sup>, and may by order provide for the school travel scheme provisions to cease to have effect in relation to local education authorities with effect from such date as may be specified in the order<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20.

2 Education Act 1996 Sch 35C para 1(1) (Sch 35C added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 78(2), Sch 9). Effect is given to the 1996 Act Sch 35C by s 508E(1) (s 508E added by the 2007 Act s 78(1)). Before making a school travel scheme, a local education authority must consult such persons as the authority considers appropriate: 1996 Act Sch 35C para 1(2). A school travel scheme comes into force only if approved by the Secretary of State and in accordance with directions given by him, and the earliest date on which a school travel scheme may come into force is 31 August 2007: Sch 35C para 10. The Secretary of State must issue (and may revise) guidance as to the matters which he will take into account in exercising his power to give such approval: see Sch 35C para 13.

3 Ibid Sch 35C paras 11(1), 14 (Sch 35C as added: see NOTE 2). Before amending a school travel scheme, the scheme authority must consult such persons as it considers appropriate, and its power of amendment is exercisable only with the consent of the Secretary of State: see Sch 35C para 11(2)-(6). The Secretary of State must issue (and may revise) guidance as to the matters which he will take into account in exercising his power to give such consent: see Sch 35C para 13.

4. Transport for adult learners

A local education authority in England must make such transport or other arrangements as it considers necessary, or as the Secretary of State directs, for the purpose of facilitating the attendance of specified adults receiving education or training at certain institutions<sup>1</sup>. The authority must also make available in a transport policy statement information about the travel provision it has put in place for young adults in respect of whom a learning difficulty assessment has been carried out or is required to be carried out<sup>2</sup>. In making such arrangements and preparing such statements, the authority must have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>.

1 See Education Act 1996 s 508F (ss 508F-508I added by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 57(2)).

2 See Education Act 1996 s 508G. Provision is made for the authority to revise transport arrangements so made following a complaint by the young adult or his parents: see Education Act 1996 s 508I.

5. Duty to have regard to religion or belief

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> in England must have regard, amongst other things, in exercising any of its travel functions<sup>2</sup> in relation to or in connection with the travel of a person or persons to or from a school, institution or other place, (1) to any wish of a parent of such a person for him to be provided with education or training at a particular school, institution or other place where that wish is based on the parent's religion<sup>3</sup> or belief<sup>4</sup>, and (2) in a case where the person in question (or any of the persons in question) is of sixth form age<sup>5</sup>, to any wish of that person to be provided with education or training at a particular school, institution or other place where that wish is based on the person's religion or belief<sup>6</sup>.

6. Complaints about transport arrangements for persons of sixth form age

A local education authority may revise a transport policy statement<sup>1</sup> to change the arrangements specified<sup>2</sup> if, as a result of a sixth form transport complaint<sup>3</sup>, it has come to consider the change necessary for the purpose of those arrangements or the Secretary of State has directed it to do so<sup>4</sup>. An authority that revises a statement must publish the revised statement and a description of the revision as soon as practicable<sup>5</sup>. The Secretary of State need not consider whether to exercise specified powers in relation to local education authorities in response to a matter that is, or could have been, the subject of a sixth form transport complaint made to him unless satisfied that (1) the matter has been brought to the notice of the authority concerned; and (2) the authority have had a reasonable opportunity to investigate the matter and respond<sup>6</sup>. For certain purposes, the revision of a statement under the above provisions is to be treated as the preparation of a statement<sup>7</sup>.

Where an authority has published in a single document a statement prepared under Education Act 1996 508G (transport policy statements for young adults subject to learning difficulty assessment) and a statement prepared under s 509AA, the requirement to publish a revised statement is to be treated as a requirement to publish a version of the document that includes the revised statement: Education Act 1996 s 509AE(7).

2. Duty to make transport arrangements

3 For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 534B.1.

4 Transport arrangements are not suitable if they cause unreasonable levels of stress for the child, take an unreasonable amount of time, or are unsafe: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 3(5).

5 For the meaning of 'relevant place' see PARA 534B.1.

6 For the meaning of 'education' see PARA 534B.1.

11 Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 ss 3(2), 5(a), (b).

3. Duty to make other travel arrangements

A local authority<sup>1</sup> must, in relation to a child of compulsory school age if (1) the child is receiving education<sup>2</sup> or training at a relevant place<sup>3</sup>; (2) the child is ordinarily resident in its area; and (3) it considers that travel arrangements<sup>4</sup> are necessary<sup>5</sup> to facilitate the attendance of the child each day at the relevant place where the child receives education or training, make suitable<sup>6</sup> travel arrangements to facilitate the attendance of the child each day at the relevant places where the child receives education or training<sup>7</sup>. The local authority must not charge a child or a parent who is an individual for any travel arrangements so made<sup>8</sup>. Travel arrangements may include the payment of the whole, but not part, of a child's travel expenses<sup>9</sup>. The making of travel arrangements is not required for (a) learners<sup>10</sup> to travel during the day between relevant places or between different sites of the same institution; or (b) for any purpose other than attendance at a relevant place to receive education or training<sup>11</sup>.

A local authority may, in relation to a learner if (i) the learner is ordinarily resident in its area; or (ii) he receives education or training in its area, make travel arrangements to facilitate his attendance at a place where he receives education or training<sup>12</sup>. A local authority may charge<sup>13</sup> for travel arrangements so made for registered pupils of compulsory school age<sup>14</sup>. A local authority may also charge for travel arrangements so made for other learners<sup>15</sup>.

The Welsh Ministers may also make regulations about travel arrangements for (A) post-16 learners who live in Wales and are either in receipt of education or training in Wales or in receipt of education or training which is funded by the Welsh Ministers outside Wales; and (B) children who are in nursery education<sup>16</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 534B.1.

2 For the meaning of 'education' see PARA 534B.1.

3 For the meaning of 'relevant place' see PARA 534B.1.

4 For the meaning of 'travel arrangements' see PARA 534B.1.

5 In considering whether travel arrangements are necessary a local authority must have regard in particular to the matters specified in Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 4(5) and may, if the child is not looked after by a local authority and arrangements have been made by the local authority for enabling the child to attend a suitable relevant place nearer to his place of ordinary residence, have regard in particular to whether or not the child is attending the nearest suitable relevant place to his place of ordinary residence: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 4(7), (8). For the meaning of 'looked after by a local authority' see PARA 534B.1. A relevant place is suitable for a child if the education or training provided there is suitable, having regard to the age, ability and aptitudes of the child and any learning difficulties he may have: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 4(9).

6 In considering whether travel arrangements are suitable, a local authority must have regard in particular to (1) the assessment it carries out in accordance with Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 2(2) (PARA 534B.1); (2) the transport arrangements it is under a duty to make for the child under Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 3 (PARA 534B.2); (3) the age of the child; (4) any disability or learning difficulty of the child; and (5) the nature of the routes which the child could reasonably be expected to take: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 4(5). 'Disability' has the same meaning as in Disability Discrimination Act 1995 s 1 (DISCRIMINATION vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 511); and 'learning difficulty' in respect of a person means a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of persons of the same age or a disability which either prevents or hinders that person from using facilities of a kind provided at relevant places, but a person is not to be taken as having a learning difficulty solely because the language (or form of the language) in which he is taught or will be taught is different from a language (or form of a language) which has at any time been spoken in his home: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 24(1). #### 4. Travel behaviour code

The Welsh Ministers must make a travel behaviour code<sup>1</sup>. A travel behaviour code is a code setting out the standards of behaviour required of (1) learners<sup>2</sup> who have not attained the age of 19; (2) learners who have attained the age of 19 who have begun a course of education<sup>3</sup> or training before attaining that age and continue to attend that course; and (3) such other learners as may be prescribed<sup>4</sup>, while they are travelling to and from the relevant places<sup>5</sup> where they receive education or training (whether or not they take advantage of travel arrangements<sup>6</sup> made by a local authority)<sup>7</sup>. The Welsh Ministers must review the code from time to time<sup>8</sup> and must publish it<sup>9</sup>.

A local authority may withdraw travel arrangements made for a learner<sup>10</sup> if it is satisfied that the learner has failed to comply with the travel behaviour code and the following conditions applicable to the learner are satisfied<sup>11</sup>. The conditions are: (a) before any decision is taken to withdraw travel arrangements (i) the learner and the parent of the learner must be given the opportunity to make representations; and (ii) those representations must be considered by the local authority<sup>12</sup>; (b) the head teacher of the relevant school at which the learner is a registered pupil (i) must be consulted about the decision to withdraw travel arrangements; and (ii) must be given notice of the decision at least 24 hours before the withdrawal takes effect<sup>13</sup>; (c) the decision to withdraw travel arrangements must be reasonable in the circumstances<sup>14</sup>; (d) the local authority must give notice of the withdrawal of travel arrangements to the learner's parent at least 24 hours before the withdrawal takes effect<sup>15</sup>; (e) the period of withdrawal must not exceed 10 consecutive school days<sup>16</sup>; and (f) the period of withdrawal must not result in the learner having travel arrangements withdrawn for more than 30 school days in the school year in which the withdrawal takes effect<sup>17</sup>. Regulations may make further provision regarding the withdrawal of travel arrangements<sup>18</sup>.

1 Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 12(1). Before making or revising a code the Welsh Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 12(6).

3 For the meaning of 'education' see PARA 534B.1.

11 Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 14(1), (2). Conditions (a)-(f) in the text apply to any learner who is a registered pupil at a relevant school: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 14(3). Conditions (a), (c) and (d) apply to any learner who is not a registered pupil at a relevant school: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 14(4). 'Relevant school' means a maintained school, a pupil referral unit, or a non-maintained special school: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 14(13). 13 Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 14(6).

14 Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 14(7). In determining whether a decision to withdraw travel arrangements is reasonable, the following matters in particular must be taken into account: (1) whether the period of withdrawal is proportionate in the circumstances of the case; (2) any special circumstances relevant to the withdrawal of travel arrangements which are known to the local authority (or of which the authority ought to be aware) including in particular (a) the learner's age; (b) any special educational needs he may have; (c) any disability he may have; (d) whether he would lose an opportunity to take a public examination; and (e) whether suitable alternative travel arrangements can reasonably be made by his parent: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 14(11). For the meaning of 'disability' see PARA 534B.3.

15 Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 14(8). A notice under s 14(6) or (8) must be in writing and specify the period for which travel arrangements are to be withdrawn and the authority's reasons for withdrawal of the arrangements: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 s 14(12).

5. Prohibition of discrimination between learners; promotion of access to education through medium of Welsh language; promotion of sustainable modes of travel etc

Learner travel arrangements<sup>1</sup> must not favour certain types of education<sup>2</sup> and training<sup>3</sup>. Local authorities<sup>4</sup> and the Welsh Ministers must promote access to education and training through the medium of the Welsh language when exercising functions<sup>5</sup> in relation to learner travel<sup>6</sup>. Local authorities and the Welsh Ministers must also promote the use of sustainable modes of travel when exercising such functions<sup>7</sup>. Local authorities and governing bodies of maintained schools and further education institutions must have regard to guidance and directions given from time to time by the Welsh Ministers when exercising such functions<sup>8</sup>.

Regulations<sup>9</sup> may require a local authority to publish information about assessments of learner travel needs for its area<sup>10</sup>, about the arrangements made for learner travel, and about the travel behaviour code<sup>11</sup>. Provision is also made for (1) co-operation between local authorities, governing bodies and head teachers in the exercise of local authorities' learner travel functions<sup>12</sup>; (2) the reimbursement of a local authority's costs of making travel arrangements for children looked after by another local authority<sup>13</sup>; and (3) the determination of a person's ordinary residence in particular circumstances<sup>14</sup>.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(6) REGISTRATION AND SCHOOL ATTENDANCE/(vi) Transport Arrangements to Facilitate Attendance/535. Provision of transport etc for persons of sixth form age.

535. Provision of transport etc for persons of sixth form age.

The statement must specify the arrangements for the provision of transport or otherwise that the authority considers it necessary to make for facilitating the attendance of persons of sixth form age<sup>4</sup> receiving education or training: (1) at schools<sup>5</sup>; (2) at any institution maintained or assisted by the authority which provides further education<sup>6</sup> or higher education<sup>7</sup>, or both<sup>8</sup>; (3) at any institution within the further education sector<sup>9</sup>; or (4) at any establishment not falling within head (2) or head (3) above which is supported by the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>10</sup> or the National Council for Education and Training for Wales<sup>11</sup>. The statement must specify the arrangements that the authority considers it necessary to make for the provision of financial assistance in respect of the reasonable travelling expenses of persons of sixth form age receiving education or training at any such establishment as is mentioned in heads (1) to (4) above<sup>12</sup>. The statement must specify the arrangements proposed to be made by the governing bodies<sup>13</sup> of:

- 1020 (a) schools maintained by the authority at which education suitable to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age is provided<sup>14</sup>; and for the provision of transport for facilitating the attendance of persons of sixth form age receiving education or training at the schools and institutions and for the provision of financial assistance in respect of the travelling expenses of such persons<sup>16</sup>. Those governing bodies must co-operate in giving the local education authority any information and other assistance that is reasonably required by the authority for the performance of its functions<sup>17</sup>. The statement must specify any travel concessions<sup>18</sup> which are to be provided under any scheme<sup>19</sup> to persons of sixth form age receiving education at any establishment in the authority's area as is mentioned in heads (1) to (4) above<sup>20</sup>.
- 1021 (b) institutions within the further education sector in the authority's area<sup>15</sup>,

The authority must publish the statement, in a manner which it considers appropriate, on or before 31 May in the year in which the academic year in question begins<sup>21</sup>; and it must make, and secure that effect is given to, any arrangements specified<sup>22</sup>. Nothing in these provisions<sup>23</sup> prevents a local education authority from making, at any time in an academic year, arrangements which are not specified in the transport policy statement published by the authority for that year<sup>24</sup>, but which it has come to consider necessary for the purposes mentioned above<sup>25</sup>. The Secretary of State may, if he considers it expedient to do so, direct a local education authority to make for any academic year:

- 1022 (i) arrangements for the provision of transport or otherwise for facilitating the attendance of persons of sixth form age receiving education or training at establishments as are mentioned in heads (1) to (4) above<sup>26</sup>; or
- 1023 (ii) arrangements for providing financial assistance in respect of the reasonable travelling expenses of such persons<sup>27</sup>, which have not been specified in the transport policy statement published by the authority for that academic year<sup>28</sup>.

Provision of transport etc for disabled persons and persons with learning difficulties of sixth form age.

A statement prepared by a local education authority<sup>1</sup> which specifies arrangements for the provision of transport for persons of sixth form age<sup>2</sup> must state to what extent those arrangements<sup>3</sup> include arrangements for facilitating the attendance at the specified establishments<sup>4</sup> of disabled persons<sup>5</sup> and persons with learning difficulties<sup>6</sup>. Such a statement<sup>7</sup> must: (1) specify arrangements for persons receiving full-time education or training at establishments other than schools<sup>8</sup> maintained by the local education authority<sup>9</sup> which are no less favourable than the arrangements specified for pupils of the same age attending such schools<sup>10</sup>; and (2) specify arrangements for persons with learning difficulties receiving education or training at establishments other than schools maintained by the authority which are no less favourable than the arrangements specified for pupils of the same age with learning difficulties attending such schools<sup>11</sup>. In considering what arrangements it is necessary to make<sup>12</sup> the local education authority must have regard, amongst other things, to: (a) the needs of those for whom it would not be reasonably practicable to attend a particular establishment to receive education or training if no arrangements were made<sup>13</sup>; (b) the need to secure that persons in its area<sup>14</sup> have reasonable opportunities to choose between different establishments at which education or training is provided<sup>15</sup>; (c) the distance from the homes of persons of sixth form age<sup>16</sup> in its area of specified establishments<sup>17</sup> at which education or training suitable to their needs is provided<sup>18</sup>; and (d) the cost of transport to the establishments in question and of any alternative means of facilitating the attendance of persons receiving education or training there<sup>19</sup>. In considering whether or not it is necessary to make arrangements for those purposes in relation to a particular person, a local education authority must have regard, amongst other things, to: (i) the nature of the route, or alternative routes, which he could reasonably be expected to take<sup>20</sup>; and (ii) any wish of his parent for him to be provided with education or training at a school, institution or other establishment in which the religious education provided is that of the religion or denomination to which his parent adheres<sup>21</sup>.

In preparing a statement which specifies arrangements for the provision of transport for persons of sixth form age<sup>22</sup>, a local education authority must have regard to any guidance issued<sup>23</sup>. In preparing such a statement, a local education authority must also consult: (A) any other local education authority that it considers it appropriate to consult<sup>24</sup>; (B) the governing bodies<sup>25</sup>; (C) the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>26</sup> in the case of a local education authority in England, or the National Council for Education and Training for Wales<sup>27</sup> in the case of a local education authority in Wales<sup>28</sup>; and (D) any other person specified for the purposes of these provisions<sup>29</sup>. In preparing such a statement, a local education authority must also consult where it is the local education authority for a district in a metropolitan county<sup>30</sup>, the passenger transport authority<sup>31</sup> for that county<sup>32</sup>, and where it is the local education authority for a London borough<sup>33</sup> or the City of London<sup>34</sup>, Transport for London<sup>35</sup>.

TEXT AND NOTE 19--In considering whether or not it is necessary to make arrangements for the purposes mentioned in the 1996 Act s 509AA(2) and (3) in relation to a particular person, a local education authority in England must have regard, amongst other things, to the nature of the route, or alternative routes, which he could reasonably be expected to take: s 509AB(3A) (added by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 10 para 5(a)).

TEXT AND NOTES 20, 21--Education Act 1996 s 509AB(4) repealed: Learner Travel (Wales) Measure 2008 Sch 1 para 4(3)(a), Sch 2.

Transport Act 2008 Sch 4 para 60). In preparing and publishing such a statement, a local education authority must have regard (among other things) to the need to include in the statement sufficient information about the matters that the statement must specify, and publish the statement in time to enable persons who will be of sixth form age when the statement has effect and their parents to take reasonable account of those matters when choosing between different establishments at which education or training is provided: Education Act 1996 s 509AB(7A) (added by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 s 55(1)).

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may provide a child<sup>2</sup> with assistance as to travel arrangements if it is satisfied that, without such assistance, he would be prevented from attending at any premises<sup>3</sup> which are not a school<sup>4</sup> or part of a school, but at which relevant nursery education<sup>5</sup> is provided, for the purpose of receiving such education there<sup>6</sup>. The assistance which may so be provided for a child consists of either making arrangements, whether for the provision of transport or otherwise, for the purpose of facilitating the child's attendance at the premises concerned<sup>7</sup>, or paying the whole or any part of his reasonable travel expenses<sup>8</sup>. When considering whether to provide a child with such assistance in connection with his attendance at any premises, a local education authority may have regard, among other things, to whether it would be reasonable to expect alternative arrangements to be made for him to receive relevant nursery education at any other premises, whether nearer to his home or otherwise<sup>9</sup>. Where the assistance to be provided for a child consists of making arrangements for the provision of transport, the authority may, if it considers it appropriate to do so, determine that the assistance must not be so provided unless the child's parent<sup>10</sup>, or the person providing the relevant nursery education concerned, agrees to make to the authority such payments in respect of the provision of the transport, not exceeding the cost to the authority of its provision, as it may determine<sup>11</sup>.

Regulations<sup>12</sup> may require a local education authority to publish, at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed<sup>13</sup>, such information as may be prescribed with respect to the authority's policy and arrangements relating to the making of travel arrangements for children receiving nursery education otherwise than at school<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

5 For these purposes, 'relevant nursery education' means nursery education which is provided by: (1) a local education authority; or (2) by any other person: (a) who is in receipt of financial assistance given by such an authority and whose provision of nursery education is taken into account by the authority in formulating proposals for the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 120(2)(a) (as amended; repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARA 88 ante); or (b) who is in receipt of grants under the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 s 1 (as amended; repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARA 91 ante): Education Act 1996 s 509A(5) (s 509A added by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 124). Head (2)(b) supra is repealed by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3 as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 April 2003 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 4 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/124, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

6 Education Act 1996 s 509A(1) (as added: see note 5 supra).

local education authority whose function it is: Contracting Out (Local Education Authority Functions) (England) Order 2002, SI 2002/928, art 3, Sch 1 para (pp). For the meaning of 'England' see PARA 52 note 11 ante.

10 As to the meaning of 'parent' see PARA 510 note 1 ante.

11 Education Act 1996 s 509A(4) (as added: see note 5 supra).

12 'Regulations' means regulations made by the Secretary of State: ibid s 579(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. As to the making of regulations generally under the Education Act 1996 see PARA 40 note 5 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law, no regulations had been made under s 509A (as added).

13 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations: ibid s 579(1). See note 12 supra.

537 Travel arrangements for children receiving nursery education otherwise than at school

(7) WELFARE OF PUPILS

(i) Clothing and Financial Support for Participation in Education at School

538. Provision of clothing.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may provide clothing<sup>2</sup> for any pupil<sup>3</sup> who is a boarder<sup>4</sup> at an educational institution maintained by the authority<sup>5</sup>, any pupil at a nursery school<sup>6</sup> maintained by the authority<sup>7</sup>, and any pupil in a nursery class at a school maintained by the authority<sup>8</sup>. It may also provide clothing for any pupil for whom it is providing board and lodging elsewhere than at an educational institution maintained by it<sup>9</sup>, and for whom special educational provision<sup>10</sup> is made in pursuance of arrangements made by it<sup>11</sup>. In addition, where it appears to a local education authority that a pupil at a school maintained by it, or at a special school<sup>12</sup> whether maintained by it or not, is unable by reason of the inadequacy or unsuitability of his clothing to take full advantage of the education provided at the school<sup>13</sup>, the authority may provide him with such clothing as in its opinion is necessary for the purpose of ensuring that he is sufficiently and suitably clad while he remains a pupil at the school<sup>14</sup>.

A local education authority may provide:

- 1024 (1) for pupils at a school maintained by it, or at an institution maintained by it which provides further education<sup>15</sup> or higher education<sup>16</sup>, or both<sup>17</sup>;
- 1025 (2) for persons who have not attained the age of 19 and who are receiving education at an institution within the further education sector<sup>18</sup>; and
- 1026 (3) for persons who make use of facilities for physical training made available<sup>19</sup> for them by the authority<sup>20</sup>, such articles of clothing as the authority may determine suitable for the physical training provided at that school or institution or under those facilities<sup>21</sup>.

A local education authority may with the consent of the proprietor<sup>22</sup> of a school not maintained by the authority, other than a special school<sup>23</sup>, and on such financial and other terms, if any, as may be determined by agreement between the authority and the proprietor<sup>24</sup>, make arrangements, in the case of any pupil at the school who is unable by reason of the inadequacy or unsuitability of his clothing to take full advantage of the education provided at the school, for securing for the pupil the provision of such clothing as is necessary for the purpose of ensuring that he is sufficiently and suitably clad while he remains a pupil at the school<sup>25</sup>. Any such arrangements must be such as to secure, so far as is practicable, that the expense incurred by the authority in connection with the provision of any article under the arrangements does not exceed that which would have been incurred by it in the provision of that article if the pupil had been a pupil at a school maintained by it<sup>26</sup>.

Provision of clothing<sup>27</sup> may be made in such a way as to confer either a right of property in the clothing or a right of user only (at the option of the providing authority), except in any circumstances for which the adoption of one or other of those ways of making provision is prescribed<sup>28</sup>. Where a local education authority has so provided a person with clothing, then, in such circumstances as may be prescribed:

- 1027 (a) the authority must require his parent<sup>29</sup> to pay to it in respect of its provision such sum, if any, as in its opinion he is able to pay without financial hardship, not exceeding the cost to the authority of its provision<sup>30</sup>;
- 1028 (b) the authority may require his parent to pay to it in respect of its provision such sum as is mentioned in head (a) above or any lesser sum<sup>31</sup>; or
- 1029 (c) his parent is not to be required to pay any sum in respect of its provision<sup>32</sup>.

Any sum which a parent is duly required to pay by virtue of head (a) or head (b) above may be recovered summarily as a civil debt<sup>33</sup>.

541. Transfer or delegation of functions in respect of education or training allowances.

If the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> so determines, any function exercisable by him in relation to allowances paid in respect of education or training<sup>2</sup> is exercisable instead, to such extent as is specified in his determination, by the Learning and Skills Council for England<sup>3</sup> or a local education authority<sup>4</sup>. If the National Assembly for Wales<sup>5</sup> so determines, any function exercisable by the Assembly<sup>6</sup> is exercisable instead, to such extent as is specified in the Assembly's determination, by the National Council for Education and Training for Wales<sup>7</sup>, or a local education authority<sup>8</sup>. A body by whom any function is for the time being exercisable by virtue of the above provisions<sup>9</sup> must comply with any directions given by the Secretary of State, or (as the case may be) the Assembly, as to the exercise of that function<sup>10</sup>. The Secretary of State or the Assembly may make arrangements for any person or body specified in the arrangements to exercise on his or its behalf, to such extent as is so specified, any function exercisable by him or the Assembly in relation to allowances paid in respect of education or training<sup>11</sup>, including any such function in relation to appeals<sup>12</sup>.

The Secretary of State or the Assembly may pay to any body or person by whom any function of his, or as the case may be of the Assembly, is exercisable<sup>16</sup>: (a) such amounts as the Secretary of State or the Assembly considers appropriate for the purpose of meeting expenditure incurred or to be incurred by that body or person in paying allowances in respect of education or training<sup>17</sup>, or by way of administrative expenses<sup>18</sup>, in, or in connection with, the exercise of that function<sup>19</sup>; (b) in a case where the function is exercisable on the Secretary of State's or the Assembly's behalf, to such extent as is specified<sup>20</sup>, such remuneration as he or it may determine<sup>21</sup>. Any payment under head (a) above may be made subject to such terms and conditions as the Secretary of State or the Assembly may determine<sup>22</sup>. Any such conditions may in particular require the provision of returns or other information before any such payment is made<sup>23</sup> and relate to the use of the amount paid or require the repayment in specified circumstances of all or part of the amount paid<sup>24</sup>. The Secretary of State or the Assembly may pay to any person or body appointed by him or it<sup>25</sup> such remuneration or administrative expenses (or both) as he or it may determine<sup>26</sup>.

541 Transfer or delegation of functions in respect of education or training allowances

TEXT AND NOTE 7--Reference to National Council for Education and Training for Wales omitted: 2002 Act s 183(2) (amended by SI 2005/3238).

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(7) WELFARE OF PUPILS/(ii) School Meals/542. Provision of meals etc at schools maintained by local education authorities.

(ii) School Meals

542. Provision of meals etc at schools maintained by local education authorities.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may provide registered pupils<sup>2</sup> at any school<sup>3</sup> maintained by it<sup>4</sup>, and other persons who receive education at such a school<sup>5</sup>, with milk, meals and other refreshments<sup>6</sup>, either on the school premises<sup>7</sup> or at any place other than the school premises where education is being provided<sup>8</sup>. A local education authority must exercise this power<sup>9</sup> in order to provide school lunches<sup>10</sup> for registered pupils at any school maintained by the authority<sup>11</sup> if: (1) any prescribed<sup>12</sup> requirements are met<sup>13</sup>; (2) a request for the provision of school lunches has been made by or on behalf of that person to the authority<sup>14</sup>; and (3) either that person is eligible<sup>15</sup> for free lunches<sup>16</sup> or it would not be unreasonable for the authority to provide the lunches<sup>17</sup>. Subject to the duty that lunches provided by a local education authority must meet nutritional standards<sup>18</sup>, any school lunches so provided by an authority<sup>19</sup> may take such form as the authority thinks fit<sup>20</sup>.

1043 (a) whose parent<sup>25</sup> is in receipt of income support<sup>26</sup>, an income-based jobseeker's allowance (payable under the Jobseekers Act 1995)<sup>27</sup>, or support provided under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999<sup>28</sup>, or any other benefit or allowance, or is entitled to any tax credit under the Tax Credits Act 2002<sup>29</sup> or element of such a tax credit, prescribed<sup>30</sup> for the purpose, in such circumstances as may be so prescribed<sup>31</sup>; or

and where a request that the school lunches<sup>35</sup> or the milk (as the case may be) be provided free of charge has been made by him or on his behalf to the authority<sup>36</sup>, the authority must provide the lunch<sup>37</sup> or the milk<sup>38</sup> (as the case may be) for the person, and provide it free of charge<sup>39</sup>.

A local education authority must provide at any school maintained by it such facilities as it considers appropriate for the consumption of any meals or other refreshment brought to the school by registered pupils<sup>40</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'registered pupil' see PARA 512 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante.

4 Education Act 1996 s 512(1)(a) (s 512 substituted by the Education Act 2002 s 201(1)). References, in relation to a local education authority, to a school maintained by the authority are references to a community, foundation or voluntary school, a community or foundation special school, a maintained nursery school or a pupil referral unit maintained by the authority: Education Act 1996 s 512(6) (as so substituted). As to community, foundation or voluntary schools and community or foundation special schools see PARA 102 et seq ante. For the meaning of 'maintained nursery school' under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 see PARA 94 note 4 ante; and for the meaning of 'school maintained by a local education authority' in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 see PARA 94 ante. 6 Ibid s 512(1) (as substituted: see note 4 supra). As from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4), a local education authority may also provide milk, meals and other refreshments to children who receive relevant funded nursery education: see the Education Act 1996 s 512(1)(c) (as so substituted). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed. 'Relevant funded nursery education', in relation to a local education authority, means education provided by a person other than the governing body of a maintained school (within the meaning of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 20(7): see PARA 94 ante) or a maintained nursery school: (1) under arrangements made with that person by the authority in pursuance of the duty imposed on the authority by s 118 (duty of local education authority to secure sufficient nursery education: see PARA 86 ante); and (2) in consideration of financial assistance provided by the authority under those arrangements: see the Education Act 1996 s 512(6) (as substituted: see note 4 supra). This definition came into force, in relation to Wales, on 31 March 2003 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2002, SI 2002/3185, art 5, Schedule Pt II) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no day had been appointed for its commencement in relation to England. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante.

In relation to Wales, the appointed day is 31 March 2003 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2002, SI 2002/3185, art 5, Schedule Pt II) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to England.

9 Ie its power under the Education Act 1996 s 512(1) (as substituted): see the text and notes 1-6 supra.

10 For these purposes, 'school lunch' means:

- 33 (1) in relation to a pupil, food made available for consumption by the pupil as his midday meal on a school day; and
- 34 (2) in relation to a child receiving relevant funded nursery education (see note 6 supra) at an establishment other than a school, means food made available for consumption by the child as his midday meal on a day on which he receives that education, whether involving a set meal or the selection of items by him or otherwise: ibid s 512(6) (as substituted: see note 4 supra).

544. Provision of meals etc at schools not maintained by local education authorities.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> may, with the consent of the proprietor<sup>2</sup> of a school<sup>3</sup> in its area which is not maintained by it<sup>4</sup>, make arrangements for securing the provision of milk, meals and other refreshment for pupils<sup>5</sup> in attendance at the school<sup>6</sup>. Any such arrangements must be on such financial and other terms, if any, as may be determined by agreement between the authority and the proprietor of the school<sup>7</sup>, and must be such as to secure, so far as is practicable, that the expense incurred by the authority in connection with the provision of any service or item under the arrangements does not exceed the expense which would have been incurred by it in providing the service or item if the pupil had been a pupil at a school maintained by it<sup>8</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>9</sup> may by order<sup>10</sup> provide that the power of the local education authority described above is not to apply to local education authorities generally or to any specified local education authority, either in relation to all pupils for whom provision is so made by the authority<sup>11</sup> or in relation to all such pupils who are of such ages as may be specified<sup>12</sup>.

545. Duties of governing bodies of maintained schools with respect to provision of school meals.

The governing body<sup>1</sup> of any school<sup>2</sup> maintained by a local education authority<sup>3</sup> must afford the authority such facilities as it requires to enable it to perform its functions<sup>4</sup> as to the provision of milk, meals and refreshments<sup>5</sup>, and allow the authority to make such use of the premises<sup>6</sup> and equipment of the school, and such alterations to the school buildings<sup>7</sup>, as the authority considers necessary for that purpose<sup>8</sup>. This does not require the governing body of any such school to incur any expenditure<sup>9</sup>.

Where the governing body of a school which has a delegated budget<sup>10</sup> provides pupils or other persons who receive education at the school with milk, meals or other refreshment, it must charge for everything so provided<sup>11</sup>, and charge every person the same price for the same quantity of the same item<sup>12</sup>.

547. Nutritional standards for school lunches.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may prescribe<sup>2</sup> nutritional standards, or other nutritional requirements, which<sup>3</sup> are to be complied with in connection with the provision of school lunches<sup>4</sup> for registered pupils<sup>5</sup> at schools maintained by local education authorities<sup>6</sup> or other persons who are provided<sup>7</sup> with school lunches free of charge<sup>8</sup>. Such regulations may make different provision for pupils of different ages<sup>9</sup>, and authorise the Secretary of State to determine the time as from which any provisions of the regulations are to apply to a particular local education authority or school<sup>10</sup>. Where a local education authority or the governing body<sup>11</sup> provides school lunches for registered pupils at such a school or for such other persons who are provided with school lunches free of charge, it must secure that any applicable provisions of such regulations are complied with<sup>12</sup>. This applies whether the lunches are provided on school premises<sup>13</sup> or at any other place where education is being provided<sup>14</sup> and, in the case of lunches provided to registered pupils at schools maintained by local education authorities, whether they are being provided in pursuance of any statutory requirement or otherwise<sup>15</sup>.

If, on an examination of pupils<sup>1</sup> for cleanliness<sup>2</sup>, the person or clothing<sup>3</sup> of a pupil is found to be infested with vermin or in a foul condition, any officer of the local education authority<sup>4</sup> may serve a notice on the pupil's parent<sup>5</sup> requiring him to cause the pupil's person and clothing to be cleansed<sup>6</sup>. The notice must inform the parent that, unless within the period specified in the notice the pupil's person and clothing are cleansed to the satisfaction of such person as is specified in the notice, the cleansing will be carried out under arrangements made by the authority<sup>7</sup>. The period so specified must not be less than 24 hours from the service of the notice<sup>8</sup>. If, on a report being made to him by the specified person at the end of the specified period, a medical officer<sup>9</sup> of the authority is not satisfied that the pupil's person and clothing have been properly cleansed, he may by order direct that they must be cleansed under arrangements made by the authority<sup>10</sup> for cleansing pupils<sup>11</sup>. Such an order is sufficient to authorise any officer of the authority to cause the pupil's person and clothing to be cleansed in accordance with arrangements made by the authority<sup>12</sup> for cleansing pupils<sup>13</sup>, and for that purpose to convey the pupil to, and detain him at, any premises<sup>14</sup> provided in accordance with such arrangements<sup>15</sup>.

Where the council of a district in the area of the authority is entitled to the use of any premises or appliances for cleansing the person or clothing of persons infested with vermin, the authority may require the council to permit the authority to use those premises or appliances for such purposes upon such terms as may be determined by agreement between the authority and the council<sup>9</sup>, or in default of such agreement, by the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup>.

A girl may be cleansed under such arrangements only by a registered medical practitioner or by a woman authorised for the purpose by the authority<sup>11</sup>.

- 1053 (1) towards the expenses of a local voluntary organisation<sup>4</sup> in providing, whether as a part of wider activities or not, or in aiding the provision of, facilities for physical training and recreation, including the provision and equipment of gymnasiums, playing fields, swimming baths, bathing places, holiday camps and camping sites, and other buildings and premises for physical training and recreation<sup>5</sup>;

- 1055 (3) to the funds of any national voluntary organisation having such objects as are mentioned above, either in aid of its work as a whole, or in aid of any specified branch of its work<sup>7</sup>.

When making a grant, the Secretary of State may attach such conditions to it, including, in the case of a grant to a voluntary association, conditions for securing the continuity of the undertaking assisted, as the Secretary of State may think proper<sup>8</sup>.

The Secretary of State may, with the approval of the Treasury, take steps for disseminating knowledge with respect to the value of physical training and recreation<sup>9</sup>.

1 The Physical Training and Recreation Act 1937 refers to the Board of Education having the power to make grants, but the functions of the Board under the Physical Training and Recreation Act 1937 have been transferred to the Secretary of State: see PARA 52 ante. 556. Functions of local education authorities in respect of facilities for recreation and social and physical training.

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> must secure that the facilities for primary<sup>2</sup> and secondary<sup>3</sup> education provided for its area include adequate facilities for recreation and social and physical training<sup>4</sup>. It may also provide facilities for recreation and social and physical training as part of the facilities for further education<sup>5</sup> provided, whether or not by it, for its area<sup>6</sup>.

For either purpose<sup>7</sup>, a local education authority<sup>8</sup>:

- 1056 (1) may establish, maintain and manage, or assist the establishment, maintenance and management of, camps, holiday classes, playing fields, play centres, and other places, including playgrounds, gymnasiums and swimming baths not appropriated to any school<sup>9</sup> or other educational institution, at which facilities for recreation and social and physical training are available for persons receiving primary, secondary or further education<sup>10</sup>;
- 1057 (2) may organise games, expeditions and other activities for such persons<sup>11</sup>; and
- 1058 (3) may defray, or contribute towards, the expenses of such games, expeditions and other activities<sup>12</sup>.

When making arrangements for the provision of facilities or the organisation of activities in the exercise of such powers, a local education authority must, in particular, have regard to the expediency of co-operating with any voluntary societies or bodies whose objects include the provision of facilities or the organisation of activities of a similar character<sup>13</sup>.

556 Functions of local education authorities in respect of facilities for recreation and social and physical training

TEXT AND NOTES--The 1996 Act s 508 only applies to local education authorities in Wales: s 508(1), (1A) (amended by the Education and Inspections Act 2006 Sch 1 para 4). However, in relation to children under 13, local education authorities in England have the same functions in respect of facilities for recreational and social and physical training for primary and secondary education as authorities in Wales: see the 1996 Act s 507A (ss 507A, 507B added by the 2006 Act s 6(1)). Further, local education authorities in England must, so far as reasonably practicable, secure for persons aged from 13 to 19 (and persons aged from 20 to 24 who have a learning difficulty) access to (1) sufficient educational leisure-time activities which are for the improvement of their well-being, and sufficient facilities for such activities; and (2) sufficient recreational leisure-time activities which are for the improvement of their well-being, and sufficient facilities for such activities: see 1996 Act s 507B.

557. Provision of board and lodging otherwise than at school.

Where a local education authority<sup>1</sup> is satisfied with respect to any pupil<sup>2</sup> that:

1059 (1) primary<sup>3</sup> or secondary education<sup>4</sup> suitable to his age, ability and aptitude and to any special educational needs<sup>5</sup> he may have can best be provided for him at a particular community, foundation or voluntary or community or foundation special school<sup>6</sup>; but it may provide such board and lodging for him under such arrangements as it thinks fit<sup>8</sup>. Where a local education authority is satisfied with respect to a pupil with special educational needs that provision of board and lodging for him is necessary for enabling him to receive the required special educational provision<sup>9</sup>, it may provide such board and lodging for him under such arrangements as it thinks fit<sup>10</sup>. In making any such arrangements, a local education authority must, so far as practicable, give effect to the wishes of the pupil's parent<sup>11</sup> as to the religion or religious denomination of the person with whom the pupil will reside<sup>12</sup>.

Where a local education authority has provided a pupil with board and lodging under such arrangements, it must require the pupil's parent to pay it such sums, if any, in respect of the board and lodging as in its opinion he is able to pay without financial hardship<sup>13</sup>. However, no sum is so recoverable if the arrangements were made by the authority on the ground that in its opinion education suitable to the pupil's age, ability and aptitude or special educational needs could not otherwise be provided for him<sup>14</sup>.

If it appears to a local education authority<sup>1</sup> that a child<sup>2</sup> who is a registered pupil<sup>3</sup> at a community, foundation, voluntary or special school<sup>4</sup> is being employed in such a manner as to be prejudicial to his health, or otherwise to render him unfit to obtain the full benefit of the education provided for him, the authority may serve a notice in writing on the employer<sup>5</sup> prohibiting him from employing the child<sup>6</sup>, or imposing such restrictions upon his employment of the child as appears to it to be expedient in the interests of the child<sup>7</sup>. A local education authority may serve a notice in writing on the parent<sup>8</sup> or employer of a child who is a registered pupil at a community, foundation, voluntary or special school requiring the parent or employer to provide the authority, within such period as may be specified in the notice, with such information as appears to the authority to be necessary for the purpose of enabling it to ascertain whether the child is being employed in such a manner as to render him unfit to obtain the full benefit of the education provided for him<sup>9</sup>.

A person who employs a child in contravention of any prohibition or restriction so imposed<sup>10</sup>, or fails to comply with the requirements of a notice so served<sup>11</sup>, is guilty of an offence<sup>12</sup> and is liable on summary conviction to a penalty<sup>13</sup>.

(i) Promotion of Good Behaviour and Prevention of Breakdown of Discipline

559. Responsibility of governing body and head teacher for discipline.

The governing body<sup>1</sup> of a maintained school<sup>2</sup> must ensure that policies designed to promote good behaviour and discipline on the part of its pupils<sup>3</sup> are pursued at the school<sup>4</sup>. In particular, the governing body:

- 1061 (1) must make, and from time to time review, a written statement of general principles to which the head teacher<sup>5</sup> must have regard in determining any measures set out in heads (a) to (d) below<sup>6</sup>; and
- 1062 (2) where it considers it desirable that any particular measures should be so determined by the head teacher or that he should have regard to any particular matters, must notify him of those measures or matters, and may give him such guidance as it considers appropriate<sup>7</sup>.

In exercising its functions<sup>8</sup> under head (1) and head (2) above, the governing body must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>9</sup>.

The head teacher must determine measures, which may include the making of rules and provision for enforcing them, to be taken with a view to:

- 1063 (a) promoting, among pupils, self-discipline and proper regard for authority<sup>10</sup>;
- 1064 (b) encouraging good behaviour and respect for others on the part of pupils and, in particular, preventing all forms of bullying among pupils<sup>11</sup>;
- 1065 (c) securing that the standard of behaviour of pupils is acceptable<sup>12</sup>; and
- 1066 (d) otherwise regulating the conduct of pupils<sup>13</sup>.

The head teacher must in determining such measures act in accordance with the current statement made by the governing body under head (1) above<sup>14</sup>, and have regard to any notification or guidance given to him under head (2) above<sup>15</sup>. The measures so determined by the head teacher must be publicised by him in the form of a written document as follows:

- 1067 (i) he must make the measures generally known within the school and to parents of registered pupils at the school<sup>16</sup>; and
- 1068 (ii) he must in particular, at least once in every school year<sup>17</sup>, take steps to bring them to the attention of all such pupils and parents and all persons employed<sup>18</sup>, or otherwise engaged to provide their services, at the school<sup>19</sup>.

The disciplinary authority of the head teacher may extend to acts that take place outside school<sup>20</sup>, and there may be circumstances in which a failure to exercise those powers would be a breach of the school's duty of care to another pupil<sup>21</sup>.

(ii) Exclusion of Pupils

A. POWER TO EXCLUDE PUPILS

562. Power of head teacher to exclude pupils.

3 In the Education Act 2002 s 52, 'exclude', in relation to the exclusion of a child from a school or pupil referral unit, means exclude on disciplinary grounds; and 'exclusion' must be construed accordingly: s 52(10). For the meaning of 'pupil referral unit' see PARA 457 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 212(2), (3).

When investigating and interviewing a pupil, the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 and its codes (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 856 et seq) may serve as a touchstone of fair procedure outside the criminal justice process: R v Head Teacher and Independent Appeal Committee of Dunraven School, ex p B [2000] ELR 156, sub nom R v Governors of Dunraven School, ex p B [2000] LGR 494, CA (decided under previous legislation). However, it is important to stress that such matters are not to be conducted as if they are some kind of formal criminal proceeding: R (on the application of J) v Birmingham City Council Exclusion Appeals Committee [2003] EWHC 1747 (Admin) at [13], [2003] ELR 743 at [13] per Davis J. See also R (on the application of C) v Sefton Metropolitan Borough Council Independent Appeals Panel and the Governors of Hillside High School [2001] ELR 393 (decided under previous legislation). Adequate investigation is important (R v Camden London Borough Council and the Governors of Hampstead School, ex p H [1996] ELR 360, sub nom R v Camden London Borough Council, ex p H (A Minor) (1996) Times, 15 August, CA; R v Roman Catholic Schools, ex p S [1998] ELR 304; R v Board of Governors and Appeal Committee of Bryn Elan High School, ex p Whippe [1999] ELR 380 (all cases decided under previous legislation)) and head teachers should keep notes of interviews conducted with pupils (R v Head Teacher and Independent Appeal Committee of Dunraven School, ex p B supra). The punishment imposed must be proportionate (see R v Governors of Bacon's City Technology College, ex p W [1998] ELR 488; R (on the application of C) v Sefton Metropolitan Borough Council Independent Appeals Panel and the Governors of Hillside High School supra (both cases decided under previous legislation)), and the rationality of the decision to exclude may be considered (see R v Solihull Borough Council, ex p W [1997] ELR 489 (decided under previous legislation)). In general, though, the courts will be reluctant to question the reasonableness of the punishment in any particular case: R v Newham London Borough Council, ex p X [1995] ELR 303, (1994) Times, 15 November (decided under previous legislation).

It used to be considered that an unjustifiable exclusion was probably not an actionable tort (see Hunt v Damon (1930) 46 TLR 579) but it now seems that the unlawful exclusion of a pupil from school may give rise to a claim for damages for denial of his right to education under the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Rome, 4 November 1950; TS 71 (1953); Cmd 8969), First Protocol (Paris, 20 March 1952; TS 46 (1954); Cmd 9221) art 2: see A v Head Teacher and Governors of Lord Grey School [2004] EWCA Civ 382, [2004] QB 1231, [2004] 4 All ER 628 (child's indefinite exclusion from school without due regard to the statutory safeguards and without provision of some adequate or appropriate substitute education); and PARA 3 ante.

- 1080 (1) of the period of the exclusion (or, if the pupil is being permanently excluded, that he is being so excluded)<sup>5</sup>;
- 1081 (2) of the reasons for the exclusion<sup>6</sup>;
- 1082 (3) that the relevant person may make representations about the exclusion to the governing body<sup>7</sup>; and

UPDATE

562-575 Exclusion of Pupils

Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Pupil Referral Units) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3179, replaced by Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Pupil Referral Units) (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/532.

562-566 Power to Exclude Pupils

The head teacher may request that a parent of a temporarily excluded pupil attend a reintegration interview: see Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 102; and PARA 566B. In England, the governing body must make arrangements for the provision of suitable full-time education for pupil excluded for a fixed period, and where a notice has been given to a parent of an excluded pupil that parent has a duty, in certain circumstances, to ensure that the pupil is not in a public place during school hours: see ss 100, 103-106; and PARAS 566A, 566C, 566D.

565. Functions of governing body in relation to excluded pupils.

Where the governing body<sup>1</sup> of a maintained school<sup>2</sup> is informed<sup>3</sup> of: (1) the permanent exclusion<sup>4</sup> of a pupil<sup>5</sup>; (2) a decision that any exclusion of a pupil should be made permanent<sup>6</sup>; (3) the exclusion of any pupil, and the circumstances are that the pupil would, as a result of the exclusion, be excluded from the school for a total of more than 15 school days<sup>7</sup> in any one term<sup>8</sup> or lose an opportunity to take a public examination<sup>9</sup>; or (4) the exclusion of any pupil where the pupil would as a result of the exclusion be excluded from the school for a total of more than five school days in any one term and the relevant person<sup>10</sup> expresses a wish<sup>11</sup> to make representations<sup>12</sup>, the governing body must:

- 1093 (a) consider the circumstances in which the pupil was excluded<sup>13</sup>;
- 1094 (b) consider any representations about the exclusion made to the governing body by the relevant person<sup>14</sup>, or by the local education authority<sup>15</sup>;
- 1095 (c) allow the relevant person, and an officer of the local education authority nominated by the authority, to attend a meeting of the governing body and to make oral representations about the exclusion<sup>16</sup>; and
- 1096 (d) consider any oral representations so made<sup>17</sup>.

The governing body must consider whether or not the pupil should be reinstated and, where it considers that the pupil should be reinstated, it must in addition consider whether he should be reinstated immediately or reinstated by a particular date<sup>18</sup>. If the governing body decides that the pupil should be reinstated, it must<sup>19</sup> forthwith give the appropriate direction to the head teacher<sup>20</sup>, and inform the relevant person and the local education authority of its decision<sup>21</sup>. The head teacher must comply with any direction of the governing body for the reinstatement of a pupil who has been excluded from the school<sup>22</sup>. If the governing body decides that the pupil should not be reinstated<sup>23</sup>, it must forthwith<sup>24</sup>:

- 1097 (i) inform the relevant person, the head teacher and the local education authority of its decision<sup>25</sup>; and
- 1098 (ii) in addition, in the case of a pupil who is permanently excluded, give the relevant person notice in writing<sup>26</sup> referring to that decision and stating<sup>27</sup> the reasons for the decision<sup>28</sup>, his right to appeal against the decision<sup>29</sup>, the person to whom he should give any notice of appeal<sup>30</sup>, that any notice of appeal must contain the grounds of appeal<sup>31</sup>, and the last date on which an appeal may be made<sup>32</sup>.

Where the head teacher of a maintained school excludes a pupil in a case where the above provisions<sup>33</sup> do not apply, and the governing body receives any representations made<sup>34</sup> by the relevant person about the exclusion, it must consider those representations<sup>35</sup>.

The governing body must take each of the steps referred to in heads (a) to (d) above:

- 1099 (A) not earlier than six school days<sup>36</sup>; and
- 1100 (B) not later than 15 school days, in the case of a permanent exclusion or an exclusion for a fixed period of more than 15 school days<sup>37</sup>; or after the date on which it was informed<sup>39</sup> of the period of the exclusion, whether any exclusion should be made permanent, and the reasons<sup>40</sup>. Where a pupil has been excluded in circumstances in which he would, as a result of the exclusion, lose an opportunity to take a public examination, the governing body must (so far as it is practical for it to do so) take each of the steps referred to in heads (a) to (d) above before the date on which the pupil is due to take the examination and in any event no later than is required by heads (A) to (C) above<sup>41</sup>.

562-566 Power to Exclude Pupils

The head teacher may request that a parent of a temporarily excluded pupil attend a reintegration interview: see Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 102; and PARA 566B. In England, the governing body must make arrangements for the provision of suitable full-time education for pupil excluded for a fixed period, and where a notice has been given to a parent of an excluded pupil that parent has a duty, in certain circumstances, to ensure that the pupil is not in a public place during school hours: see ss 100, 103-106; and PARAS 566A, 566C, 566D.

Functions of local education authority in relation to pupils excluded from a pupil referral unit for a fixed period.

Where the local education authority<sup>1</sup> is informed<sup>2</sup> of the exclusion<sup>3</sup> of any pupil<sup>4</sup> for a fixed period and the circumstances are that the pupil would, as a result of the exclusion, be excluded from the pupil referral unit<sup>5</sup> for a total of more than 15 school days<sup>6</sup> in any one term<sup>7</sup> or lose an opportunity to take a public examination<sup>8</sup>, the local education authority must:

- 1102 (1) consider the circumstances in which the pupil was excluded<sup>9</sup>;
- 1103 (2) consider any representations about the exclusion made to the local education authority by the relevant person<sup>10</sup>;
- 1104 (3) allow the relevant person and the teacher in charge of the pupil referral unit to attend a meeting of the local education authority and to make oral representations about the exclusion<sup>11</sup>; and
- 1105 (4) consider any oral representations so made<sup>12</sup>.

The local education authority must consider whether or not the pupil should be reinstated and where it considers that the pupil should be reinstated, it must in addition consider whether he should be reinstated immediately, or reinstated by a particular date<sup>13</sup>. If the local education authority decides that the pupil should be reinstated, it must forthwith<sup>14</sup> give the appropriate direction to the teacher in charge<sup>15</sup>, and inform the relevant person of its decision<sup>16</sup>. The teacher in charge must comply with any direction of the local education authority for the reinstatement of a pupil who has been excluded from the pupil referral unit<sup>17</sup>. If the local education authority decides that the pupil should not be reinstated<sup>18</sup>, it must forthwith inform the relevant person and the teacher in charge of its decision and the reasons for it<sup>19</sup>. Where the teacher in charge of a pupil referral unit excludes a pupil for a fixed period in a case where the above provisions<sup>20</sup> do not apply, and the local education authority receives any representations made<sup>21</sup> by the relevant person about the exclusion, it must consider those representations<sup>22</sup>.

The local education authority must take each of the steps referred to in heads (1) to (4) above:

- 1106 (a) not earlier than six school days<sup>23</sup>; and
- 1107 (b) not later than 15 school days, in the case of an exclusion for a fixed period of more than 15 school days<sup>24</sup>; or
- 1108 (c) not later than 50 school days, in the case of an exclusion for a fixed period of 15 school days or fewer<sup>25</sup>,

after the date on which it was informed<sup>26</sup> of the period of the exclusion, whether any exclusion should be made permanent, and the reasons<sup>27</sup>. Where a pupil has been excluded for a fixed period in circumstances in which he would, as a result of the exclusion, lose an opportunity to take a public examination, the local education authority must (so far as it is practical for it to do so) take each of the steps referred to in heads (1) to (4) above before the date on which the pupil is due to take the examination and in any event no later than is required by heads (a) to (c) above<sup>28</sup>.

The head teacher may request that a parent of a temporarily excluded pupil attend a reintegration interview: see Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 102; and PARA 566B. In England, the governing body must make arrangements for the provision of suitable full-time education for pupil excluded for a fixed period, and where a notice has been given to a parent of an excluded pupil that parent has a duty, in certain circumstances, to ensure that the pupil is not in a public place during school hours: see ss 100, 103-106; and PARAS 566A, 566C, 566D.

566B. Reintegration interviews.

The following provisions are not yet in force in relation to Wales.

Regulations<sup>1</sup> may require the head teacher<sup>2</sup> of a relevant school<sup>3</sup> in prescribed cases to request any parent<sup>4</sup> of a temporarily excluded pupil<sup>5</sup> to attend an interview ('a reintegration interview') at the school with the head teacher of the school or any other person authorised by the head teacher<sup>6</sup>. The purpose of a reintegration interview is to assist the reintegration of the pupil after the period of exclusion and to promote the improvement of his behaviour<sup>7</sup>.

In relation to relevant schools in England, the head teacher must request an interview with a parent of a temporarily excluded pupil, being an individual who resides with the pupil, who has been excluded on disciplinary grounds from a primary school for any fixed period, or from a secondary school for a fixed period of six or more school days<sup>8</sup>.

8 Education (Reintegration Interview) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/1868, regs 1(2), 3(1), (2). However, the head teacher need not make such a request if the exclusion starts within ten days of the end of the summer term or the pupil is expected to leave the school for a reason unconnected with his behaviour: reg 3(3). As to the form of and notice of the request and timing of the interview, and the combination of notices, see regs 4, 5.

The head teacher<sup>1</sup> of a relevant school<sup>2</sup> in England, on excluding from the school a pupil<sup>3</sup> of compulsory school age<sup>4</sup>, must give the parent<sup>5</sup> by the prescribed time<sup>6</sup> a notice in writing<sup>7</sup>. ## B. APPEALS AGAINST EXCLUSION

A local education authority<sup>1</sup> must make arrangements for enabling the relevant person<sup>2</sup> to appeal against any decision of the governing body<sup>3</sup> not to reinstate a pupil<sup>4</sup> who has been permanently excluded<sup>5</sup> from a school maintained by the authority<sup>6</sup>. The decision of an appeal panel<sup>7</sup> on an appeal pursuant to such arrangements is binding on the relevant person, the governing body, the head teacher<sup>8</sup> and the local education authority<sup>9</sup>. On such an appeal, the appeal panel may uphold the exclusion<sup>10</sup>, direct that the pupil is to be reinstated (either immediately or by a date specified in the direction)<sup>11</sup>, or decide that, because of exceptional circumstances or for other reasons it is not practical to give a direction requiring his reinstatement, but that it would otherwise have been appropriate to give such a direction<sup>12</sup>. An appeal panel is not to determine that a pupil is to be reinstated merely because of a failure to comply with any procedural requirement imposed by or under the statutory provisions governing the exclusion of pupils<sup>13</sup> in relation to the decision<sup>14</sup> against which the appeal is brought, or the exclusion or decision by the head teacher to which that decision related<sup>15</sup>.

There appear to be difficulties in holding that the right to a fair trial, as guaranteed by the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (1950)<sup>16</sup>, applies to an exclusion appeal panel as a body which determines a pupil's civil rights, whether to education or to reputation<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to the local education authority's duty to have reference to any ministerial guidance see PARA 575 post.

2 For the meaning of 'the relevant person' see PARA 563 note 4 ante.

The Welsh regulations refer to reg 5, but it is submitted that the reference should be a reference to reg 6. As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante.

4 For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'exclude' see PARA 562 note 3 ante.

6 Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178, reg 6(1); Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3227, reg 7(1). As to the arrangements so made see PARA 569 et seq post.

7 For these purposes, 'appeal panel' means an appeal panel constituted in accordance with the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178, reg 6(2), Schedule para 2 (as amended) or the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3227, reg 7(2), Schedule para 2 (see PARA 570 post): Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178, reg 6(2); Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3227, reg 7(2).

In relation to England, an appeal panel, in making any decision on an appeal pursuant to arrangements made under the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178, reg 6(1), must have regard both to the interests of the excluded pupil and to the interests of other pupils and persons working at the school (including persons working at the school voluntarily): reg 6(3).

8 As to the meaning of 'head teacher' see PARA 93 note 13 ante.

9 Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178, reg 6(5); Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3227, reg 7(4).

An application for judicial review of the decision of a governing body to exclude a pupil is not disallowed by the existence of the right of appeal: R (on the application of A) v Governing Body of K School [2002] EWHC 395 (Admin), [2002] ELR 631 (judicial review may be justified in cases involving permanent exclusion or exclusion resulting in a pupil being unable to sit public examinations). However, see also R (on the application of DR) v Head Teacher of St George's Catholic School, R (on the application of AM) v Governing Body of Kingsmead School [2002] EWCA Civ 1822, [2003] LGR 371, [2003] ELR 104, where Simon Brown LJ said (obiter) at [45] that, except in very rare cases where a governing body is plausibly said to have acted quite improperly, or where the court's guidance on some real point of principle is required, the court's proper response to an application for judicial review of a governing body's decision is almost always to leave the pupil to his statutory remedy.

See R (on the application of MB) v Independent Appeal Panel for SMBC [2002] ELR 676 (pupil excluded for violence allowed to sit examinations as a visitor but not under reinstatement).

'Reinstatement' is not defined. Under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 67 (repealed), 'reinstatement' was held to mean that the termination of the school-pupil relationship is reversed and the responsibilities and obligations of the school towards the pupil resumed: R (on the application of L) v Governors of J School [2003] UKHL 9, [2003] 2 AC 633, [2003] 1 All ER 1012, [2003] ELR 309. The jurisdiction of the independent appeal panel is restricted to the question of whether a permanently-excluded pupil should be reinstated and does not extend to the separate question of how reinstatement following a successful appeal is performed, this being a matter, once the direction to reinstate has been complied with satisfactorily, in which the head teacher and governors have considerable discretion, taking into account their general obligations and responsibilities to all pupils and staff in the organisation, control and management of a maintained school: R (on the application of L) v Governors of J School supra ('reinstatement' in a school can accommodate the almost complete segregation of the pupil from the rest of the school community).

There is no principle of law which governs the stage at which the independent appeal panel should elicit evidence regarding the practicality of reinstatement: R (on the application of Q) v Wolverhampton City School Admission Appeals Panel [2005] EWHC 277 (Admin) at [25]-[26], [2005] ELR 501 at [25]-[26] per Newman J.

Where, at any time after an appeal panel consisting of five members has begun to consider an appeal, any of the members dies, or becomes unable through illness to continue as a member, the panel may continue with its consideration and determination of the appeal so long as the number of the remaining members is not less than three and the requirements of head (a) above are satisfied<sup>35</sup>.

562-575 Exclusion of Pupils

Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Pupil Referral Units) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3179, replaced by Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Pupil Referral Units) (England) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/532.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(8) DISCIPLINE/(ii) Exclusion of Pupils/B. APPEALS AGAINST EXCLUSION/574. Procedure on an appeal.

574. Procedure on an appeal.

An appeal<sup>1</sup> must be made by notice in writing setting out the grounds on which it is made<sup>2</sup>. The appeal panel must meet to consider an appeal on such date as the local education authority<sup>3</sup> may determine<sup>4</sup>. The date so determined must not be later than the closing date for appeals<sup>5</sup>, namely the fifteenth school day<sup>6</sup> after the day on which the appeal is lodged<sup>7</sup>. For the purpose of fixing the time<sup>8</sup> at which the hearing of an appeal is to take place, the local education authority must take reasonable steps to ascertain any times falling on or before the closing date for appeals when the relevant person<sup>9</sup>, or any other person who wishes, and would be entitled, to appear and make oral representations<sup>10</sup>, would be unable to attend<sup>11</sup>. Where, accordingly, the authority has ascertained any such times in the case of any such person, it must, when fixing the time at which the hearing is to take place, take those times into account with a view to ensuring, so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, that that person is able to appear and make such representations at the hearing<sup>12</sup>. The appeal panel must allow the relevant person<sup>13</sup> to appear and make oral representations<sup>14</sup>, and must allow him to be represented at the hearing or to be accompanied by a friend<sup>15</sup>. In relation to pupils excluded from a maintained school<sup>16</sup>, the panel must also allow: (1) the head teacher<sup>17</sup>; (2) the local education authority<sup>18</sup>; and (3) the governing body<sup>19</sup>, to make written representations, to be represented<sup>20</sup> and to appear<sup>21</sup> and make oral representations<sup>22</sup>. In relation to pupils excluded from a pupil referral unit in England<sup>23</sup>, the panel must also allow: (a) the teacher in charge to make written representations and to appear and make oral representations<sup>24</sup>; (b) the local education authority to make written representations<sup>25</sup>; and (c) an officer of the authority nominated by the authority to appear and make oral representations<sup>26</sup>. In relation to pupils excluded from a pupil referral unit in Wales, the panel must also allow: (i) the teacher in charge to make written representations, to be represented, and to appear and make oral representations<sup>27</sup>; and (ii) the local education authority to make written representations in addition to the statement the authority is required to submit to the panel<sup>28</sup>, to be represented, and to appear and make oral representations<sup>29</sup>.

The appeal panel may from time to time adjourn the hearing<sup>30</sup>.

Appeals must be heard in private<sup>31</sup>. However, if the panel so directs, one member of the local education authority may attend, as an observer, any hearing of an appeal by an appeal panel<sup>32</sup>, and one member of the Council on Tribunals<sup>33</sup> may attend, as an observer, any meeting of an appeal panel at which an appeal is considered<sup>34</sup>.

Two or more appeals may be combined and dealt with in the same proceedings if the appeal panel considers that it is expedient to do so because the issues raised by the appeals are the same or connected<sup>35</sup>.

In the event of a disagreement between the members of an appeal panel, the appeal under consideration must be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast and, in the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the panel has a second or casting vote<sup>36</sup>. The decision of an appeal panel and the grounds on which it is made must be communicated by the panel in writing to the relevant person, the local education authority, the governing body<sup>37</sup> and the head teacher<sup>38</sup>, and be so communicated by the end of the second working day<sup>39</sup> after the conclusion of the hearing of the appeal<sup>40</sup>.

Subject to the provisions described above<sup>41</sup>, all matters relating to the procedure on appeals must be determined by the local education authority<sup>42</sup>. The local education authority must, in setting any time limits in connection with appeals, have regard to the desirability of securing that appeals are disposed of without delay<sup>43</sup>.

Where it falls to an appeal panel<sup>44</sup> to establish any fact, any question as to whether that fact is established is to be decided on a balance of probabilities<sup>45</sup>. In reaching its decision the appeal panel must apply basic standards of fairness<sup>46</sup>.

37 In relation to pupils excluded from a pupil referral unit, the governing body is omitted from this list: Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178, Schedule para 14(a) (amended by SI 2002/3179); Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3227, Schedule para 14(a) (amended by SI 2003/3246).

The committee must explain, however briefly, why the child has been excluded from the school: R v Northamptonshire County Council, ex p W [1998] ELR 291 at 295 per Laws J (decided under previous legislation); R v Staffordshire County Council Education Appeal Committee, ex p Ashworth (1997) 9 Admin LR 373, [1997] COD 132 (decided under previous legislation; omission of the word 'serious' in the decision letter did not vitiate the decision); R (on the application of A (A Minor)) v Independent Appeal Panel for G College [2005] EWHC 558 (Admin), [2005] ELR 490 (losing parties not required to undertake microscopic analysis of the reasons to determine why they lost). Contrast the practice in employment appeals tribunals which are allowed lawfully to request further written reasons where the employment tribunal has already provided written reasons: see EMPLOYMENT vol 41 (2009) PARA 1494.

39 For this purpose, 'working day' means a day other than a Saturday, a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or a day which is a bank holiday within the meaning of the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 (see TIME vol 97 (2010) PARA 321); Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178, Schedule para 16; Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3227, Schedule para 16.

This principle is consistent with the line of authority which established that the standard of proof as regards the culpability of the excluded pupil for the act or acts in question is the balance of probabilities, although for grounds of exclusion to be established on the balance of probabilities, it must be distinctly more probable that the child did the act than that he did not: see R (on the application of K) v Governors of the W School [2001] ELR 311; R v Head Teacher and Independent Appeal Committee of Dunraven School, ex p B [2000] ELR 156, sub nom R v Governors of Dunraven School, ex p B [2000] LGR 494, CA (applying the test laid down by Lord Nicholls of Birkenhead in Re H (Minors) (Sexual Abuse: Standard of Proof) [1996] AC 563 at 566-567, [1996] 1 All ER 1 at 16-18, HL). In proceedings before an independent appeals panel, a school is not required to prove that a pupil's confession was made voluntarily, notwithstanding the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 s 76 (as amended) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(3) (2006 Reissue) PARA 1540 et seq): R (on the application of M) v Independent Appeal Panel, Governing Body and Head Teacher of CH School [2004] EWHC 1831 (Admin) at [12], [2005] ELR 38 at [12] per Newman J (distinguishing R v Headteacher and Independent Approval Committee of Dunraven School, ex p B supra).

46 Appeal panels and governing bodies should be prepared to disregard anonymised statements of evidence if their use could lead to injustice: R v Governors of Bacon's City Technology College, ex p W [1998] ELR 488 (parents not given copies of witness statements relied upon by the school); R (on the application of S) v Brent London Borough Council, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of P) v Oxfordshire County Council Exclusion Appeals Panel [2002] EWCA Civ 693 at [29], [2002] ELR 556 at [29]; R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Elliott School [2002] EWCA Civ 1349, [2002] All ER (D) 537 (Jul). However, there is no general rule that there must be full disclosure of all statements made by a witness whose evidence is being considered by a panel: R (on the application of M) v Independent Appeal Panel, Governing Body and Head Teacher of CH School [2004] EWHC 1831 (Admin), [2005] ELR 38 (distinguishing R v Head Teacher and Independent Appeal Committee of Dunraven School, ex p B [2000] ELR 156, sub nom R v Governors of Dunraven School, ex p B [2000] LGR 494, CA). Those carrying out the investigation should, having decided on the factual issues that need resolving and the inquiries that could reasonably resolve them, conduct a reasonably thorough investigation: R v Camden London Borough Council and the Governors of the Hampstead School, ex p H [1996] ELR 360, sub nom R v Camden London Borough Council, ex p H (A Minor) (1996) Times, 15 August, CA; R v Roman Catholic Schools, ex p S [1998] ELR 304. It must take account of all relevant evidence: R v Board of Governors and Appeal Committee of Bryn Elan High School, ex p Whippe [1999] ELR 380. See also R (on the application of S) v Oxfordshire School Exclusion Appeals Panel [2005] EWHC 53 (Admin), [2005] ELR 533 (when deciding whether the appeal panel had reached a decision that was unlawful, irrational or perverse or contrary to the rules of natural justice the court had to look at the whole of the proceedings before the appeal panel).

C. GUIDANCE

In discharging any functions under the provisions relating to the exclusion of pupils<sup>1</sup>, the head teacher<sup>2</sup> or the governing body<sup>3</sup> of a maintained school<sup>4</sup>, the teacher in charge of a pupil referral unit<sup>5</sup>, a local education authority<sup>6</sup>, or an appeal panel<sup>7</sup>, must have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup> or by the National Assembly for Wales<sup>9</sup>.

1     le under the Education Act 2002 s 52(1), (2) (see PARA 562 ante), the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178 (as amended); the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3227 (as amended); the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Pupil Referral Units) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3179 (as amended); or the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Pupil Referral Units) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3246 (as amended).

2     As to the meaning of 'head teacher' see PARA 93 note 13 ante.

3     As to the governing bodies of maintained schools see PARA 203 et seq ante.

4     For the meaning of 'maintained school' see PARA 94 ante.

5     As to the teacher in charge of a pupil referral unit see PARA 458 ante. For the meaning of 'pupil referral unit' see PARA 457 ante.

6     As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

7     le constituted in accordance with the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178, reg 6(2), Schedule para 2 (as amended) or the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3227, reg 7(2), Schedule para 2: see PARA 570 ante.

8     As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante.

9     Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3178, reg 7; Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3227, reg 8; Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Pupil Referral Units) (England) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/3179, reg 8; Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Pupil Referral Units) (Wales) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3246, reg 9. As to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

As to the guidance given see eg Social Inclusion: Pupil Support (July 1999) (Ref: DfEE 10/99); Social Inclusion: The LEA role in Pupil Support (1999) (Ref: DfEE 11/99); and Improving Behaviour and Attendance: Guidance on Exclusion from Schools and Pupil Referral Units (October 2004) (Ref: DfES 0354/2004).

Any guidance given neither fetters an appeal panel's discretion nor detracts from its independence as it is not directory; there is nothing in the statutory scheme which blocks the application of the longstanding default principle that the common law will supplement procedures to the extent necessary to ensure that they operate fairly: R (on the application of S) v Brent London Borough Council, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of P) v Oxfordshire County Council Exclusion Appeals Panel [2002] EWCA Civ 693 at [14]-[15], [2002] ELR 556 at [14]-[15]. One consequence is that the content of the guidance has not only to stay within and promote the statutory purposes but, at least since 2 October 2000, has also to be compliant with the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Rome, 4 November 1950; TS 71 (1953); Cmd 8969): R (on the application of S) v Brent London Borough Council, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of P) v Oxfordshire County Council Exclusion Appeals Panel supra. Guidance which collapses the constitutional distinction between the adjudicative and the administrative (ie policy-making) functions of the state has been said (obiter) to be highly objectionable: R (on the application of S) v Brent London Borough Council, R (on the application of T) v Head Teacher of Wembley High School, R (on the application of P) v Oxfordshire County Council Exclusion Appeals Panel supra.

(iii) Restraint and Punishment of Pupils

576. Power of members of staff to restrain pupils.

A member of the staff<sup>1</sup> of a school may use, in relation to any pupil at the school, such force as is reasonable in the circumstances<sup>2</sup> for the purpose of preventing the pupil from doing, or continuing to do, any of the following, namely:

- 1120 (1) committing any offence<sup>3</sup>;
- 1121 (2) causing personal injury to, or damage to the property of, any person, including the pupil himself<sup>4</sup>; or
- 1122 (3) engaging in any behaviour prejudicial to the maintenance of good order and discipline at the school or among any of its pupils, whether that behaviour occurs during a teaching session or otherwise<sup>5</sup>.

This applies where a member of the staff of a school is on the premises<sup>6</sup> of the school<sup>7</sup>, or elsewhere at a time when, as a member of its staff, he has lawful control or charge of the pupil concerned<sup>8</sup>, but does not authorise anything to be done in relation to a pupil which constitutes the giving of corporal punishment<sup>9</sup>, and must not be taken to prevent any person from relying on any defence otherwise<sup>10</sup> available to him<sup>11</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'member of the staff', in relation to a school, means any teacher who works at the school and any other person who, with the authority of the head teacher, has lawful control or charge of pupils at the school: Education Act 1996 s 550A(4) (s 550A added by the Education Act 1997 s 4). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante. As to the meaning of 'head teacher' see PARA 93 note 13 ante. For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante.

2 For a case where a teacher was found to have behaved unreasonably while trying to restrain a pupil, albeit in the context of a claim for compensation by the teacher for injuries sustained, see R (Criminal Injuries Compensation Appeals Panel) v Shields [2001] ELR 164 (claim for compensation refused on grounds that teacher lacked training in restraint methods, had failed to call for help, and had a natural advantage over the child).

3 Education Act 1996 s 550A(1)(a) (as added: see note 1 supra). For these purposes, 'offence' includes anything that would be an offence but for the operation of any presumption that a person under a particular age is incapable of committing an offence: s 550A(4) (as so added). As to incapacity to commit offences see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(4) (2008 Reissue) PARA 1232 et seq; CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 37.

576A. Power of members of staff to search pupils for weapons.

The following provisions are in force in relation to England: SI 2007/858.

A member of the staff<sup>1</sup> of a school who has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a pupil at the school may have with him or in his possessions<sup>2</sup> (1) an article to which the Criminal Justice Act 1988<sup>3</sup> applies (knives and blades etc), or (2) an offensive weapon<sup>4</sup>, may search that pupil or his possessions for such articles and weapons<sup>5</sup>. A search under these provisions may be carried out only where (a) the member of the staff and the pupil are on the premises of the school; or (b) they are elsewhere and the member of the staff has lawful control or charge of the pupil<sup>6</sup>. A person may carry out a search under these provisions only if (i) he is the head teacher of the school; or (ii) he has been authorised by the head teacher to carry out the search<sup>7</sup>. Nothing in any enactment, instrument or agreement will be construed as authorising a head teacher of a school to require a person other than a member of the security staff<sup>8</sup> of the school to carry out a search under these provisions<sup>9</sup>. A person who carries out a search of a pupil under these provisions (A) may not require the pupil to remove any clothing other than outer clothing<sup>10</sup>; (B) must be of the same sex as the pupil; and (C) may carry out the search only in the presence of another member of the staff who is also of the same sex as the pupil<sup>11</sup>. A pupil's possessions may not be searched under these provisions except in his presence and in the presence of another member of the staff<sup>12</sup>. If, in the course of a search, the person carrying out the search finds anything which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting falls within head (1) or (2) above, or any other thing which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting is evidence in relation to an offence, he may seize and retain it<sup>13</sup>. A person who exercises a power under these provisions may use such force as is reasonable in the circumstances for exercising that power<sup>14</sup>. The Police (Property) Act 1897 (disposal of property in the possession of the police) applies to property which has come into the possession of a police constable under these provisions as it applies to property which has come into the possession of the police in the circumstances mentioned in the Police (Property) Act 1897<sup>15</sup>.

The powers conferred by the above provisions are in addition to any powers exercisable by the member of the staff in question apart from the above provisions and are not to be construed as restricting such powers<sup>16</sup>.

1 In the Education Act 1996 s 550AA 'member of the staff', in relation to a school, means (1) any teacher who works at the school; and (2) any other person who, with the authority of the head teacher, has lawful control or charge of pupils for whom education is being provided at the school: s 550AA(12) (added by Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006 s 45).

2 'Possessions', in relation to a pupil of a school, includes any goods over which he has or appears to have control: Education Act 1996 s 550AA(12) (as added: see NOTE 1).

3 Ie the Criminal Justice Act 1988 s 139.

4 Within the meaning of the Prevention of Crime Act 1953.

5 Education Act 1996 s 550AA(1) (as added: see NOTE 1).

6 Ibid s 550AA(2) (as added: see NOTE 1).

7 Ibid s 550AA(3) (as added: see NOTE 1). An authorisation for the purposes of head (ii) in the text may be given either in relation to a particular search or generally in relation to searches under these provisions or to a particular description of such searches: s 550AA(11) (as so added).

8 'Member of the security staff' means a member of the staff whose work at the school consists wholly or mainly of security-related activities: ibid s 550AA(12) (as added: see NOTE 1).

9 Ibid s 550AA(4) (as added: see NOTE 1).

10 'Outer clothing' means (1) any item of clothing that is being worn otherwise than wholly next to the skin or immediately over a garment being worn as underwear; or (2) a hat, shoes, boots, gloves or a scarf: ibid s 550AA(12) (as added: see NOTE 1).

11 Ibid s 550AA(5) (as added: see NOTE 1).

12 Ibid s 550AA(6) (as added: see NOTE 1).

13 Ibid s 550AA(7) (as added: see NOTE 1). A person who seizes anything under s 550AA(7) must deliver it to a police constable as soon as reasonably practicable: s 550AA(9) (as so added).

14 Ibid s 550AA(8) (as added: see NOTE 1).

15 Ibid s 550AA(10) (as added: see NOTE 1).

16 Ibid s 550AA(13) (as added: see NOTE 1).

577. No right to give corporal punishment.

Within limits, corporal punishment is neither contrary to the prohibition on torture, inhuman and degrading treatment or punishment contained in the European Convention for the Protection of Fundamental Rights and Freedoms (1950)<sup>1</sup>, nor unlawful as a battery at common law<sup>2</sup>. However, corporal punishment<sup>3</sup> given by, or on the authority of, a member of staff<sup>4</sup> to a child for whom:

- 1123 (1) education is provided at any school<sup>5</sup>; or
- 1124 (2) education is provided, otherwise than at school, under any arrangements made by a local education authority<sup>6</sup>; or
- 1125 (3) specified nursery education<sup>7</sup> is provided otherwise than at school<sup>8</sup>, cannot be justified in any proceedings on the ground that it was given in pursuance of a right exercisable by the member of staff by virtue of his position as such<sup>9</sup>. This applies to corporal punishment so given to a child at any time, whether at the school or other place at which education is provided for the child, or elsewhere<sup>10</sup>.

Corporal punishment may, however, be in conflict with a parent's philosophical convictions for the purposes of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, First Protocol (Paris, 20 March 1952; TS 46 (1954); Cmd 9221) art 2: Campbell and Cosans v United Kingdom (1982) 4 EHRR 293, ECtHR. 3 For these purposes, any reference to giving corporal punishment to a child is a reference to doing anything for the purpose of punishing that child, whether or not there are other reasons for doing it, which, apart from any justification, would constitute battery: Education Act 1996 s 548(3), (4) (s 548 substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 131(1)). 'Child' (except in the Education Act 1996 s 548(8) (as substituted) (see note 7 infra)) means a person under the age of 18: s 548(3), (7) (as so substituted). However, corporal punishment must not be taken to be given to a child by virtue of anything done for reasons that include averting an immediate danger of personal injury to, or an immediate danger to the property of any person, including the child himself: s 548(3), (5) (as so substituted).

4 For these purposes, 'member of staff', in relation to the child concerned, means: (1) any person who works as a teacher at the school or other place at which education is provided for the child; or (2) any other person who, whether in connection with the provision of education for the child or otherwise, works at that school or place, or otherwise provides his services there (whether or not for payment), and has lawful control or charge of the child: ibid s 548(3), (6) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81 ante.

5 Ibid s 548(1)(a) (as substituted: see note 3 supra).

6 Ibid s 548(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

7 For these purposes, 'specified nursery education' means full-time or part-time education suitable for children who have not attained compulsory school age which is provided:

37 (1) by a local education authority (ibid s 548(3), (8)(a) (as substituted: see note 3 supra)); or

38 (2) by any other person: (a) who is, or is to be, in receipt of financial assistance given by such an authority and whose provision of nursery education is taken into account by the authority in formulating proposals for the purposes of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 120(2)(a) (as amended; repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARA 88 ante); or (b) who is, or is to be, in receipt of grants under the Nursery Education and Grant-Maintained Schools Act 1996 s 1 (as amended; repealed in relation to England; prospectively repealed in relation to Wales) (see PARA 91 ante) (Education Act 1996 s 548(3), (8)(b) (as so substituted)).

As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante. As to nursery education see PARA 85 et seq ante. Head (2)(b) supra is repealed by the Education Act 2002 s 215(2), Sch 22 Pt 3 as from a day to be appointed under s 216(4). In relation to England, the appointed day is 1 April 2003 (see the Education Act 2002 (Commencement No 4 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) Order 2003, SI 2003/124, art 4) but, at the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

9 Ibid s 548(1) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). The phrase 'by virtue of his position as such' limits the application of s 548(1) (as substituted) to corporal punishment given by a teacher while discharging his functions as a teacher and it cannot be used to draw a distinction in cases where a parent expressly delegates to the teacher the common law right to administer physical punishment: R (on the application of Williamson) v Secretary of State for Education and Employment [2005] UKHL 15, [2005] 2 AC 246, [2005] 2 All ER 1 (prohibition of corporal punishment in independent religious schools). The Education Act 1996 s 548 (as substituted) is a justified infringement on: (1) a parent's (or a teacher's) right to manifest a belief under the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Rome, 4 November 1950; TS 71 (1953); Cmd 8969) art 9 (see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 156-157), in the form that the duty of education in the Christian context allows teachers to stand in loco parentis and administer corporal punishment as a means of discipline; and (2) the rights of a parent under the First Protocol (Paris, 20 March 1952; TS 46 (1954); Cmd 9221) art 2 (see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 166) to ensure that a child's education should conform with their religious and philosophical convictions, in that the term 'education' is wide enough to include the manner in which discipline is administered in a school: R (on the application of Williamson) v Secretary of State for Education and Employment supra.

NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(8) DISCIPLINE/(iii) Restraint and Punishment of Pupils/578. Detention outside school hours lawful despite absence of parental consent.

578. Detention outside school hours lawful despite absence of parental consent.

The detention of a child for disciplinary purposes is sanctioned at common law provided its use is not for improper purpose or unreasonable<sup>1</sup>. The traditional basis of the teacher's authority to detain pupils is the in loco parentis principle, whereby the parent, when he places his child in school, delegates to the head teacher all his own authority, so far as it is necessary for the welfare of the child, including disciplinary authority<sup>2</sup>. Detention of a child by his parent is unlawful if it is for such a period or in such circumstances as to take it out of the realm of reasonable parental discipline<sup>3</sup>. At common law, if a detention is imposed without the parent's consent it is possible that the parent may succeed in a claim for false imprisonment<sup>4</sup>.

However, statute now provides that where a pupil<sup>5</sup> who has not attained the age of 18 and is attending a school<sup>6</sup> maintained by a local education authority<sup>7</sup>, a city technology college<sup>8</sup>, a city college for the technology of the arts<sup>9</sup>, or an academy<sup>10</sup> is required on disciplinary grounds to spend a period of time in detention at his school after the end of any school session, his detention is not rendered unlawful by virtue of the absence of his parent's<sup>11</sup> consent to it if the conditions set out below are satisfied<sup>12</sup>. The conditions, all of which must be satisfied, are that:

- 1126 (1) the head teacher<sup>13</sup> of the school must have previously determined, and have made generally known within the school and taken steps to bring it to the attention of the parent of every person who is for the time being a registered pupil<sup>14</sup> there, that the detention of pupils after the end of a school session is one of the measures that may be taken with a view to regulating the conduct of pupils<sup>15</sup>;
- 1127 (2) the detention must be imposed by the head teacher or by another teacher at the school specifically or generally authorised by him for the purpose<sup>16</sup>;
- 1128 (3) the detention must be reasonable in all the circumstances<sup>17</sup>; and
- 1129 (4) the pupil's parent must have been given at least 24 hours' notice in writing that the detention was due to take place<sup>18</sup>.

See also Terrington v Lancashire County Council (28 August 1986, unreported) (conflict between parent and teacher had to be balanced with the need to administer punishment; blanket detention of the entire class for ten minutes at the end of school was a reasonable punishment). In the latter case, the judge added (obiter) that if there had been evidence showing that the father had withdrawn his parental authority for his son to be detained for minor indiscipline then the claim for false imprisonment would have succeeded: Terrington v Lancashire County Council supra. It is submitted that the local education authority might, in such a case, be able to establish that the school's disciplinary arrangements include detention after school; that those arrangements were made known to all parents before their children were admitted to the school; and that it is not open to a parent unilaterally to change those arrangements. The Elementary Education Acts 1870 and 1876 (both repealed) did not authorise the setting of lessons to be prepared at home by children attending a board school. The detention at school after hours of a child for not doing home lessons was therefore unlawful, and rendered the master who detained the child liable to be convicted for an assault: Hunter v Johnson (1884) 13 QBD 225.

40 (2) any special circumstances relevant to its imposition on the pupil which are known to the person imposing it, or of which he ought reasonably to be aware, including in particular: (a) the pupil's age; (b) any special educational needs he may have; (c) any religious requirements affecting him; and (d) where arrangements have to be made for him to travel from the school to his home, whether suitable alternative arrangements can reasonably be made by his parent (s 550B(4)(b) (as so added)).

578 Detention outside school hours lawful despite absence of parental consent

TEXT AND NOTES 5-18--1996 Act s 550B repealed: Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 96(a), Sch 18 Pt 6 (in force in relation to England: SI 2007/935). Provision as to disciplinary penalties is now made by the 2006 Act ss 90-92, 94, 95 (in force in relation to England: SI 2007/935); see PARA 578A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/2. NURSERY, PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION/(8) DISCIPLINE/(iii) Restraint and Punishment of Pupils/578A. Disciplinary penalties.

578A. Disciplinary penalties.

The following provisions are not yet in force in relation to Wales.

In relation to a disciplinary penalty<sup>1</sup> imposed on a pupil by any school at which education is provided for him, other than a penalty which consists of exclusion<sup>2</sup>, the imposition of the disciplinary penalty is lawful if three conditions are satisfied<sup>3</sup>, but does not authorise anything to be done in relation to a pupil which constitutes the giving of corporal punishment<sup>4</sup>. Those conditions are: (1) that the imposition of the penalty on the pupil is not in breach of any statutory requirement or prohibition<sup>5</sup>, and is reasonable in all the circumstances<sup>6</sup>; (2) that the decision to impose the penalty on the pupil was made by any paid member of the staff<sup>7</sup> of the school, except in circumstances where the head teacher has determined that the member of staff is not permitted to impose the penalty on the pupil<sup>8</sup>, or by any other member of the staff of the school, in circumstances where the head teacher has authorised the member of the staff to impose the penalty on the pupil and it was reasonable for the head teacher to do so<sup>9</sup>; and (3) that the decision to impose the penalty was made, and any action taken on behalf of the school to implement the decision was taken on the premises of the school<sup>10</sup>, or elsewhere at a time when the pupil was under the lawful control or charge of a member of staff of the school<sup>11</sup>.

In relation to a disciplinary penalty which consists of the detention of a pupil outside school sessions<sup>12</sup>, the imposition of the disciplinary penalty is lawful if, in addition to the conditions set out in heads (1)-(3) above, four further conditions are satisfied<sup>13</sup>. Those further conditions are: (a) that the pupil has not attained the age of 18<sup>14</sup>; (b) that the head teacher of the school has previously determined, and has made generally known within the school and to parents of registered pupils at the school, that the detention of pupils outside school sessions is one of the measures that may be taken with a view to regulating the conduct of pupils<sup>15</sup>; (c) that the detention is on a permitted day of detention<sup>16</sup>; and (d) that the pupil's parent has been given at least 24 hours' notice in writing that the detention is due to take place<sup>17</sup>. In relation to detention outside school sessions, in assessing whether the imposition of the detention is reasonable, if arrangements have to be made for the pupil to travel to school for the purposes of the detention or to travel home after the detention, then account must be taken of whether the pupil's parent can reasonably make suitable travelling arrangements<sup>18</sup>.

Where, as a disciplinary penalty, an item which a pupil has with him or in his possessions<sup>19</sup> is seized and the item is retained for any period or is disposed of<sup>20</sup>, a person who seizes, retains or disposes of the item is not liable in any proceedings in respect of the seizure, retention or disposal, or any damage or loss which arises in consequence of it, if he proves that the seizure, retention or disposal was lawful<sup>21</sup>.

1 'Disciplinary penalty' means a penalty imposed on a pupil, by any school at which education is provided for him, where his conduct falls below the standard which could reasonably be expected of him, whether because he fails to follow a rule in force at any such school or an instruction given to him by a member of its staff or for any other reason: Education and Inspections Act 2006 s 90(1). The reference to conduct, in relation to a pupil, includes (1) conduct which occurs at a time when the pupil is not on the premises of a school and is not under the lawful control or charge of a member of the staff of a school, but only to the extent that it is reasonable for the school imposing the penalty to regulate the pupil's conduct at such a time; and (2) conduct which consists of a failure by the pupil to comply with a penalty previously imposed on him: s 90(2). For the meaning of 'school' see PARA 81; definition applied by virtue of s 187(2), (3).

3 Ibid s 91(2).

4 Ibid s 91(10). As to the meaning of 'corporal punishment' see PARA 577; definition applied by virtue of s 187(2), (3)(e). Section 91 must not be construed as restricting what may lawfully be done apart from s 91: s 91(11).

5 Ibid s 91(3)(a).

6 Ibid s 91(3)(b). In determining whether the imposition of the penalty is so reasonable, the following matters must be taken into account: (1) whether the imposition of the penalty constitutes a proportionate punishment in the circumstances of the case; and (2) any special circumstances relevant to its imposition on the pupil which are known to the person imposing it, or of which he ought reasonably to be aware, including in particular the pupil's age, any special educational needs he may have, any disability he may have, and any religious requirements affecting him: s 91(6). A pupil has a disability if he has a disability for the purposes of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995: 2006 Act s 91(7).

7 'Paid member of the staff', in relation to a school, means any member of the staff who works at the school for payment, whether under a contract of employment or a contract for services; and, for this purpose, it is immaterial whether the contract of employment or contract for services is made with the governing body or proprietor of the school or with any other person: ibid s 91(12). 'Member of the staff', in relation to a school, means any teacher who works at the school and any other person who, with the authority of the head teacher, has lawful control or charge of pupils for whom education is being provided at the school: s 95.

8 Ibid s 91(4)(a).

9 Ibid s 91(4)(b). Such a determination or authorisation may be made (1) in relation to a particular member of staff or members of staff of a particular description; (2) in relation to a particular disciplinary penalty or disciplinary penalties of a particular description; (3) in relation to a particular pupil or pupils of a particular description or generally in relation to pupils: s 91(8).

10 Ibid s 91(5)(a).

12 Ibid s 92(1).

13 Ibid s 92(2). Section 92 must not be construed as restricting what may lawfully be done apart from s 92: s 92(7).

15 Ibid s 92(3)(b).

16 Ibid s 92(3)(c). 'Permitted day of detention', in relation to a pupil, means any of the following days: (1) a school day, other than a day on which the pupil has leave to be absent, and for this purpose 'leave' means leave granted by a person authorised to do so by the governing body or proprietor of the school; (2) a Saturday or Sunday during a school term, other than a Saturday or Sunday which falls during, or at a weekend immediately preceding or immediately following, a half-term break; (3) a day, whether or not during a school term, which is set aside wholly or mainly for the performance of duties by members of the staff of the school other than teaching, other than such a day which is excluded by regulations made by the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales: s 92(8). See the Education (Excluded Days of Detention) (England) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/1304.

17 2006 Act s 92(3)(d). The Education Act 1996 s 572 (see PARA 463), which provides for the methods by which notices may be served under the 1996 Act, does not preclude a notice from being given to a pupil's parent under the 2006 Act s 92(3)(d) by any other effective method: s 92(6).

20 Ibid s 94(1).

21 Ibid s 94(2). Nothing in s 94 applies where an item is seized under the Education Act 1996 s 550AA (see PARA 576A) (2006 Act s 94(3)), and s 94 is not to be construed as preventing any person relying on any defence on which he is otherwise entitled to rely (s 94(4)).

579A. Sixth form college sector: England.

The Secretary of State may designate a body corporate which is (1) a further education corporation established in respect of an institution in England; or (2) a body corporate established by an order under the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 143(4) (see PARA 604) in respect of an institution in England, as a sixth form college corporation for the purpose of conducting an educational institution specified in the order: see Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33A (ss 33A-33N added by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 Sch 8 para 3). The Secretary of State may also designate such a body corporate as a sixth form college corporation once the power above is no longer exercisable (Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33B), and make provision for the establishment of a body corporate as a sixth form college corporation (Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33C). The Secretary of State may convert a sixth form college corporation into a further education corporation: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33D.

A sixth form college corporation has specified principal and supplementary powers (Further and Higher Education Act 1992 ss 33E-33G) and, in exercising its functions, must have regard to the objective of promoting the economic and social well-being of the local area (Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33H). Every sixth form college corporation must have an instrument and articles of government (Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33I) and, for certain institutions specified by the Secretary of State, the instrument of government must provide for the governing body to include members appointed to preserve the established character of the college (Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33J). The first instrument and articles of government are to be made by the Young People's Learning Agency for England ('YPLA') (see PARA 27A): Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33K. The YPLA may modify instruments and articles in consultation with sixth form college corporations: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33L. A sixth form college corporation is a charity within the meaning of the Charities Act 1993: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33M. The Secretary of State may dissolve a sixth form college corporation and transfer its property, rights, liabilities and staff: see Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 33N. Stamp duty is not chargeable in respect of any transfer effected under or by virtue of s 33N: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88(1) (amended by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 Sch 8 para 9). A land transaction effected under or by virtue of s 33N is also exempt from charge for the purposes of stamp duty land tax: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88A(1) (s 88A added by SI 2003/2867 and amended by Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 Sch 8 para 10).

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by order provide for the transfer of a higher education corporation<sup>2</sup> to the further education sector<sup>3</sup>. On such date as may be specified in the order the corporation ceases to be a higher education corporation and becomes a further education corporation<sup>4</sup>.

581. Transfer of further education corporations to higher education sector.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by order<sup>2</sup> provide for the transfer of a further education corporation<sup>3</sup> to the higher education sector if it appears to him that the full-time equivalent enrolment number<sup>4</sup> of the institution conducted by the corporation for courses of higher education<sup>5</sup> exceeds 55 per cent of its total full-time equivalent enrolment number<sup>6</sup>. On such date as may be specified in the order the corporation ceases to be a further education corporation and becomes a higher education corporation<sup>7</sup> and any member of the further education corporation who is not re-appointed by the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup> ceases to hold office<sup>9</sup>.

In determining in pursuance of s 122A(2)(b) (as added) the number of members to appoint within each variable category of members, the Secretary of State must secure that at least half of all the members of the higher education corporation as first constituted are independent members: s 122A(3) (as so added). ## 582. Unauthorised use of 'university' in title of institution.

An institution within the further education sector<sup>1</sup> in England<sup>2</sup> or Wales<sup>3</sup> must not, when making available (or offering to make available)<sup>4</sup> educational services, do so under a name which includes the word 'university' unless the inclusion of that word in that name is authorised by or by virtue of any Act or Royal Charter<sup>5</sup>, or is approved by the Privy Council<sup>6</sup>. A person carrying on such an institution must not, when making available (or offering to make available) educational services through the institution, use with reference either to himself or the institution a name which includes the word 'university', unless the inclusion of that word in that name is so authorised or approved<sup>7</sup>.

In approving the inclusion of the word 'university' in any name, the Privy Council must have regard to the need to avoid names which are or may be confusing<sup>8</sup>.

For the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 63 note 3 ante.

5 Ibid s 39(1)(a). For the purposes of s 39(1) or (2), the inclusion of the word 'university' in any name must not be taken to be authorised by or by virtue of a Royal Charter relating to a university by reason of any provision of the Royal Charter with respect to the affiliation or association of other institutions to the university (s 39(4)(a)), or the accreditation by the university of educational services provided by other institutions (s 39(4)(b)). A body corporate had to be established on 30 September 1992<sup>1</sup> for each institution<sup>2</sup> specified by order<sup>3</sup> by the Secretary of State, for the purpose of conducting the institution as from the operative date<sup>4</sup>.

<sup>2</sup>    le an institution falling within one of the following provisions: (1) each educational institution maintained by a local education authority for which it appeared to the Secretary of State that on 1 November 1990 its enrolment number calculated in accordance with ibid Sch 3 para 1(1) was not less than 15% of its total enrolment number calculated in accordance with Sch 3 para 1(2) (see s 15(1)(a), (2)); and (2) each county school, controlled school or grant-maintained school for which it appeared to the Secretary of State that on 17 January 1991 not less than 60% of the pupils at the institution were receiving full-time education suitable to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age who have not attained the age of 19 years (see s 15(1)(b), (3)). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to county schools see PARAS 102 note 13, 105 ante; as to controlled schools see PARAS 102 note 14, 105 ante; and as to grant-maintained schools see PARAS 102 note 16, 106 et seq ante. For the meaning of 'pupil' see PARA 16 note 4 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 90(5) (amended by the Education Act 1996 s 582(1), Sch 37 Pt I para 115(1), (3); and the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 33, 46). As to the meaning of 'compulsory school age' see PARA 15 ante.

Under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 Sch 3 para 1(1), the enrolment number for any institution at any time is the aggregate of the number of full-time students enrolled at that institution at that time to follow courses of further or higher education, and the numbers arrived at by multiplying by the appropriate multiplier the number of students enrolled at the institution at the time in question to follow such courses as sandwich courses, block release courses and day release courses: see Sch 3 paras 1(1), (3), 2. Under Sch 3 para 1(2), the total enrolment number for any institution at any time is the aggregate of the number of full-time students enrolled at that institution at that time to follow courses of further or higher education, and the numbers arrived at by multiplying by the appropriate multiplier the number of students enrolled at the institution at the time in question to follow such courses as sandwich courses, block release courses, day release courses, part-time courses (other than day release but including some day-time study), evening part-time courses and open or distance learning courses: see Sch 3 paras 1(2), (3), 2.

Where an educational institution, being an institution maintained by a local education authority or a grant-maintained school, was established after 1 November 1990 or, as the case may be, 17 January 1991 by a merger of two or more institutions existing on that date, the institution had to be treated as falling within s 15(2) or, as the case may be s 15(3) if it would have done so if the merger had taken place before that date: s 15(6).

<sup>3</sup>    As to the making of orders under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 generally see PARA 585 note 6 post. Orders under s 15 are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work. The name given in the order as the name of the institution was the initial name of the body corporate: s 15(5).

This does not apply to any liability of any such authority in respect of the principal of, or interest on, any loan<sup>10</sup>, or to any excluded<sup>11</sup> property, rights or liabilities<sup>12</sup>.

On the operative date:

- 1135 (a) all land and other property which, immediately before that date, was property of the former governing body<sup>13</sup>; and
- 1136 (b) all rights and liabilities of that body subsisting immediately before that date<sup>14</sup>, must be transferred to and, by virtue of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, vest in the corporation<sup>15</sup>.

Special transfer provision is made in relation to agreements or arrangements for the supply of goods or services<sup>16</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'further education corporation' see PARA 579 note 3 ante.

2 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 23(1). As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'operative date' see PARAS 583 note 4, 584 note 10 ante.

4 As to the meaning of 'land' see PARA 1355 note 3 post.

5 'Local authority' means a county council, a county borough council, a district council, a London borough council or (in its capacity as a local authority) the Common Council of the City of London: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 90(1) (definition amended by the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 s 66(6), Sch 16 para 95). 7 'Liability' includes obligation: ibid s 90(1).

See Birmingham City Council v Birmingham College of Food and Sutton Coldfield College, Cheshire County Council v Halton College [1996] ELR 1 (treatment of European Social Fund grants). For general and supplementary provisions relating to transfers see the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 36 (as amended), s 87, Sch 5, Sch 7 (Schs 5, 7 as amended); and PARAS 1397-1398 post.

References in Pt I (ss 15-61A) (as amended), except in s 26 (as amended) (see PARA 589 post), to the transfer of any person's rights or liabilities do not include rights or liabilities under a contract of employment, or liabilities of that person in respect of compensation for premature retirement of any person formerly employed by him: s 61(2). For these purposes, 'contract of employment' has the same meaning as in the Employment Rights Act 1996 (see EMPLOYMENT vol 39 (2009) PARA 2): Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 90(1) (definition amended by the Employment Rights Act 1996 s 240, Sch 1 para 52). 'Employed' means employed under a contract of employment: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 90(1).

Stamp duty is not chargeable in respect of any transfer effected under or by virtue of s 23 (as amended): s 88(1). However, no instrument (other than a statutory instrument) made or executed under or in pursuance of s 23 (as amended) is to be treated as duly stamped unless it is stamped with the duty to which it would, but for s 88 (and, if applicable, the Finance Act 1982 s 129 (as amended) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1093)), be liable or it has, in accordance with the provisions of the Stamp Act 1891 s 12 (as substituted) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1111), been stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty or that it has been duly stamped: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88(2).

11 Ie excluded under ibid s 23(4) (as amended) or s 23(5). If before the operative date the governing body of the institution and the local authority have agreed in writing to exclude any land, then the land, and any rights or liabilities relating to it, are to be excluded: s 23(4) (amended by the Education Act 2002 s 215, Sch 21 para 13, Sch 22 Pt 3). If, in default of agreement under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 23(4) (as amended), the governing body or the local authority has applied to the Secretary of State to exclude any land, and the Secretary of State has by order directed its exclusion, then the land, and any rights or liabilities relating to it, must be excluded: s 23(5). An agreement under s 23(4) (as amended) may provide for the land to be used for the purposes of the institution on such terms as may be specified in or determined in accordance with the agreement; and directions under s 23(5) may confer any rights or impose any liabilities that could have been conferred or imposed by such an agreement, and have effect as if contained in such an agreement: s 23(6). Orders under s 23(5) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work. References in s 23(4), (5) (as amended) to anything done, other than the making of an order, include anything done before 6 March 1992 (ie the date of the passing of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992): s 23(7). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

12 Ibid s 23(3)(b).

13 Ibid s 23(8)(a). For these purposes, 'former governing body', in relation to an institution, means the governing body of the institution immediately before the operative date: s 23(9).

14 Ibid s 23(8)(b).

15 Ibid s 23(8).

16 Where in exercise of its powers under the Further Education Act 1985 s 2 (as amended) (see PARA 48 ante) a local authority:

41 (1) has entered into an agreement for the supply of goods or services or both through an educational institution (Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 24(1)(a)); or

42 (2) for the purposes of any agreement for such a supply through such an institution, holds shares in any body corporate (s 24(1)(b)), and a further education corporation is established to conduct the institution, then the rights and liabilities of the authority under or by virtue of the agreement or, as the case may be, the interest of the authority in the shares is to be treated as falling within s 23(2) (see the text and notes 3-9 supra) (s 24(1)). As to when goods or services are supplied through an institution see PARA 48 note 5 ante; definition applied by s 24(2).

Where, immediately before the operative date in relation to a further education corporation, arrangements exist for the supply by a local authority of goods or services for the purposes of the institution in pursuance of a bid prepared under the Local Government Act 1988 s 7 (repealed), those arrangements are to have effect as from that date as if: (a) they were contained in an agreement made before that date between the local authority and the corporation on the terms specified in the bid; and (b) the agreement required the corporation or, as the case may be, the local authority to make payments corresponding to the provision made in the bid in pursuance of s 8(3) (repealed) for items to be credited or, as the case may be, debited to any account: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 24(3). Where such arrangements are for the supply to others as well as to the institution, those arrangements are to have effect as mentioned in s 24(3) only to the extent that they relate to the institution in question, and the rights and liabilities arising under the agreement are to be such rights and liabilities as are properly required to give effect to the arrangements so far as relating to that institution: s 24(4). Where arrangements for the supply by a local authority of goods or services for the purposes of an institution to be conducted by a further education corporation are to have effect as from the operative date in accordance with s 24(4) as if contained in an agreement made before that date between the local authority and the corporation, the provisions of Sch 5 paras 2-5 (as amended) (see PARA 1398 post) have effect as if the rights and liabilities of the corporation under the agreement were rights and liabilities of the local authority transferred to the corporation under a transfer to which s 36 (as amended) applies (see PARA 1397 post): s 36(4). As to the replacement of compulsory competitive tendering with best value requirements see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 688 et seq. As to the supply of goods and services by and to local authorities see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 495.

Where at any time land is used for the purposes of such an institution, any interest of a local authority in the land subsisting at that time must be taken for the purposes of s 23 (as amended) to be land held for the purposes of that institution (whether or not it is by virtue of that interest that the land is so used): s 24(5). As to the meaning of 'interest in land' see PARA 1355 note 3 post.

Where a further education corporation<sup>1</sup> is established to conduct an institution which, on the date the corporation is established, is a foundation or voluntary school<sup>2</sup> belonging to the group<sup>3</sup> of schools for which a foundation body<sup>4</sup> acts<sup>5</sup>, regulations<sup>6</sup> may make such provision as the Secretary of State considers necessary or expedient in connection with the transfer, in any such case, of property, rights and liabilities<sup>7</sup> from the foundation body to the further education corporation<sup>8</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'further education corporation' see PARA 579 note 3 ante.

2 As to foundation and voluntary schools see PARA 102 et seq ante.

3 For the meaning of 'group', in relation to a foundation body, see PARA 104 note 6 ante; definition applied by the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 25(4) (s 25 substituted by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 33, 36).

4 For the meaning of 'foundation body' see PARA 104 note 6 ante; definition applied by the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 25(4) (as substituted: see note 3 supra).

6 For the purposes of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 Pt I (ss 15-61A) (as amended), 'regulations' means regulations made by the Secretary of State: s 61(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante. As to the making of regulations generally under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 see PARA 585 note 6 ante. Regulations under s 25(2) (as substituted) may, in relation to any such transfer of property, rights or liabilities:

43 (1) modify any provision made by or under s 23 (as amended) (see PARA 586 ante), s 24 (see PARA 586 ante), s 36 (as amended) (see PARA 1397 post), s 38 (see PARA 645 post) and Sch 5 (as amended) (see PARA 1398 post) (s 25(3)(a) (as substituted: see note 3 supra));

44 (2) apply any such provision with or without modifications (s 25(3)(b) (as so substituted));

45 (3) make provision corresponding or similar to any such provision (s 25(3)(c) (as so substituted)).

Regulations under s 25 (as substituted) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

Stamp duty is not chargeable in respect of any transfer effected under or by virtue of s 25 (as substituted): s 88(1). However, no instrument (other than a statutory instrument) made or executed under or in pursuance of s 25 (as substituted) is to be treated as duly stamped unless it is stamped with the duty to which it would, but for s 88 (and, if applicable, the Finance Act 1982 s 129 (as amended) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1093)), be liable or it has, in accordance with the provisions of the Stamp Act 1891 s 12 (as substituted) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1111), been stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty or that it has been duly stamped: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88(2). A land transaction effected under or by virtue of s 25 (as substituted) is also exempt from charge for the purposes of stamp duty land tax: s 88A(1) (s 88A added by the Stamp Duty Land Tax (Consequential Amendment of Enactments) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2867, reg 2, Schedule Pt 1 para 18). Relief under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88A (as added) must be claimed in a land transaction return or an amendment of such a return: s 88A(2) (as so added). For these purposes, 'land transaction' has the meaning given by the Finance Act 2003 s 43(1) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX); and 'land transaction return' has the meaning given by the Finance Act 2003 s 76(1) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX): Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88A(3) (as so added).

- 1137 (1) any person who, immediately before the operative date<sup>2</sup> in relation to a further education corporation<sup>3</sup> established to conduct an institution which, on the date the corporation was established, was maintained by a local education authority<sup>4</sup>, is employed by the transferor<sup>5</sup> to work solely at the institution the corporation is established to conduct, or is employed by the transferor to work at that institution and is designated for these purposes by an order made by the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup>; and is to have effect from the operative date as if originally made between that person and the corporation<sup>8</sup>. All the transferor's rights, powers, duties and liabilities<sup>9</sup> under or in connection with such a contract are transferred<sup>10</sup> to the corporation on the operative date, and anything done before that date by or in relation to the transferor in respect of that contract or the employee is to be deemed from that date to have been done by or in relation to the corporation<sup>11</sup>.
- 1138 (2) the transferor<sup>7</sup>,

The provisions described above<sup>12</sup> are without prejudice to any right of an employee to terminate his contract of employment if a substantial change is made to his detriment in his working conditions, but no such right arises by reason only of the change in employer<sup>13</sup>.

A person employed by the transferor in connection with the provision of meals is not to be regarded for the purposes of s 26(7)(b) as employed to work solely at an institution unless the meals are provided solely for consumption by persons at the institution: s 26(8). For the meaning of 'employed' see PARA 586 note 9 ante. References in s 26 (as amended), in relation to a further education corporation, to the transferor are:

B. CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNANCE

590. Requirement for instruments of government and articles of government.

For every further education corporation<sup>1</sup> established to conduct an educational institution there must be:

- 1139 (1) an instrument providing for the constitution of the corporation (the 'instrument of government')<sup>2</sup>; and
- 1140 (2) an instrument in accordance with which the corporation, and the institution, are to be conducted (the 'articles of government')<sup>3</sup>.

Instruments of government and articles of government must comply with certain requirements<sup>4</sup>, and may make any authorised provision<sup>5</sup> and such other provision as may be necessary or desirable<sup>6</sup>. Every document purporting to be an instrument made or issued by or on behalf of a further education corporation and to be duly executed under the seal of the corporation, or to be signed or executed by a person authorised by the corporation to act in that behalf, is to be received in evidence and to be treated, without further proof, as being so made or issued unless the contrary is shown<sup>7</sup>.

An instrument of government or articles of government must provide for the number of members of the further education corporation, the eligibility of persons for membership and the appointment of members<sup>8</sup>. An instrument may provide for the nomination of any person for membership by another, including by a body nominated by the Secretary of State<sup>9</sup>. It must provide for one or more officers to be chosen from among the members<sup>10</sup>, and may provide for the corporation to establish committees and permit such committees to include persons who are not members of the corporation<sup>11</sup>. The validity of any proceedings of a further education corporation, or of any committee of the corporation, is not affected by a vacancy amongst the members or by any defect in the appointment or nomination of a member<sup>12</sup>. An instrument of government or articles of government may provide for the corporation to pay allowances to its members<sup>13</sup>.

Such an instrument must provide for the appointment of a principal of the institution and determine which functions exercisable in relation to the institution are to be exercised by the corporation, its officers or committees and which by the principal of the institution<sup>14</sup>. It may provide for the delegation of functions of the corporation to officers or committees or to the principal of the institution<sup>15</sup>.

An instrument of government or articles of government must make provision about the procedures of the corporation and of the institution<sup>16</sup>, and must provide for the authentication of the application of the seal of the corporation<sup>17</sup>. It must require the corporation to keep proper accounts and proper records in relation to the accounts and to prepare in respect of each financial year of the corporation a statement of accounts<sup>18</sup>.

An instrument of government or articles of government must provide for the appointment, promotion, suspension and dismissal of staff<sup>19</sup> and for the admission, suspension and expulsion of students<sup>20</sup>, and may make provision authorising the corporation to make rules or byelaws for the government and conduct of the institution, including in particular rules or byelaws about the conduct of students, staff or both<sup>21</sup>.

FURTHER EDUCATION/(1) INSTITUTIONS WITHIN THE FURTHER EDUCATION SECTOR/(ii) Further Education Corporations/B. CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNANCE/592. Subsequent instruments of government and articles of government.

592. Subsequent instruments of government and articles of government.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may, after consulting the appropriate learning and skills council<sup>2</sup>:

- 1143 (1) if a further education corporation<sup>3</sup> submits a draft of an instrument of government<sup>4</sup> to have effect in place of its existing instrument, by order make a new instrument of government in terms of the draft or in such terms as he thinks fit<sup>5</sup>; and
- 1144 (2) if such a corporation submits draft modifications of an instrument made under head (1) above, by order modify the instrument in terms of the draft or in such terms as he thinks fit<sup>6</sup>.

He may not, however, make a new instrument otherwise than in terms of the draft, or modify the instrument otherwise than in terms of the draft, unless he has consulted the corporation<sup>7</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by order modify, replace or revoke any instrument of government or articles of government<sup>8</sup> of any further education corporation<sup>9</sup>. Such an order may relate to all further education corporations, to any category of such corporations specified in the order or to any such corporation so specified<sup>10</sup>, but must not be made unless the Secretary of State has consulted the appropriate learning and skills council and each further education corporation to which the order relates<sup>11</sup>.

A further education corporation may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, make new articles of government in place of its existing articles<sup>12</sup>, or modify its existing articles<sup>13</sup>.

The Secretary of State may, by a direction, require further education corporations, any class of such corporations specified in the direction, or any particular further education corporation so specified<sup>14</sup>:

- 1146 (b) to secure that any rules or byelaws made in pursuance of its articles of government are modified, replaced or revoked<sup>16</sup>,

For the purposes of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 Pt I (as amended), a reference to the 'appropriate council', in relation to any educational institution, is to be construed as follows: (1) if the institution mainly serves the population of England, the reference is to the Learning and Skills Council for England; (2) if the institution mainly serves the population of Wales, the reference is to the National Council for Education and Training for Wales; (3) if the institution receives financial support from the other council, the reference is to that council also: s 61A(2) (as so added). FURTHER EDUCATION/(1) INSTITUTIONS WITHIN THE FURTHER EDUCATION SECTOR/(ii) Further Education Corporations/C. POWERS OF FURTHER EDUCATION CORPORATIONS/597. Supplementary powers of a further education corporation.

597. Supplementary powers of a further education corporation.

A further education corporation<sup>1</sup> may do anything which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of or in connection with the exercise of any of its principal powers<sup>2</sup>. In particular, a further education corporation may conduct an educational institution for the purpose of carrying on activities undertaken in the exercise of its powers to provide further or higher education<sup>3</sup> and, in particular, may assume as from the operative date<sup>4</sup> the conduct of the institution in respect of which the corporation is established<sup>5</sup>. A further education corporation may provide facilities of any description appearing to the corporation to be necessary or desirable for the purposes of or in connection with carrying on any activities undertaken in the exercise of its principal powers (including boarding accommodation and recreational facilities for students and staff and facilities to meet the needs of students having learning difficulties)<sup>6</sup>.

- 1154 (1) acquire and dispose of land<sup>7</sup> and other property<sup>8</sup>;
- 1155 (2) enter into contracts, including in particular: (a) contracts for the employment<sup>9</sup> of teachers and other staff for the purposes of or in connection with carrying on any activities undertaken in the exercise of its principal powers<sup>10</sup>; and (b) contracts with respect to the carrying on by the corporation of any such activities<sup>11</sup>;
- 1156 (3) subscribe for or otherwise acquire shares in or securities of a company<sup>12</sup>;
- 1157 (4) borrow such sums as the corporation thinks fit for the purposes of carrying on any activities it has power to carry on or meeting any liability<sup>13</sup> transferred to it<sup>14</sup> and, in connection with such borrowing, may grant any mortgage, charge or other security in respect of any land or other property of the corporation<sup>15</sup>;
- 1158 (5) invest any sums not immediately required for the purposes of carrying on any activities it has power to carry on<sup>16</sup>;
- 1159 (6) accept gifts of money, land or other property and apply it, or hold and administer it on trust for, any of those purposes<sup>17</sup>; and
- 1160 (7) do anything incidental to the conduct of an educational institution providing further or higher education, including founding scholarships or exhibitions, making grants and giving prizes<sup>18</sup>.

5 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 19(2).

6 Ibid s 19(3) (amended by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 149, Sch 9 paras 1, 22). A person has a learning difficulty if: (1) he has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of persons of his age; or (2) he has a disability which either prevents or hinders him from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided by institutions within the further education sector for persons of his age: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 19(6) (s 19(6), (7) added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 22). A person is not, however, to be taken to have a learning difficulty solely because the language (or form of language) in which he is or will be taught is different from a language (or form of language) which has at any time been spoken in his home: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 19(7) (as so added). 11 Ibid s 19(4)(b)(ii).

12 Ibid s 19(4)(bb) (added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 22). This power may not be exercised for the purpose of conducting an educational institution (Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 19(4A) (s 19(4A)-(4C) added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 22)), nor may it be exercised for the purpose of the provision of education if the provision is secured (wholly or partly) by financial resources provided by the Learning and Skills Council for England or the National Council for Education and Training for Wales (Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 19(4B) (as so added)). However, the restriction in s 19(4B) (as added) does not apply to the extent that the council concerned consents to the exercise of the power conferred by s 19(4)(bb) (as added) in a way which does not comply with that restriction: s 19(4C) (as so added). As to the Learning and Skills Council for England see PARA 1072 et seq post; and as to the National Council for Education and Training for Wales see PARA 1113 et seq post. 15 Ibid s 19(4)(c). This power to borrow money may not be exercised without the consent of the appropriate learning and skills council, and such consent may be given for particular borrowing or for borrowing of a particular class: s 19(5). The Further and Higher Education Act 1992 Pt I (ss 15-61A) (as amended) refers to a 'council' but for the purposes of that Part, any reference to a council is a reference to a learning and skills council: s 61A(1) (added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 37). For the purposes of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 Pt I (as amended), a reference to the 'appropriate council', in relation to any educational institution, is to be construed as follows: (1) if the institution mainly serves the population of England, the reference is to the Learning and Skills Council for England; (2) if the institution mainly serves the population of Wales, the reference is to the National Council for Education and Training for Wales; (3) if the institution receives financial support from the other council, the reference is to that council also: s 61A(2) (as so added). Halsbury's Laws of England/EDUCATION (VOLUME 15(1) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 1-578; VOLUME 15(2) (2006 REISSUE) PARAS 579-1437)/3. FURTHER EDUCATION/(1) INSTITUTIONS WITHIN THE FURTHER EDUCATION SECTOR/(ii) Further Education Corporations/D. DISSOLUTION/598. Dissolution of further education corporations.

D. DISSOLUTION

598. Dissolution of further education corporations.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by order provide for the dissolution of any further education corporation<sup>2</sup> and the transfer of property, rights and liabilities<sup>3</sup> of the corporation<sup>4</sup> to:

- 1161 (1) any person appearing to the Secretary of State to be wholly or mainly engaged in the provision of educational facilities or services of any description<sup>5</sup>;
- 1162 (2) any body corporate established for purposes which include the provision of such facilities or services<sup>6</sup>;
- 1163 (3) a learning and skills council<sup>7</sup>; or
- 1164 (4) a Higher Education Funding Council<sup>8</sup>.

A transfer under head (1) or head (2) above requires the consent of the person or body in question<sup>9</sup>.

Where the recipient of a transfer under any such order is not a charity<sup>10</sup> established for charitable purposes<sup>11</sup> which are exclusively educational purposes, any property transferred must be transferred on trust to be used for charitable purposes which are exclusively educational purposes<sup>12</sup>.

Before making an order in respect of a further education corporation, the Secretary of State must consult: (a) the corporation<sup>13</sup>; and (b) the appropriate learning and skills council<sup>14</sup>, unless the order was made for the purpose of giving effect to a proposal of that council<sup>15</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'further education corporation' see PARA 579 note 3 ante.

3 As to references to the transfer of rights or liabilities see PARA 586 note 9 ante. As to the meaning of 'liability' see PARA 586 note 7 ante.

4 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 27(1). An order under s 27 may apply the provisions of s 26 (as amended) (transfer of staff: see PARA 589 ante) with such modifications as the Secretary of State may consider necessary or desirable: s 27(6). Orders under s 27 are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

Stamp duty is not chargeable in respect of any transfer effected under or by virtue of s 27: s 88(1). However, no instrument (other than a statutory instrument) made or executed under or in pursuance of s 27 is to be treated as duly stamped unless it is stamped with the duty to which it would, but for s 88 (and, if applicable, the Finance Act 1982 s 129 (as amended) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1093)), be liable or it has, in accordance with the provisions of the Stamp Act 1891 s 12 (as substituted) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1111), been stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty or that it has been duly stamped: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88(2). A land transaction effected under or by virtue of s 27 is also exempt from charge for the purposes of stamp duty land tax: s 88A(1) (s 88A added by the Stamp Duty Land Tax (Consequential Amendment of Enactments) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2867, reg 2, Schedule Pt 1 para 18). Relief under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88A (as added) must be claimed in a land transaction return or an amendment of such a return: s 88A(2) (as so added). For the meanings of 'land transaction' and 'land transaction return' see PARA 587 note 8 ante.

6 Ibid s 27(2)(b).

7 Ibid s 27(3)(a). The Further and Higher Education Act 1992 Pt I (ss 15-61A) (as amended) refers to a 'council' but for the purposes of that Part, any reference to a council is a reference to a learning and skills council: s 61A(1) (s 61A added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 149, Sch 9 paras 1, 37). For the purposes of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, the learning and skills councils are the Learning and Skills Council for England and the National Council for Education and Training for Wales: s 90(2A) (added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 41). As to the Learning and Skills Council for England see PARA 1072 et seq post; and as to the National Council for Education and Training for Wales see PARA 1113 et seq post. If, in construing any Act, a dispute arises as to whether any functions are exercisable by one of the learning and skills councils, the dispute must be determined by the Secretary of State after consulting the National Assembly for Wales: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 90(2B) (added by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 Sch 9 paras 1, 41).

11 'Charitable purposes' has the same meaning as in the Charities Act 1993 (see CHARITIES vol 8 (2010) PARA 2): Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 27(5); and see the Interpretation Act 1978 s 17(2)(a). As to the charitable status of further education corporations see PARA 595 ante.

The Secretary of State must not make such an order in respect of a voluntary aided school without the consent of the governing body<sup>12</sup> and the local education authority<sup>13</sup>.

FURTHER EDUCATION/(1) INSTITUTIONS WITHIN THE FURTHER EDUCATION SECTOR/(iii) Designated Institutions/A. DESIGNATION OF INSTITUTIONS/600. Transfer of property etc to designated institutions.

600. Transfer of property etc to designated institutions.

In any case where the order designating an institution<sup>1</sup> so provides<sup>2</sup>, and when designated the institution was a voluntary aided school<sup>3</sup> or an institution (other than a school<sup>4</sup>) assisted by a local education authority<sup>5</sup>, then on the designation date<sup>6</sup> all land<sup>7</sup> or other property which, immediately before that date, was property of a former assisting authority<sup>8</sup> used or held for the purposes of the institution<sup>9</sup>, and all rights and liabilities<sup>10</sup> of that authority subsisting immediately before that date which were acquired or incurred for those purposes<sup>11</sup>, are to be transferred to and, by virtue of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, vest in the appropriate transferees<sup>12</sup>. However, this does not apply to: (1) any liability of a former assisting authority in respect of the principal of, or interest on, any loan<sup>13</sup>; or (2) any excluded<sup>14</sup> property, rights or liabilities<sup>15</sup>.

If, before the designation date, the appropriate transferees and the former assisting authority have agreed in writing to exclude any land<sup>16</sup>, and the Secretary of State has given his written approval of the agreement<sup>17</sup>, then the land, and any rights or liabilities relating to it, are to be excluded<sup>18</sup>. If, in default of such agreement, the appropriate transferees or the former assisting authority have applied to the Secretary of State to exclude any land<sup>19</sup>, and the Secretary of State has by order directed its exclusion<sup>20</sup>, then the land, and any rights or liabilities relating to it, are to be excluded<sup>21</sup>. An agreement<sup>22</sup> may provide for the land to be used for the purposes of the institution on such terms as may be specified in or determined in accordance with the agreement<sup>23</sup>; and directions<sup>24</sup> may confer any rights or impose any liabilities that could have been conferred or imposed by such an agreement<sup>25</sup>, and are to have effect as if contained in such an agreement<sup>26</sup>.

9 Ibid s 32(2)(a). Where at any time land is used for the purposes of an institution, any interest of a local authority in the land subsisting at that time is to be taken for the purposes of s 32 (as amended) to be land held for the purposes of that institution (whether or not it is by virtue of that interest that the land is so used): s 33(3). Subject to s 36(2) (see PARA 1397 post), where persons appearing to the Secretary of State to be trustees holding property for the purposes of the institution are the appropriate transferee, any land or other property or rights transferred to them under s 32 (as amended) must be held on the trusts applicable under such trust deed relating to or regulating that institution (if any) as may be specified in the order designating the institution or, if no such trust deed is so specified, on trust for the general purposes of the institution: s 33(1). Where persons so appearing to the Secretary of State are the appropriate transferee, they incur no personal liability by virtue of any liability so transferred but may apply any property held by them on trust for the purposes of the institution in meeting any such liability: s 33(2). As to the meaning of 'trust deed' see PARA 104 note 6 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 90(5) (amended by the Education Act 1996 s 582(1), Sch 37 Pt I para 115(1), (3); and the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 33, 46). Stamp duty is not chargeable in respect of any transfer effected under or by virtue of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 32 (as amended): s 88(1). However, no instrument (other than a statutory instrument) made or executed under or in pursuance of s 32 (as amended) is to be treated as duly stamped unless it is stamped with the duty to which it would, but for s 88 (and, if applicable, the Finance Act 1982 s 129 (as amended) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1093)), be liable or it has, in accordance with the provisions of the Stamp Act 1891 s 12 (as substituted) (see STAMP DUTIES AND STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1111), been stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty or that it has been duly stamped: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88(2). A land transaction effected under or by virtue of s 32 (as amended) is also exempt from charge for the purposes of stamp duty land tax: s 88A(1) (s 88A added by the Stamp Duty Land Tax (Consequential Amendment of Enactments) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/2867, reg 2, Schedule Pt 1 para 18). Relief under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 88A (as added) must be claimed in a land transaction return or an amendment of such a return: s 88A(2) (as so added). For the meanings of 'land transaction' and 'land transaction return' see PARA 587 note 8 ante.

FURTHER EDUCATION/(1) INSTITUTIONS WITHIN THE FURTHER EDUCATION SECTOR/(iii) Designated Institutions/B. CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNANCE/601. Requirement for instruments of government and articles of government.

B. CONSTITUTION AND GOVERNANCE

601. Requirement for instruments of government and articles of government.

For each designated institution<sup>1</sup>, other than an institution conducted by a company<sup>2</sup> or an institution conducted by an unincorporated association if the order designating the institution provides for its exemption<sup>3</sup>, there must be:

- 1167 (1) an instrument providing for the constitution of a governing body<sup>4</sup> of the institution (the 'instrument of government')<sup>5</sup>; and
- 1168 (2) an instrument in accordance with which the institution is to be conducted (the 'articles of government')<sup>6</sup>.

Each of the instruments must meet the following requirements<sup>7</sup>, namely that:

- 1169 (a) the instrument was in force when the designation took effect and is approved for these purposes by the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup>;
- 1170 (b) the instrument is made in pursuance of a power under a regulatory instrument<sup>9</sup>, or is made by the governing body of the institution<sup>10</sup>, and is approved for these purposes by the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup>; or
- 1171 (c) the instrument is made<sup>12</sup> by the Secretary of State<sup>13</sup>.

If an instrument approved by the Secretary of State for these purposes falls within head (a) above or was made in pursuance of a power under a regulatory instrument and there is no power<sup>14</sup> to modify it, or was made by the governing body of the institution, then the instrument may be modified by the governing body<sup>15</sup>. The Secretary of State may by order modify, replace or revoke either of the instruments referred to in heads (1) and (2) above<sup>16</sup>. No instrument approved by him for these purposes may be modified, replaced or revoked by any other person without the Secretary of State's consent<sup>17</sup>.

Notwithstanding anything in the provisions described above, the instrument of government of a designated institution which, when designated, was a voluntary aided school<sup>18</sup> and the instrument of government of an institution specified, or falling within a class specified, by the Secretary of State by order<sup>19</sup> must provide: (i) for the governing body of the institution to include persons appointed for the purpose of securing so far as practicable that the established character of the institution<sup>20</sup> at the time of its designation is preserved and developed and, in particular, that the institution is conducted in accordance with any trust deed relating to it<sup>21</sup>; and (ii) for the majority of members of the governing body to be such governors<sup>22</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'designated institution' see PARA 579 note 4 ante.

2 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 29(1)(a), (2). As to designated institutions conducted by companies see PARA 602 post.

3 Ibid s 29(1)(b), (2).

4 For the meaning of 'governing body' see PARA 584 note 5 ante.

5 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 29(2)(a). Provision made by the instrument in relation to the appointment of members of the governing body is to take into account the members who may be appointed by the Learning and Skills Council for England under the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 11 (see PARA 593 ante) or by the National Council for Education and Training for Wales under the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 39 (see PARA 593 ante); Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 29(2), (7A) (s 29(2) amended, and s 29(7A) added, by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 149, Sch 9 paras 1, 24). 8 Ibid s 29(3)(a). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 52 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the National Assembly for Wales see PARA 53 ante.

9 For the purposes of ibid s 29 (as amended), 'regulatory instrument', in relation to an institution, means any instrument of government or articles of government and any other instrument relating to or regulating the institution: s 29(4).

10 Ie under ibid s 29(5). Where there is no such power as is mentioned in head (b) in the text to make the instrument, it may be made by the governing body of the institution: s 29(5). Such an instrument made by the governing body may replace wholly or partly any existing regulatory instrument: s 29(5).

12 Ie under ibid s 29(6). The Secretary of State may by order make either of the instruments referred to in heads (1) and (2) in the text: s 29(6). As to the making of orders under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 generally see PARA 585 note 6 ante. Any such instrument made by him may replace wholly or partly any existing regulatory instrument: s 29(6).

Before exercising any power under s 29(6) or s 29(8) (see the text and note 16 infra) in relation to any instrument, the Secretary of State must, so far as it appears to him to be practicable to do so, consult: (1) the governing body of the institution; and (2) where there is such a power as is mentioned in head (b) in the text to make or, as the case may be, modify the instrument and the persons having that power are different from the governing body of the institution, the persons having the power: s 29(9).

Orders under s 29(6), (8) and s 30(2)(b) (as substituted) (see the text and note 19 infra) are not made by statutory instrument: see s 89(2) (amended by the Learning and Skills Act 2000 s 149, Sch 9 paras 1, 40).

19 Ibid s 30(1), (2)(b) (as substituted: see note 18 supra). The Secretary of State may specify an institution or a class of institutions only if the institution or each member of the class is principally concerned with the provision of the education specified in s 28(1)(a) (see PARA 599 ante): s 30(3) (as so substituted). See note 12 supra.

20 The reference in ibid s 30(1)(a) (as substituted) to the established character of an institution is, in relation to an institution established shortly before or at the same time as being designated, a reference to the character which the institution is intended to have on its establishment: s 30(4) (as substituted: see note 18 supra).

However, the governing body of a community or foundation special school<sup>4</sup> may not determine to provide, or to cease to provide, such education without the consent of the local education authority<sup>5</sup>.

It is the duty of the governing body of any such school which provides such education to secure that, except in such circumstances as may be prescribed<sup>6</sup>, such education is not provided at any time in a room where pupils<sup>7</sup> are at that time being taught<sup>8</sup>.

Transfer of employees where local authority property is made available for use by an institution within the further education sector.

(iii) Employees

616. Transfer of employees where local authority property is made available for use by an institution within the further education sector.

Where an order is made<sup>1</sup> for the purpose of making any property of a local authority<sup>2</sup> available for use for the purposes of an institution within the further education sector<sup>3</sup>, and:

- 1196 (1) at any time on or after such date as may be specified by the order a person employed by the local authority ceases to be so employed and is subsequently employed by the governing body<sup>4</sup> of the institution<sup>5</sup>; and
- 1197 (2) that subsequent employment precludes<sup>6</sup> his receiving any redundancy payment under Part XI of the Employment Rights Act 1996<sup>7</sup>,

Similarly, the period of that person's employment with the local authority counts as a period of employment with the governing body for the purposes of any provision of his contract of employment with the governing body which depends on his length of service with that employer<sup>11</sup>.

617. Remuneration of employees.

Where, in consequence of a determination by the local education authority<sup>1</sup> or any other person of the rate of remuneration of any employees<sup>2</sup>, the rate of remuneration of any relevant employees<sup>3</sup> would be increased<sup>4</sup> as from a date (the 'proposed date of increase') falling after 1 September 1992<sup>5</sup>, the authority:

Where the Secretary of State receives a notification under head (1) above, he must, before the end of the period of four weeks beginning with the day on which he received the notification, either: (a) authorise the increase resulting from the determination so far as it relates to relevant employees<sup>9</sup>; or (b) afford to the authority, and to such persons appearing to him to be representative of relevant employees affected by the determination as he considers appropriate, an opportunity of making representations to him in respect of the determination<sup>10</sup>. After considering any representations made to him under head (b) above, the Secretary of State must authorise the increase resulting from the determination<sup>11</sup> or refuse to authorise the increase<sup>12</sup>, so far as it relates to relevant employees<sup>13</sup>. The Secretary of State must give written notification of any decision<sup>14</sup> to the local education authority and to any other persons who made representations<sup>15</sup> to him<sup>16</sup>.

Where a relevant employee is not paid at the new rate on the proposed date of increase<sup>17</sup>, but the Secretary of State authorises the increase after that date<sup>18</sup>, then the employee concerned is to be regarded<sup>19</sup> as having been entitled under his contract of employment<sup>20</sup> to be paid by the local education authority at the new rate as from the proposed date of increase<sup>21</sup>.

623. Collective worship.

In relation to any institution within the further education sector<sup>1</sup> which is principally concerned with the provision of full-time education suitable to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age<sup>2</sup> who have not attained the age of 19 years<sup>3</sup>, the governing body<sup>4</sup> must ensure that at an appropriate time on at least one day in each week during which the institution is open an act of collective worship is held at the institution which persons receiving education at the institution may attend<sup>5</sup>.

In an institution of voluntary origin<sup>6</sup> the act of collective worship must be in such forms as to comply with the provisions of any trust deed<sup>7</sup> affecting the institution<sup>8</sup>, and must reflect the religious traditions and practices of the institution before it joined the further education sector<sup>9</sup>. In all other institutions, the act of collective worship must be wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character in that it must reflect the broad traditions of Christian belief but need not be distinctive of any particular Christian denomination<sup>10</sup>.

If the governing body of an institution considers it appropriate to do so, it may also provide for acts of worship<sup>11</sup> which reflect the practices of some or all of the other religious traditions represented in Great Britain<sup>12</sup>.

624. Religious education.

In relation to any institution within the further education sector<sup>1</sup> which is principally concerned with the provision of full-time education suitable to the requirements of persons over compulsory school age<sup>2</sup> who have not attained the age of 19 years<sup>3</sup>, the governing body<sup>4</sup> must ensure that religious education is provided at the institution for all persons attending the institution who wish to receive it<sup>5</sup>. The governing body is deemed to be fulfilling this duty if religious education is provided at a time or times at which it is convenient for the majority of full-time students to attend<sup>6</sup>.

For these purposes, religious education may take the form of a course of lectures or classes or of single lectures or classes provided on a regular basis and may include a course of study leading to an examination or the award of a qualification<sup>7</sup>. The form and content of religious education provided is to be determined from time to time by the governing body of the institution<sup>8</sup>. In the case of an institution of voluntary origin<sup>9</sup>, the form and content of religious education must be in accordance with the provisions of any trust deed affecting the institution<sup>10</sup>, and must not be contrary to the religious traditions of the institution before it joined the further education sector<sup>11</sup>. In the case of all other institutions, the form and content of religious education must reflect the fact that religious traditions in Great Britain<sup>12</sup> are in the main Christian whilst taking account of the teaching and practices of the other principal religions represented in Great Britain<sup>13</sup>.

644. Attribution of surpluses and deficits where an educational institution becomes an institution within the further education sector.

Where, immediately before the date on which any educational institution becomes an institution within the further education sector<sup>1</sup>: (1) it is maintained by a local education authority<sup>2</sup>; or (2) it is a designated assisted institution<sup>3</sup> dependent on assistance from a local education authority<sup>4</sup>, and in the financial year ending immediately before that date (the 'relevant financial year') the institution was covered by an applicable scheme<sup>5</sup>, then:

1217 (a) if the net expenditure<sup>6</sup> of the institution for the relevant financial year is less than the net budget share<sup>7</sup> of the institution for that year, the assisting authority<sup>8</sup> must pay to the new governing body of the institution a sum equal to the shortfall<sup>9</sup>;

1218 (b) if the net expenditure of the institution for the relevant financial year is greater than the net budget share of the institution for that year, the new governing body of the institution must pay to the assisting authority a sum equal to the excess<sup>10</sup>.

Any sum payable under the provisions described above must be paid in accordance with regulations, and the regulations may provide for sums to be payable by prescribed instalments and for sums to carry prescribed interest<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to references to institutions within the further education sector see PARA 579 ante.

2 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 37(1)(a) As to local education authorities see PARA 20 ante.

3 For these purposes, references to a designated assisted institution are references to an institution designated by or under regulations made, or having effect as if made, under the Education Reform Act 1988 s 218(10)(b) (repealed) as an institution substantially dependent for its maintenance on assistance from local education authorities: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 37(8)(a). As to assistance by a local education authority see PARA 45 ante. The Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 37(8)(a) is repealed as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

4 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 37(1)(b). For these purposes, a designated assisted institution is to be regarded as dependent on assistance from a local education authority if it is assisted by that authority and either: (1) it is not assisted by any other local education authority; or (2) that authority provides a larger proportion than any other local education authority by whom the institution is assisted of the aggregate amount of the sums received by the governing body of the institution during any financial year by way of assistance from such authorities in respect of the expenses of maintaining the institution: s 37(9). For the meaning of 'governing body' see PARA 584 note 5 ante. For the meaning of 'financial year' see PARA 68 note 9 ante; definition applied by s 37(7) (amended by the Education Act 1996 s 582(1), Sch 37 para 110(3)).

The Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 37(1)(b), (9) is repealed as from a day to be appointed under the Education Act 2002 s 216(4). At the date at which this volume states the law, no such day had been appointed.

5 Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 37(1) (amended by the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 140(1), Sch 30 paras 33, 40). The scheme referred to in the text is a scheme under the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 s 48 (as amended): see PARA 318 ante.

6 For these purposes, in respect of any financial year of the institution, 'net expenditure' means any expenditure, less such amount as may be prescribed in respect of earned income: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 37(4). 'Expenditure' means such expenditure for the purposes of the institution incurred in the relevant financial year by the former governing body or the assisting authority as may be prescribed: s 37(7). 'Earned income' means any sums, other than sums appropriated for the purposes of the institution by the assisting authority, received by the institution in respect of the relevant financial year which the institution is authorised under the applicable scheme to retain: s 37(7). 'Former governing body' means the governing body of the institution immediately before the operative date; and 'new governing body' means the governing body of the institution on or after that date: s 37(7). For the meaning of 'operative date' see PARAS 583 note 4, 584 note 10 ante. 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations: s 37(8)(b). 'Surplus' means the amount of any surplus which the institution is authorised under the applicable scheme to carry forward to the relevant financial year: Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 37(7).

Regulations may, in the case of any institution where the operative date falls within a financial year in which the institution was covered by such a scheme as is referred to in s 37(1) (as amended) (see the text and notes 1-5 supra), make provision for applying s 37 (as amended) with modifications relating to the amounts that are to be taken for the purposes of s 37 (as amended) to be the net budget share and the net expenditure of the institution for that year: s 37(6). ## (ii) Meaning and Use of the Term 'University'

648. Meaning of 'university'.

'University' is not a term of art, and although the institutions to which it refers are readily identifiable, precise and accurate definition is difficult<sup>1</sup>. It has been described as the whole body of teachers and scholars engaged, at a particular place, in giving and receiving instruction in the higher branches of learning; such persons associated together as a society or corporate body, with definite organisation and acknowledged powers and privileges (especially that of conferring degrees), and forming an institution for the promotion of education in the higher or more important branches of learning; also, the colleges, buildings and other property belonging to such a body<sup>2</sup>. Until the enactment of the Further and Higher Education Act 1992, which made new provision for the powers of higher education institutions to award degrees and to style themselves as universities<sup>3</sup>, the essential feature of a university seems to have been that it was incorporated<sup>4</sup> as such by the sovereign power.

Other attributes of a university appear to be the admission of students from all parts of the world, a plurality of masters, the teaching of one at least of the higher faculties, namely theology, law or philosophy (which in some definitions are regarded as identical) and medicine, provision for residence, and the right to confer degrees; but possession of these attributes will not make an institution a university in the absence of any express intention of the sovereign power to make it one<sup>5</sup>.

A university involves the relation of tutor and pupil; it is charged with the supervision and upbringing of the pupil under tuition<sup>7</sup>.

2 See in the Oxford English Dictionary. 'In our modern languages the Roman term ['universitas'] that most nearly answered to our corporation stands for the corporations of one small class, the learned corporations that were founded in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and others that in later days were fashioned after their likeness. These were in the Middle Ages the corporations by pre-eminence, and if the universities of Oxford and Cambridge cared to assert that they are the oldest of English corporations something might be said in favour of their claim': Pollock and Maitland History of English Law before the time of Edward I (2nd Edn) (1898, reissued 1968) 495.

3 See the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 76 (see PARA 727 post), s 77 (as amended) (see PARA 649 post). That Act also provides a statutory definition of the term (see PARA 646 note 8 ante) which is also applied, without the provisos, in the Education (No 2) Act 1986 s 43(6) (see PARA 12 note 1 ante) and the Education Reform Act 1988 s 235(1) (see PARA 658 note 4 post).

649. Use of 'university' in title of institution.

Where power is conferred by any enactment or instrument to change the name of any educational institution or any body corporate<sup>1</sup> carrying on such an institution, and the institution is within the higher education sector<sup>2</sup>, then, if the said power is exercisable with the consent of the Privy Council, it may be exercised with the consent of the Privy Council so as to include the word 'university' in the name of the institution and, if it is carried on by a body corporate, in the name of the body<sup>3</sup>. Any educational institution whose name includes the word 'university' by virtue of the exercise of any such power<sup>4</sup> is treated as a university for all purposes, unless in that name that word is immediately followed by the word 'college' or 'collegiate'<sup>5</sup>.

In exercising any such power<sup>6</sup> to consent to a change in any name the Privy Council must have regard to the need to avoid names which are or may be confusing<sup>7</sup>.

1 The reference to a power to change the name of an institution or body includes any power (however expressed and whether or not subject to any conditions or restrictions) in the exercise of which the name of the institution or body may be changed; but the power as extended by the Further and Higher Education Act 1992 s 77(1) has effect subject to any such conditions or restrictions: s 77(2).
